HOLSTEIN LEADER

Dromore

The Dromore Branch of the Women's Institute will meet on Saturday afternoon, May 24th, at 2 o'clock in Amos cemetery.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. McNeil, who was attacked by a cold some time ago, is progressing favorably.

Messrs W. and T. Ellis, of Mount Forest, accompanied by Mr. H. T. Sterne, of Hopeville, autoed to the village one day this week.

Mr. R. Renwick, Jr., is busy moving this week to his new home, recently purchased from Mr. C. Renwick.

Miss Ella Renwick, who has been engaged in Markdale for the past year, has accepted a position with a Dry Goods firm in Guelph and commences duties there this week.

Mrs. Walker and son, of Markdale, were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. John Wilson, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Allen and Master Murray spent Sunday in Swinton Park.

Victoria Day falls on Saturday this year and the business places of the village will be closed as usual on that date.

Hopeville.

Seeding operations about planting beets, mangolds and potato planter begun, with beautiful weather.

Fire broke out in H. T. Sterne's store about eight o'clock Friday a.m. The exact cause is unknown, but as it was so far advanced when noticed, nothing was saved but two sewing machines and white endeavoring to rescue his books, Mr. Sterne received a severe gash in the back of his left hand, severing his main cord.

Mr. Hanco and son, Toronto, were visitors Friday and Saturday at Mr. H. T. Sterne's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hockridge spent Sunday at Mr. C. C. Hockridge's, Mr. Forest. Mr. C. C. and family leave for a western trip next Tuesday.

Messrs Walter and Thos. Ellis, Juno Isles and chaffers, Mt. Forest, autoed over to our village Monday to view the remains of the fire.

The "Last of the Border Wars" is the title of a racy and readable little pamphlet in rhyme by Mr. Jno. A. Ferguson, of Egremont, whose rhyming skill and poetic fervor is of no small order.

At the special school meeting called on Saturday, Mr. J. D. Main was elected as trustee in place of Mr. J. H. Brown, who has resigned.

Mr. David Allan, Jr., last week secured through one of the agencies a young English lad of about 13. Another went to some one near Durham.

The Commercial house at present has the appearance of undergoing an expected attack from some unseen foe, the front windows being boarded up and around the verandah posts several strands of wire.

Mr. Neal is having a new verandah erected to his dwelling house which adds greatly to the appearance of his property.

At the special school meeting called on Saturday, Mr. J. D. Main was elected as trustee in place of Mr. J. H. Brown, who has resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hockridge spent Sunday at Mr. C. C. Hockridge's, Mr. Forest. Mr. C. C. and family leave for a western trip next Tuesday.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

For Furniture, Beds, Mattresses, Springs, couches, etc. come to J. M. Matthews', the new Hardware and Furniture dealer.

Mr. Art George of Listowel, spent a few hours here in company with Mr. Drummond and returned with a fine string of fish. There's something in knowing how.

Mr. Jim Brown and Mrs. Petrie have returned from a short visit to friends in Hamilton and Brantford.

A number of Seaforth sports arrived in town by auto Sunday. Monday was spent in fishing on their grounds recently rented from Mr. Atkin and son Wm. Rumor states they had a narrow escape from Inspector Allan.

Boy Wanted.—To learn the butcher business and for delivery. Apply at once to F. McClocklin, Holsteine.

Now that it is housecleaning time get your paint at J. M. Matthews'. He has the Sherwin Williams, best paint on the market.

When returning home one night last week, two of our young ladies had a narrow escape from serious injury. Some would-be young men of our village fastened a strand of barbed wire across the sidewalk to a post in front of Mr. Drummond's store.

Both ladies had their shoes pierced by the barbs and one of them had her dress completely ruined. Such sport would not be indulged in by any low down tramp and public opinion in our village will not stand for this sort of thing.

At the special school meeting called on Saturday, Mr. J. D. Main was elected as trustee in place of Mr. J. H. Brown, who has resigned.

The second part of Mr. Jim Brown's letter on his Panama trip again appears on page 5.

Mr. J. H. Brown's sale on Saturday last drew quite a crowd and much fine furniture was disposed of at fair prices as sales go, by Auctioneer McPhail. As usual though, some things went far below value to the benefit of bargain hunters.

Rev. Mr. Malcolm is at present superintending the construction of a residence in the busy town of Galt, though in the meantime he continues to supply his pulpit here.

Friends here of Harry Sterne, Hopeville, sympathize with him in his misfortune in the burning of his store last week and personal injuries received.

Mr. John Manary, Toronto was in the village Saturday last, and met many old friends. He is getting up a carload of horses and was disappointed to find Durham Fair over. It should not be forgotten Durham does not always follow Mt. Forest. When the month comes in on a Thursday, as May did, Mount Forest is the following week. Mt. Forest should make their day Wednesday before the third Thursday and they would always be together.

Mr. Wm. Brown at present lying very low at his brother John's, is at time of writing still critically ill and anxious friends minister at his bedside.

Mr. Jas. Brown, of Roleau, Sask., arrived from the west last week to see his father, Mr. Wm. Brown, who at present is quite sick. He intends returning in three or four weeks, but before doing so intends having a telephone installed at his home near Orchard, where his wife remains in the meantime.

Mr. John Findlay, Dromore, was in the village Saturday on business.

Mr. Wm. Seaman, Mt. Forest was in the village on Saturday last, as was also Mr. Andrew Seim of the same place and both meeting old friends.

Orchard

Mr. Jas. Brown is home from the West on account of the serious illness of his father, Mr. Wm. Brown, who we are pleased to report, is somewhat improved.

Jas. Robertson and Geo. Baker are busily occupied building fences.

A deer was seen crossing the road a short distance north of the village one day last week.

We are pleased to notice Mr. John Blyth's name among the successful students at the S. P. S.

Mr. John Bailey has leased Mr. Calvert's farm and is busy putting in the crop.
