Over and Peel sed Cuticura Soap Has Not Had a ince. They Also Pimples on Face.

Toronto, Ont,-"My s a rash and the skin off and look as if is going to get better; would just cake over and peel. The spots large and it used to her face very red of the rash in March low I hated to see it er little face and different things after any good. I saw the for samples of Cutint and it started to ce months before I he is two and a half ra Soap and Ointe les on my face." lexions, red, rough falling hair, Cuti-

st card Potter Drug D. Boston, U. S. A. in Sugar led free, with 32-p.

h one choice hite pure cane Lawrence in -100 lbs., 15 lbs., Grain St. Lawrence cest granulated of a seed pearl, te sugar. Grain fer the coarser awrence Green grain a distinct t the size of a and almost as ly melted into wholesaler has m want-grain, stiry all guargar Relineries going to be !" o be a lawyer, deal of money wyer's hands, ass through if , my son."

at you've gra-

Colborne Street. AND DAIRY ns of Ontario.

OR WITHOUT PERTIES IN en other towns. St., Toronto

Murks Stamp INTED.

NTED

cured with tment. Write Bman Medical

AND BEAD onbile, Gravel, nts positively man remedy er new remedy sure cure, la rice $2.00 from india, Limited

hafting nulacturing

123/2 x 48 in.

12% x 48 fm. 13% x 28 in.

10% x 36 in.

sizes and ougthe and low figures.

Terente.

or for us in

Process and o us. Good g our travwant clean, ONTO, ONT.

HOME

Tasty Cocoanut Delicacies.

Cocoanut Pudding. - One pint place in fresh boiling water. sweet milk, one half cup sugar, two | Soap should not be rubbed on hands. eggs, two tablespoons of cocoanut, black stockings. They should be imone half cup crackers, one teaspoon mersed in suds and rubbed till will be so good as to ask me. lemon extract, one quarter cup con- clean. hour. When the pudding is firm, thoroughly blended. remove from the oven, beat the egg | A tablespoonful of vinegar should whites until stiff with one quarter be added to the water used for cup of confectioner's sugar, cover washing as this keeps stockings a Bobby. top of the pudding, place in the good color. even and brown. Serve cold.

