Russia and the Balkans. Industry of the part. duced.

of public sentiment. Perhaps since and preparation for peace.

billion bushels. The average yield Companion. of France amounts to 400,000,000 bushels. The Germans are good ly three and one-third pounds for ing, etc.

they are the food gift of the new times each day. of the German nation.

SERVIA AS A NATION.

It Originated in the First Half of the Seventh Century.

when the Avaric empire of desolation was established on the Danube. two tribes, the Coats and the Serbs, retiring before the ravages of the Tartar horsemen, settled in the countries now known as Croatia, Bosnia, and Servia.

The country rose to great heights under Stephen Dushan, the czar of the Serbs, but after his death Murad I. conquered the country, and it was not until 1815 that the Serbs ed the little girl's mother, as she partially threw off the Turkish paused to look at some very strange of the press.

A Lucky Dog.

"Brown's a luck dog." "What's he been doing now?" "You know that $1,000 he inher- write. ited a year ago?" "Yes."

"Well, he still has it."

Gangrene is the death of a part of the living body. Sometimes it them; there will be no conscrip- results from an injury, such as tion under Asquith and Lloyd- burning or frost-bite, or from a George, even though Shaw, the surgical operation. Sometimes it The narrative intervening besocialist, has indersed conscription. is the consequence of a physical tween the lesson for March 16 and Germany is arming against Pan- Whatever the cause or whatever the betrothal and marriage of Isaac slavism and against France. France form it takes, it means that the ob- and Rebekah, the birth of Esau and is arming against Germany. Aus- struction to circulation has been so Jacob and the descendants of Ishtria, largely Slav, is arming against complete as to prevent local nutri- mael. The longer passage assigned by looking facts in the face, by rea- the blood finds it is difficult to force tire chapter is essential.

first livid, turns to blue and then ing; but his sense of touch was less standing up just in front of the to black. Treatment, to be of value, impaired. Will not some level-headed ruler must be prompt. The poison of Esau-Hairy and These sensitive spots, together said, "I must make use of this fine suggest another conference for the gangrene is at first local; but if it rougher than Jacob's. Rebekah with the fine nervous network of day, and ripen my fruit that it may discussion of armament limitation? neglected and enters the system, the clark of the entire head and wings, are all the situation becomes grave. Even the situation becomes grave. Even the situation becomes grave. Even the song of aspiration the clark of the situation becomes grave. Even the situation becomes grave and situation becomes grave. Even the situation becomes grave and situation becomes grave and situation becomes grave. Even the situation becomes grave and situation becomes grave and situation becomes grave and situation becomes grave. Even the situation becomes grave and situat amputation of the diseased member her younger son; and she put the and with the brain. As the bat flies may not save life.

then experience has taught the As impaired circulation is at the his hand, and upon the smooth of out a succession of air-waves or world that, after all, the best way root of the trouble, the treatment his neck" (vs. 15 and 16). to peace lies in the cultivation of must try to restore the circulation, and combat the inflammation. Local warm irrigations, or mandages of sion. The Germans are the greatest hot flannels may be used. Gangrene producers of potatoes in the world. is not a matter for home treat-They have increased the production ment, except under the constant nual output is one and one-half consumers of potatoes as well as The causes of sore throat are:- The poem that follows reflects not good producers. An inquiry insti- Inhalation of dust and irritating so much the personal history of vapors, as tobacco smoke, smoke of Jacob as the fortunes of the nation fic reader will probably understand. The cildren were growing quite tuted recently showed that potatoes smelting furnaces, factory dust, Israel, and these at a time when were the chief diet of the poorer etc.; too sudden cooling of the sur- Israel was already in possession of classes of the population. The fam- face of the body; draughts, especi- the promised land, especially durily budgets of thirty families were ally in cool or cold weather; the ing the prosperous days of David published and this is what was re- use of ice water or iced foods 28. The dew of heaven—Of the utvealed: "It was found that the av- immediately after the use of hot most importance to crops in the erage daily consumption of pota- foods; and, finally, straining the land of sparse rainfall. toes of the thirty families was near- voice by loud talking, faulty sing- 29. Peoples . . . nations each person, whereas the consumpthe Family Doctor, the first thing, Edomites, as well as other neighounces; of butter, one and fifteen- Acute sore throats are best relieved ham and from Lot. more than one pint of milk, of which the throat, and inhalations of Esau and Jacob favor a personal nearly half was skimmed milk or steam. An expensive apparatus is interpretation, but there is much Virginia as early as 1586. But it is evident that there would be a duration, as hot as can be borne, scanty products of the wilderness Carpeaux. At its conclusion, the Earned Rest.

