North Egremont

The wedding bells spoken of in last issue have chimed and are now still. Messrs John McKenzie and Tom Moore together with their brides, Miss Mabel McKelvey and Miss Tacey Gordon, 2nd, con. Egt., respectively took themselves to Pricerville on Monday, and were quietly married by the Rev. J. A. Leves. Congratulations renewed. Miss Foster's skill as a pianist being almost equal to that of her singing gave great enjoyment to those present, as also the reading by Miss Watson "Barnies cuddle doon" and its sequel,--a gem in its way--was much appreciated.

The new house of Mr. Geo. Lawrence is on its way to its new foundation but making slow progress owing to difficulties encountered.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr L. Kerr of Elora, is home for his holidays.

Rev Mr James and family arrived last week and are busy getting settled. On Sunday evening Mr. James preached a sermon to the Orangemen and was well attended considering the lodge has but recently been organized in this place.

Quite a number of our citizens went to Listowel to attend the races.

Mr. McNally, government health inspector, gave a visit to our village but found very little to complain of.

On Monday evening a large gathering of the members and friends of the Presbyterian congregation met in the basement of the church to spend a social evening with the retiring pastor, (Rev J. Malcolm, who on his departure ere their departure Tuesday morning, Mr. D. Allan Sr. was called upon to take the chair which he did in his usual happy manner. The following address and presentation was then made after which Mr Malcolm replied in a few well chosen remarks. He assured the congregation his sole reason for leaving was his declining health; he found that he was unable to study with the same mental strength and grasp as when he came amongst them two years ago and alluded to his stay as being the best and happiest years of his ministry. Nothing had arisen to disturb or annoy him but everything had been as calm as a lake without a ripple. Mrs. Malcolm also made a few remarks and commended very strongly the parents to send their children to the mission band under the very able leadership of Miss Stevenson. She also expressed her regrets at parting with the choir; the time spent had been to her a great pleasure and it was her hope that the members might carry on the service of praise with continued strength and unity.

A few short speeches from a number of the members, with selections from the choir passed very pleasantly when the ladies served refreshments. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent after which the meeting was brought to a close by all joining in singing the familiar hymn, "God be with you till we meet again."

To Mr. Malcolm, Mrs. Malcolm, Miss Malcolme.

We, the members of Holstein congregation have met to-night to give you a parting farewell.

Our relationship as pastor and people is now dissolved. This dissolution has been brought about, not by any act of yours or any desire on our part but by that unseen hand and loving wisdom who doeth all things well. Therefore we would not grieve or murmur at this event but bow in humble submission to the Divine will and say "For so it seemeth good in thy sight, O Lord."

But although our church bonds are severed, our hearts are still united in Christian fellowship and love. Our union under God's providence has been of short duration, only a little over two years, but in those two years great achievements have been made, that eternity alone will reveal your faithful ministrations in Holstein.

Your Sabbath discourses were profound, pointed, and applied in a calm and christian spirit. Your ability to elucidate difficulties was a great factor in our spiritual upbuilding, thus creating within us a hungering after the Word of Truth. Your social intercourse, pastoral visitations, administering comfort to the afflicted and bereaved have endeared you to every heart and the six young people who made public profession of their faith in Christ and became united with the church on the last Sabbath of your ministry in Holstein will ever be to you a great comfort and a foretaste of that reward that awaits the people of God. The aged were not overlooked by you but were tenderly borne on the wings of faith to the mercy seat. Fresh inspirations took hold of them and the pathway of life was thus made smoother and easier to walk in on account of the Heavenly vision presented to them.

To Mrs. Malcolm we owe a debt of gratitude which we feel unable to pay on account of your untiring efforts put forth on behalf of our young people to improve and develop their musical talents, together with your leadership in our church choir and your cordial cooperation in every department of church work. These we are all conscious of and desire to let you know that your services have been very highly appreciated.

To Miss Malcolm we desire to express our high appreciation of your services as church organist and your faithfulness as organist at our prayer meetings.

As a slight recognition and appreciation of your united faithfulness, we ask you to accept of this purse of gold as a token of esteem from the congregation of Holstein. Our kindest regards will follow you to your new home and our prayers are that in God's good time and way you may be restored to your usual health and enter once more upon your labor of love.

Signed on behalf of the congregation, D. Allan Sr. J. W. Hunter J. Stevenson Mrs. P. Mutch Jennie Adams Mary A. Ross Mrs. J. Murdoch Holstein, July 7th, 1913

Orchard

A number of people around here attended Mr. N. Carmont's barn raising on Wednesday.

W. T. Pinder had a small barn raising Monday forenoon.

A football match was played between Glenden and Orchard on Tuesday evening in Rob Lewis' field.

John Dickson gave a dance to his many friends last Thursday night.

It is with sorrow we report the death of our old neighbor Mr. Wm. Brown a number of friends attended the funeral on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bert Dyers from Owen Sound spent Sunday at Mrs. Douglas.

Mr. and Miss Hunt and Miss Harbottle spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Falkingham.

Mr. John Post and son Stanley visited their home here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Tuck arrived home after a month's visit in the west. They enjoyed their trip greatly, still Abe says there is no place like home.

The Misses Wilson of Mt. Forest visited their brother Chas. a few days last week.

Mr. Jacob Hoeflin had a narrow escape the other day when he was driving a wild horse the lines broke and he was thrown out of the buggy, he escaped unhurt but the top of his buggy was smashed.

Address and Presentation

S. S. No. 11, Egremont, Dear Miss Ferguson:

It is with feelings of deepest regret that we part with you as our teacher. We appreciate your kindness to us, which has been shown in every way possible since you have been in our midst.

Your efforts have always been to further the interests of your pupils and what was best was always done for us.

As a remembrance of your work amongst us, we ask you to accept this camera with our best wishes for your health and success in the future. Signed on behalf of your pupils: Effie McInnes, Ethel Spicer.