cocoanut, four tablespoons sugar, the water. This does not give a "Oh, you think so, do you?" two tablespoons cornstarch, two sweet taste, but makes them dry Look here, Deane cups sweet milk, one quarter cup and floury. eream, one half teaspoon vanilla. Grass stains may be removed stared at him. dash of nutmeg, two eggs. Scald from washing materials by care- to side. the milk; beat the egg yolks until fully rubbing the spots with a little light with the sugar, add the corn- fresh lard. Then wash in the usual starch and mix with the scalded way, and you will find that the milk. Cook, stirring constantly un- stains have entirely disappeared. til it thickens. Remove from the To keep the hands soft have a bot- mix very well. As he woke, he was confire, add cream and cocoanut and set away to cool. Beat egg whites to a stiff froth, add vanilla and nutmeg and fold into the custard. Have a pie tin lined with pie crust, prick a pie tin lined with pie crust, prick a pie tin lined with a fork brush with a chin coft. all over with a fork, brush with a skin soft. little of the egg white and place in When preparing the whitening for Bobby, as he got into his bath, thought smile grew more tender and her voice the oven to bake until firm. When ceilings or pantries, add one pint of Mr. Morgan Thorpe and his fascinating and spoke to him. done, fill with the custard, replace of boiled milk, after you have put Now, Bobby was not altogether a sim- After a week or two he grew bold five eggs, one and a half cups shred- ful gloss when dry, and keeps the ded cocoanut, one half pound pow- whitening from rubbing off. dered sugar. Beat the egg whites An economical way of frying oni-until stiff and very dry, fold in one is to place sufficient cold water. Bobby could find no fault with her. She woman who had been so sweet and grauntil stiff and very dry, fold in one is to place sufficient cold water was altogether beautiful, and charming. clous to him. carefully powdered sugar and the at the bottom of the pan to cover and sweet, and he glowed when he thought eccoanut. Mix very lightly. Drop it, then slice the onions and put by teaspoonfuls on oiled paper; them into the pan with a piece of he was grinding French and German with discredited a Rothschild. bake in a slow oven twenty minutes. dripping the size of a walnut. Fried his crammer; and lo! in the afternoon Take out of the oven when a golden in this way they will not burn. brown and, when cold, moisten the If jam will not set firmly, cut a jelunder side of the paper so that the ly square into small pieces and put winning smile, "and I thought I would ."All right," said Bobby, cheerfully and gether, pour the boiling milk over good. them and return to the fire until When using white hearthstone or all that sort of thing." from the fire, set in cold water and window sills, etc., instead of plain man? stir until almost cold. Add the fiav- water, use thin starch, which may dish in which it is to be served. This This causes it to stick to the stone, eye, said, with a little blush: is a delicious custard to pour over and will not tread off, spot, or be fruit or broken cakes or macaroons. washed off by the rain, and also room. Waldorf Salad with Cocoanut. | keeps clean much longer. Mix one bowl each of sour apples, How many men are bothered with and bronzes, and fur rugs are all in her rate, cheerful anxiety. nuts and celery chopped fine. that saw-like roughness at the way, for, as I dare say you noticed, my to his handsome face when he heard the Sprinkle the top with shredded co- edge of collars after being laundercoanut and salt to taste. Whip ed several times. A complete cure She is quite a home bird, and rarely goes voice. Stifling his nervousness, he went nut, white of one egg, sugar. To not soil so readily, and the material sion last night upon my dear girl." one cup of grated cocoanut add half lasts much longer, for the wax fills its weight of powdered sugar, the up the roughness of the edges. white of one egg and flavoring to The following is an excellent poltaste. Beat to a stiff froth. If not ish for the piano: Take equal parts and she might object to come. In fact, quite stiff enough, add a little more of vinegar and paraffin oil, and put if I were you. I shouldn't mention it to of the paper and the drops will has not the sticky appearance of ton's delicacy. easily slip off.

Miscellaneous Recipes.

Fried Calves' Hearts.-Cut two hearts into long strips, roll in flour, and fry in a tablespoon of butter. Take up the meat and add to the skillet a tablespoon of parsley and a tablespoon of onion, both chopped fine. Let cook five minutes and pour over the meat.

Grape Juice Lemonade. - Make a lemonade in the usual way, the juice of three lemons and half a cup of sugar, a quart of water and a tumbler of grape juice; be sure and serve it ice cold. Here is another lemonade which is perfectly delicious, the only drawback to it being that it cannot be served the moment it is made, but must be made a couple of hours before serving. The juice of three lemons, grated rind of one, one cup of powdered sugar, Take one quart of boiling water, pour over the rind, juice and sugar, let it get cold and then strain. This lemonade either with Velveteen which has served its purpose as a dress or blouse should be preserved and made into polish in groups in the state of the served and made into polish in groups asks how to make yeast cakes. Those will keep for months [Boil a large handful] how strain; seald two cups of flour with the water, stirring constantly to keep it from forming lumps. Add a large handful of salt, same of sugar, tablesponful of Enger. Let cool until lukewarm, then stir it we caked despited in water. Let faise over night. Early the next add stir thick with cornmeal and let raise once more. Then put on a board, knead in more meal, if the state of the state of the adjoining part and stirring constantly to keep it from forming lumps. Add a large handful of salt, same of sugar, tablesponful of Enger. Let cool until lukewarm, then stir in the case of sugar, tablesponful of Enger. Let faise over night. Early the next faise over night. Early the next has that the case of the sugar tablesponful of the sugar tablesponful cut in pieces as large as two yeast cakes side by side. Put on a board dry in the shade, as sun will sour it. Turn often, put in a sack and hang Hints for the Home.

