Mr. Wm. McMurdo returned home for a holiday from Montana.

Mr. J. Parlow of Vancouver is visiting his many friends in this vicinity.

Mr. B. Martin, W. Knox, and J. Fox go to Niagara Camp this week.

Miss G. Knox visited the first part of last week at Dromore with her sister, Mrs. J. T. McMurdo.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson and B. Knox spent last Sunday at Mr. Ham Irwin's near Dundalk.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Knox visited at Corbeton last Sunday.

Miss Irene Haw and Marion Ferguson who have been on the sick list for the past couple of weeks are able to be around again.

Miss Marion Knox is able to be around again after being confined to her bed for a couple of weeks.

Mr. A. Ferguson 19th Con. had his barn raised last Friday. Mr. Nut McFayden was the framer so every thing went together right. After the raising the young people arranged a platform on the lawn and Fred and John L. got to the piccolo and violin and a very enjoyable evening was spent in square dancing and some step dancing.

Wedding Bells are ringing; details later.

Hopeville.

Garden parties are the order of the day.

Mrs. Wheeler, Miss Mabel Wheeler accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Breneck and baby arrived home, Saturday.

Phillip, Holstein Miss K. McEwen, Cedarville, and Mr. Robt. Kenwick, Dromore, are among those taking part and all phases of Sunday School work will be covered.

Children Out at Night.

Many resolutions have been passed by benevolent and philanthropic organizations, many sermons delivered, many editorials written by leading newspapers and magazines, many personal suggestions made, that the law dealing with children on the streets and in parks after dark should be more stringent. At the recent session of the Ontario Legislature these numerous requests have been met and the amended law is as follows:

Children's Protection Act.

Sec. 17.—(1) No child (under sixteen) shall loiter in any public place after 9 o'clock in the evening, or be there unless accompanied by his parent or guardian or an adult appointed by the parent or guardian to accompany such child.

(2) A child found in a public place after the hour named in subsection 1 unless so accompanied may be warned to go home by any constable or probation officer or officer of a Children's Aid Society, and if after such warning the child is found loitering in a public place, such child may be taken by the constable or officer to his home, or the Children's Shelter.

(3) A parent who permits his child to violate this section shall for the first offence incur a penalty of $1 without costs, and for a second offence $2, and for a third, or any subsequent offence, $5. 8 Edw. VII. c. 55, s. 19, amended.

Sec. 2. (k) "Public Place" shall mean a street, highway or lane, whether a thoroughfare or not, and a tavern or other place of public resort, and generally any place to which the public have or are permitted to have access.

MARRIED.

McDOUGALL-CHAPMAN—At the residence of the bride's parents, Unity, Sask., on May 28th, 1913, Ada Maud, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm. Chapman, formerly of Mt. Forest, to Mr Stanley A. McDougall. The bride is a niece of Wm. and John Sirrs and Mrs Robt. Mead.

Tom Martin has succeeded in passing his first year exams in practical science at Toronto University. J. M. Blyth, of Orchard, passed his final year in the same course. James McQueen, of Egremont, passed his final year in Arts, obtaining first-class honors in mathematics.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Edna Hunter is enjoying her holidays with Lucknow friends.

Miss Hoy, who has been in training for a nurse at the Fergus Hospital, arrived home Monday for a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Dr. Dixon, who has been attending her mother for the past seven weeks, returned Thursday to her home in Chicago.

Some nine pupils from our public school will write on the Entrance Exams. Great interest is being taken in the results.

Mr Keith is visiting old friends in the vicinity. He lately purchased a new five passenger Ico car, which he intends shipping to his home in the West.

There passed away on Monday, June 16, George, son of Mr and Mrs Henry Reid. Though not entirely unexpected, it was hoped deceased would live for some time, as he had recently received Dr. Friedman's second treatment for consumption. There was however no perceptible improvement up to Saturday, when he began to gradually grow weaker and at 10 o'clock Monday passed into the spirit world. The body was taken to Toronto by train on Tuesday for interment. Their many friends and acquaintances extend their sympathy to the sorrowing wife and relatives.

Rev. Mr Johnston, of Preston, will occupy the pulpit in the Presbyterian church here and at Fairbairn Sunday next. Rev. Mr Malcolm taking his work at Preston.

The Egremont Tp. S. S. Convention will be held in Fairbairn on Thursday, June 20. There will be two sessions, commencing at 2 and 7.30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Lunch will be provided for all visitors attending.

Messrs Buller and Brebner shipped another carload of their famous pick handles to Liverpool last week. Not only do they turn out a superior mass of pick handles, but also miners and all kinds of hammer handles, neck-yokes, whiffletrees, etc. We believe it is the firm's intention to add other wood turning machines to their plant so that all their timber can be utilized. We are also informed that orders are coming in quite satisfactory and the mill will be kept busy all summer.

GIVEN AWAY FREE.—One quart can of Robertson's paint free to every one buying $5.00 worth of goods for cash or one quart can of Sherwin Williams paint to everyone buying $10.00 worth of goods in cash, during the next 30 days.

J. M. Matthews, new hardware and furniture dealer, Holstein.

We noticed one of our esteemed citizens wending his way to the early train Tuesday morning. Rumor states he went away with high hopes of obtaining a bride and that he will return next week with the woman of his choice.

We are pleased to notice a marked improvement in our village as the result of the recent by-laws passed by our Tp. Council. There are still a few improvements which might be carried out if our citizens will take a little pride in buying the front of their business places kept free from accumulated stock and rubbish, it would add greatly to the appearance of our streets. We are proud of our village: in no place our size in this province is there anything to equal it socially, morally or commercially. We hope our young men will do all they can to help the older ones in keeping a high record for the home of their childhood. Let old customs and habits be forgotten and let us all work together for the good of our homes and village.

The Holstein Branch of Women's Institute will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs Murdoch on Thursday, 19th, at 2.30 p. m. Topic to be discussed by Mrs Malcolm, "Love, Life and Laughter," also music and a reading. All are welcome.

South Bend

New June skies are blue and lovely. Scent of blossoms fill the air. Birds are warbling their praises. Nature is so fresh and fair.

Our sturdy citizens repaired part of his majesty's highway, our main street, last week and the way the gravel was hauled was a sight to see. Mr George Rawe as pathmaster was the right man in the right place.

On Tuesday afternoon of last week, Mr Orrie Hunt had a large addition to his barn raised. Success Orrie.

Mr John Walker recently put a nice coat of metal shingles on his barn and don't they gladden like silver? Too bad leap year is over girls. Our teacher, Miss Weir, is preparing some of her pupils for the entrance examination to the high school and is sparing no pains to ensure their success.

HARGRAVE-TUCKER

In the presence of about sixty friends and neighbors, a pretty wedding was solemnized at 5 p. m., Wednesday, June 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas Tucker, 2nd con., Egremont when their daughter, Mary Esther, became the bride of Mr. Jas. H. Hargrave of north east Egremont. The ceremony was performed by her pastor Rev. W. H. Hartley. She was given away by her father and was unattended, except by the flower girl, little Ilay McKechnie of Rocky Saugeen. Mrs. Jos. Brown, Durham, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride was charmingly attired in white duchess satin, with pearl trimming and carried a white prayer book, while her suit was of navy blue broadcloth. The young couple were the recipients of many handsome gifts. To the bride the groom gave a locket and chain, to organist pearl ear rings and to the flower girl a bracelet. Followed a splendid supper the evening was most pleasantly spent in music, games and dancing.

The happy principals have taken up residence on his farm on the 22nd con. Egremont, where the REVIEW heartily joins with many friends in wishing them long life and happiness.

Relatives from a distance at the wedding were the bride's grandmother Mrs Brydges of Belgrave: Mr. A. Brydges, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brydges, Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Brydges, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brandon, Mr and Mrs Jno Grady, all of Belgrave; Mrs. Jos. Ruddy, Wingham, Mr. and Mrs Jas. McCallum, Brussels.
