UNITED STATES AND CANADA

Relations Are Very Close And Destined to Grow More Rapidly Still, Says J. J. Hill

A despatch from Ottawa says: "Some victories of peace" was the keynote of the address of Mr. J. J. Hill, the noted American railway magnate, in responding to the toast of "Our Guests" at the banquet of the New York State Bankers' Association held here on Thursday. Mr. Hill, after eloquent reference to the hundred years of peace, pre- impaired in your more recently dicting that there would never again be war between Englishspeaking nations, said in part:

"Capital is the most cosmopolitan force in the world. From the beginnings of human intercourse it transfer of population from country has broken down more barriers, to city which has been a mark of cemented more bonds than all the Capital to day furnishes the sinews of the world. The Dominion PRICES OF FARM PRODUCTS Capital to-day furnishes the sinews of war. For none can long be carried on anywhere, as a rule, none would ever be begun, if the great propriation of ten million dollars, bankers of the world should agree to be spent in and by the various in refusing to finance it. A BRAVE RESCUE.

A despatch from Lindsay says On Wednesday afternoon Patricia Primeau, the eight-year-old daugha run down the bank to recover it but fell into seven feet of water. She went down three times, when Aubrey Warner, a lad of fourteen years, walking on the bridge, rushed to the rescue of the drowning child, dived in and located her at the bottom. He swam ashore with her, and two ladies who were passing, Misses Twamley and Fanning, resuscitated the child, and she was
