anted r Supn take year.

oronto

r sale by dealers

. . Toronto

EAST-STATE CONTRACTOR

YEARS. ITED

tions of Ontario buildings fair. to Western Real THEWAN-EQUIP

COINS

amps, Catalogue

a Marke Stamp LUMPS ETO. nal cared with treatment. Write Rollman Medical Price $2.00 from Canada, Limited.

ar Way. w he got rich. i shan't follow methods."

said he simply stead of spendhe thought he Distemper.

ngerous enterbetween husend a doctor.

itable result of d bowels and ther waste mat-perly filter the in, opening up lood and good

se's " ot Pills

For Weal or for Woe;

Or, A Dark Temptation

CHAPTER XXXVI.-(Cont'd) When the morning light broke Little Gay was in a high, delirious fever.

The professor and his good wife stood by her couch with anxious faces. And before Tremaine could prevent her, again then the cruelest blow that fate could that shrill, piercing cry rang out on the have dealt poor, hapless Little Gay hap- night air. In the senseless raving babblings that had stepped out of the telegraph office.

fell from her feverish lips she uttered the waiting on the corner of Broadway to The professor leaped to his feet with an They were Mr. Lennox, the detective, name of Harold Tremaine.

maine at once; luckily I know his ad- wringing his friend's hand, as he sig-dress-he can tell us who this young girl naled a cab and jumped into it. is, of course, and where her folks are to "If you want to make a five-dollar note, He immediately put the plan into exe- claimed hurriedly to the driver.

cution. Hardly an hour had elapsed ere The man whipped up his he see and Tremaine presented himself at the pro- the terrible chase began. Some girl repeating my name over and over in her delirium," he muttered angrily as he stood there on the marble steps.

And he idly wondered which one of his eine had found him out now. He was dressed in faultless attire, from his polished boots to the immaculate shirtfront on which a magnificent diamond blazed; yet when he was presented to the professor's wife, she formed a dislike to mouth under the drooping mustache, that track me down." she could never wholly account for. Tremaine's intense amazement and joy knew no bounds when they led him to the couch to identify the lovely stranger fernal business would not have happenand his eyes fell upon Little Gay. He could scarcely repress the cry of exultation that sprung to his lips; and like a flash a diabolical plot swept through his his angry voice. He turned to them with a well-simulat-excitement; "how came she here? This Poor Gay expected each moment would Tremaine would not betray the medical fraternity in this affair, as it was nec- riage window, his clarion tones rising the 20th. Oh-I-science, whenever and whatever way they

They readily believed Tremaine's story of his great grief over the supposed death lips, and blew a shrill blast, to call to how matters were, telling her all of asparagus puree. Three parts fill stance, at least, grave robbers could be blessed for the saving of a human life. moved. I will take her away at once," You must wait a week until che is a little stronger," they both declared, and curse, ground out savagely between his twinkling at the detective's head, fired; was not kind to me, but I forgive and on. Wipe the tomatoes, remove the injured expression on his darkly-hand- hands of brave Little Gay. "My darling does not know me; she that she felt sorry for him, believing her grappling with each other in a desperate Gay into the drawing-room where they sprinkle these with chopped parsley young wife's, they often imagine that the one who is nearest and dearest to tive had at last found his match, for gasped them is their cruelest foe; you must pay Tremaine fought with the courage of an no attention to her ravings; I shall take than gratefully indebted to you if you Little dreaming of the cruel plot against am the adopted daughter of Allen Remington, the banker of Your folks know all about your being. At that instant the light of the lamps not the pretty stranger whom Harold Tre- long months to find-Harold Tremaine!"

Dear me, she thought to herself, "the ing a shade paler. "First and foremost, to answer for the dangenter of the great banker of Grare Gay Percy Granvill's bride from Pas-Park that cettles it; of course she's saic some months ago, and secondly, for crime to have pointed scissors hot.

forced to relapse inte ellence, while the asked Tremaine, hoursely. garments Tremame had provided were

How her heart throbbed at the thought! port, and they would punish him for it. her out, but it was quite useless to ask At length a carriage drew up before the door. Tremaine, in a carefully disand for answer the doctor's wife drew with her.

"Papa, dear papa!" she sobbed joyous- Tremaine had occupied. ly, "it is you who have come for me, to it whirled rapidly down the street, but The coach was empty!

to her ear. "If you do, by all the pow- der figure of a young girl lying at his the bridge that night down into the water. You shall pay dearly for it.' Gay uttered a piercing cry for help.

of crashing glass.