To make cabbage digestible, when half boiled pour off the water and

When boiling potatoes put a tea-Cocoanut Pie. One cup shredded spoonful of sugar as well as salt in in the oven and brown. Serve cold. in as much water as you require.

macaroons may easily be removed. it in the preserving pan about five look in and ask you to go down with me." innocently. "And you'd better get a man Coccanut Custard. - One pint minutes before removing the jam sweet milk, two eggs, half cup co- from the fire. This will set it beau- Mr. Morgan Thorpe looked round the ranged the rooms, shifting and reshiftcoanut, two tablespoons of sagar, tifully firm, and will not make any milk. Have the remainder of the cocoanut instead of currants, and milk hot in a double boiler and stir stem some on the ton. This will milk hot in a double boiler and stir stew some on the top. This will ous. I'm half ashamed of accepting his chased for Laura's use; also he placed in the cornstarch. Cook ten min- make a change from the ordinary place, Leafmore, is near where we live, plate. utes. Beat the eggs and sugar to- pudding, and will be found very and we see a great deal of him. He is furniture creams. mending cracks in plaster use vine- novice. gar instead of water. It should be of the consistency of putty, and when the cracks are filled with it of the banquet, much, apparently, to the banquet, much, apparently, to the banquet, much, apparently, to gan Thorpe praised the soup and the cullen conformal appropriated them, you see.

"If you will deign to accept them," said Bobby, glowing with pride and pleasure. Then they sat down to dinner, and Mortan the gan Thorpe praised the soup and the cullen conformal appropriated them, you see. the top should be smoothed over with a knife. The mixture will not went to a little club where Mr. Morgan and praised the red mullet, and praised harden for about half an hour,

A soothing dressing for burns, scalds, inflammation caused by wasp, bee, mosquito, or other stings may be made with ordinary household whiting mixed to smooth cream with linseed oil; ap- playing baccarat. ply this frequently to the part at fected, and the inflammation will ighted taper and just singe the fraved parts. It will be seen that the linen will last much longer, Cut- more flattering to youth than this conting the edges has a tendency to loosen the parts and singeing just day at the Orient; and in a day or two takes the frayed edges off without received another invitation to dine at Trevor would return to his plate comfortpurpose as a dress or blouse should softly murmured welcome.

Her Great Love;

Or, A Struggle For a Heart

CHAPTER XVI.-(Continued). "I wonder whether you would come and dine with me?" he said, looking round with boyieh eagerness, his eyts resting, however, on the beautiful face beside him. Tve got rooms at Prince's Mansions. They're not mine, really; they belong to a friend of mine, an awfully good fellow,

Mr. Morgan Thorpe, who alone heard this, was mixing himself a second glass of whisky. He was just pouring in a small quantity of water, and with an awkwardness scarcely to be expected of so cool a hand, he let the caraffe elip from his grasp. The water poured over the table, and in the confusion Bobby's speech was almost unnoticed.

"How clumsy of me!" exclaimed Morgan Thorpe. "Forgive me, my dear Laura. We shall be delighted, my dear Deane-delighted. Must you really be going? Ah, well, the happiest hours come to a finish." Laura went out into the small hall as the two men put on their light overcoate. Bobby found some difficulty with his, and table and look on at the play with a litshe helped him with her small white

"You will come again?" she said.
"Yes-yes, indeed!" said Bobby, "if He got outside, and the cool evening air struck upon his heated brow. He felt as fectioner's sugar. Mix all the in- When the feet ache through walk- if he had come from some enchanted palgredients together except the ing in the heat, rub them with a ace in which a beautiful creature with whites of the eggs. Bake one half mixture of lemon juice and alcohol soft black eyes had reigned like a queen "Nice people," he said to Trevor, with boyish enthusiasm.