Sore Throat.

How One Woman Enjoyed a Well- the personal taste.

Ruskin Carpeaux. At its conclusion, the evident that there would be a and alternating with cold compres- and the plunder which they ex- young sculptor was besieged by a famine without them now; that the ses or cold sponging, the treatment torted or stole from passing cara- crowd of courtiers and envious rivplant which had its origin in Span- ending with the cold application vans."-Heores and Crises of Early als, who wanted to know what the ish America is necessary to the life and a thorough drying, the whole Hebrew History, p. 105.

gin the practice of sponging the that had been perpetrated upon from me.' throat and chest, or the entire him body, in cold water every morning, The birth of Servia as a nation, and continue the practice through. In utter fear and astonishment.

FRENCHMEN FEAR AIRSHIPS.

By the Germans.

perhaps had, like the Slavs of sphere of military aeronautics, is given to Jacob, it reflects the for-Moesia in after years, adopted the leaving France badly in the rear. tunes of his later descendants after name of a Tartar tribe. Both, flee- General Lacroix and a number of they are become a nation. ing from the Avars, were naturally other eminent strategists unite in hostile to them, and it is possible declaring that France has nothing that they settled in the empire with to show against Germany's aerial the consent or even at the invita- cruisers but a fleet of "penny At any set the Emperor Heraclius I. steamers," and they strongly de- New Industry Being Operated With out some of the little clay bullets, At any rate, they appear to have precate the attitude taken generalbeen considered as vassals of the ly in France towards dirigibles. empire. Their first settlements lay They think the udden development rather westward of the country now of aeroplanes caused an entirely called Servia, the Drave, the pre- unwarranted enthusiasm for those sent western boundary, being the machines, and a corresponding disdividing line between Bulgar and paragement of dirigibles. General Serb in the eighth century. Here Lacroix holds that the opposition to to the mill owner. This is being or!" eventfully for three centuries. They wrong; the supple type of airship generally formed a loose confeder- favored by the French military auacy under chiefs called zupans. thorities is, from the military point They were commonly, in a loose of view, axceedingly risky, a pin fashion, loyal to the eastern emprice mainly through fear of their ships of the German rigid type to a drying-room. This has a cyl- "Bah! What's the use of being evening," said Mrs. Embercon, "and I'll make you some homepire mainly through fear of their ships of the German rigid type, indrical revolving drum about two Carpeaux! Isn't that better than dangerous neighbors, the Bulgar- with their several compartments, feet in diameter and 30 feet long. baron?" a chief named Vlastimiz to repel erable damage before being put absolutely out of action.

"What are you doing, dear?" askmarks the child had been making on a piece of paper.

"I'm writing a letter to Lillie Smith," was the answer.

their brows ?" "Oh, that doesn't matter, moand sold handkerchiefs."

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, APRIL 6.

Lesson I .- Jacob and Esau .- Gen. 25. 27-34; 27. 1-45. Golden text, Isa. 30. 18.

tion, and to bring about the death for to-day's study includes the actions frankly called war taxes. Ca- death of the part has been sudden, Esau to two Hittite women, who productive enterprise and labor, buncles, and so-called "hospital oldest son to prepare for him a Senile gangrene and the gangrene solemn parental blessing and (2) preparing for war at any cost and caused by frost-bite are dry. The the plotting of Rebekah to secure any solid mass near by. thus preserving peace. But peace circulation of the aged is always that blessing rather for her favor-mediately, but after first partak- striking against surrounding heat is the best means of restoring ing of the savory meal which Re- jects, they are reflected back just as the circulation. Hot bottles, or bekah had prepared for the occa- sound or light would be; and these

