Impending Bye-Elections.

Mr. Lucas's appointment to the post of Provincial Treasurer will necessitate a bye-election in his constituency Centre Grey. The date of nomination has been fixed for June 2nd, election on the 9th.

A contest, however, is pending in North Grey, where Hon. A. G. MacKay, now residing in Edmonton has resigned. The date of this bye-election has not been fixed.

If rumor is correct and Hon. J. J. Foy goes to the Senate, it will mean the opening up of one of the North Toronto seats and possibly another besides. This will mean a strenuous summer in politics.

A Hustling Octogenarian.

The hero of the following clipping is known to a number in South Grey, being a cousin of Mrs. McCormack of Durham and related to the McLean's and other families.

Writing from Pastors' College, London, on Monday, the Rev. Alex. MacDougall, late of Colonsay, says:— I wish my friends to know that though I am an octogenarian, the grass does not grow under my feet.

Mr. MacDougall is a man of many talents and has spent much of his life in the ministry.

Priceville

There died in this town on the 12th May its oldest resident in the person of Mrs. McAulley at age of 87 years.

Bordering on sixty years ago, she with her husband, the late John McAulley and family moved to Priceville, or what was supposed to be Priceville in future then, and built the first log cabin on the old Durham road street, when it was nothing but bush.

To trace back all the events since, it would be only as attempting to gather grains of sand from the ocean of time, as the changes in sixty years are beyond enumerating.

Mrs. McAulley saw the site of the town where she spent her long years, covered over with its natural crop (bush), she saw the old time conveyance changed to the latest invention; she saw the old Durham road street converted to a place of retirement to those who were pioneers in some other part of the county of Grey; she saw prosperity and reverses experienced by many in the surrounding locality.

She was often familiar with the hardships of pioneer life in rearing a large family. She saw many of her family taken away by death in their childhood years. She saw husband laid in his grave a score of years ago and now that the time of her departure has arrived, she could explain that the grave would be to her a bed of peaceful rest.

We go to the cemetery and look over all the graves and we cannot discern the aged person's grave from the young ones till we read the inscription on the marking place of the dead. The youth have hope for many years to come, but the aged must die, as the large lease of life must expire and only living on borrowed time after the allotted time arrives.

Mrs. McAulley saw the old time workshipping places changed to comfortable buildings for that purpose. She saw the surrounding country changed from its natural state to fine fields covered with crops prepared by the tiller of the soil and on Wednesday the 18th inst, a large attendance of friends and neighbors saw her laid to rest beside husband and a number of children taken away in infancy, laid to rest in McKechnie's cemetery one mile west of Priceville.

Mrs. McAulley was a good member of the Presbyterian church and in the days of her activity her place was never empty there.

The Rev. Mr. Matheson, her pastor, preached a very effective sermon at her funeral at her late residence and officiated at the grave. So thus ended the career of another of our respected old ladies.

The Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Toronto, gave a good lecture on temperance in the Presbyterian church here last Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Matheson was in Durham on Sunday last assisting in relieving Dr. Farquharson, who is yet unwell.

The weather still keeps cool, yet things are growing fairly well.

The most of people are done seeding and now a great many will be engaged for a few days putting the work of Good Friday in shape again, lifting fences and such like.

Peter McArthur sold his goods to Mr. Pattison, of Caylon, who we understand, going to move them to his large store there.

Peter was one of our boys, who was born and raised in this town and his removal from our midst will be greatly missed, as probably his intention is to go west in the near future.

All that we can do is to wish him and his estimable partner and little girl success wherever their lot may be cast in future.

Neil McKinnon, Jr., who was away for some time, is at home again for a while.

Robert Shortreed secured the mail delivery route No. 1, Durham Road to baseline east of Durham and upon 2. S. D. R., to town line, Artemesia.

Mr. Neil McCannell, of Durham, was out this direction one day recently on business and called on some of his old neighbors before returning.

Mr. Archibald McLean, south line, Artemesia, sold his farm stock and implements to a man from down the country, 100 acres for the sum of $1700.00.

Mr. McLean was from his boyhood a resident of the south line, Artemesia, and his removal will be sadly missed by all his old neighbors, so we wish his successor success in his new home and to Mrs. McLean and family prosperity wherever their lot may be cast in future.

Norman McIntyre and Hector McKechnie finished putting in crop on the McArthur farm, lot 2, con. 3, Artemesia, which they rented for some time.

Mr. Chas. McKinnon, of the west, is spending some time at his old home south line, Artemesia.

The other evening during the thunder storm John McPhail's barn was struck by lightning and some damage done, which will be replaced by the Insurance Company.

You feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. Don't let quacks and fakirs rob you of your hard earned dollars. NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT. THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS. Peter E. Summers relates his experience. I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indigestion and excess in youth. I became very dependent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me I had paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, but received little benefit. I was inclined to consult Mrs. Kennedy's Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I grasped the New Nervous Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and continue to do so. CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY. We treat and cure VARICOSE VEINS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, BLOOD and peculiar to men. URINARY COMPLAINTS, KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES and all Diseases. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE.
