King St. East

TOTAL CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY O SALE. Colborno Street,

ORONTO

OF 500 ACRES large Bank Barn. ice is very low. and Saskatchewan HUNDRED GOOD

ondon, Ont HEWAN-EQUIP.

nt a farm consult

sell; terms easy. HUNDRED DIE amps, Catalogue a Marks Stamp

NIED: LEARN demand; good Send for Catas Queen East, To-

LUMPS, ETC.

al cured withreatment. Write

Rellman Medical

d sure euro, M Sanol Manufas

Piano is the at on the IGEL" ction

TANKS AND cents for Simils TORONTO

Year it and longeste and ask for

HELL ecially tanned will save you your glove Send for our -The Pinto's ETTING CO.

d Mitt Makers,

MA A SECOND Montreal

Whenever you feel a headache coming on take NA-DRU-CO Headache Wafers

They stop headaches promptly and surely. Do not contain epium, morphine, phenacetin, acetanilid or other dangerous drugs. 25c. a box at your Druggist's. NATIONAL DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO. OF CANADA, LIMITED.

Or, A Dark Temptation

CHAPTER XXXI.-(Cont'd)

keeper of the Morgue, the man who had been so useful to her in helping to cheat the unused shaft. Percy Granville into the belief that the dead girl who so closely resembled his lost love was indeed Little Gay. But in that thrilling moment a daring thought came to the brain of the desperate, guilty beauty she would deny that him on that fatal errand that night.

She looked at him proudly, defintly. You are quite mistaken," she said, curt-"I have never seen you before. In vain he protested, repeating every word of the conversation that passed be tween them on that eventful night. She shook her golden head and turned them from him impatiently, and the motion He made one great stride toward her.

He seized her delicate wrist in his great, You hypocrite! he cried, gazing down you, Miss Evelyn," she said. "Mr. Granflereely into her beautiful, defiant face, ville is here he looks pale and unlike you have used me cleverly for your tool, himself. and now you would deny me. You do not choose to remember how you pleaded with me to help you in your nefarious scheme, telling me I might name my own reward but that did not daunt me. I have search ed all over to find you and tell you what my reward must be. Listen! you need not try to take your hand away from me, reward I ask for what I have done for you; refuse, and I swear, before the sun

eets, the whole world shall know that marry me, or whether I shall tell the strange etory I have to tell, to the world." Lennox. Even while he spoke, a flendish thought was flashing through the guilty brain of, We will walk on through the copse-wood and talk this matter over, she said, with a desperate calmness that surprised even the Servia for a short trip abroad." If he had not been so desperately in voice. I admit the favor you once against temptation; the thrilling dark eyes he had come there to utter.

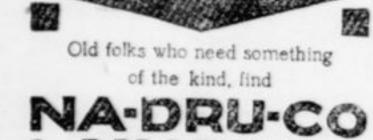

His wife! she, the haughty, dainty heirlean like fire through her veins; she ally fickle at one time in life; and the He stopped abruptly and looked at her

I am rich, as you say, she answered such a wretched fortnight as the two sued, flushing painfully. great object for you to go away and leave filled his heart by night and by day, he what he would say next. than all your gold," he replied; "you his death-bed, that he would marry Eve- ly and honestly that if I were to lead you are the first and only woman who has lyn St. Claire; then he would have been to the altar, it would be as an unloved by his expert touch system. ever touched my heart. No, no, you can free to woo and win, if he could, the bride? I would save you from this before not buy me off with a less bribe than your | banker's daughter, who reminded him so it is too late. I throw myself upon your abyse Evelyn paused, cas, ing a quick would be cruel to Evelyn to lead her to else save her deep and desperate love for my hope of being Percy's bride, she mut and he never once doubted but that she was Heaven intending to wreak this tered below her breath. "I have awest | would release him.

for my answer, she said slowly, "I can you, Evelyn, but I love another. It is for exclaimed radiantly. I can read my an- If she clung to him, refusing to give swer in your face, my beautiful girl it is him up, he would marry her. He would a flash of lightning, the furious anger in that was not his to give; his heart was her superb blonde face fairly appalling divided between Little Gay's memory and "I marry you?" the cried. "Why, you his heart

LAXATIVES

Increased doses not needed. 25c. a box at your druggist's.

