In last Wednesday's dailies there appeared the names of the successful ones who wrote on the examinations for the lower entrance into the Normal Schools. Nine wrote from the centre, six getting the required standing, viz: Margaret Campbell, Izell Crawford, Alix Edge, Marguerite Hutton, John Ledingham, Mary McAllister, Miss Isabel Petty who wrote on Entrance to Model, qualifies for this examination.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever," said the poet. All who have enjoyed the floral display in the windows of Mrs. Dan McAuliffe, Upper town, for the past month or two will say he was right. The display of geraniums, lilies etc., with background of ferns and other plants has been and is beautiful and Upper town people feel they are privileged to see it day by day in passing. Mrs. McAuliffe understands the poetry of flowers.

A GENEROUS OFFERING.—A circular received by us last week gives a list of the Contributors and amounts contributed to the funds of the National Sanitarium Association by citizens of Durham at the recent visit of Field Sec'y. Watson. The Town Hall collection amounted to $10.00, Messrs. Jno. Kelly and N. W. Campbell, contributed $5.00 each while a long list of contributors gave the even dollar, a smaller number giving 50c or less. The total amounts to $83.85 which as such offerings from other towns go, is above the average.

Rocky Sangeen Prey.—The Garden Party at the home of Mr. Samuel Patherborough on Friday was one of the most successful yet held by Rocky Sangeen Congregation. The evening was favourable and the crowd large, a sum of $86 being realized. Mr. R. T. Edwards of Traverston was chairman and in his own cheery way made everything pass pleasantly. He was well supported in a fine program which was both instructive and entertaining. Rev. Mr. Hall, the new Baptist minister won golden opinions for a splendid address on "Our National Assets" while Mr. R. J. Ball, M. P., made some happy remarks on Misfits observable in life. Rev. Mr. Stevenson mingled with his people and made an address also, and Auctioneer Brigham also held the platform for a little while. Mixed in with the addresses was some splendid music, vocal and instrumental by Mr. Dan McArthur and son Stewart, Mr. Geo. Ritchie and daughter on violin and organ respectively. Misses Arnetta and Anna Esther McLean gave duets twice, Misses Annie and Maggie Ritchie and Mr. James McDougall and sister also contributed musically and all were much appreciated. The whole evening left a flavor of success that will draw bigger crowds next year.

The Durham-Hanover lacrosse match here July 8th, was protested by the Durham club, on the grounds of playing boys under junior certification and over age. Hanover entered a defence, as some of the Durham's certificates were not then on hand. At an O. A. L. executive meeting in Toronto Tuesday, both games played were thrown out, and a new schedule will probably be drawn.

Suicide by Drowning.—Last Wednesday afternoon Mr. Abraham Swindhurst, an aged gentleman of 84 years, who resided with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Proctor, committed suicide by drowning in Moffat's hole, near the Show grounds. His lifeless body was found floating and on his son-in-law, Mr. Proctor being notified, he along with Nat Harvey removed it to his home. The deceased was not well known here, having moved here 8 years ago from Wingham and suffered much from cancer. This it is believed was the reason of his desire to end his life as only a few days previous he was prevented from taking similar action. Interment took place Friday in Durham cemetery.

Obituary.

GEORGE WATT. Our sad duty it is this week to record the death of the above gentleman, so recently in our midst and attending to his last wishes. He died on Monday evening, after a brief illness, in his 67th year. He some time ago suffered from shingles, and though recovered from that disease it may have left seeds of evil for an internal tumor seems to have been the immediate cause of death.

Deceased was born in Buffalo and at 5 years of age moved to Normanby with his parents and was there until four years ago, when he moved to Durham. About 40 years ago he married Miss Gray, daughter of John Gray and to them were born two sons and seven daughters, eight of whom survive. The sons are Robert of Durham and John now of Preston. The daughters are Maggie, Mrs. Radburn, Fergus; Annie, Mrs. Forrester, Edmonton; Nelly, Mrs. Clemons, London; Barbara in Detroit; Janet at home Hattie, Mrs. Hinz, married only 5 days before, so close does joy and sorrow meet. The father and mother will sorrow sincerely as will also his only brother Robert of Sanite Ste Marie and sister Mrs. Peter Reid, A. daughter, Mary, died 11 years ago.

Mr. Watt not long ago was appointed caretaker of Town Hall and was proving most efficient and obliging. His old neighbors and many friends will long remember his kindly nature and good neighborhood.

He is being interred to-day Wednesday, in Maplewood cemetery where his kindred lie.