25. Venison-The dish requested return of the air-waves. of Esau (v. 3).

the smell of the field blessed of Je- sea of approaching icebergs, ves- knows what else besides. I stop brethren-The descendants of Ish-In the cure of sore throat, says mael and Esau, Ishmaelites and tion of meat was less than three of course, is to remove the cause. boring tribes, descended from Abrahundredths ounces, and slightly by remaining in the house if the 'The vividness and consistency of How Napoleon III. Got Even With to sleep. I'm singing to them the and bind the top with a bias strip smart woman not needed, as the steam can be in- evidence to show that they repre- earnestness and seriousness of pur- and don't disturb the industrious haled from the nozzle of the tea- sent more than mere individuals. pose, Carpeaux, one of the most folks in the wood." Bread, it appears, came second kettle by means of a paper cone. . . . Both Jacob and Esau are clear famous French sculptors of the last Thus taught by the animals, the at fourteen and two-thirds ounces. The steam should be taken as hot ly types of the two nations which century, had a droll tongue and a children turned back to school very but potatoes are the staff of life and as can be borne. This process were regarded as their immediate capricious humor that he vented on willingly, finding that play is alone should be repeated two or three descendants. Esau's portrait is lackey and emperor alike. Lecture the reward of industry and work. true to the character of the Edo- Pour Tous relates some amusing world. They were not introduced For a chronic sore throat the best mites. Living on the borders of anecdotes of him. into Germany until 1710, though treatment is not and cold applica- Canaan, they largely retained their At a reception at the Tuileries, they were brought to England from tions to the throat daily (a series of early nomadic, roving habits, de- Napoleon III. engaged in a few throat should, in warm weather, be- Entirely unsuspecting the wrong was trying to borrow five francs children had hearty appetites.

settled in or near its present name, out the year, thereby increasing He shall be blessed—The mere Flore of the Tuileries, Napoleon of bread-board and make one more may be dated in the first half of the the resisting power of this part of the solemn parental ten came to watch him at work on batch of bread I should drop dead. blessing, even though spoken under the scaffold that had been built I've got to have a change." misapprehension and obtained by and irrevocable.

34. The exceeding great and bit Think They Are Being Outclassed ter cry of Esau was characteristic of his ingenuous and impulsive nature. The blessing given to Esau French opinion is waking up to at his earnest request follows in They were Slavs, but the Croats the fact that Germany, in the verses 39 and 40. Like the blessing

BRIQUETTES OF SAWDUST.

Success in Germany. dust briquettes to be used for firing pellets of clay at his subjects. under the boilers, thus consider- "Bah!" muttered Carpeaux. ably decreasing the cost of the fuel "What's the use of being an empervery advantageously done in Ger- Napoleon did not forget this remay. The sawdust is automatically mark. A few months later, when any of us like it, but Laura has so gathered and conveyed to a place the sculptor sought a title, the em- much to do that I insist on buying near the presses. From here it is peror, unable or unwilling to grant the bread." In this drum the sawdust is partially dried, the pitch contained in the wood is softened, acting hereafter as a binder. From here the sawdust is conveyed over an incline to the after-dryer of the same shape as the first dryer which forms a part

Wasted Sareasm.

THE ECHO TEST.

Safety Device for Preventing Collision at Sea.

Sir Hiram Maxim, inventor of those terrible agents of destruction, cordite, smokeless powder and the Maxim gun, has just invented a safety device for preventing collisions at sea. The tragic fate of the Titanic moved him to try, and he who, instead of going to school, as had reflected only four hours on the they should have done, stood loiterthat ships could be provided with was such a stupid thing. what might be called a sixth sense, "Let's set off to the wood!" they

"echo" sense, he knew to be pos- When they came to the wood they sessed by bats. count of Esau's sale of his birth-right to Iscob Isaac's increasing have not especially powerful eyes very sorry, but really we've just pital which already pays high progressive taxes is to be taxed afresh.

death of the part has been sadden, while it was still abundantly fed and Rebekah." Then in the opening taxes is to be taxed afresh.