National Brug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited.

Do not be misled— ASK FOR

PERRIN'S GLOVES

and LOOK for the Trade-Mark. Perrin's Gloves are famed for their Style, Fit and Finish. Gloves that are NOT stamped with either the trade-mark or the name

"Perrin's Make" are not the genuine.

Since the day he had first become enaccepted lover's privilege of seating him-self on the sofa beside her. He could do

"How white you are, Percy!" she exclaimed. "Have you been ill? You are losing all your genial manner that made you so so irresistible. He flushed uneasily and looked con-What would she have said, if she had known why he looked so gloomy-that he was trying to summon courage to tell her that which was to blight her beautiful ove dream? Evelyn did all in her power to charm him that memorable evening.

There was something almost hysterical in her brilliant flashes of wit. She sung impassioned love-songs to ! im that would have brought any other lover to her feet. With tremulous lips, she sung that sweetest of all love refrains, "Kathleen Mayoureen," dwelling with passionate swered. "That would be unpardonable. The fact is," he added, hesitatingly, and Wicked as Evelyn St. Claire was, there was something pitiful in the ardent ador-

She bowed her head in silence, twining

Was he going to tell her he was glad

there is love," she returned quickly.

thoughtfully; "if two marry who love each

a quick, convulsive sob-the passionate

"How much you care for me, Evelyn,"

have plunged a dagger in the white breast

"Yes," replied Evelyn, slowly.

(To be continued.)

lete Is a Suffragette.

you, dear you are my world.

he groaned.

yearning on the line, "Oh, why are thou silent, thou voice of my heart?" - the music dying away in a low wail beneath her trembling fingers. words ringing in his ears, and before he But if Percy heard, he did not heed. could divine her terrible intention, she "You seem distrait and preoccupied, had sprung forward, giving him a fearful Percy," she said at length, turning from push that sent him reeling headlong the piano, "as though your thoughts were down-down into the horrible depths of hardly here. Then I am ashamed of myself," he an Not even a moan or a cry reached her grave mistakes

don't trouble yourself unnecessarily about | "I should kill myself, Percy," she de-rocks below, there was such a terrible flushing uneasily, "my mind is full of one ringing in her ears. subject, and I am at a loss how to find Dead men can tell no tales," she mutwords to express myself." tered, bending breathlessly over the yawn-Evelyn's heart gave one great passion ng mouth of the pit. "I am safe. Gathering up her dainty lace skirts in her jeweled hands, she fairly flew back brushed his cheek. the house. It almost seemed to her the tall, specter trees that had witnessed ject he referred to was their approachthe awful crime might take vengeance upon her by tossing out their arms and Of course it could be nothing else. striking her dead as she passed beneath

She reached the house panting and rembling in every limb. Avice, her maid, met her on the threshave been looking everywhere for or the thud of the body as it fell on the CHAPTER XXXII. Percy Granville turned with a start of hear?

surprise as the detective's hand fell on his shoulder, and the familiar voice repeated hurriedly: I should like a few words with you.

office or walk up to the avenue, just as occur to you that some marriages are article. more than a word with you just now," replied the detective. "I want your ad- would attach no importance to his words. dress, I may drop you a line upon a very "There can be no unhappiness where important matter one of these days." Percy Granville stopped short and looked | "That is quite true, Evelyn," he said

ull in the detective's face. You have succeeded in hunting down other they are sure to be happy-but if fremaine at last?" inquired Percy, eag- love is wanting in either heart, married erly. "If it is so, tell me at once. I can- life is a curse. not rest night or day until I have taken | Evelyn raised a pair of startled eyes to that cursed villain by the throat and his; the words had gone through her forced the truth out of him of how my heart like a sword. darling Little Gay met so foul a death. "Why should we think of the lives of By Heaven! he shall rue the day he ever others, if ours is happy?" she asked, with "Gently, gently, my dear sir," respond- unhappiness that could reach me is-the ed the detective, laying his hand on the fear that I should ever lose your love."

