The Late Mrs. Lawrence

(By our Popular Place Correspondent)

It is our painful duty to record the death of another old pioneer of Glenelg, Mrs. Samuel Lawrence, who passed to her reward on Wednesday, March 28th, 1913, at the age of 76 years and ten months.

Ann Parslow, her maiden name, was born in Wicklow, Ireland where her both parents died. She came to Proton township while a young woman. Consequently, she was familiar with the hardships of pioneer life. In 1857 she was married to Mr. Samuel Lawrence, who predeceased her on the 10th of March 1907.

There has been a remarkable record. To them were born thirteen children, ten of whom are living—John in Los Angeles, California; Martha, Mrs. Jas. Mack, New Westminster, B. C.; Mary Ann, Mrs. Jas. Hopkins, Glenelg; Sarah, Mrs. D. Maclean, Kamloops, B. C.; Eliza, Mrs. A. E. Hill, Vancouver, B. C.; George, Milden, Sask.; Thomas, New Port, B. C.; Samuel, Revelstoke, B. C.; Kate Mrs. J. W. Jenkins, Revelstoke, B. C.; Ellen, Mrs. C. W. Arnett, on the old homestead, Glenelg; where deceased died and who so faithfully cared for her and who so faithfully cared for her mother during her last illness. The deceased are Victoria, Mrs. Gibson, Vancouver, B. C.; Alice, Mrs. Jenkins, Kamloops, B. C.; and Doretta, who died in infancy.

Her brothers and sisters are deceased except Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Boothville, Egremont. Besides Mrs. Wilson and her ten children, she leaves to mourn her loss thirty eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Three daughters were present at her death bed. Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Arnett. In religion Mrs. Lawrence was a member of the church of England. She was a kind loving wife and mother and always ready to help in time of sickness or trouble.

She was a model pioneer and lived to enjoy the fruits of her early hardships and still more to enjoy the love and affection of a large family. She bore her last illness with christian resignation and at the closing scenes of her life she was not afraid to enter the unseen world as she testified by expressing that she was ready to depart whenever it was the Lord's will and to be relieved of the troubles and trials which she so often had to endure in this life from bodily illness. She was confined to her bed for over four months with liver trouble.

To the sons and daughters in the far away West the news of death of their beloved mother will be to them a message of sorrow. Although they are thousands of miles away their thoughts will come back as fast as electricity to the home of their early childhood. When they received the sad news about three years ago she had the pleasure of visiting all of them in their own homes. On her coffin were beautiful flowers supplied by children and grandchildren. Rev. Mr. Hartley her pastor, conducted the sermon at the house and grave. A large crowd paid the last tribute of respect. The remains were taken to the English church cemetery and laid beside her late husband. The pallbearers were six nephews, George Wesley Parslow, John Parslow, John Lawrence, Philip Lawrence, James Wilson, and Willie Lawrence. The funeral was well conducted by undertaker Mr. Allan Bell of Durham.

We are sorry to say Mr. B. Hartford is quite low at present.

Miss Annie and Agnes McGirr returned to their duties at Eric and Shelbourne respectively, on Saturday last.

Mr. M. McInnes bought a fine bunch of fat cattle in our burg last week.

Miss Mildred Hopkins returned to Toronto on Monday morn.

Miss Elizabeth Scott spent part of Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Parslow, Artemesia.

Our New Post Office

Title in a Tangle

The presence in town on Monday and Tuesday of a government surveying party, taking measurements and bearings for the new Post Office on the Town Hall site drew attention vividly to the knotty question.

It will be remembered the town and Mr. Hahn each gave options on their respective properties some time ago. These it seems the government have accepted and are now asking the parties to remove the buildings and accept the money consideration.

But now comes the trouble. It has long been known that a cloud hangs over the title to the Town Hall site. It was given as a gift by Mr. Middaugh for a specific purpose: as a site for a town hall and though the deed does not in so many words say that on a reversion from this purpose the property will revert to the Middaugh estate, there is a strong implication that such is the intention and we believe the town solicitor gives it as his opinion that such is the interpretation.

The government as may be expected does not want to take over with the property any legal trouble as to title and expects the town to bear this responsibility. This is by no means a pleasing prospect for the town either, but it may be now too late to recede, for in giving the option we believe no mention was made of a clouded title. It is even said that the government will appropriate and pay the money into court, letting the town establish their claim to it as best they may.

This is an unhappy situation and we think the government with all its power should not press the town too closely. If no other site were available, expropriation would be justified, but when such an eligible corner site as we have always advocated, is available, with no cloud on the title, at a greatly reduced initial expense why in the name of common sense rush the town into trouble.

The Council are no doubt aware of the UNCERTAIN trouble ahead if this deed is consummated, such as the cost and risk involved in moving the present old building, risk also in crossing the Garraux St. bridge, risk also in meeting a windstorm and lastly the likelihood of a decreased revenue from the old town hall. If to certain trouble is added the UNCERTAIN trouble of having to fight for the purchase price, with perhaps an unsatisfactory result, it can be seen that no path of roses is ahead.

Nor we believe is Mr. Hahn without trouble. His sever runs through the deed property and of course the government will take no responsibility for this, nor can Mr. Hahn do without. So its trouble all round on this pesky site.

If the government and council could hear and heed the voice of the town we believe that voice would say "Take no risks, leave the Hall where it is and take the George St. site."

A New Industry

Small at First but Welcome

The Council last week completed the purchase of the McKechnie Sash and Door Factory, the price being $1500 and this with some other considerations will be presented to Messrs. Furbur and Jacobs the experts who are going to start the new industry of window stripping, ventilators, &c. It seems there are four of them in the business and a request has come to secure for them four houses all being married men. A by-law is being prepared by Council and will be submitted to ratepayers before long.

The new firm are to be treated to the usual exemption for a term of years and to have the privilege of buying the property at any time. They are beginning in a modest way but expect to develop.

Rev. Mr. Young, who preached two powerful sermons on Sunday last will again occupy the Presbyterian pulpit here on Sunday next.

Mrs. Catherine Coutts, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. John Duns, Moore, returned to her home in Toronto Wednesday.

Died This Morning.

After a critical illness of a few days with appendicitis, John Joseph Burns a 12 year old boy, son of Mr. John Burns, Aberdeen, was operated on Tuesday night by Dr. Groves, Fergus, assisted by local doctors. The case, it seems, had too far progressed previously, for he survived little over a day after, passing away at 5 a. m. this Thursday. He was at the home of his uncle, Mr. Dan McAuliffe, upper town, for treatment. The funeral will leave Mr. McAuliffe's residence on Saturday morning for interment in Glenelg Centre R. C. Cemetery. Much sympathy is extended the sorrowing relatives over the early demise of a bright lad.
