North Egremont Junior H. S. Entrance Results

The death occurred on Saturday 12th July, 1913, of Clara May, the bright daughter of Mr and Mrs Noble Wilson, of Boothville, at the age of 19 years, 9 months. About a year ago an attack of typhoid fever lowered her vitality and left her a prey to pulmonary troubles which brought the end as a brother died and the stricken parents thus doubly berieved, have the sympathy of the whole community, especially of those who know of the usefulness and winningness of the young life that is gone.
The funeral on Monday was very largely attended. Rev. Mr Leese conducted appropriate services at the house and in Salem Church and was assisted by Rev. Mr Matheson.
Mr Leese spoke on the joys and pleasures of memory, spiritual as well as intellectual, one of the most important ingredients of character and enabled us to cherish and imitate all that was good in the lives of departed friends. The remains rest in Salem cemetery.
Miss Blanche Reid and her friend, Miss M. Mortley, spent over Sunday with the former's sister in Markdale.

Greenside

The 12th passed off quietly here, some took in the celebration at Hanover. The weather still keeps cool with slight frosts at night, fortunately not much damage has been done.
Mr. Peter Lothian is under the Dr's care. Hope to see him soon in his usual health again. Also Miss Mildred Scott who is recovering nicely from a light attack of Typhoid fever.
Miss Bertha Hooper, Top Cliff, spent Sunday at Mr. Jno. Geddes'.

Cedarville

Miss Mathews, who has been visiting Miss Annie Divine, returned to her home on Thursday.
Miss Annie Brown is in Allenford visiting Miss Dornin.
Mr and Mrs Dolphin and Master Allan visited Riverview friends on Sunday.
Mrs Robert Howells and Willie visited at Mr D. J. McDonald's.
Mr Alex G. Hespe, Preston, is visiting his parents.
Mr Abe Woods visited at Mr Wm.
Stewart's and Mr Wes. Lytes.
Quite a number from here spent the 12th in Guelph.
Mr and Mrs Archie Ferguson and Miss Mamie McEachern visited friends at Dunlop on Sunday.
Rev. Mr Hindershot preached at the annual bush services of the Cedarville circuit, in the Methodist church. The coolness of the weather prevented great crowds in the morning. There was a large attendance in the evening.
Miss Kate Davey, Mt. Forest, is visiting her parents at the manse at present.
There will be no C.E. services here next Sunday evening, July 20th, as the Society intend visiting the Conn Eudeavour Society. Leaders—Miss Davey and Mr J. Wilkie. Topic—Favorite verses—in the Prophetic Books. A collection will be taken in aid of the Coun Society.

A JOURNALISTIC STAR.—Saturday last in Montreal there was issued Vol-I, No. 1, of the Daily Telegraph and Daily Witness, a New Liberal paper.
The new management is composed of the foremost editorial talent in Canada and is strongly backed financially.
With the advent of this new star, disappears the Daily Witness as a separate paper, but all that was good in the old will be retained in the new, which with the wider news and feature scope planned by the new management will make of it one of the most influential journals of Canada. Already the management have had such assurances of success as to compel the installation of new machinery. The Weekly Witness and Northern Messenger will still continue to be published by the Douglases, who have had such a long and honorable career in journalism.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Pictures framed on shortest notice.
First-class work guaranteed and prices right at J. M. Matthews' furniture store.

Mr Louie Kerr returned to Elora, after spending two weeks holiday at his home here.

Miss Edna Hunter arrived home Monday from her holiday visit and is again at her accustomed place in the store.

Mr John Orchard has returned from his trip to the west and reports everything looking well where he visited.

Mr Bert Brebner went holidaying last week and his partner, Ma Alf.
Builer, followed this week.

Dining room chairs and tables, sideboards, dressers and stands, kitchen chairs. A good assortment in all lines to choose from at J. M.
Matthews, furniture dealer.

Mr and Mrs E. T. McClocklin and daughter of Durham, Mrs Ed. Mc-Clocklin and daughter, of Durham Mr and Mrs Nichol and son Eric, of Toronto, Mrs E. D. McClocklin and two children of Gleanig Centre, and Thos. McClocklin, of Gleanig Centre, were the guests of Mr and Mrs Fred McClocklin on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs John Swanson and Miss Mary Swanson left last week for an extended trip West.

The departure for the West this week included Mr and Mrs Nicholson, Mrs Jas. Bruce and sister Mrs Drim-mie of Nebraska, who has been visiting here for some time. The latter intend making a three months' stay and will spend some time in the mountains of B. C.

The 12th of July was celebrated by the lodge here and their more particular friends by taking the excursion to Guelph. One thing to be greatly admired was the splendid new banner which was out for the first time. Owing to the rain in the morning, there was no occasion for having it wet while in Guelph.

Orchard

Bob Lewis had a successful barn raising on Wednesday and gave a dance to the young people in the evening.
Mr Jacob Hoeflin and Walter spent the 12th in Hanover and report a good time.
Geo. Baker, wife and brother-in-law spent the 12th at Guelph.

Mr and Mrs Nelson, of Gleanig, visited over Sunday at Mrs Douglas's.
Mr Tom Greenwood, of Edge Hill and Mr Dunsmore, of Hamilton, visited last Friday at Mr Wm. Pinder's.
Quite a number from around here attended the re-opening of Knox church on Sunday, also took in the garden party Monday night.

Mr Wetz and W. T. Pinder has started haying. They say the hay crop is very light.

Mrs Past is spending a few days in Bentnick.
The mayor does not believe in working all the time he is gone on his vacation.

North Grey Election

The bye election in N. Grey Monday resulted in a complete victory for the Conservative Candidate who was elected by a majority of 278.

This extraordinary turn-over in a Constituency strongly respected temperance and out respected temperance character and a life-long temperance man, is very suspicious. It seems to point, in fact does point to the unreliable nature of the temperance vote where politics intervene.

It is certain McQuaker lost men in his own party on account of his temperance principles. It is certain that he and the Conservative votes because of the pronounced principles of himself or his leader. Just consider Vote for Lo. Op. in O. Sound 1406 McQuaker in O. Sound 1054

"Whitney and Whiskey" is being assigned as the cause of the defeat and if it be true that 15 automobiles from Toronto were busy in town and country it looks like it. We do not know.

We do know that defeat is not dejection Rowell's policy on half a dozen lines is progressive and is bound to win.
The province is likely to be aroused by the apparent alliance of Whitney and the Liquor party. The merits of Row-ell's policy is not affected by temporary reversals.

REVERES.—A strenuous fall campaign to embrace all the counties in Ontario has been planned by the Canadian Council of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, which drew up a schedule of county conferences. H.
K. Caskey, the secretary of the L.M.M. will communicate with the clergy in the different towns and cities to get their approval of the dates which have been chosen. This campaign will be the biggest yet held in Ontario. The meetings will begin on November 3rd and continue until Nov. 14th. There will be eight teams of speakers and on each team there will be one or more laymen, one returned missionary, one clergyman, one board secretary and one laymen's secretary. This will mean there will be simultaneous conferences at various centres.