while it was still abundantly fed and Rebekah." Then in the opening taxes is to be taxed afresh. Would be like the work of a cave at midnight can fly about you, children; we must build a with perfect security; so can a bat fresh bridge of grass, the old one is gressive taxes is to be taxed afresh. with the body huids. Moist gainging verses of our lesson chapter are that is blind. The sensitive nerves not safe.' The fools and parrots chatter about gangrene" are of the same variety. meal preparatory to receiving the ranged as to produce the echo ant-hill; and as for the bee, they can be preserved as well or better somewhat impaired; and sometimes ite, Jacob. The reading of the en- gives the bat the sixth sense is little voice, "I'm gathering up corn spread all over its face. In the and seeds for the winter." lizing that the insane armament its way through the thickened and Verse 22. Jacob went near unto vampire bat, the organ is on the inelastic arteries that the extremi- Isaac-to set at rest his father's tip of its nose; it stands up in the dove, "am carrying dry sticks for competition effects no change in the ties of the body become gangren- suspicions concerning his identity. air and is called the 'shield'; but my nest." relative positions of the furious ous from sheer lack of nourishment. Felt him-To discover whether in most of the small bats which The hare only nodded to them. rivals, and by agreeing to reduce Moist gangrene is always preced- his hands were indeed those of catch insects on the wing, we fined "I can't come and play with you military budgets and keep them re- ed by inflammation. The part Esau. Isaac was almost blind and two little leaves, not unlike the swells, and is painful; the color, at no longer trusted his sense of hear- wings of the insect that it pursues, > skins of the kids of the goats upon about, the beat of its wings sends pulsations. These are not rapid 23. So he blessed him-Not im- enough to constitute sound, but reflected vibrations, received by the 24. I am-The writer of the nar- sensitive organs so exquisitely arrative does not pass judgment nor ranged, enable the bat to judge the comment in any way upon the false- distance of any object by the lapse hood; he simply records the fact. of time between the departure and

The ingenious apparatus which 27. The smell of his raiment - Sir Hiram Maxim, acting on this The odor of the huntsman's garb, hint, has invented to warn ships at sels, rocks or fog-veiled shores and play with idle children, incould be described fully only at deed!" And away the stream flowit quite as well if he is simply told disheartened, and thought they that it is an echo test.

mouse that saved the lion. In plain saw a finch sitting upon a branch, truth, his little winged cousin, the singing and eating by turns. They flittermouse, may do far more. called out to him their invitation. Some day-who knows?-a greater "What!" exclaimed the finch, ic may owe her safety to a bat.

SCULPTOR AND EMPEROR.

Sculptor Carpeaux.

emperor had talked about.

twenty minutes), followed by a cold Brought the solemn act of blessing pered Carpeaux, as he drew the ea- making and baking of five loaves of row hem and slip-stitch it neatly in tion of failure and misdirected ger listeners to one side of the ball- bread three times a week, for Mr. place. To the outer edge of the col- effort and wrong-doing.-H. G. Persons who are subject to sore 31. He also made savory food- room. "Well, then, the emperor Emberson and the three growing lar and rabat whipstitch an edging Wells.

Some years later, when Carpeaux | she must have a vacation. 33. Troubled very exceedingly - had received the commission to do the decorations for the Pavillon de "that if I had to stand up to that pleated cream colored shadow lace. Stevenson. against the face of the building. deception, was regarded as final Occasionally, the emperor mounted willing. He had often urged her the back of the head and use pins the mere pleasure of saying it, between earth and sky.

One day Carpeaux, in a particu- and go to visit her younger sister hue, combs and pins of blond tor- friend, or made his fortune. larly merry mood, told him that in the West. when he wished to rest from his labors, he would make tiny pellets of son, as soon as she had got into a plain but beautifully marked clay, and drop them on the heads of loose house dress and dropped into casque combs, each one having two passers-by.

ed. "People stop and look about to ask me what I want to eat, or ex- dressed should adopt this set as a the shade of a telegraph pole) them. They can't imagine where pect me to turn my hand to help proper finish to their coiffure. the missiles come from.

'try it yourself."

A new industry may be success- said Napoleon, amused at the idea always wanted you to rest and let topped comb of dark tortoise shell lady. fully combined with the planing of the Emperor of the French, somebody else take the work and mills, that of making of the saw- mounted on a scaffold, throwing worry for a little while."