excited young man's arm. "I did not re- Percy Granville's handsome face grew But he must be brought to justice, my | "What would you do, Evelyn," he said, have loved you from the first darling's death must be avenged!' he holding the little hand that was hid in cried hotly, his fair, handsome face pal- his in a close clasp, and trying to speak ing. "I had great hopes that your skill carelessly, "if such a thing were to really would not fail me, Mr. Lennox. It is near- happen? ly a year since I first called upon you. Her face grew pale as the lily she wore vet we have no clew to Tremaine's where- on her breast. She caught her breath in Do not be so sure about that," replied love in the face she raised to his trou-"Give me your address, and bled him greatly.

> what I want it for-you shall know all clared vehemently; "and if there was a "I shall be at Passaic until the 20th." replied Percy. "On the 21st I leave on I could never express how much I love You may hear from me before that

A moment after they parted company, The pale, blonde face drooped until it eyes would have warned him against her, and Percy walked leisurely on to his hotel. rested against his shoulder, Gladly enough he consented, thinking He did not give the matter another The great love she lavished upon him his eloquence had struck through her ar- thought, for his thoughts had reverted to wearied him. He could not help contrastthe same channel in which they had been ing her at that moment with his little when the detective had accosted him-he lost Gay, whom a bold wooer would have Evelyn held out her white hand to him was thinking of the pictured face that had frightened as a huntsman frightens a smiled up at him from the canvas in the timid bird "It is useless to deny longer all that Remington's adopted daughter. It would nave been quite as easy to have plunged a dagger in the white breast low himself to dream over another girlish union. I almost hate myself for the ness of a tigress and dash him to her feet of the banker's daughter from his heart, on Evelyn. for the very audacity of his presumpt he more she stole into it; he stood face "Every heart should be mated to the to face with the truth at last, his heart one for which Heaven intended it. Is it "No, there is no other way," he re- had gone out to he original of the por- not so?" he asked earnestly. plied decisively. "You are a beautiful trait, just as it had gone out to Little and surely no young man ever put in did not love you, would you?" he pur-"I would, and could, make it a weeks that followed; but one thought "No," replied Evelyn, strongly of his lost bride. His heart had mercy to save yourself and to save me. At the end of a fortnight he was bat- cannot deceive you. I must tell you the copse-wood to a stretch of breaking the vow he had made to the dy- and yet my word is pledged to you. You one life from my path, why should I heri- Yes, that was the best and only course the life of Little Gay? tate at sweeping away a second? The to pursue. He must go to Evelyn, and But no she would marry him in spite man has brought his fate upon his own in a manly, straightforward manner tell of all-she would held him to his promise be a true husband; he would give her Evelyn St. Claire turned upon him like reverence, respect, everything but love; his new sweet love that had crept into earthing for her, and had at length gone promise to "obey."

ward, holding out both hands to him- and a number of people interested ing what looks like a cigar. shapely, that within that hour had per. in the movement were present at petrated such a fearful crime. Percy knew what was expected of him as she bent her blonde head dangerously sted Keynes, where her father lives, near him, inviting a caress, and feeling and the place was the Congregaawkward enough, he raised one of those cruel little white hands to his lips.

At one end of the hall was a platform with four chairs upon it, and to this platform advanced the bride. her father, the bridegroom and the best man, while a march was played upon the organ. Then entered the registrar, and the bride and bridegroom made the legal declarations, which were supplemented by the exchange of wedding rings. The registrar then retired, and tional Hall of the village.

after a solo had been sung Hugh Chapman of the Savoy, whose sympathies with the suggestion for the omission of the "obey" sentence from the service are already well known, gave a short and eloquent address. It should be said that by this time the bridegroom had exchanged places with the bride's father, so that the bride and the bridegroom sat together on one side of the platform and the best man and the bride's father on the other.