The Guaranteed "ONE DYE for

All Kinds of Cloth.

Send for Free Color Card. Story Booklet, and Book-let giving results of Dyeing over other colors. The Johnson-Richardson Co., Limited, - Montreal

It almost electrified two gentlemen who and Percy Granville. "Some woman in danger!" cried the de-"She has mentioned the name tective excitedly. "I must follow that of a man I know. I will send for Tre- coach. Good-bye, Granville," he said, eatch that ceach a block ahead!" he ex

CHAPTER XXXVII "I have the fleetest team in the city replied the driver, eagerly, as he the cab ahead of us if any one can." It was not long before Tremaine ob-served that he was hotly pursued, and The curses loud and deep broke from his lips.

"If I can but reach the river first," he muttered, under his breath, "I defy the she sobbed. "Oh, sir, if anything should him."

The terrific crashing of the wheels as It was a ride never to be forgotten;

both drivers lashed and urged their ed gasp of dismay and the most intense horses to do their utmost, and the speed "My God!" he exclaimed in a well-feigned after corner was tremendous. with which each vehicle turned corner delay." While they explained the situation - Slowly but surely the detective's cab at last?"

> were within hailing distance of each a wild cry of horror. above the noise of hoofs and wheels.

peace; but, as usual, when they are want- knows. ed, they are not to be found.

"I'll double the sum I offered you if lost love. you overtake the cab ahead," he called "The vengeance of a just Heaven soon that issued from this vehicle.' out his revolver, and taking aim in a can nothing be done to save her? but the ball missed its mark, and before pity her," said Gay, in deep distrect. stems, make an incision on the ing attempt to regain his weapon; but save her; she cannot survive." Mr. Lennox was too quick for him.

is in the hands of the great de-

It seemed as though the famous detec-He had recognized his assailant, and he determined not to be taken, for he knew Little Gay at last, God bless her!"

Gay, still bound and gagged, had crept pair of handcuffs over Tremaine's white for her terrible sin. hands, and he was rendered powerless. While Gay was relating her pitiful ex- the eggs. Serve hot as a supper "Now then," exclaimed the detective periences of all she had undergone since dish or vegetable savory. ward the carriage-lamps, "we will take a tive hurried away to the nearest station the same time find out who it is you the wires to Percy Granville. Tremaine threw up his dark, handsome breath away in his intense joy. good lady, soothingly, as she placed her head proudly defiant to the last, a mock- "Little Gay, my bride, found at last ing, sneering smile on his white face. he cried. "Can it be really true?" "I am captured, but not conquered," he now. You shall tell me all about it after exclaimed bitterly; "you shall soon find here, and they are to send a carriage for fell full on his face, and the detective exclaimed, in the keenest amazement: Gay would have put a thousand eager "By all the powers that's wonderfulauestions to her, but she refused to listen. the very man I have been searching the She had wondered vaguely whether or city and the whole country through for For Stene-Cutters and Others maine called by the very uncommon name . Now that you have me, what do you of Gay, was really out of her head or want of me?" exclaimed Tremaine, turn-

As the motherly woman would neither "May I ask who informed against me

"A girl whom you discarded, I believe," replied Lennox. "Lydia Moore, who was play with scissors; they frequently chovies, one hard-cooked yolk of pily unmarried. She was going home! She would tell house by the river road, to which you them of Harold Tremaine's audacious rebrought Granville's bride—she made a eye, and often the wound, while it one desserts poonful capers, mayonthem of Harold Tremaine's audacious re- brought Granville's bride she made a clean breast of all she knew concerning will cause blindness, is too small to naise, two cabbage lettuces. Wipe Tremaine ground his white teeth in "the woman has rained me at last, as I The detective had not waited an instant o bandy words with him, but, placing sprung into the coach with a fluttering appeared on the thrilling scene, was hur-Was his senses playing him some horrible trick? Where was the woman whose are subjected to such dangers, ice to set thoroughly. Coat each The coach door closed with a bang, and piercing cries had first attracted him? should be compelled to wear glasses tomato several times with half-set His amazement knew no bounds, but it swered her.

