HOLSTEIN LEADER

North Egremont

In regard to the wedding of Mr Walter McDonald and Miss Mary Moore on Tuesday of a week ago, additional information has been forwarded to us. The bride was attired in a lovely dress of white tulle, trimmed with silk and all-over lace, wearing forget-me-nots in her hair and carrying a bouquet of roses and ferns. Her travelling suit is of navy blue serge with hat to match. The happy couple were attended by Mr Theo. Moore, a brother of the bride and Miss Tacey Gordon, an intimate friend of the family.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain. They were married by Rev. J. A. Leese, of Priceville. We wish in common with the community long life and happiness to the happy young couple.

Mr David Hamilton got a hen's egg one day last week that measured 6 1/2 inches around the middle and 8 inches around the long way.

The community was shocked to learn the other morning of the sudden taking away of Mr Wm. Lee from an attack of heart failure. He had been ailing for some time, but was able to get around and was splitting or preparing to split wood when the call came. His funeral yesterday (Sunday) was largely attended and conducted by the Orange-ton. Rev. Mr Hartley, of the church and held a short service at the house previous to that. The pall-bearers were Messrs Joseph Patterson, Samuel Patterson, Glenieg, Abe Crutchley, David Hamilton, Walter Ferguson and Jas. Matthews, of the 20th con. He leaves behind a sorrowing widow, son and daughter. The family sustained a severe loss some 18 years ago in the death of four of their children by diphtheria. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved ones. Mr Kress was the undertaker.

Mr A Wesley Martin, M. A. Toronto, gave an animated address on behalf of the Dominion Alliance at the Ebenezer on Sunday afternoon. He made reference to the great changes of social customs in later years and warned the boys and girls of the danger lurking behind the first glass. The barden of drink was not borne by the drinker, but by the children. We should strive as good Canadians with the first country under the sun to so improve the conditions that the curse of the liquor traffic would be driven from our land. Many wished that the traffic was done away with and urged upon all to have back-bone not merely wish-bone. He stated that local option did improve and showed that in districts where it was in force (one-half of Ont.) there were 150 convictions, as against 1250 where license prevailed in the other half, showing that Local option was not conducive to breaking the law, a clever speaker with the interest of the cause thoroughly at heart.

The Rev. Mr Kendall, at Amos also preached from the text "Wine is a mocker, &c." and showed the ill effects and evil consequences arising from the indulgence of strong drink by Bible characters. Noah, Lot, Anan, Nabab, etc., as well as men of our own day, holding high positions in society and learning sunk low by its use.

It is not generally known that (without the influence of spirit which is said to exert itself in that way) Mr W. L. Dixon has blossomed out into a Hopeville.

Seeding operations have begun, last week being ideal weather.

Mr and Mrs A. H. Barner attended the funeral of the latter's niece, Miss Sarah Barner, Priceville, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mary Shand visited last week with Holstein friends.

Mr and Mrs Ostrander, Priceville, spent last week with their son Oscar in our burg.

We hear that Mr Chas. Haw is starting a wood shop in the village. Success Charles, for one is much needed.

Thursday is nomination day for a Councillor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr Alex Gillespie.

Last Friday was Dundalk horse show day. Our village was well represented in numbers, while Dundalk report a good day.

Mr A. H. Barner is visiting Durham and Mt. Forest friends.

Mr H. Love spent Sunday at Mr E. Hookridge.

Don't hurry Stanley, the phones are very handy, although the distance be great.

DR. LIVINGSTONE. In a little Scottish dwelling Amid the heather blooming fair, Love, peace and happiness were found Although poverty was there.

A thoughtful boy bent over a book By a turf fire's bright gleam, One destined to proclaim tidings of joy

By African hill and stream. Working in a factory at the age of ten How the weary hours did last, His grammar placed on a bench nearby.

He eagerly scanned as he passed, No obstacles daunted the noble youth As he pushed toward the shining goal, A physician to the African race And a lamp of light to the soul.

And when after years of fatigue and sickness, He sank to the final rest, His heart was buried in the jungle By those who loved him best.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Several of our citizens have taken a vantage of the cheap rates to the city during the Toronto Horse Show.

Mr Jas Brown and Mrs Petrie were among the number who left on Tuesday for Toronto.

Mr. Hershey is back again to the old stand. He reports that he is feeling much better and feels his trip away has done him a great deal of good. We wish him the best of health.

Miss Ruby Rogers returned from Toronto on Saturday and will spend the summer at home.

Come with the crowd to Matthews' slaughter sale of furniture. Come early and get the choice. He also has a full stock of hardware on hand. Best superfluous coat of oil 20c a gal.

As we have disposed of our business in a few days, we respectfully request that all persons having accounts with us will call and settle at once.

J. H. BROWN, Holstein

Mr Mickleborough of Toronto, son of Mr R Mickleborough spent Sunday with his father and mother and sister Mrs Nicholson.

Mr. J. W. Hunter left Monday for Toronto on business.

The choral members will have their final practice in the Hall on Thursday evening. All members are expected to be present.

The meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs W H Rogers, Thursday, May 8. An address will be given at this meeting by Mrs Wm Groat on "The farmer's wife as an economic factor." This is the annual meeting.

Rev. Dr. Ross who spoke in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath at M delighted his audience. Dr Ross is a strong and forceful speaker and especially is he a strong worker in the cause of the Dominion Alliance.

Rev Wm Kettlewell gave a fine address in the Methodist Ch speaking of the work of the Alliance and the need of help in carrying on a mission so worthy.

Don't forget the Choral Society concert on Friday evening in the Town Hall. Over thirty singers are expected to take part in the choral numbers. Sops, duets, piano and violin instruments, will be rendered by the choral members. Rev Mr and Mrs Baker of Drew who for some time were leading singers in the Central Church, Hamilton, will also render musical selections. The program will commence at 8 o'clock so come early and get a good seat. Of this Society Mr J W Hunter is President, Miss Brigg, secretary and Mrs A E Marshall, musical director.

Mr J H Brown, a merchant of this village for a goodly number of years reports that he has sold out his business to Mr A. M. Cooke, of Reid's Mills, Greenville Co. Mr Cooke will take charge on Monday May 5th.

Mr Brown intends soon to go West, though his family will not leave until the end of June. Mr Brown has been a faithful business man here and besides his business he has always taken a leading part in the life of our village, being interested in and a member for some time of our Library Board, now for a second term; a trustee of our school and there he was always found on the
