Important Points in Last Week's Legislature.

Parliament Buildings, Toronto, April 5th, 1913.

- 1. Government votes down all proposals for extending the franchise to women. 2. Government opposed Mr. Rowell's motion to appoint a Commission to investigate the Eight Hour Day and Minimum Wage. 3. Mr. Rowell censures the Government for their failure to inaugurate an adequate publicity campaign for the Province. 4. Sir James Whitney announces that there is no probability of a Workmen's Compensation Act this session. 5. J. C. Elliott, Liberal (West Middlesex) introduces Bill to encourage the breeding of black foxes—Second reading. 6. Hon. Mr. Hanna introduces important changes in the Marriage Act. 7. Changes in Motor Vehicles Act in Municipal Committee. Every driver private and professional must be licensed. 8. Hon. Mr. Hanna introduces important changes in the Marriage Act. 9. Changes in Motor Vehicles Act in Municipal Committee. Every driver private and professional must be licensed.

LADIES ARE DISAPPOINTED.

Those women in Ontario and there are thousands of them in every part of the Province, who want to see at least some extension of the franchise to their sex are badly disappointed at the recent action of the Legislature in voting down every variety and stage of woman suffrage. During the debate on this subject the attendance in the galleries was as large as at the Temperance debates and standing room was at a premium. Sir James Whitney rather antagonized the ladies present by asking the Speaker in brusque terms to clear the galleries, because at one point a few women applauded sentiments in favor of woman suffrage. The Speaker smoothed down the incident.

It seems to be widely believed that the Government made a mistake in not granting some concessions. The Maediarid Bill had been drawn up by Hon. Mr. Hanna and every person thought that it was practically a Government measure. At the last moment however, it was withdrawn.

The four Bills considered were as follows:

- 1. The Macdonald Bill—Would have given the vote to those women who now have it in municipal elections. Supported by the Opposition and Allan Studholme. 2. The Elliott Bill—In short would have granted the municipal vote to married women property holders. Supported by the Opposition and Allan Studholme. 3. The Maediarid Bill—Some what similar to the Elliott Bill except that no married women property holders would be entitled to vote only in cases where the wife asked that her name be replaced that of her husband on the list. Withdrawn. 4. The Studholme Bill—Equal franchise to man and woman. Supported by some private members.

Social Problems.

A sign of the times is the attention being given to Social problems by the Legislature everywhere. It betokens a growing humanitarian spirit which is choking off the mere politician. Discussions have taken place in the Ontario house during this session on many questions affecting labor, the employment of children in factories, workmen's compensation for injuries, women suffrage, &c. Most of these questions have been favored by Mr. N. W. Rowell, who is showing that he is broad-minded enough to rise above political exigencies when the interests of the toiler or of the masses had to be considered. The efforts he and his followers have made have been almost fruitless. This session but seed has been sown which will later produce a crop of justice and goodwill to men in advance of anything now existing.

Those who looked upon Mr. Rowell as a man of one idea, and that idea, advocacy of temperance measures, now must admit they were astray. The following quotation from Henry George fits to a nicety the personality, the character and the aims of the Opposition leader.

'The intelligence required for the solving of social problems is not a thing of mere intellect. It must be animated with the religious sentiment and warm with sympathy for human suffering. It must stretch out beyond self-interest, whether it be the self-interest of the few or of the many. It must seek justice. For at the bottom of every social problem we will find a social wrong.'

Dornoch

We hope the fine weather will continue, after Saturday's blizzard, which was a real winter day. Farmers are beginning to think we are going to have a late spring, as it is getting late and not much hope of ploughing as yet.

The Women's Institute was held at Mrs. Parke's on Wednesday 9th, at 2.30. Members were all present and got two new members, so hope we will have a success. We hope others will come and take hold of the work and have a social time together, as we really live too much to ourselves.

The Bible Class had a social time on Monday night, quite a number being present, also the Williamford choir, which was very much appreciated. Mr. D. Morrison acted as chairman and proved very satisfactory. We understand they will hold a social time every three months. Refreshments will be served at the next meeting, also expect the choir.

Mr. H. Alexander's sale went off fine, although the day was wet and roads in a dreadful condition. Everything was a success.

The meeting of the W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. was held in the basement on Monday last, eleven members being present, topic being 'Mission Work in China.' After the meeting Mrs. Parke invited all the ladies for lunch, which was very much appreciated.

Miss Kate Malaney was united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Monday morning in the R. C. church to Mr. D. Moran. We wish them a prosperous journey through life.

The Mission Band was held in the basement of the church on Saturday last, 14 members present. Reading was given on Mission work in China and Mission Band work by Mrs. Dargavel, Mrs. Stevenson, Miss Bessie Wilson, Mr. Peter Ledingham. Miss Ivy Dargavel sang a solo.

Miss Annie McDonald, of Durham, is spending a few days at Mr. D. McArthur's this week.

Condition Powders

How is your horse? Is his coat sleek and glossy? Is he full of life and action? Or is his hair stiff and dirty looking? Is he moving slowly in a tired fashion? Do his eyes indicate good health?

A horse often needs a bitter tonic as well as does a man. Our CONDITION POWDERS will tone up his digestion and appetite, clear the eye and give gloss to the coat and lightness to his action.

You get a big package for the rice but every particle is medicine, good medicine, too. It is not filled with cheap meal just to make it look a big bargain. Just as good for

Crawford

It's a long time since we've heard from Crawford, thought we would tell a few of the happenings around the city.

Rain and wind was the order of the day last week, but the latter part looked like if we were going to have another young winter.

A few of the congregation of the Presbyterian church gathered on Saturday afternoon to replace the shed roof that was destroyed by the wind-storm.

Miss Annie Supernault spent a couple of days with Miss Sara McDougall last week.

The W. H. M. S. held their monthly meeting Wednesday April 2nd, in the Presbyterian church, Attendance fairly good.

Mr. Jack McKechnie and Mr. Hugh McKinnon are engaged with Mr. Andrew Milne repairing his barn roof, which was destroyed by the wind.

Miss Lizzie Teasdale, of Elmwood, spent over Sunday with her parents of this place.

Mr. Brigham made his round as assessor last week. He intends erecting his telephone on the 8th soon.

Making maple syrup is the order of the day now. The weather is kind of disagreeable, although some report to have a good run.

Miss Rachel McKinnon spent a couple of days last week with her sister, Mrs. A. A. Milne, of Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy McDonald visited at Mr. James McDougall's one evening last week.

Miss Tena Livingstone is this week spending a few days with friends in Elmwood.

Mr. Thomas Stinson is having a stoning bee on Tuesday of this week. No doubt Tom is trying to get things in shape for spring work.

Mr. D. J. McDonald delivered some fine cattle in Elmwood last Saturday, for which he received highest prices.

Born—April 4th, to Mr and Mrs Wm. Bieuman, a daughter.

Mulock

A number from the neighborhood attended Mr. George Johnston's sale at Lumbash. Mr. Andrew Hastie has rented the farm and moved into the house. Mr. Johnston and his sister Kate intend leaving for Winnipeg soon.

Misses Annie Supernault and Rachel McKinnon were the guests of Miss Sarah McDougall at Crawford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Alexander of Ab-rdeen, and Mr. and Miss Johnston visited at Mr. Alf Redford's Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. McGaffin and children have returned after visiting her sisters at Walkerton and Priceville and her brother in Chatsworth. She was accompanied by her brother Mr. Alex McGilivray.

A number of men helped Mr. Jas. Brunt to repair the roof of his barn which was destroyed by the wind storm.

Mr. Hugh McKinnon is engaged in the vicinity of Crawford and Louise at carpenter work, replacing the wrecked buildings.

The ladies of the Mission Circle met in the church, as usual on Wed. April 2nd, when a pleasant and profitable time was spent together. Several instructive papers were read and some musical selections were given.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald and Johnnie spent an evening last week at Mr. Jas. McDougall's, Crawford.

Master Archie McDonald, son of Rev. Mr. McDonald and Mrs. Herb Schienk, who have been under the doctor's care are recovering.

It is a painful duty for us to record the death of John Joseph, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, who had been ailing only about a week, the trouble being appendicitis. An operation was performed on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McAuliffe, Durham, and for a time there were buoyant hopes that the bright young life would be restored to health, but such hopes were disappointed for on Thursday morning he died having passed his 12th birthday by 23 days.

The heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved parents and only brother, a boy of 8 years. His loss is also keenly felt by his teacher and school companions to whom he was endeared.

He was buried on Saturday forenoon at St. John R. C. Cemetery (Genelg), and many friends gathered to pay the last tribute.

In Memoriam

JOHN JOSEPH BURNS. We have to mourn the death of one, We did our best to save, Beloved on earth, regretted gone, Remembered in the grave.

We loved him, ah, no tongue can tell How much we loved him and how well; God loved him too and thought it best To take him to his heavenly rest.

Yet again we hope to meet him When the day of life is fled There, in heaven we hope to meet him Where no parting tears are shed.

From one who loved him, MRS DAN McAULIFFE.