"Make no outery," hissed a voice close glancing about him he observed the slenas he did so caught a good view of the the other eye." face, framed in its sheen of golden hair. "Attempt that again at your peril!" "Good Heavens!" he ejaculated, in in-eried Tremaine hoarsely, with a terrible tence excitement; "I really believe in tracking this villain down, I have found The sentence was drowned in a shower Little Gay. Percy Granville's lost bride, and Banker Remington's adopted daugh-He tore the bandage from the little red mouth, and unlocsed the little white hands, hastily applying restoratives, which he always carried about him. By this time another officer had found his way to the spot, and the two were dispatched to the Tombs with their handsome, aristocratic, defiant prisoner, with the written message to the chief that he was to be detained in close custody until Detective Lennox arrived. Just as the latter placed Gay in the coach with instructions to drive as fast as the condition of the tired-out horse would permit to Banker Remington's residence. Gay opened her eyes.

A cry of most intense gratitude and joy broke from her lips as she saw the kindly face of her rescuer opposite her instead of the dark, treacherous face of Harold Tremaine. The detective bent forward eagerly. "Do not be afraid, my dear," he said, taking ore of the little chill-cold hands in his, "you are quite safe, I am taking you to your friends. I sincerely hope I am not mistaken. You are Mr. Resington's adopted daughter—the bride of Percy Granville, are you got? Surely I cannot be mistaken."

"You " right," sobbed Gay: "I am indeed that most unfortunate person. Oh, have been deceived so much lately I do not know whom to trust. I am fearful of everyone playing me false whom I get with!"

Teacher—"Now, tell me what is every month in water with a lump of soda in it.

Pupil—"The thing what you forget with!"

With a clean cloth—preferably an

A TEA Unequalled for Fragrance and Wholesomeness.

Sold In lead packets only.

Black, Mixed and Green.

to my dear adopted parents? If you are, sprinkle with bread crumbs and together. If they stick the pota-I could fall down on my knees and bless whipped up his horses. "I can run down has been wearing his very life out search-

The cry of joy Gay uttered brought the dark, handsome face and smiling fool who is mad enough to follow me-to come between us now, when meeting him green asparagus, tie it up and cook mice can get rid of them very quickseems so certain, the blow would kill me, replied reassuringly; "so prepare yourthey fled over the paved streets, drowned own home I will dispatch a messenger ington's'. Rest assured that will fetch she could only sob out brokenly: which they did he knew he should have was gaining on Tremaine's, and, at last, Suddenly she sprung to her feet with eral minutes, then let cool a little "I command you to halt!" thundered "They told me he was to be wedded on of eggs, season with salt and pep-

> Soothingly Mr. Lennox took the two air on mortal terror, and at length suc- the mixture alternately with the The detective placed his whistle to his ceeded in making her understand just his aid the blue-coated preservers of the Percy's story, which the reader already one or two well-buttered pudding > determined since the affair had gone so tiful, cruel rival; and how Evelyn St. containing a little hot water. Steam far, he would see it through to the end Claire had acknowledged that she, and she alone, could unravel the mystery of thus in a fairly hot oven for about He saw the cab was making for the her disappearance, but that she would die river-bank, and more than one clever before she would speak the words that would enable Percy Granville to find his to a hot dish, pour over a well pre-out sharply to the driver, and again the overtook her, however," continued Mr. from the asparagus water, and the first person on whom they rested was man applied the lash, which gave a fresh Lennox, "for, in attempting to escape serve. impetus to the foaming, panting beasts. from my custody, in which she had been One terrific cut of the whip, and the placed, she leaped from a vehicle and was Tomatoes a la Chasseur. - Take two cabs were abreast at last, and both picked up from the pavement in an un-Now, then, halt!" thundered the de- back to the Remington mansion, and the tomatoes, six or eight preserved for a moment, however. The next in- tective again, "and explain the mysteri- doctors say the guilty girl's death is but mushrooms, chopped parsley, a litone cries for help-in a woman's voice- the question of a few short hours," he

he could repeat his action, the weapon | "You are little less than an angel to was dashed from his grasp by the bound feel so kindly disposed toward one who stem side by means of a plain one came so near wrecking your whole life." and three-fourths inch paste cut-"Foiled!" he exclaimed, with a terrible exclaimed the detective, admiringly; imprecation, springing forward in a dar- still, your pity and forgiveness cannot ter, and carefully remove the pulp To describe the great joy of the banker were seated, is beyond the power of the Tremaine's driver would have sprung pen. They laughed and cried over her by turns, declaring she was as one brought tomato. Place them into the tartexperience must have had many similar tective, Lennox; you must not interfere," where Evelyn St. Claire lay dying, they well fit the tomatoes. Break a small heard the great commotion. "What is it?-have they found her?"