> "You know them very well?" said "Oh, yes," said Trevor, sullenly. "What a lovely creature Mrs. Dalton is!" said Bobby, looking up at the sky. pressed ferocity. There was so much suppressed savage-

"We part here," he said. "Good-night." der peculiarly pleasant auspices.

CHAPTER XVII. Bobby woke with a headache the next morning-champagne and port do not

It recalled the previous evening, and quently; not even when the divine Laura's pleton, and there were some things about enough to give them a formal invitation Cocoanut Macaroons.—Whites of The milk gives the ceiling a beautiache makes you rather critical. Mr. Mor. days before-hand he was in a fever of gan Thorpe was a little too gauve and anxiety and excitement lest everything smiling; the rooms certainly were rather should not be right, and the entertain-

Bobby said he should be delighted, and to wait.

Mr. Morgan Thorpe looked round the lands and the lands are the lands back wot 'e borrered. hands. But the hind limbs have at $80,000,000, while its opponents tion, as if he had never seen it before. spoonful of vanilla. Dissolve the pudding, sprinkle each slice of as wealth. What did you say his name or stand on end and butter with desiccated was? I didn't catch it last night."

when baking bread and butter with desiccated was a well the bill for the flowers then, more than any other, afterward made Bobby's hair stand on end and he set a great bunch was? I didn't catch it last night."

when baking bread and butter with desiccated was a kind of sucker in climbing trees.

"Garnet" and add the bill for the flowers then, more than any other, afterward made Bobby's hair stand on end and he set a great bunch was? I didn't catch it last night."

"Garnet" and add the bill for the flowers then, more than any other, afterward made Bobby's hair stand on end and he set a great bunch was? I didn't catch it last night." doing wonders for the place, rebuilding this occasion he ordered some of the most

them and return to the mre units when using white hearthstone or all that sort of thing. When using white hearthstone of bacon; also a pound of soap, the model landlord? said brand. He was very particular about the of bacon; also a pound of soap, the land of soap, the model landlord? said brand the Admirated coffee which Fortnum & Mason were to and he set about preparing a nice the original line of ascent that was alty are not believed to be hostile "Oh, no!" said Bobby. Morgan Thorpe nodded, and looked oring and cocoanut and pour into be saved over from washing day. round the room; and Bobby following his

"I-I hope Mrs. Dalton, if she will said Mr. Morgan Thorpe. "These etchings, ing not quite of satisfaction, but, at any must have washed my shirt with the some thick cream until very stiff, may be effected by merely rubbing that if the were to make an expectation it of his welcome. He could scarcely believe salt slightly and mix with the salad. the edge with a piece of ordinary would be in your favor; for, between you and me, my dear Deane, I must tell you paraffin wax. Thus the collars do that you made quite a favorable impres. The count scarcely believe that is, to have some kind of artistic edunction. I think I'll let her study pressure of her gloved hand, and heard that you made quite a favorable impres. I pressure of her gloved hand, and heard

"By the way," continued Mr. Morgan haps, not to tell her that these rooms are sugar. Drop on buttered paper and together in a bottle. Shake well any one."

Bobby scarcely saw any reason for this bake fifteen minutes in a hot oven. before using. It will be found to concealment, but he nodded in ascent, Dalton. When cold moisten the under side give a more brilliant polish, and and was full of admiration of Mrs. Dal-

Thorpe said they could get some decent It was a very different club to the lessues of a ducal retainer.

