Meat-Packing Industry. A despatch from Calgary, Alberta, says: In an effort to encourage the packing industry of the West and to centralize the business of Calgary, the municipality will probably purchase sixty acres of land adjoining the city limits and exploit a comprehensive scheme looking to the development of the meat-packing industry. The city has taken an option on land at $360,000. The idea originated with President Negilus of the United Farmers of Alberta, and has been taken up with enthusiasm by the City Council and the officials of the three railroads running into Cal-