Beauty is only skin deep, especially if a girl hasn't any money.

A Triumph in TEA Quality

Pure, Wholesome and ness of flavour not found in ordinary TEAS.

IN LEAD PACKETS ONLY.

Black, Mixed and Green.

SURPRISED LADY ABERDEEN.

ation she lavished upon her handsome one, so good, in fact, that his expert done or not cooked enough. A wofeats with the Morse code once led man whose boiled frosting always her white, jeweled fingers closer about his arm, and her every clinging touch was a their wedding-day was so near at hand? in Canada—were present.

Was he going to whisper loving words that her passionate heart so longed to How she was hungering to hear the words, "I love you, dear," fall from his he proffered hand heartily. "I am en- "Evelyn," he said slowly, as he nerved the "subject" on the stage called the egg mixture.

Warren Y. Soper.

was profound

But when the excitement had died down Mr. Soper simply said: "Not You would not care to keep your pledge telepathy, but telegraphy." And Percy returned to Passaic that night, to me to be my bride if you thought I from his pocket he took a small coil of wire, the other end of which, enlittle dreaming closed under a carpet, was in the wished to Heaven his uncle had not ex- "Evelyn," he went on huskily, "what pocket of the "subject." The mes-I would rather have your sweet self seted that terrible promise from him on should you say if I were to tell you frank- sages had simply been transmitted any jelly that has gone to sugar or

Man Who Had 100 Pipes.

A wife who obtained a judicial led him by a circuitous path thing fiercely between two sine-the sin of truth-my heart has gone out to another, separation from her husband told which joined her own ground in ing, and the sin of wedding one woman, hold your fate and mine in your own a curious story at the South-Farlow Road, Putney, and she without being properly covered. And on He reasoned the matter out in his own the hope for him if the decision rested stated that her husband, a master of this black, yawning mind, coming to the conclusion that it in the hands of her who was deaf to all carpenter, would only allow he twopence a day to get dinner. Nothing must come between me and resolved to throw himself upon her mercy. She had sinned so terribly for his love though he had about £180 at the bitter vengeance upon her for spoiling bank. "What does he do with his money?" inquired the Magistrate 'He spends it in clothes, pipes and though he hated her. She would never other things," was the reply. "He has 100 pipes, between fifty and sixty walking sticks and innumerable pairs of boots," "OBEY" LEFT OUT OF SERVICE

Women New Smoke Cigars.

M.P.'s Daughter Who Married Ath-Englishwomen are developing the The recent wedding of Miss Cicely smoking habit more than ever. Of ment be mad! You shall wed, but the That evening Percy rode over to Eve- Corbett, the daughter of C. J. Cor- course they do not as a rule get be- vinegar if you wish it to be kept bride you are to take to your heart is lyn's home; while he was pacing restless bett, the late English Member of your cigarettes, but recently a pe- moist and free from mold. make her appearance, that thril- Parliament for one of the Sussex tit brand of cigars has been put on If the alarm clock rings too loud- husband, bolts and tries to get of the old shaft. It is something like ly slip an elastic band around the away. If the lion is first hit, the Avice, the maid, could not help but the ceremony was arranged so as the thin cigarettes which one buys bell to diminish the noise. Claire looked when she told her Mr. to avoid those parts of the Church on the continent for a couple of Shelves are a necessity in every and rushes to her death to avenge Granville had come, that he had been service which include the wife's centimes, except that the flavor and bathroom. So is a little medicine him. strength are more akin to the Egyp- closet to hang on the wall. The bridegroom was C. D. Fish- tian cigarette. It is a leaf covered | Heat the clothespins if you would banks for two hours, a fine lioness over her throbbing heart, then turned er, who was a three-quarter back cigarette, with sufficient pungency have warm hands while hanging out jumped out of the reeds and bush in the Oxford Rugby team of 1903. to make the fair smokers think they the clothes in cold weather. Percy was struck with the passionate Miss Corbett is a keen suffragist are doing something daring in lightthe wedding. It was held at Hor-

Sometimes.

