In the International Congress of Physiotherapy recently convened in Berlin Professor Ewald, perhaps the most eminent clinical teacher in the Berlin University, gave the coup de grace to alcohol as a stimulant when he said he had reached the conclusion that in no infectious disease has the value of alcohol been disease.

visioned physician of experience has pervenche blue crepe de chine, trimobserved at the bedside, that whenever alcohol is administered it For simple morning costumes temporary spur to the failing heart, of the material. with a subsequent depression to Two hats, one small and dark and cause of "heart failure." One who girl safely through the season. has seen the purple hued complex- A large flat or bullet-shaped butknow that here is a case of com- one could make at home is of pale plete relaxation, the body present- blue batiste, the low belt of folded ing as sad evidence of crippling as pink rose. must the vital powers be depreciatthe heart and nervous system.

acea. The latter succumbed to an trimmed with plaited frills of lace enlightened pathology and the for- and flowers. mer is now sharing the same fate. with that now supplied to the best ing the peg top effect. conducted institutions the view of Professor Ewald is confirmed. In the great hospital of which Dr. Ewald is the chief alcohol is ordered stands upward toward the back. asia, easy death, in hopeless dis-of the former free use of alcoholic used to fasten these coats. tion is due to relaxation, widening broad girdle of black satin. by an effort of the heart to overvessels that necessitates an increase lace, maline, flowers, ribbon, or counter a large band of Turks. of the heart action, evidenced by feathers. increased pulse rate. The self-regulating powers of the system elimnoted. Not so in disease. Here Among the new and most attrac- hut. It was actually within a mile been eaten. If then large quantiscriber of alcoholic stimulants needs with bracelets of ribbon. watching by a consultant.

DRINK NO RAW MILK.

Claim That Many Infectious Dis- toilettes de course.

other literature on the purification with head or silk fringe. of milk have appeared during the Frequently robes of mousseline use for shelter. We very soon demics of milk-borne diseases are at the side. on the increase. It is stated that | The summer evening wraps are | Turks talking about us.

or imperfectly pasteurized milk, be worn with all costumes. Just quickly decided what was the best thanks of all lovers of horses. The hail and lightning. (Compare Psa. and that the diseases ceased or di- now in the shops are some smart thing to do. discovered this fact and safeguard- birds, and feathers. ed the milk supply by pasteurization. It was ascertained that inspection alone was ineffective, one inspector of large experience having stated that if every dairy farm were guarded by an inspector he would not guarantee safe milk. And the national commission on milk standards has decreed that all milk must be subject to a temperature of 145 degrees Fahrenheit for thirty minutes. There is no record of a disease being traced to milk that had been so exposed to this temperature. There are numerous records three meals a day. of epidemics being checked or re-

Fortunate is the man who can

Wife (pleadingly)-"I'm afraid, yers. Jack, you do not love me any more cause you always let me get up to a girl. light the fire now." Husband- When marigolds do not open it is you all the more."

Fashion Hints

***********

Seen in Paris Shops.

This confirms what every clear A most elaborate negligee is of med with narrow bands of white ostrich plumage.

handicaps the patient, because it many of the coats have martingale lowers the blood pressure; it is a straps and lingerie collars and re-

which many a sick man has suc- chic, one large and picturesque, cumbed without realization of the will be sufficient to see the summer ion, sodden features and perspir- ored suits, and leather buttons aping, relaxed skin of an intoxicated pear on motor and steamer coats. man needs no medical training to A charming simple frock which taffeta caught at the side with a does the mind. If this result may The color displayed beneath the ensue in an individual who is in lingerie dress may be repeated in a health, how much more seriously taffeta souple or figured crepe de chine short bolero fronted jacket ed in diseases in which other pois- Tulle plaitings form a finish to ons are already playing havoc with bolero corsages and trim the neck and sleeves of many tailored coats in crepon soie as well as serge. Nothing will usurp the popularity Alcohol as a stimulant is dying as of the leghorn hat for midsummer hard as did blood-letting as a pan- wear. Many lovely models are

There has been a noticeable and gradual change in the silhouette When the quantities formerly con- during the last month, the greatsumed in hospitals are compared est width being at the hips, reviv-

New in millinery is the stiff ribbon bow standing upright in the front of a small, close fitting straw hat. Sometimes a bow, similar, only in two conditions, in severe The dark blue tailored suit may collapse and as a means of euthan- be embellished by a yellow linen waistcoat fashioned with goffered frills, which appear to form an upstanding ruched collar and cuffs.

Juvenile coats are smart made of The most enlightened physicians white serge, with their collars and of the day realize not only the in- cuffs of colored satin. Ball buttons utility but the serious harmfulness covered with the same material are

A smart jacket frock is developed stimulants in disease. The layman of finest white serge and the short Terrifying Experience of an English who "takes a drink to warm up" waisted coat has a vest of flowered should know that the warming ac- silk, which disappears beneath a finished with a large bow tied so the Prior, the English war correspontended by more or less stagnation ends and loops extend above and of the warm blood within them, and below the girdle several inches, is clares in "Campaigns of a War that this condition is accompanied very becoming to the girlish figure. Correspondent," was one of the The transparent hat is seen. It is most terrifying experiences of his made of tulle, net chiffon, point adventurous life. He was with a d'esprit, and lace shirred over foun- party of Montenegrin soldiers, and perficial and other internal small dations of wire and trimmed with they were likely at any time to enial and is effective for both morning said it was from the enemy, we deand afternoon wear. A gown of termined to pass the night where inate small doses of poison and rein- this in gray shade of yellow or we were, and do the dangerous four state normal heart action, hence no chamois is very lovely with a sim- hours' trip in the early morning.

every drop of alcohol should be the high neck ruffles of plaited tulle no less than two hundred soldiers. are rendered far worse, perspiration god, and with them, therefore, the long. watched and the reasons for its adwatched and the reasons for its adand lace. The sleeves are trimmed

The worst was yet to come, while playion alone. The facile proministration clear. The facile pre- with similar ruffles of tulle strapped we thirty-two men were all hud-cut decollete neck of some of the that the enemy was upon us, and very disfiguring. They usually delast twenty years it becomes matter de soie and plaited gauze are trim- turned them out, and tried to go for surprise if not concern to be in- med with a wide scarf embroidered to sleep again; but a short time formed by so reliable an authority in oriental style, which is turned afterward a man crept in and woke as the Boston Medical and Surgical about the hips and tied in a double us all up, and told us that a friend during the London season to revive Journal in its last issue that epi- knot, sometimes in front and again of his, who lived in the fort, had the glories of Hyde Park, which, to-

Fact and Fancy.

When a man takes a vacation he needs a rest; when his family takes Over 90,000 people die daily. Most of us are good because we dare not be bad. The beliefs of the Pahouins, a West African tribe, shave the head and then dye it yellow.

moved by subjecting the milk sup- the hole in the top of their pockets. ward evening at the headquarters finally.

pert rat-killer. The fact that we can't take our find out things without butting in. money with us when we die is a source of great comfort to the law-

Husband - "Why?" Wife - "Be- knob-red for a boy and white for Mrs. Knicker - "Well, then, we rid of superfluous fat." "And what decided to shave on the back porch. a big, fat, juicy worm.

up to light the fire makes me love A man in love talks but little: a has occasion to say "I told you so" got a reply telling her to sell it to "Begorra," he responded, "and did her bright eyes shining. woman in love does little but talk. and doesn't.

Pinero's Methods. Britain's foremost living dramatist. Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, has just celebrated his fifty-eighth birthday. As his name indicates, he is partly of foreign extraction, for his father was a Portuguese. His mother was Miss Williams, sister of a noted Trinity Pilot of Sashes appear even on tailored Gravesend, and it was in that dis- In the case of a serious illness, trict Sir Arthur spent the days of such as typhoid fever, or pneu The small dolman coatees, cut his youth. He was at one time in- monia, or acute rheumatism, the with a shawl pointed effect at the tended for a business career, and patient must have absolute rest in studied at Birkbeck College, but bed. The physician in charge is natural resistance to the inroads of Some charming evening cloaks are the call of the stage proved too generally able to enforce the rule, one of the so-called historical made of beaded net and brocaded strong. He made his debut before but there are a good many disord- psalms, in which later generations gentlest of men, but He was also changed for gold? the footlights as a general utility ers in which "rest" as part of the in Israel commemorated the good-actor at a salary of one pound a week, but the experience he gained has proved of inestimable value, and there is no living playwright who is his superior in stage technique. One of his earliest efforts at writing for the stage was a curtainraiser for the late Sir Henry Irving, but it was with his striking play "The Magistrate" that Sir Arthur gained his first big success. writing a play is certainly unique, and from that works back to his hearse a play he has planned out is a kindly autocrat at rehearsals, and the actor or actress who does brought to task.

Sir Arthur Wing Pinero.

ESCAPING THE TURKS.

War Correspondent.

to Ragusa, during the campaign in The wide crush girdle of satin, Herzegovina in 1875, Mr. Melton dent, passed a night that, he de-

We had descended inw a-valley The silk ratine is a lovely mater- when we heard firing. As the men Cur guides very soon discovered a we thirty-two men were all hud- can be partaken of for health's sake Jehovah upon them. This interpre- ing home big, fat, juicy worms from Tulle is fashioned in many effect I was lying on the ground, with tive ways for the neck. It is espenothing except a rug rolled over me, water, or simply in cold water tence. "And they rehelled not tence tence "And they rehelled not tence te cially pretty arranged for the new collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. I felt certain collarettes made to cover the low then a sudden rush. that I was going to be killed. While note poverty of blood, and, there-Many of the smartest gowns are I lay on the ground, something fore, small doses of quinine and the attitude of the Egyptian people that nest," said Bobby, and his adorned with the fishwife sash of rushed over me, and jumping to my iron should be taken twice a day the attitude of the Egyptian people able essays, discussions in medical and lay societies, monographs and lay societies, monographs and bire and the land th In view of the fact that innumerble essays discussions in medical Land the helical to say a month, while codliver brocaded silk in brilliant coloring. feet, I made a dash at it—to find for, say, a month, while codliver brocaded silk in brilliant coloring. and lay societies, monographs and hips and the long ends are bordered sheep that had come into the hut, which they had been accustomed to

We shall slip them. The rain was coming down in tor- of the scene. rents, but that could not be helped; there was nothing for it but to keep on our horses and ride through it. have earned their V. C. with less chance to spend a week in the counagony of mind than I experienced try, but refused. Coaxing, plead- Both of cattle and of human beings, that wriggled themselves almost that night, for I knew only too well ing, arguing, promising of untold and therefore the chief of all their into a knot. that if I were captured by the wonders alike brought from him strength. This was the tenth and and insanity is that the latter gets Turks, my life would not be worth nothing but the stubborn ultimatum last plague, and proved so convincan hour's purchase. We got safely "No country for mine." Men lose a lot of money through through the valley, and arrived to-

That's All.

Knicker-"A judge has ruled that A birth is announced in Holland a woman shouldn't spend more on "sent $2 in answer to an advertisement of a sure method of getting

INTERNATIONAL LESSON,

AUGUST 8.

Lesson V. The Plagues of Egypt-

Psa. 105, 23-36. Golden Text,

Matt. 23. 12.

Our lesson passage is taken from

Verse 23. Israel-The reference

24. Increased his people greath filled with them" (Exod. 1, 7).

they served.

-"And the children of Israel were Stronger than their adversaries-

25. He turned their heart-The Stronger than the Egyptians, whom

Bed as a Rest Cure.

who care for him.

of his advice.

sons of this temperament are often dus is very much fuller and goes shall they be?"

by the sheer weight of rule and dis- interest of the psalmist may also veriest beggar.

quite broken down, but shows differs from the order in Exodus. every sign of doing so, there is noth- According to the Exodus parrative ing like bed. The treatment will they occurred in the following orvary in duration in different cases, der: (1) Nile water changed to but the physician should simply in- blood; (2) frogs; (3) lice; (4) flies; sist on the prescription, and refuse (5) pestilence; (6) boils; (7) hail; (8)to enter upon the wearisome argu- locusts; (9) darkness; (10) death of ments that worn-out people seem to first-born. He can usually persuade a per- is to Jacob as the immediate anson who is not too badly off to start cestor of the twelve tribes. The po-Sir Arthur Pinero's method of the treatment by a few days in bed, etical form of the reference permits and then to spend one entire day the use in close proximity to each for he first devises the final scene, there every week. Of course bed other of the two names for the same will do no good if the patient person. opening. When he is about to re- bounces about actively and impa- The land of Ham-Egypt. tiently between the covers. By the minutest detail of business. He "bed," the physician does not mean merely a piece of chamber furni- fruitful and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceed ture, but long hours of deep-breathnot follow his direction is soon ing drowsiness in a reclining posture in a well-ventilated but dimly lighted room.-Youth's Companion.

Digestion and the Complexion.

The digestion has a very great subject is Jehovah and the reference deal, indeed, to do with beauty of is to the Egyptians, whose hearts, complexion, or the reverse. But like the heart of Pharach, were On the way up the Adriatic coast the complexion and the eyes deter- hardened and embittered toward iorate from injudicious eating, even the Israelites, whom they came in cases where no dyspepsia may be gradually to fear because of their complaine of. If the blood be in increasing numbers. the slightest degree overheated, or ever so little charged with bile from treacherously. not cure this state of matters till rative. will effect a cure, however, if the to serve Moses as spokesman and in he was sorry to see that they were Carries Its Young on Its Backthe blood gets right again. Nature diet be lowered, and only cooling other ways. food be partaken of. When one, in summer, suffers from thirst to a and Aaron among the Egyptians. because Mother Robin sat on the considerable degree it is a sign that more than the system requires has his power and will. tive dresses are those worn with of a Turkish fort, where there were ties of fluid be swallowed matters tians were worshippers of the sun"Chirp! chirp! chirp!" all day

The Glories of Hyde Park. The Royal Family have done much dus narrative, the second plague. told him that he had heard the gether with its surroundings, is far _Literally, swarms of dog-flies and and away the most beautiful park 800 cases of scarlet fever and 1,000 oriental in effect and are made of They knew we were there, and to be found in any capital of Eucases of tonsilitis were reported in silk, chiffon, and transparent crepe. they intended to attack us in the rope. His Majesty, by his early Boston three years ago, and that Brilliant eastern colors, embroid- morning, and had actually decided morning ride, accompanied by Hail accompanied by thunder and robins. typhoid fever has visited that city ered with huge golden dragons or upon the exact moment when they Princess Mary, has popularized lightning. The reference is to a and its environs five times in as large flower designs, are lined with intended to do it. This put my Rotten Row, and the Queen, who single plague, the seventh, according to have a likely for home and two enidemies of the seventh and the dangerous sore throat in two years. The well dressed woman turns to He was an old colonel in the Rus- exercise, has led the way in restor- 9, 23-35.) It is a matter of record that all the black and white hat as the sea- sian army, and the scent of danger ing the fashionable afternoon 33. Smote their vines the epidemics were traced to raw son advances, because such hats can set him on his mettle. He very drive, and has thus earned the brake the trees-By means of the

Afraid of Machinery.

"My wife," said Mr. Clarke, done by hand."

minished when the board of health black hats with jaunty white wings, "Prior," he said, "we must start ternoon is now filled with equipat once. We must travel at night ages, more worthy their beautiful -Again referring to a single plague. in the darkness, and get as far as setting than the motor car could The Hebrew word probably denotes we can on the road, so that when ever be, for the latter, even though the locust in its larva state, and in little hungry mouth. the Turks come down to look for us it may have cost $7,500, arouses but the English revised version is therethey will be mightily disappointed. little interest in the spectator. It fore translated cankerworm instead and stood on his tiptoes, and does not add to the attractiveness of as in our text. 35. Every herb-Grass and vege-

The fruit of their ground-This baby robins huddled together over table foliage. expression may refer to such bulbs the edge of the nest, and opened A little city chap was offered a as were used for food.

(Compare Exod. 8. 1-15.)

31. Swarms of flies .

ing that even Pharaoh was not only "But why not?" someone asked willing but anxious, to have the Is- a chirping as he heard in the nest

vert to the Exodus narrative.

shall have to pay a bigger rent." did she get for the money? Was Mrs. Casey, across the way obserthe information what she wanted?" ved this. "Pat," she called, "shure been sending us in meat for break- I. do when he was tickled?" A strong-minded man is one who asked Mr. Simmons. "Well, she an' Oi see ye air shavin' outside." fast?" asked Mother Robin, with

There Comes a Day When the King Is Stripped of Crown and Sceptre

So is be that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.-Luke of great intelligence; they are per- more into detail than the brief po- This is a terrible question, but it fectly aware of their own folly, but etical summary which constitutes is one which it is well for us to they seem to be driven by some our lesson. (Compare Exod. 7. 8 to face. Nothing is more wholesome, malign force within them, like 11. 10.) The inspired poet is, more- after all, than to be reminded now over, not interested in the chrono- and then of the inevitableness of No general advice can help such logical sequence of the events so death, and to be required to measpatients; they can be aided only by much as in the greatness of the de- ure our earthly ambitions and pursubmitting themselves to iron-clad liverance wrought by Jehovah in poses from the standpoint of this rules. That is one of the reasons each instance. To this fact we may tremendous event. The king reigns why the sanitarium treatment is so ascribe the omission on his part of in unexampled splendor, but there successful—the insubordinate, never all reference to two of the plagues comes a day when he is stripped of quiet neurasthenic is made over in- (those of pestilence and boils) men- crown and sceptre and is left with alone. to a meek and submissive patient tioned in Exodus. This religious nothing to distinguish him from the account for the order in which the

The Multi-millionaire

ate, but sooner or later he is doom- is just. It makes the programme ed to lose every dollar of his for- of existence simple and the pathtune. The patron of art and liter- way of endeavor plain. Like the ature gathers his treasures from all magic formula in the test tube of quarters of the globe, only in the the chemist, death separates from end to surrender every book and the solution of life the clear prepicture to his heedless heirs or yield cipitate of the Spirit. It separates them to the tender mercies of the the earthly from the heavenly, the auctioneer. All these have gained mortal from the immortal, the something from the toys and bau- worthless dross from the priceless bles of their little hour. The king gold. Death tells us, if life does has enjoyed his brief moment of re- not, that it is the soul that is alone gal power, the millionaire has re- worth having. How fitting the invelled in the glitter of his gold, the scription on the ancient Roman connoisseur has stood enraptured tomb: "I have expended; I have before many a great canvas and given; I have kept. What I exhandled fondly many a rare folio. pended, I had; what I gave, I have; But what have they gained in the what I kept, I lost."-Rev. John long run? What is the permanent | Haynes Holmes. ingly mighty; and the land was worth of their "much goods?" How are they different in the end from so many little children who gather sparkling pebbles all day upon the sands, and, taking them home in Jesus was undoubtedly one of the the evening, ask that they be ex-treatment must be left to the judg- ness and guidance of Jehovah durment of the patient, or of those ing the earlier period of the na- for example, than the manner in of life, it is things spiritual and not tions development. In the verses which He rebuked the two brothers material which really count. The Then, again, there are difficult of the psalm assigned for study Je- who disputed over their inheritance barbarian buries food and drink, cases, in which the physician can hovah is praised for his faithful- by telling them the story of the rich clothing and jewelry, spear and only recommend "more rest" in a ness in protecting his people when man who was congratulating him- shield with the body of his dead general way, and must depend on they were oppressed by the Egyp- self that he had "much goods laid chieftain, in the confident expectathe common sense of his patient— tians in Egypt. The preceding ver- up for many years' and was pull- tion that these things can be carwhen it exists—for the carrying out ses (1-22) and those that follow (37- ing down his old barns to "build ried over into the great beyond 45) tell of the earlier and later man- greater" for his stores when he But this superstition is no longer There are certain half-exhausted, festations of divine goodness as re- died? "God said unto him, Thou ours. The clothing we wear, the nervously tired, restless persons flected in the connected history of foolish one, this night is thy soul houses we build, the lands we buy, who keep hard at work until they God's chosen people. The histor- required of thee, and the things the money we invest, the jewels and drop into nervous prostration. Per- ical narrative as recorded in Exo- which thou hast prepared, where pictures and bric-a-brac we accum-

Must Be Surrendered

at the last day with the body that has claimed them. Nothing is left us except our souls. It is now a question not of what we have, but of what we are. The treasures which we have laid up on the earth, through much sweat and many tears, vanish away as though they had never been, and we are rich, or we are poor, "toward God"

I have called this truth terrible. But it is terrible, after all, only to the "foolish one." To the wise For a third person who has not plagues are mentioned, which again has more money than he can estimman the truth is as gracious as it

The Redbreast Family.

Bobby sat on the corner of the bungalow piazza, and looked up, To deal subtly beckering or up, up to the board roof above. Trobin redbreast family always What do you suppose was up

26. Moses his servant-It is as the there comes to grief, and it is the skin servant of Jehovah and his repre- Bobby could see a part of the big of the face that suffers first. The sentative to the people that Moses round nest that Mother and Father best cosmetic ever invented could appears throughout the Exadus nar- Robin had built out of mud and dry grass. Bobby watched them flying NEW SPECIES OF WILD DUCK. Aaron . . . chosen -- Chosen back and forth all day. And now afraid of him 27. They set among them-Moses Bobby knew that there were eggs, later he knew that there were little young on its back, and the young His signs-The manifestations of nest a long, long time, and then 28. He sent darkness-The Egyp- birds, for he heard them crying, male bird while the female bird is father replied, "Look to-morrow Talbot recently, in discussing his Nile river. (Compare Exod. 7. 20-"Wait and see," said his father.