had recognized the sweet young voice in he was wanted for more crimes than one Evelyn St. Claire fell back on her low with a bitter groan. All the plotting and planning her cruel few drops of dissolved butter in top from the coach, gazing at the fearful crimes had all been in vain Heaven had of each tomato and bake in a gencombat in mortal terror. It came to an foiled her-Percy and his lost darling end at last; the detective, with a clever would find each other at last; they would the oven from five to six minutes, kindly-faced, motherly lady, she held out movement, had succeeded in slipping a be happy, while she was called to atone > angrily, dragging him by main force to- the day she was decoyed away, the deteclook at you and see who you are, and at and sent a telephone message flying over A message that almost took Percy'

> > MUST WEAR GLASSES.

Whose Eyes Are Endangered.

about in any household in which

be noticed by the mother.

ing on strike because their em- same. Have ready the lettuces, ployer tried to force them to wear washed and divided into small piecmercy at last, my girl. I mean to take when she had crept from the coach and glasses, and I have seen a quarry. es, season with salt and pepper, a double vengeance upon you for giving beheld the terrible combat in which Tre- man who has lost an eye through a dress with mayonnaise, and put in me the slip from the old house by the maine and her would-be rescuer were en-Mr. Lennox raised her in his arms; and go back to the same work and lose prepared tomatoes round the salad,

QUITE CORRECT.

Seasonable Recipes. Asparagus Rolls .- Cook half a pleasant change. bundle of green asparagus tips or Put them in a stew-pan with a few waiting for the iron to heat. or tongue, also cut into fine shreds. hemmed by hand are less likely to Blend well and mix with bechamel pucker when washed than when or veloute sauce, season with salt, hung up on the machine. pepper and a grate of nutmeg and It pays the housekeeper to get keep hot. Cut three-fourths very the best bedsprings and mattresses small dinner rolls in half, scoop out in the market, even if she has to the crumbly part of each half and economize somewhere else. grated cheese. Place a small piece toes are good. "I am indeed taking you to them," he of butter in the centre, and put in When nailing down a carpet after a hot oven long enough to brown the floor has been washed be certain napkin, and send to table hot.

Asparagus Pudding. - Scrape, pet. clean, wash and drain a bundle of "I shall pay you for this," he hissed in Gay's terrified ear. "If I had taken the precaution to chloroform you this infrom seeing him ere the day dawns," he the tender parts through a fine self for a joyful meeting. As soon as I sieve. Melt about two ounces of place you within the safe portals of your butter in a stewpan, stir in three to the hotel, with these words: 'Gay has ounces of flour (sifted), cook a litbeen found; she is at home with the Rem- tle without browning, and add by make excellent fat for frying. him to your side without an instant's degrees about three-fourths of a pint of hot milk, in which a bay Gay's heart was too full for utterance; leaf and a piece of mace have been "Oh, Percy, are we really to be united boiled. Stir over the fire for sevand work in one by one four yolks He told her, too, how her disappearance molds, cover well with buttered The detective's blood was-up; he was had been traced to the door of her beau- paper, and put them in a saute-pan pared lemon sauce made partly tle cream, six small eggs, six tart For answer, Harold Tremaine whipped "Poor Evelyn-dying," sobbed Gay. "Oh, let crusts (baked) to serve tomatoes without breaking the skins of the In a trice both were on the pavement, and his wife when Mr. Lennox led Little tomatoes. Chop the mushrooms and at the bottom of each hollowed out let crusts, which should be made to fresh egg into each tomato; upon this put a dessertspoonful of cream "Yes." replied the joyful attendant, who and tomato pulp (the batter being the corridor below, "they have found rubbed through a sieve, mixed with the cream and suitably seasoned with salt and pepper). Sprinkle a just long enough to poach or set Green Peas a la Paysanne.—Shell and cook one quart of green peas s in salted water and drain them. Peel and chop finely half a small onion, fry it in an ounce of butter a pale golden color; to this add two ounces of cooked lean ham, cut into dice. Dredge with a little flour (say a teaspoonful), stir over the fire for a few seconds, and add a quart of tivity. Kindness begets kindness, cooked green peas. Season with a and truth and trust will bear a rich pinch of sugar, grated nutmeg, salt harvest of truth and trust. There and pepper; moisten with two are many trival acts of kindness "I believe," said Mr. Myles tablespoonfuls of good stock, simidea of her imagining herself the adopted part you took in spiriting away Little Standish in his lecture at the Harvard Medical School, "that it is a occasionally. Dish up and serve phrases.

listen nor reply to her questions. Gay was in the latter offense I am charged with?" there are children under six years six even-sized, ripe and firm to- so often looks very sad. Is she unof age. Children will invariably matoes, four filleted Gorgona an- happily married? She-No; unhapthe tomatoes, carefully scoop out "Next in point of danger to the the centre by means of a vegetable eyesight is the pounding of steel on cutter or a teaspoon. Chop the guised voice, inquired if she were ready, always thought she would when I broke steel, which throwing out slivers, capers, yolk of egg and anchovy eventually destroys the sight. Ma- fillets, mix with a gill of mayonnaise chinists and stonecutters meet with and a gill of aspic, stir over the ice Some one was seated within. Gay him in charge of a patrolman who had similar accidents, and now that the until nearly set, then fill the caviriedly examining the interior of the coach public is paying for these injuries ties of the tomatoes, cover with a through insurance, workmen, who spring of parsley, and put on the of some sort to protect their eyes. aspic, or line some little molds with "I have known of quarrymen go- aspic and set the tomatoes in the garnish with sprigs of parsley and blocks of aspic jelly. Some lobster or any other kind of cooked fish may be used for the stuffing in place of the anchovies. Green Peas with Ham .- Boil and drain a quart of young peas; shred finely two rashers of raw ham, and fry them for a few minutes with a small piece of butter. Add two small, green onions, finely chopped, and the peas; moisten with three tablespoonfuls of bechamel sauce, two of cream and season with salt, pepper and a pinch of sugar. Let all simmer for a few minutes longer, turn out on to a hot dish, garnish with fried bread croutons, and serve hot.

Useful Hints.

Potato parings, baked in an oven, will light more quickly than wood when used to kindle a fire.

To keep the light of oil lamps clear, the burners should be boiled old table cloth-to keep it free from germs and dust. The white of an egg, whipped stiff, with a ripe banana makes a delicious cream to be eaten on a simple gelatine pudding.

Apples can be stewed with a little left-over canned fruit, such as blackberries, and the result will be

Wear a sewing apron while ironfinely sliced sprue (asparagus) in ing, and you will often find it possalted water, and drain on a sieve, sible to do a bit of mending while mushrooms and two slices of ham Sash curtains of Swiss muslin dry them crisp in the oven. Fill Test potatoes by cutting in two each roll with the above mixture, and rubbing the cut surfaces tocoat the top with white sauce, be- gether. Then press the two parts ing for you-to your young husband, my the surface. Dish up on a folded that the floor is quite dry, or the nails will rust and injure the car-Any one troubled with rats or > ly if they will sprinkle pepper on a cloth and stuff this into the hole the bomb throwers. It has been where they appear. steak should be left in a dish and class of letter. It comes from a story of a factory notice now going

Large patterns in tablecloths are less economical than small ones, for the simple reason that the long

To preserve the appearance of wooden utensils wash them directthe detective, leaning far out of his earthe 20th to Evelyn St. Claire. To-day is per and a pinch of red pepper. ly after they are used, because if in the morning, and salt water Whisk the whites of eggs to a stiff grease and dirt are allowed to soak A derisive laugh from Tremaine floated cold, white hands that were beating the froth, and incorporate lightly with in it may be impossible to remove use a very hot iron nor dampen and heavy load should be laid on them. Lay some clean, dry muslin his shoulders from morning till over the seams and press with a

To overcome the odor of mould, which sometimes rises in a library in damp weather in spite of the best of care, scatter a few drops of oil of lavender on the shelves, and the odor will disappear. Eating too quickly is a common fault among children who are hungry, and the habit should be checked from the first, as indigestion will "brutally hanged." result from "bolting" the food, and when once the seeds of this miserable ailment are sown there is scarcely ever a complete cure. Even at the expense of a little inconvenience and trouble it is well to watch the children at meal times, and to teach them to eat slowly.

Sometimes during the spring cleaning operations a good piece of furniture is bruised. If the injury is severe a cabinetmaker should be consulted, but where the wood is only dented, and not broken, the mark can generally be removed by home treatment. First wet that part with warm water, then double a piece of brown paper several times and place it over the bruise now press with a heavy warm iron, leaving it on the paper until the moisture has evaporated. If one application is not successful it must

Character. duties faithfully performed, of de- abstemious habits. nial, of self-sacrifice, of kindly acts, of love and duty. The backbone of Hake's fondness for long walks :character is laid at home, and whe ther the constitutional tendencies be good or bad, home influences will, as a rule, fan them into acwhich teach us more about a man's

Stuffed Tomatoes in Aspic-Take | He-That woman I see you with

MAKE THE PENALTY FIT.

dian Bomb Throwers.

Apropos the recent attempt on Lord Hardinge, the British viceroy in India, many writers to the correspondence columns of the Indian newspapers are evidently of the opinion that hanging is too good for left for the Times of India to re-All the strips of fat left from a ceive the most picturesque of this tail are: First-That he (the anarchist) "To touch these wires means inshould be daily rolled down at least stant death. Anyone failing to reone hour a day, packed in ordinary spect this warning will be prosethreads break sooner than the short wood cask fixed with sharp-pointed cuted and fined." nails on all sides of the cask.

Second-At least six severe had to be prosecuted. stripes daily should be given early spread on the spot of stripes given. Third-For the rest of the day the coward should be bent down with In pressing silk or satin, do not his devil black face on the ground

> Fourth-Sleep should be given in very dark room, and the room must be full of harrassing small living

> Fifth-Food and water of very inferior quality should be offered to the coward once a day only. This treatment, we are told, should be continued for one year, after which the anarchist is to be

HOW HE LIVED TO BE 102.

England's Oldest Barrister Recommends Physical Exercise. The oldest barrister in England, Mr. W. A. Gordon Hake, of Brighton, who is a cousin of the famous General Gordon, celebrated his 102nd birthday recently. For fifty years Mr. Hake has lived at No. 3, Old Steine, Brighton, one of the four houses built in the reign of George III., which, with its cobblestone front and old-fashioned windows, is an object of much interest in the town. Furnished in the early Victorian style, it never reyeals after sunset a light of any Such is Mr. Hake's vitality that he has recovered from a serious attack of bronchitis. He is the second resident of Brighton within a few years to attain the great age of 102. He attributes his long life Character is made up of small to plenty of physical exercise and

Here is a little sidelight on Mr.

"I was a great stickler for the etiquette of my profession," he What a Parsi Would Do to the In- says. "It was the law of existence. By the rules of our profession we were not allowed to ride in a publie conveyance. Not being able to afford a postchaise unless three or four joined me, I have often walked thirty miles rather than break through the rules."

Due Warning.

tried out in the oven. They will "Parsi," whose suggestions in de- the rounds. Prominently displayed near all the live wires, it reads:

No one has, up to the present,

Too Busy to Brag.

"Is he making good?" "He must be. He never seems to have time to stop and tell anybody

Some of us think we are entitled to a lot of credit for performing a or White Cap Y. Dent $1.35 per bushe Freight paid in Ontario on 10 bushels or more. Bags free. Write for catalogue. CEO. KEITH & SONS, Toronto.

Seed merchants since 1866 MAXWELL HIGH SPEED CHAMPION is the Washer for a Woman In the first place, Maxwell's "Champion" is the only washer that can be worked with a crank handle at the side as well as with the top lever. Just suit your own Another Maxwell feature-Lever an THERE'S only one quality of Canada Cement. It is the highest quality that can possibly be made with modern equipment, scientific methods and rigid inspection by expert chemists. The Canada Cement you buy for a garden walk is the same cement that is sold by the trainload for great dams, elevators and bridges. The engineers in charge of these great works have ample facilities for testing the quality of comes up to their most rigid requirements. The farmer has not these facilities for testing the quality of cement. He must buy a product upon which he can depend for a grade that is always of highest quality, and that therefore does not need to be tested.

Canada Cement

You can place absolute reliance upon the quality of Canada Cement. It's always the same and always the best. The large output-which enables us to keep the price down, enables us also to maintain the factory equipment and organization that keeps the quality up. A Canada Cement label appears on every bag and barrel of genuine Canada Cement. See that it's on the bags and barrels of cement that you buy.

WRITE for our free book "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." It has told a hundred thousand Canadian farmers of the money-saving and profit-making possibilities of concrete. Address Farmers' Information Department-Montreal Canada Cement Company Limited,

There is a Canada Cement dealer in your neighbourhood.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO