Give your Boy a Farm

Every Farmer wants to provide for his sons, but seldom will the old homestead, developed with toil, suffice to meet their needs. The boys have been brought up to the land. They are familiar with all the phases of farming. They should have land of their own. How is the farmer to meet this emergency?

The Logical Answer is Western Canada

Thousands of acres divided into 160 acre farms are being thrown open for entry by the Dominion Government along or near the line of the Canadian Northern Railway

The land gives a wide choice. There are some plots on the open prairie and others again in the well wooded, well watered districts in

Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

A large number of these homesteads are particularly adapted to mixed farming.

Write or Enquire To-day

Any agent of the Canadian Northern Railway or the undersigned will be glad to send on application full information as to the location of these homesteads and the way to secure them. Write for "The Broad Basket," "35,000 Free Homesteads and our Peace River Booklet. You will be interested.

Scotch Immigrants

For Grey County Farmers.

As an aid to solving the farm labor problem which is reported to be very acute in Grey County, Mr. H. C. Duff, District representative of the Department of Agriculture, returned from Scotland last week accompanied by a contingent of about 100 sturdy Scotch immigrants. Since their arrival, the members of the party have been distributed in the different townships where help had been applied for.

Personal visitation enabled Mr. Duff to get in touch with a desirable class of people and the representative himself affirms that they are the best lot of settlers who have ever come to Canada. There were a few girls among the party and some men with wives and families, but the majority were young sturdy unmarried men of the practical type. Every farmer who came over was assured of a position before embarking.

Mr. Duff said that after leaving Montreal, every man in the party could have been hired a dozen times, so acute is the farm labour question in Ontario. Farmers would board the train at stations and offer inducements but nearly all the men remained loyal to Mr. Duff.

"The situation is serious," said Mr. Duff. "Not only in Grey County, but all over the Province, for it is simply impossible to get hired help, and the farmers will have to pay high wages to hold these men. People do not realize how serious the situation is. A few of the men left us in Toronto, but not very many. I stayed right with them from the time they left Scotland. The men themselves, Mr. Duff said, remarked on how different conditions were here compared with conditions in Scotland. There a man has to go and hunt for work and is lucky to get it, but here the employer comes and asks him to work. They are the best class of men that ever came to Canada," said Mr. Duff. "We had a splendid trip across the ocean. There were about four hundred on the boat and about two hundred went to the west, while the others came to Toronto."

Messrs Dan Edge and Jack Firth of Glenelg have secured two of the new arrivals and report says that they are already making good. It is said that they are also greatly pleased with Canada.

"D" Company goes to Hanover

Lack of Enthusiasm said to be the Cause

After being prominently connected with military affairs for more than half a century, Durham is about to drop out of the field and her portion, "D" company of the 31st regiment is to be given to Hanover.

Although no official notification of the change has as yet been received by the officers of the local company it is practically certain that the arrangements for the transfer have already been completed. Captain D. B. Jamieson states that Hanover will likely assume control in time to send a company to camp this June.

Citizens greatly regret the loss of "D" company. Last year the regimental band was taken away and given to Owen Sound and it was rumored then that the company will probably soon follow, unless a greater degree of enthusiasm was awakened and a better turnout of volunteers possible. The lack of spirit and men has resulted in the losing of the company. The armory building erected four years ago, at a cost of $8,000, at present remains idle and stands as a monument of days when the town could boast of military activities.

The 31st regiment was first organized in 1862, and served in the Fenian raids, which were being waged about that time.

The Owen Sound Advertiser has the following to say of the change.

According to all indications, there is soon to be a shaking up in the 31st Regiment, by the transfer of "D" Company from Durham to Hanover. For some years it has been impossible to turn out a decent sized company from Durham—not, be it understood, from any lack of enthusiasm on the part of officers or men, but mainly, it is understood, because the employers of labor were indifferent or opposed to the militia when it happened to cross with their particular interests, and refused to allow their men to go to camp. Be the reason what it may, the fact remains that D. Co. of late years has been very weak, and for some time there has been talk of a move. Lt. Col. Cleland and Major Chisholm have visited Durham more than once and tried to arouse enthusiasm, but apparently in vain. Now they have taken it up from the Hanover end, and we are informed that Mr. G. H. Musgrove of that town, already has almost a full company recruited. His difficulty in fact, has been, it is said, to keep the number of recruits down within limits. We understand also, that Mr. R. J. Ball, M. P., has secured from the Minister of Militia the promise of an armory.

The transfer of the Company and stores will probably be made in a few days to enable the new company to attend camp.

Crawford

The beautiful weather we are having now makes the farmers kind of anxious, as we see they are all busy on the land. Some have already had their drills out.

Mr. Frank Warner is engaged with Mr. Tom Stinson at the present, taking off stoves.

Mr. Gus Subject had a ploughing bee last week and then entertained his neighbors to a party at night. The evening was spent in dancing until the wee small hours in the morning.

Mr. Donald Livingstone and Mr. Archie McDougall attended the horse fair in Durham last Thursday and disposed of a horse.

Mr. Alex McDonald, Jr., met with a severe accident last week by falling and hurt his back and has been under Dr. Brown's care since. Hope to soon hear of his recovery.

Mr. Duncan McKinnon and brother Hughie have been busy the last few days putting a new steel roof on their barn.

Messrs Andy Green and Gus Subject had the misfortune of losing two valuable horses last week.

Priceville

This Saturday, the 19th April, was cold after the thunderstorm of Friday evening. A few commenced sowing but not many. The ground was not too condition during the past week for ploughing and cultivating.

The water is getting down in the Saugene river and no more danger of floods or bridges taken away.

We see that merchant McLean has added dry goods department to his merchandise in the old Grier house on the opposite side of the street.

Mrs. Norman McIntyre, who has been unwell for a few weeks, we are pleased to report, is getting better after her long illness.

We saw a glimpse of Mr. John A. Graham in our town on Friday last. Mr. Graham still holds the old parental affection by coming once in a while to his late father's old home to see his lonely stepmother.

The Rev. Mr. Matheson was at an induction of a minister at Fisherton congregation on Thursday last and had the honor of preaching the opening sermon in an able manner.

The Women's monthly meeting held in the basement of the Presbyterian church here on Wednesday of last week, was fairly well attended.

Mrs. Dr. Lane has been away for some time visiting at her old home in the county of Bruce, while the good doctor is busy visiting many other homes during her absence.

Neil McKinnon, Jr., is away for some time, as he got an appointment to fill at a good remunerative office down the country somewhere.

Mrs. McLachlan, who was ailing some time ago, we are pleased to say, is well again and comfortably attended by her faithful daughter, Mrs. Shortreed, where she is at present making her home.

The sweet chimes of wedding bells will be ringing nearby this week, so there will be more to write upon in our next budget.

The Rev. Mr. Matheson preached his 15th anniversary sermon the Sunday before last. In reflecting on the past fifteen years of his ministry in the Presbyterian church here, he found many changes. Many of the old people who sat in the pews and many younger ones were gone to their everlasting home. Those who were young children then are to-day men and women and those that were getting on the downward grade then are to-day old and feeble. He visited many a home during that time, spoke words of comfort to the sick and dying and paid the last tribute of respect to many by preaching their funeral obsequies and seeing them laid in their graves. Time is ever on the wing, the years of our pilgrimage are swiftly passing by. To look back 15 years ago it doesn't seem so long ago since Mr. Matheson preached his first sermon in Priceville, but look 15 years into the future and we think it is far away, but nevertheless in course of time it will arrive, whosoever may live to see it.

Bob Fisher and Arch. J. McDonald were two busy boys ploughing on the Model Farm at the town line most of last week.

Chas. McDonald arrived home to his mother's, Mrs. Chas. McDonald, near the town line, Egremont, a few days ago, after spending two years on the prairies of the west. Charlie was not feeling well for some time, but is well again, although not as strong as he was, but by the attendance of a dutiful mother, he will soon be as rugged as ever.

Wm. McLeod, Jr., lost his favorite mare a week ago while foaling. He often refused $250 and would get $300 for her if he only would consent to sell her. Mr. McLeod lost nearly the price of his farm in horses dying during the last few years.

Mr. Aldcorn got the roof of his barn shingled again, after being blown down by the recent gales.

We notice that John S. McMillan, near Ceylon, is roofing his big barn with metallic roofing. He had it blown down on Good Friday. Mr. McMillan had his barn insured in case of wind or fire, a very good act for all farmers to do.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Donald McKinnon took place a couple of weeks ago, mother of Mrs. George Tryon, of this place. Mrs. McKinnon died in some far away part of the country and her remains were sent to Priceville, where she was laid beside her husband, who predeceased her some 30 years ago. Mrs. McKinnon's maiden name was Margaret McArthur born in the township of Caledon nearly 80 years ago. The Rev. Mr. Matheson preached the funeral obsequies at Mr. Tryon's and at the grave.