"Do you think a woman believes you when you tell her she is the first girl you ever loved?"

know what KIND of Cloth your Goods are made of .-- So Mistakes are Impossible.

Send for Free Color Card, Story Bookiet, and looklet giving results of Dyeing over other colors.

The JOHNSON-RICHARDSON CO., Limited, Montreal, Canada,

Selected Recipes.

Cottage Cheese .- Mix one pint of cottage cheese with one-half cupful of chopped English walnuts, one teaspoonful of chopped chives, one Delicious, with a full- teaspoonful of salt and one-half saltspoonful of paprika. Form into balls and arrange in nests of lettuce. Serve with a mayonnaise dressing, to which has been added some chopped olives and capers.

Cheese Cream Toast .- Melt one and one-half tablespoonfuls of butter, add one and one-half tablespoonfuls of flour and when bubbling pour on one and one-half cupfuls of scalded milk, stirring brisk ly until the sauce is smooth; season ing" once astonished Lady Aber- two-thirds of a cupful of mild, grat- out. ate throb of triumph, her blonde head deen is Warren Y. Soper, vice-pre- ed cheese and cook until the cheese drooped so near him that her fair hair sident of the Ottawa Electric Com- is melted. Dip six slices of toast in No doubt came to her but that the sub- pany and director of almost a score the sauce, place in a hot dish and pour the cream sauce over them.

In his earlier days Mr. Soper was | Boiled Icing-Often one finds that a telegraph operator, and a good a boiled frosting is either too much him to give an exhibition. Their calls for praise tells the secret of Excellencies Lord and Lady Aber- her success. She uses three tabledeen-for it was during their stay spoonfuls of water to a cupful of sugar; when the mixture begins to On the stage, blind-folded, sat a boil she slowly beats six tablespoongentleman, while Mr. Soper, pass- fuls of it into the white of an egg, ing through the audience, was hand- beaten very stiff. Then she lets the ed a number of articles. Each he remainder of the syrup boil till it open the raisins. scrutinized, but he neither spoke hairs; this point in the cooking It grew harder and harder to utter the nor made any sign. In every case reached, she beats it gradually into tirely at your disposal; we will go to your himself for the trying ordeal, "did it ever out an accurate description of the Famous London Dish-Take a quarter pound of grated cheese. Then Lady Aberdeen supplied the Dissolve in one cupful of milk, a sirable to cool hot cakes upon Writing upon her small quarter of a teaspoonful of A special knife should always be cheese; add a quarter of a teaspoonful of mustard, half a saltspoonful stirring food cooking over a l of white pepper, a pinch of cavenne pepper and two tablespoonfuls of browned flour. Heat in double boiler until cheese is dissolved, then stir in three well-beaten eggs, stir a few moments and pour into india nice brown. Serve hot.

the salad bowl with a small clove of garlic or mince the garlic very fine. add two cupfuls of cottage cheese and two teaspoonfuls of chives cut the table. fine with scissors, one teaspoonful of salt and one-half saltspoonful of paprika. Mix well, add a little rich and water. cream if necessary to help it retain its shape, then stir in lightly three tablespoonfuls of chopped pimento; pile upon a bed of cress and ornament with pimento cut in fancy shapes and place upon ice until needed. Serve with mayonnaise dressing. Good Celery Pickle-For this celery pickle put in the good leaves as well as the stalks. Three parts cel-He tried to forget it, as men struccle of Evelyn St. Claire as to speak the words programme a sentence, she handed ery, three parts cabbage, one part it to Mr. Soper, requesting that he onions. Put these through the meat to discuss with you, Evelyn," he said, transmit it mentally to the man on grinder and mix with three-fourths Claire; what madness, what folly to al- whether or not ours would be a happy the stage. "I see a sentence of five cup of salt to a gallon. Let stand words I am about to speak, etill, they are words' called out the "subject" a overnight, then drain off what liquid the very idea of it made the angry blood But the hearts of men are proverbi- better said before marriage than after." few seconds later, and he repeated comes away readily. Heat and add longed to turn upon him with the fierce- more Percy tried to shut out all thoughts Still no gleam of the truth dawned up- the exact words. The astonishment the following to every gallon: One quart good vinegar, one-half cup sugar, eight bay leaves, twenty drops oil of cloves, twenty drops oil of cinnamon. Just before stirring this into the vegetables add onefourth teaspoonful of red peper.

Good Vinegar-To start, use any kind of sweet juice. If you have that didn't form, or a little sorghum, syrup, or anything of the kind, put it in a stone jar with enough warm water to make just a His Treatment of Lioness Would sweetened water. Take a piece of brown wrapping paper, cut round the size of the jar lid, and put with the rear. It was screened from the stone house on the hill by tall nodding noplars. It was a dangerous locality owing to the fact that a shaft had been sunk there.

Then a strange resolution came to him. It with you to decide what our future is court. She was Annie Traves, of 15 gether and the stone when all the love of his heart had gone slender white hands, Evelyn, my dear western (London, England,) police it at thin layer of bread dough the size of the paper. Roll both up to the fact that a shaft had been sunk there. gether and drop it in the jar; this who have been after him have a will form the plant. Any kind of different opinion, writes Frank W. fruit juice of rinsings from jelly Butler in Pall Mall Magazine. glasses may be added at any time. In fact, the "king" has habits Keep the jar in a warm place. The that would make a militant suffracontents will be vinegar in about gette grit her teeth and provide her three weeks after the jar is filled with some telling facts for lecture and will taste just like cider vine- purposes. gar. It is a great saving, for one He sallies out at night accomuses so much vinegar in the sum- panied by his wife, and he sends her mer for sliced cucumbers, salads, off to growl and roar and frighten beets, beans, covering pickles, etc. game into his jaws. He gets the The same "plant" may be used for lion's share, she gets the lioness's, years if kept in the juice.

Home Hints.

A great aid to baby's bath when emitted a loud growl that served as he is afraid of water is some water a useful warning. I fired and toys which he can play with.

the right side with thread so that tail. Luckily Mr. Guy, Mr. Doonthere will be no doubt about it. pair of butcher's cuffs on hand to time, after which she recovered and "Yes, if you're the first liar she protect the sleeves in emergencies. sprang from bush to bush growlwashed in strong ammonia water. with a third shot from my Mann-For the bristles, it should be cold. licher finished her.

To clean ribbon, sponge with al- We formed camp, and for three cohol and rub over the spot with weeks lions came close to us, hopclean white soap, holding the rib- ing to pick up our oxen. The huntbon straight.

A GOOD HABIT Tea when you are tired,

particularly if it's TEA

Goes farthest for the money though, as a rule, it is only

FOR MAKING SOAP. SOFTENING WATER, REMOVING PAINT, DISINFECTING SINKS. CLOSETS, DRAINS, ETC. SOLD EVERYWHERE REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

materials, rub in powdered French toothless old lion who will attack A millionaire whose "mind-read- with salt, pepper and paprika. Add chalk. After some hours shake it a man.

> Use wash pillows whenever possible for living-rooms and dens. They are more hygienic and more

When tinware is new, rub it with lard and heat thoroughly in the oven. Tinware treated in this way variously described and might be can be cleaned with soapsuds and a island of Hayti, which is situated scrubbing brush and then can be shellacked.

ness, stem them, cover with boiling sound which is locally called the water for two minutes and then A cake should be iced before it is Charcoal powder is excellent for cleaning fine knives.

soda, then add it to the grated kept for onions, bread and hot fat Try a long glass stirring rod for

Hot soapsuds with ammonia admirable for cleaning gold jewelry In whipping cream, add the white of an egg to every cupful of cream Cornmeal will remove lamp smoke vidual patty-pans or cases, and bake from a wall blackened by kerosene. Chloroform is good for removing Cottage Cheese and Chives-Rub grease spots, but should be used

Turnips and potatoes mashed to gether make a pleasant change on

Never blacken a kitchen stove wash it every day with clean soap Housewives will find the butcher's covers even the sleeves. all utensils and ingredients should der, howling and a sound like the be placed ready to hand.

knives in a knife jug. made useful by mixing them with with a loud detonation much wiches and served with salad. and let them stand five minutes, noise echoed in all directions. At come away with the skin so that a the roar of surf, or even the dead quickly sliced for sauce or pudding. blocks of stone rolling down preci-When sealing fruit butters or pices." preserves, place a circle of thin cloth on top and sprinkle this with If a man is punished for doing ground cinnamon. The spice pre- wrong he should know better next vents mold from accumulating on time, and if he is wise, there will

HABITS OF THE LION.

Arouse a Suffragette.

The lion is regarded as the king and when he has satisfied his appetite he does an immense amount of roaring and bragging about his

If the pair have the misfortune to fall across gunners and the lioness is first shot, the King of Beasts, her lioness makes herself very nasty

Having beaten the Kedong River about six feet from me, having first wounded her, when she prepared to Before dyeing a garment mark charge, lashing her sides with her er's partner, was at the ready, and Every housekeeper should keep a his rifle laid her low for a short Brushes and combs are best ing. Spooring her, I followed, and

ing of Leo being a rather serious To remove grease from woollen business and one requiring strict precautions, we had our fires lighted and hurricane lamps hung up an bour before dark, and kept them going until daylight.

It is not difficult as a rule to know wnen lions are about, as they make their presence audible. Away in the soft, velvety darkness under the stars you hear a "woof-woof." answered from various points of the compass by other "woofs. It is then time to see to it that the boys have the fires going; otherwise the utterers of the "woofs" w

make things uncomfortable, likely enough smell you out

EARTHQUAKE FOR WEEKS.

The Natives of Hayti Call It "The Gouffre."

Earthquake sounds have been expected to differ widely according Porch chairs of wicker or reed to circumstances and locality. The in a neighborhood where the earth is in a continual state of tremor, is To stone raisins without sticki- visited by a peculiar earthquake 'gouffre." and an account of it appears in the Bulletin Semestriel of the Port au Prince meteorological observatory.

The region of the "gouffre" is in the mountain range of La Selle. A sheet of heavy cardboard is de- which is about seven thousand feet high, and which, unstable still, gives much evidence of past volcanic activity. The sounds are apparently the same as those accompanying noticeable earthquakes, and the name "gouffre" is applied

Its noise extends sometimes over periods of weeks and the vicar of Croix des Bouquets, fifteen miles north of the mountain range, gives the following description of it: During the day the sound was heard from the south-east and seemed to come from a great depth. It was like a deep roaring and then at times like the howling of a dog. From time to time it stopped with a hollow boom which might be taken for a distant cannon shot.

"During the night it was differapron a great convenience, as it ent. although the sound came from a different direction; there was a Before beginning to make a cake perfect tumult, rumbling of thunrushing of a strong wind. There Never plunge the ivory handle of was no wind, however. Sometimes a knife into hot water. Wash the one heard all the noises at once. Generally and above all, from 7 to Scraps of cream cheese may be 10 o'clock at night, the sound ended butter and milk or a little cream, stronger than in the day, followed This should be spread on thin, waf- by a long echo. Then again would erlik crackers, made into sand- be heard an outburst that cannot be imagined. It was as if a moun-" boiling water on oranges tain of glass were shattered and the This will cause the white lining to times it seemed as if one could hear large quantity of oranges can be thud of objects falling, such as never be a next time.

A bite of this and a taste of that, all day long, dulls the appetite and weakens the Restore your stomach to healthy vigor by taking a Na-Dru-Co Dyspepola Tablet after each meal-and cut out the "piecing".

Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets are the best friends for sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. 50c. a Box at your Druggist's. Made by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited.

or White Cap Y. Dent $1.35 per bushel Longfellow $1.50; Compton's $1.60. Freight paid in Ontario on 10 bushels OF MORE. Bags free. Write for entslogue. CEO. KEITH & SONS, Toronto. Seed merchants since 1866

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO