 J. D. Abraham has installed an office and desk for cashiers in the centre of the south side of his store and is erecting a warehouse or storage room at the back to contain surplus goods. This gives more freedom and better display in the store, tending to make it brighter and more tasteful.
 HOT? I SHOULD SAY—The torridity of the past few days has exceeded anything known here for some years. Some observers say that 98 in the mercury would not be a surprise. As an Ardenian would say, "too hot for my sympathy with the world." We are all sympathetic with the crops that are being ruined by a period of rainless weather accompanied by a temperature of 103 in the shade.

I have decided to open up a Plumbing and Tinsmithing business in Durham. I will be at the Middaugh House during the next two weeks, where I am installing a steam heating plant and will be pleased to quote prices on the above lines.

ANGELICAN PICNIC.—Under the most favourable conditions which existed on Tuesday, the Sunday school and a representative gathering of the Anglican church picniced at Saugan. Park and spent a most enjoyable afternoon. Concessions were hired for the benefit of the younger people while the adults walked to the Park. Races and games were run off successfully and an enjoyable lunch was taken of Rev. Mr. Hartley and the teachers of the school were the committee in charge of the arrangements.

WILL REPAIR THE BRIDGE.—Immediate steps to repair the Garafraza street bridge are being taken by the town council and next week will see the work well underway. In order not to have a repetition of the Lambton street bridge accident, Mayor Black states that they are looking about for an experienced contractor and have their eye on a suitable man and all that is needed is his assistance. In order not to deem the structure to be in a very bad shape and expect little trouble in making the repairs, still he intends to take careful steps and the lower McGowan dam is being raised several feet. The McGowan dam lowered. Pumping in the neighborhood of the bridge will also be necessary to accomplish the repair work.

THE VALUE OF HOES.—"Too many, even in our churches, think too much of the cost or material value rather than of the wondrous deliverance wrought by our Saviour," said Rev. E. N. Boone of Saginaw, Mich., in a forceful sermon in the Baptist Church, Sunday evening. "The price of hoes too high" and the speaker very aptly illustrated how, like the Gadarene with his hogs, too many prized most highly their worldly possessions. His text was from Matt. 8: 21: "When they saw Jesus, they besought him that he would depart out of the Sea of Galilee. When Christ at a stranger, the Gadarene devils into a herd of swine and the latter then perished in their loss and Gergesenes Christ to leave. They valued their hogs too highly. They were so imbued with materialism that they could not realize the value of two souls ported value of the man more important than the hogs. In judging the hog valuation of life is not how much the man has but how much he has in Christ. The speaker suggested that the liberality as a stranger, that the two local charges place a higher value on the work of their pastor here, by increasing the stipend."

Mr. and Mrs. John Towner came home from their western trip on Saturday.
OLD MAN SUICIDES.—Thos. Cross Sr. an old and highly respected resident of Louise drowned himself in a bath trough a week ago Saturday. He was in his 89th year and his mind had been deranged for some time.

Mrs. Allan had been in Bracebridge but one week had just come from attending the death of her father in Garafraza, his demise being the first week in August.
WILL MEET IN MOUNT FOREST.—The second protest of the Durham Juveniles over Hanover playing G. V. under Junior C regulations, was given very scant justice by the O. A. L. A. very recent for though Hanover had committed the error of playing in the G. V. Forest, for this sudden death match, or for this sudden death match, the Durhams Wednesday evening evidence while all had been in defence was that they were getting out of the Durhams. The Durhams would state in defence was that they were getting out of the Durhams. The Durhams would state in defence was that they were getting out of the Durhams.

Durham R. R. No. 3.
 This route, comprising parts of Bentinck and Northumberland, will be started on 1st of September, with John Whitaker as Conductor. The route covers a number of Durham on Gravel Road to 2nd Con. of Northumberland, north to Hutton Hill and home.

The Late Geo. Browning.
 As we briefly intimated last week the above gentleman, uncle of Mr. J. S. D. Browning and father of Mr. J. S. D. Browning, died on Monday, August 19th at 9:15 a. m. The cause of death was a stroke of paralytic nature, which was preceded by a short time, and a second stroke proved fatal.
 He was a native of Lanark, Ontario, and was in his 81st year. His wife and four children, he and his helpmate, made their early home in Howick, clearing lot 29, con. 10 of the 20th township in Huron county. Three children survive of this union A. D. in Canada, James A. Algoma, Hugh M. Durham, and James A. Algoma, as well as Mr. McIlraith and his cousins from St. Mary's Station and elsewhere.
 He was an earnest Presbyterian and his life and though not living in Howick for a number of years, his old pastor, Rev. Stephen Young of Clifford, was privileged to be at the funeral and conduct the services. He was interred in the family plot in that village on Monday last week. The pall bearers were all old associates.

JOSEPH SCAMPE
 On the 2nd of August in Grand Valley the above gentleman passed away. He was the father of Mrs. Allan wife of Principal Allan of this town and has been here as a visitor frequently. He was in his 89th year and the cause of death was a stroke of paralytic nature. He was born in Cumberland, England, and almost immediately left for Canada with his young wife first to St. Catharines, then to Garafraza for the main part of his life and here late in Grand Valley near a daughter in the Bentinck Valley. Besides the two daughters he had an introduction to his kind heart in Durham when he left. He must have carried a large portion of his life in the Bentinck Valley. He certainly knows how to show kindness to his friends. I am pleased to hear several people remarking that Charlie was one of the best of men in Port Arthur.

Notes on a Trip Up the Lakes
 By John S. Black, Clerk Glenelg Tp.
 When I wrote to you from Fort William, I made a promise to you that I would write a few notes on my trip after my return home. In order to fulfill this promise, I may say that leaving Toronto by the Steamboat Express at 12:45 p. m. on July 15th, we arrived at Port McNicoll sharp at 5 p. m. The beautiful steamer "Kewatin," one of the finest boats on the upper lakes, was there prepared to receive the large number of people who proposed to take passage in her. After the passengers had been allotted to their staterooms, I proposed to myself to get up on a higher deck and see what kind of a place this Port McNicoll was, but on doing so, I was surprised to find that we had already glided out of the Harbor and was two or three miles out on Georgian Bay. So I had to trust to a more convenient season to get on a higher deck and see what kind of a place this Port McNicoll was, but on doing so, I was surprised to find that we had already glided out of the Harbor and was two or three miles out on Georgian Bay. So I had to trust to a more convenient season to get on a higher deck and see what kind of a place this Port McNicoll was, but on doing so, I was surprised to find that we had already glided out of the Harbor and was two or three miles out on Georgian Bay.

At 12 noon the next day we docked at the Soo, only while a few passengers with their grips was getting off and a few more getting on. About 15 minutes more took us through the Canadian Soo canal and into Lake Superior. A few white caps could be seen on this Lake, which made no difference in the movement of the ship. We had a very nice afternoon of it, but about dark we were caught in a very dense fog lasting all night and the rock spitting toots of that fog horn was enough to waken a living. It certainly managed to keep the writer awake. However we landed at Port Arthur at 7 a. m. and after a few hours we were at Fort William having been 20 hours on the boat.

You ask if we were not tired of boating. I say No. The comfort, convenience and accommodation on these boats cannot be excelled in any other mode of travelling. I ask particularly of the steamship "Kewatin." A few white caps could be seen on this Lake, which made no difference in the movement of the ship. We had a very nice afternoon of it, but about dark we were caught in a very dense fog lasting all night and the rock spitting toots of that fog horn was enough to waken a living. It certainly managed to keep the writer awake. However we landed at Port Arthur at 7 a. m. and after a few hours we were at Fort William having been 20 hours on the boat.

DIED