Silence of Chinese Bride.

Would you like it if you could talk rested she looked. Nevertheless, to no one for three days? Yet that he tried to speak severely: is the fate of the Chinese girl who is married. For three nights after thought you went for a rest and the marriage the Chinese bride change. Laura wrote that you had veiled, must stay awake and listen been baking bread for them ever to the banterings, the teasings and since you got there. I'd like to Indignant Wife-"I wonder what jokes of some girl friend who is know what change there was in you would have done if you had there just on purpose to make her that?" "But my dear," laughed the mo- lived when men were first compelled laugh, cry, or anything else that ther, "you don't know how to to earn their bread by the sweat of will cause a sound. But the Chinese bride must not allow her voice bread-boards!" Indolent Husband - "I should to escape her. She must show, by ther! Lillie doesn't know how to have started a little notion store staying silent those three nights, that she will be a quiet wife.

A Good Lesson.

There were once three children, betes, or senility, or embolism. burial of Sarah and of Abraham, objects near at hand without the off to the wood, and play with the sense, which may be called an to school!"

asked the animals both great and of the face and wings are so ar- The children crept softly past the sense, which warns them always of ran away from her just as though she had been a venomous beast.

for the whole world," said he.

The little strawberry-blossom

little stream that was running insisted upon, man fashion, that and the music of it will help to make along so merrily. "Do, dear little fortunes shall be won as well as it the Lord's land. It will be sung stream, come and play with us." spent or given away by methods from throats attuned to these richer astonished, "What do you mean, ideals of life. It was a clever para- by the wider vision of possible children? Yes, indeed! I don't phrase which said: "A new com- achievement. know what to do, I am so very mandment give I unto you that ye Thus through the joy and fellowbusy, and yet you ask me to play remember the week day to keep it ship of this broader service men with you! I can't stop either night holy." It seems impossible to many will enter more deeply into that or day. Men, beasts, gardens, people to reconcile Christian ethics form of satisfaction worthy to be woods, meadows, valleys, moun- with the present economic condi- called "the joy of their Lord."tains, fields, I must give them all tions under which we are compelled Rev. Charles R. Brown. water to drink and wash all the dishes and clothes besides! I must turn the mill, saw planks, spin |  with pins to match is frequently wood, carry along boats upon my must give up all hope of finding We have all heard of the fabled play-fellows in the wood, when they Titan of the sea than the lost Titan- greatly surprised, "can I believe praise of labor. How can you children think so badly of me? Although he was a man of great you turn back again, lazy children,

"Now, Laura," said Mrs. Ember- Among the new importations are "No," confessed John, "we don't

Two weeks later, when Mrs. Emberson returned home, her husband was delighted to see how fresh and

Young Folks SONG OF HOPE HUSHEN

When Men Feel Themselves a Part of That Which Is Nothing More Than Mechanism

aid of a search-light. This sixth little animals there—they never go ly accepted, faith was easy and he it all? The task of keeping the faith found himself singing. But the and of singing the song of trust has study of history and of science, of become undoubtedly a different Bats, nocturnal though they are, small to play with them. "We are changed all this for the man of in line and a harder task. The changed rechanged all this for the man of in- ligious beliefs of the people, the new and commence are to be bled in time of peace by forced contribution or "dry." In the former case, the prosperity and the marriage of in total darkness no creature can to be bled in the former case, the prosperity and the marriage of in total darkness no creature can to be bled in the former case, the prosperity and the marriage of in total darkness no creature can to be bled in the dark. Moreover, have not especially powerful eyes to line total darkness no creature can to be bled in the dark. Moreover, have not especially powerful eyes to line other. He feels impelled to work affair, the emergence of more exout his own theological salvation acting ideals in the world of induswith fear and trembling. And be- try will of necessity cause the task is hard he often feels in this strange land.

"In many cases, the organ that The little mouse cried in a shrill "And I," said the little white

> "I've got such a dirty face, and must go and wash it."

