South Bend

A young lady arrived recently at the home of Mr and Mrs Edgar Gardiner and immediately became the most important personage in the establishment. We welcome Miss Gardiner to the Bend and congratulate the proud parents.

Mrs Russell, of Mount Forest, spent some days recently visiting her daughter, Mrs Gardiner.

Mr John Walker evidently believed that a weary wretched life is his, who has no work to do (and we quite agree with him) and so stay after day he is industriously tacking away shingling one of his barns.

Little Miss Orchard, of Holstein, is visiting her aunt, Mrs J. Durant.

Some large drops of rain mixed with a little hail fell at the Bend on Sunday evening and from the dark clouds on the horizon and the peals of thunder we think other places got more. A-hail storm in the neighborhood of Borden, Sask., on the 2nd of July did much damage.

Miss Alma S. Hunt, of Antler, N. Dak., grand-daughter of the late Mr John Hunt of the Bend, last week sent us a poem, her own composition, which expresses beautiful thoughts.