Orient, and neither so large nor so quiet. Bobby was nervous at starting, and, like A plane was going in one of the rooms, all novices at the same, watched the and a gentleman was singing a popular waiter anxiously; but as the dinner, the ditty, and there was a good deal of laugh- costly dinner, proceeded and Morgan gan Thorpe explained somewhat apolo- and the good wine set his heart beating getically that he rarely visited the club, and his tongue wagging. at late in the evening, and for a few min- her dainty fare, smiled sweetly at him, Instead of cutting the frayed utes. On this occasion the few minutes and murmbured soft and musical noedges of cuffs and collars, as many extended to some hours; and with cham- things; Morgan Thorpe talked fluently people are accustomed to do, take a markably good time of it. As he went glum and silent, eating the costly and home in one of the small hours, with a flushed cheek and a hot head, he felt that tion. he was "seeing life;" and there is nothing

Cardigan Terrace. As on the previous oc. ed and resseured, Velveteen which has served its guests. Mrs. Dalton received him with a have been rather strange if it had not

Bobby hesitated. He had not promised anyone that he would not play cards or he was not rich enough for either amuse. of Morgan Thorpe's, she smiled up at him

"Don't play unless you like," murmured

The cigars were lighted.

Laura will not object to such cigars as ese, my dear Deane," remarked Morgan and murmured something in a low voice.

Trevor-his face was flushed and his

"Don't-don't-try me too far," he said,

And she smiled and sighed up at him,

(To be continued.)

$160,000,000 FOR TOURS.

Rate of $30,000 Per Hour.

principal harvest of the tourists'

NERVE!

Useful in the House.

Economy.

"Of course, I want my daughter

Travellers on Continent Spend

Something in her voice nettled Bobby. 'Oh, I'll take a hand, as they want me,' "Then you must not play high," she said, and I am-ah, can you not see?-but obey-but with an almost tender little pressure. Morgan, you must not play high." "We'll play 'for love,' if Mr. likes," said Morgan Thorpe. Trevor growled contemptuously, and Bobby, as he seated himself at the table, said, with a flush: "I'll play for anything you like."

The little nap commenced, and was play. and the next instant she was smiling up ed for some time to the accompaniment at Bobby with a pathetic, pleading exting through the water by the use of soft music. At intervals, Laura moved pression in her dark eyes. about the room, arranging some flowers or looking over a ladies' fashion paper, and now and again she would come to the tle yawn and gesture of petulant impa-As is not unusual with the novice, Bobby held good cards. Fortune smiled upon him, as the Goddess of Luck has a trick of doing when she wants to lure the young calculated that during the holiday "Really, my dear Deane," said Morgan season tourists in Europe spend Thorpe, "you play remarkably well; for, let me tell you, there is more play in nap 830,000 per hour, and that they than is generally supposed."

"He held all the cards," growled Trevor,

"The cards are not everything," said Of the countries which reap the Morgan Thorpe. "Deane plays with dismoney Switzerland is easily first, Now, this is the kind of praise which with 3,000,000 visitors annually, reis as sweet as honey to the inexperienced youth, and Bobby, as he gathered together presenting about $32,000,000.

who was the larger loser.

the little heap of sovereigns, was delight- The Riviere, Spain and Italy ed with himself and his new friends; and have fewer tourists, but not over ness in his tone that Bobby stopped and ling in his pocket and the divine Laura's $60,000,000 among them. It was true that on his next visit he lost; but not so much as he had won; and on this occasion Morgan Thorpe assured him that he had only lost because he had 000, and Vienna, with 350,000, held such vile cards.

Excepting when he was working with

He spent hours thinking over the menu, and filled his cook with amazement by who should call at Prince's Mansions but she said; "or perhaps I'd better get some Mr. Morgan Thorpe himself.

"I was just passing on my way to the club, my dear Deane," he said, with his winning smile, "and I thought I have been said, with his continuous smile, "and I thought I have been said; or perhaps I'd better get some of the things from Fortnum & Mason. It won't cost much more, and they'll sure to be first-rate."

ion, as if he had never seen it before.
"You have tremendously swagger cham."

The had or before and add or before and or before the cottages and setting up schools, and expensive wines on the wine merchant's ful in the house. He bought a pound shore-birds seem to dislike. list, and procured cigars of the choicest send iced at the precise moment it would was willing and more than willing to give him credit; and having dressed himself ing. "Cooking bacon," he replied. reptiles. It represents an indepen- well disposed toward it to facilitate so kind as to dine here, will like the with extraordinary care, he surveyed the "Bacon! Why, that is soap." dent attempt on the part of a mod- the finding of the capital required. com." table glittering with Gaunt's plate and "Then, bedad," said Murphy, "I ern fish to adopt a land life.

her musical voice murmuring: "Are we late?" Then she looked round.

"What a delightful room, Mr. Deane! Why, blurt out, in forgetfulness of Morgan Thorpe's injunction, that the rooms were not his; but Morgan Thorpe frowned at turbance of the atmosphere. him warningly, and Bobby stammered: "Not-not worthy of your presence-Mrs

They went down to the club, and there She looked at the bunch of orchids in her met Trevor, and the three men went into hand, and raised them caressingly to her When mixing plaster of Paris for the billiard-room; and Eobby took his red lips. "And these I found on the dress-first lesson with all the eagerness of a ing table. Were they meant for me? I appropriated them, you see.

From the theatre, which followed, they if it was as good as the price was highhanded round with the gravity and noise-ter, excepting in one corner, where some Thorpe grew more laudatory, he gained men were gathered round a green table confidence, and rattled on with his usual boyieh candor and spirit. He allowed the As he called for champagne, Mr. Mor- waiter to fill his glass rather frequently,

He met Mr. Mergan Therpe nearly every Laura caught the glances and smiled at him, when Bobby was not looking, and with the wine and Morgan Thorpe's praise and the exquisite music. His heart was filled with satisfaction; the beautiful fish out of water' is no longer accreature was in his (that his, Lord Gaunt's) rooms; his dinner had been a curate, for men of science have learned that severel species of fish They went into the little drawing-room, learned that severel species of fish and Bobby leaned his elbow on the piano are quite at home out of their naand gazed into the lovely, piquant face, tive element. The climbing perch and she gazed back at him with a soft and the lung-fish are examples. In Then Trevor came up to the piano, and the "Marvels of the Universe," Sir bet on races; but he was conscious that as Bobby moved away to answer a remark H. H. Johnston describes another

THE "BOMMI" FISH.

Prefers to Lie on the Mud or Sand Instead of the Water.

"land fish," the bommi. "How's this going to end?" he asked in Its scientific name is periophthal-"My dear friend, why be angry with mus. Englishmen in West Africa me?" she whispered. "You know that I speak of it as the "mud-skipper," am not a free agent. I am under orders, but the natives always call this letting her hand fall upon his arm lightly, ing these orders. Don't be angry with curious fish the bomini

The bommi is a member of the eyes bloodshot-bent until his lips nearly goby family of marine or estuarial fishes, most of which are remarkahoarsely, "or I sha'n't be able to stand ble in one way or another for their fondness for walking or jumping over the ground, rather than getfast becoming a land animal. It takes to the water during the breeding-season, but at other times it prefers to lie on the mud or sand, or to climb the trunks of mangroves or pandanus. However, it A well-known statistician has just always stays near the water; in fact, it usually prefers to lie with the end of its tail in the water. It has been said that it can oxygenate spend more than $160,000,000 per its blood through its very vascular tail-fin, which thus replaces the gills. That explanation, however, the bommi often remains for long periods of time on the trunk of a tree a long way from the water. The traveller Pechuel-Loesche signed by leading peers and digniwrites of the bommi fish that he ob- taries of all churches, in England, served on the Loango coast: "By including the late Cardinal Manbending and stretching their bodies ning, by members of Parliament Trevor bit his lip, and looked from side that he was indeed "seeing life" unto side.

The expense of holiday-makers, bending and stretching their bodies of Parliament felt that he was indeed "seeing life" unto side.