A COMPLETE CHANGE.

want even to hear it mentioned." of jewel-studded designs. "All right," said Laura, laugh- Carved tortoise shell and amber early in life?" "I wouldn't dare," laughingly ing, "you can depend on me. I've are also much favored. The ball- Weary Willie - "Tire trouble,

> At dinner the second day Mrs. Emberson said to her brother-inlaw, "John, do you like baker's

> "and I'll make you some homemade bread."

"Oh," and Mrs. Emberson laugh-

If you have too much money you can easily acquire more.

The song of trust and aspiration to live. And because they are unhas been hushed in many hearts willing to sing on Sunday what they problem when it occurred to him ing about, grumbling that learning these days by the changing condi- do not see their way clear to practions of religious belief. When tice on Monday, they declare their condition, with such causes as dia- this one records the death and by which they could detect large all three cried at once. "Let's set church or in an infallible book or such a strange land. some man believed in an infallible inability to sing the Lord's song in in some system of doctrine implicit- What shall we say in the face of

Medify the Song.

that he cannot sing the Lord's song But all this need not, it must not, drown it. The finer discrimination Not only changes in theological in matters of belief, the deeper belief but a changed attitude in resense of all that is involved in this gard to man's moral freedom has a mysterious thing we call personaltendency to silence the song. ity, and the moral heroism demand "Heredity and environment have ed in undertaking to make the six us bound hand and foot," men are days of labor as holy as the seventh day of rest and worship, all this es, but as he must. Whatever it will only serve to bring out new had to be and whatever will be, will notes and finer accents in the song be, whether we like it or not. This of the higher life. gloomy, pessimistic determinism is

The difficulty and vastness of the not confined to the dark closets of a few philosophers; it is boldly "attack" of the singers more sharply defined and will add richness and impressiveness to the final And the song of aspiration has volume of praise rising from the Then the children accosted the the world of industry. It is being will be sung in this changed land But the stream asked, quite which harmonize with the higher harmonies and from hearts inspired tulle or Brussels net cut in a strip er than ever, the uppers made of 12 inches long by seven inches wide, stuff to match the dress or in lea-On this embroider a dainty design ther of the same shade. The newest with mercerized cotton. This can fastening is arranged with small inbe more successfully executed if a terlaced straps buttoning on each my ears? You children seem to me piece of stiff paper is basted under side with flat buttons. under a great mistaks. I've no the tulle. Whipstitch an edging of Tan shoes are having an aftertime to play, not I! Here I've been valenciennes lace to the edge of the math of success, and they harmonchasing flies all day, and now my strip and baste the pleats in place. ize very happily with the dull tints young ones want me to sing them Finally press with a heated iron of the satins and furs worn by the

Fashion Hints

On the Street Corners.

Jabots and Collars.

If you do not embroider well, charming collars can be made of fine allover embroideries. Many of the loveliest designs are colored to The virtue of prosperity is temrepresent the old colonial needle- perance; the virtue of adversity is work. Select a pattern which fits fortitude.-Bacon. miter the corners so that the design | boasteth of it a devil.-Fuller.

Mrs. Emberson did all the cook- rabat collar of handkerchief linen is not the comfort of ease, but the ing, washing, mending and other bordered with Irish lace. Cut the comfort of strength.-Kingsley. housework for her family of five. collar and rabat from the linen, us- There is something harder to face occupying not more than fifteen or 30. Made an end of blessing - "Promise to tell no one!" whis- Among her other duties was the ing a good pattern. Turn in a nar- than death, and that is the realizaof Irish lace an inch and a half or | There is an idea abroad among At last Mrs. Emberson decided two inches in width

Coiffure Ornaments.

Mr. Emberson was more than milady must softly coil her hair at this make will say a rude thing for aloft to this improvised studio, hung to take a rest. It was decided that of tortoise shell to hold it in place. when an opposite behavior, fully as she should pack up that very day Should her tresses be of a golden innocent, might have preserved his toise shell must be used.

an easy chair, "I've come to rest square-topped pins to match. Every "It's very amusing," he explain- and visit. I don't want you ever one who desires to be correctly Willie, whom she finds resting in preferred to all other designs.

Fashions in Shoes.