"As soon as it is light." 30. Frogs-According to the Exo-When the sun woke Bobby up the looked up into the corner. Thera was a little mirror fastened just above the nest, and he could see gnats. (Compare also Exod. 8. 16reflected in it the soft, round nest,

> "Where did you get such big you some feathers?'

"Chirp! chirp! chirp!" cried all the little robins, and they looked so sorry for themselves that Bobby ran out into the garden and dug for worms until he had found four big, fat, juicy ones, one for each he could just reach the nest. Chirping louder than ever, the their mouths way down, and fought

"come and dress! Bobby ran to his mother, but such

The New Zealand hen is an ex- of Pavlovic, the Herzegovinian "Because," he responded, "they The manner in which the Hebrews Mother and Father Robin came tory of England to some of the little have 'thrashing' machines out there, themselves escaped from the rav- hopping and whistling 'Chirrup! pupils. When she came to the statean' it's bad enough here, where it's ages of the death angel is recorded chirrup!" all the way up the lawn, ment that Henry I. never laughed in our next lesson, in which we re- and tilting their saucy tails until after the death of his son, she nothey heard the cry of their little ticed one of the little girls had raisfamily of hungry birds.

mirror above his head, and saw the nest upside down, with the four "It was the family overhead."

whistled Father Robin, and pointed his bill at the mirror above. "What silly birds, to build a nest upside down!" said Mother Robin with a laugh. "No wonder their breakfast fell down into our nest Chirrup! chirrup! chirp!" And that is what that thought about the four big, fat, juicy worms that Bobby brought to em.-Youth's Companion.

Male Bird Feeds Ducklings.

A brand new species of wild duck, sitting on a second setting of eggs, has been found near Lacombe, A.

ance near my farm," said Senator great deal of attention. The male bird at the present time takes care of the young, while the female bird is sitting on more eggs, and al though many people have been near the nest and the younger ones, the birds do not appear to be the least next morning, he ran right out and bit frightened. The male bird is and wings into a kind of boat, and the back of the parents in this fashion. Even when the parent bird and four of the funniest little baby goes under a wire fence across the slough and the younger ones are scraped off, they always managed to scramble back on to the backs of their parents, and as far as we have been able to see make no effort to shift for themselves, the male bird feeding them constant-to those who have been watching them. Except for a dark streak Bobby climbed up on a high chair running from the bill back across while the eye is big and of a bright red color. The neck and breasts of the birds are bronze in color, while "No one in the vicinity has ever seen ducks of that kind before, said Senator Talbot, "and aithough we have made enquiries all over this Province, we cannot find that this particular species has even invaded the Province before."

A Poser For Teacher.

The teacher was reading the hised her hand and seemed very de-They both whistled as they saw sirous of attracting her extention. The weather was warm, and Pat each of their babies struggling with "Well, Amy," said the teacher, "what is it?" "Please, ma'am,"

Father Robin looked up at the will meet you soon enough.

The Government

of Colonia

A despatch from Toror Ontario will break all red season in the construction ization roads. Mr. G. W. Provincial Superintendent ization Roads, says that th ment expected to complete 1,000 and 1,100 miles of ros fore the end of the year present time over 4,500 stendily employed upon and some 650 overseers t hands so full that it is pr augment their number by tional 300. It is also the to employ 3,000 more me ting out, ditching and gri All the colonization road year is being done by Heretofore a certain perce been 'done under contrac day labor work has pre satisfactory to the Govern year, also, for the first Bennett reports that day been plentiful and excelle able weather conditions

PRICES OF FARM P

tained throughout the n

REPORTS FROM THE LEAD CENTRES OF AMER

Prices of Cattle, Crain, Cheek Produce at Home and Breadstuffs. Toronto, July 29, Manitob Outario Wheat No. 2, 98c ots outside, ranging down to ntario Onts No. 2 white,

Corn American No. 2 yel Barley Good malting bark bags; shorts, 821;

Green Meats-Out of pick Pork Short out, $28.50 to Lard-Tierces, 14c; tubi

Baled straw, $8.00 to $8.50

Montreal Mar

Winnipeg C

Sir Thomas S

A despatch from reason to expect will be quite norm late autumn." T pressed Wednesday by Sir Thomas Sh sident of the C. P. bear out the optin Thomas has taken long period of wo

Sir Thomas fe where the fundame uation in Canada "It cannot be de lines of business a as a year ago," ad "Banks are investment in unpr tate. The banks a servative attitude, Our banks are toserve, so the situat high rate of interpublic works, but t