Re Town Hall

The mass meeting (or what was intended to be such) to consider sale or moving of Town Hall, held on Friday evening last was not well attended. Mayor Black occupied the chair and relied upon Reeve Calder to lead the matter before the meeting. This the reverend did at some length.

Government it appears is pressing the town to clear the grounds, in fact Mr. R. J. Ball, M. P., informed one of our citizens, that if steps were not taken soon we need not be surprised to see government workmen commencing to raze the building. Mr. Calder set forth the undesirability of placing it on the ground, adjoining the clerk's office, as the difficulty of getting it there over Garafraza St. bridge, if as reported the arch was being undermined at one corner. Then he reminded the town that the fire by-law which would compel the bricking up of the entire structure, was a process speaking of expense. He was informed by the Mayor that the offer of $500 for the old building, made some time ago could not be reckoned on now so there was only one course open to them, to move it to some other site.

He briefly hinted at the cost of a new Town Hall which would run up to $12,000 to $15,000, an outlay not to be considered with the prospect of a new school building on hand.

The Mayor called on a number of citizens, and if the tone of their remarks mean anything it means that the town can not consider a new Town Hall at the present time. The necessity of brick veneering to comply with the by-law was especially emphasized by Mr. Irwin and others while Mr. Gilbert McKechnie and others reminded the council of the needs of more school accommodation.

In the multitude of councillors there is wisdom it is said but the meeting refrained from expressing opinion on the situation a motion moved by Mr. Grant prevailing that the whole business be left with the council.

Mr. Rogers, of Guelph, who has moved several buildings in town, has contracted to move in for $500 and the work will likely proceed at once. There is a strong sentiment that the town hall would look well on the corner of George and Garafraza streets and should be placed there. The objection to this of course is the cost, the site adjoining Clerk's office being already town property.

The 12th in Hanover.

The Anniversary of the battle of the Byrnie coming in the holiday season never fails to attract attention. No other historical event of like nature that we know of is re-called annually with such favour as the "12th of July." The music of the life and drum bands, the gay sashes, badges, ribbons, etc., all make for a spectacular display that ever novices attracted to the younger generation specially. But not to the young alone is the day dear, to the man of mature years it calls up memories of bygone days when he first took part in the "walk."

A badly bungled day it was for the large crowd leaving Durham. A week before notices had appeared that a special train would run from Dundalk to Hanover but it appears this was premature for Hanover would not put up the necessary guarantee and so up there was no special. Some enthusiasts were in town by nine o'clock but this is due at 11.54, not a bad time after all, but alas at the station the notice board read "one hour late." This was bad, but worse was to follow for the hour stretched into two hours and about 2 p. m. the train steamed out carrying about 300 tired Orangemen and their friends in four cars, packed before reaching here, but in some ways they were rammed in, jammed in even to the lowest step, and they got to Hanover.

More disappointment, for we are informed the "walk" was over when they arrived. However the afternoon was favorable and on doubt the visitors enjoyed the hour or two in the factory town.

The speaking took place in the Show grounds, Mr. R. J. Ball, M. P., and several of the clergy addressing the crowd along characteristic lines. There is said to have been 40 lodges present. Glenelg Lodge, 1192, took first prize for being the best dressed, Swinton Park 2nd. The prize for the oldest Orangeman present came to Mr. Robt. Ajos of this town, who is in his 88th year and who for 72 years has taken part in the Annual summer demonstration having been made an Orangeman in 1851.

A special train brought the crowd home about 11 p. m. tired but orderly and happy, showing no sign of reported boozing hilarity during the day causing some arrests.

About 180 lodges assembled in Guelph, the crowds there being the greatest ever. At many other points there were celebrations and as far as we have heard no breaches of the peace.

Union Services.

Next Sunday the Methodist and Presbyterian bodies will unite for joint services. Rev. Mr. Hanna, former, joint Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, will preach at 11 a. m. in the Presbyterian Church and at 7 p. m. in the Methodist church.

Letter to the Editor.

Editor of the Review:—In your reference to the Liquor seizure in your last issue you include a statement in quotation marks from Mr. N. McIntyre in which are statements misleading to say the least. Mr. McIntyre omits to say that he came down to my house on Sunday, June 29, and asked me to close the whole thing by giving up the seized liquor. I informed him I could not do that and wouldn't that day, even if I could, but would be in Durham Monday. I did call on him that day, secured his affidavit before Com. A. H. Jackson that it was for his own private use, and released the stuff. I find that I should have taken the case before the police magistrate before doing this and admit this mistake but the favor was all to Mr. McIntyre not to me. I was perfectly within my rights in making the seizure and under similar circumstances it would be my duty to do it again.