Shoes are now more elaborate than ever. High boots are worn in the morning only with the tailormade costumes and for travelling or for sport. The shoes are of an in-A pretty jabot can be made of finite variety. The vamps are short-

Grains of Gold

well and arrange the strip of em- He that falls into sin is a man; broidery around edge. Carefully that grieves at it a saint; that matches perfectly. There is great | Great men do not play stage satisfaction in making one's own tricks with the doctrines of life and collars, for they usually fit well and death: only little men do that .-

The comfort which poor human It is an easy task to fashion a beings want in such a world as this

Other collars are fashioned of their neighbors good. One person moral people that they should make "I feel," she told her husband, black moire silk with a rabet of I have to make good : myself.—R. L.

> Nothing is more say than the pleasure some people take in Following the caprice of fashion, "speaking their minds." A man of

Congenital.

with a thing. I'm sick and For those who admire more elab- ling through this vale of tears? "Alas, my poor wayfarer, travel-"Here," he continued, holding tired of housework, and I don't orate combs, there are a number What has caused you to become discouraged and abandon the race so

THE EASIEST WAY.

American Passenger (waxing loquacious on the wonders of the United States)-"Then there's Pittsburg; you could hardly throw a stone in Pittsburg without hitting a

English Lady-"Yes, how do they make their money?" American Passenger-"Steel, of course." English Ladv-"How amazing, and do you mean to say they all steal it !"

People Maroon Livi

The Worst Condit Were of

A despatch from Dayton says: All persons but a those hundreds of persons w been marooned in the do section of flooded Dayton a This was the news brought Thursday by an Associate staff man, the first to succee perilous task of penetratin north as the Big Miami which runs through the co the town. Chief of Police J. N.

himself marooned, who hi directing the rescue work. first information as to the in what has heretofore waterbound district. Except for possible loss of the north side of the rive will not be more than 200 Dayton, according to A estimate after he had been formation as to the situation south side. The worst condition for the centre of the flood wa workhouse, where 66 prison not had a drop of water n of food for two days. The volted and demanded their and a chance to fight for the Since then the workhouse R a mad-house, according t intendent Johnson. The repeatedly fought with Joh

> May Have to Shoo Johnson asked that a de of the National Guard be to help handle the men. clared that the men would be shot if they escaped fr

threatened to kill both hin family.

cells.

North of Burns Avenue Fourth Street the water w to be from three to six fee Beyond Fourth Street t has receded to make it pe many places to proceed From Fourth Street to the ami River relief work was by a committee headed ! Allaback. All grocery etc commandeered, and alt most cases the goods were with water, yet sufficient were found to prevent g dry strip. No Cases of Starvati While there may be mat in individual homes, whi been without food or drift was no place but the w where any considerable n people were held without None had had enough, but approaching actual starva fering among those in the Knowledge that the dea likely to prove so low in t town section gave rise to that even in North Dayte which nearly all hope h abandoned, there might be atively few deaths. The progress of the fi into the waterbound dist greeted with appeals for b water. In nearly every l standing people were asked there had been any dea with only a few exception plied that there had not. Beckel Hotel Not Bur It was impossible to within several blocks of zone in the canoe, but ther ed every indication that the House had not been bur that the fire had been od the blocks beyond Third Street

The 300 guests of the A Hotel have been kept cor except for the continuous fire. The water reached t cond floor, but all suppl been moved to places of sa those in the hotel experien discomfort. Two hundred women ar found refuge in a paint fi

> North Dayton, where the sufficient food to keep th acute suffering. An effort made at once to rescue th Victim's Cheerful Sp One of the remarkable was the cheerful spirit wi flood victims viewed their This was Dayton's first big many years. Much of t merged area had been co safe from high water, bu majority of residents of t tions looked out on all side great sweep of muddy, swi ing water they seemed und In some of the poorer see attitude of the marooned w cheerful. As a motor-box beneath the second floor submerged house and out and threatened unless they took off his baby that had just been be woman, almost dying, was from the window by a n taken to a place of refuga Further on members of boat party were startled in the second floor of a hou which five feet of water The boat was stopped, an

"Why are you shooting? asked. "Oh, just amusin shooting at rats that come when are you going to tak of here?" he replied. Situation is Brighte According to city officia impossible to estimate the who perished in the fir fired from the window.