The expense of holiday-makers, and supporting themselves by the both foreign and provincial, in the lip, and first the lip, and other prominent men, such as the lip, and first the lip, and supporting their bodies and other prominent men, such as the lip, and first the lip, and looked from side felt that he was indeed "seeing life" unto side. I tail and fins they advance in a series | Sir John Lubbock, Browning, Huxof very small hops. When they are ley, Spencer and Frederick Harribasking in the mud, one of them son; by the great London editors, amount to at least $45,000,000, not will often give a sudden joyful by army men, such as the Duke of hardly accounts for the fact that jumps are often two, three or four uncertain in tone.

on account of their spikes, act as a are divided on this point as to its slight protection. The creature's practicability. Thirdly, there is the Murphy's wife was ill, so he real safeguard, however, lies in its strategic question. This is admitthoug the would make himself use- uneatable flesh, which even the tedly not so important as it was of bacon; also a pound of soap, The bommi is not in any way on British War Office and the Admirmeal for his wife. She, however, followed by the pristine types of to the project. Concerning the cost of the affair he did wondered what was the smell, and fish that gradually turned into amnot trouble himself, seeing that everybody called to Murphy what was he dophibians, and from amphibians into clare that financiers are sufficiently

Scheme to Connect England and France By Tunnel. Are England and France to be cation. I think I'll let her study connected by a Channel tunnel "Why not art or literature?" "Art spoils canvas and literature seriously considered. As long as person in the musical world led a Bobby in his nervousness was about to wastes reams of paper. Singing thirty years ago a violent campaign very abandoned life. "Yes," remerely produces a temporary dis- was waged against this scheme. At plied his friend, "the whole tenor that time a protest against it was of his life has been base."

MOST PERFECT MADE THE INCREASED NUTRITI-OUS VALUE OF BREAD MADE IN THE HOME WITH ROYAL YEAST CAKES SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT INCENTIVE TO THE CAREFUL HOUSEWIFE TO GIVE THIS IMPORTANT FOOD ITEM THE ATTENTION TO WHICH IT IS JUSTLY EN-HOME BREAD BAKING RE-DUCES THE HIGH COST OF

PLY THE NECESSARY NOUR-ISHMENT TO THE BODY. E. W. GILLETT CO. LTD. TORONTO, ONT

MONTREAL

WINNIPEG

LIVING BY LESSENING THE

AMOUNT OF EXPENSIVE

MEATS REQUIRED TO SUP-

his crammer, Bobby spent nearly all his counting the purchases of souvenirs jump; sometimes a whole school of Cambridge and Field Marshal Lord them will be jumping and hopping Wolseley, and by the heads of the Finally, the European watering about at play. I could never ob. Admiralty, while men like the late serve just how they climbed trees. Goldwin Smith wrote articles of but suspect that they work upward virulent denunciation of the propoby using their fins and tail as much sal. The result was that Sir Edas they use them on the ground. | ward Watkin's scheme was for the They are very timid. At the time buried, but it was not dead. first approach of danger they raise It was brought forward again in themselves slightly by means of 1906 and in 1907 and found some their fins; at the next alarm they friends, but none of great imporduck flat, and then begin to hop tance who would go wholeheartedly vigorously in the direction of the for it, and the London newspapers water. When in full flight, their where they were not hostile were times the length of their own bod- Meanwhile French approval of ies. In crossing shallow water, the scheme became practically unthey prefer to hop over it, instead animous. The entente cordiale was of swimming through it; a large of course used as an argument in its number of them passing over the favor. The main arguments, how-water in this way makes a curious ever, were purely economical. The project for a tunnel is now Like other members of the goby seriously revived. The arguments family, the bommi has turned its opposing it are also revived. The fore fins into very serviceable arms, first one to-day is the cost, which Boy-"If you please, father's sent with appendages that resemble those who favor the plan estimate thirty years ago, and to-day the

There remains the sentimental difficulty in addition to others, but so strong and influential is the CHANNEL TUBE PLAN AGAIN. | backing of the present movement in support of the tunnel scheme that it must be considered as a distinct possibility of the near future

This old question is again being Smith remarked that a certain

