Registrar M. K. Richardson has decided we believe, to move to Durham before long. Citizens of all classes will give him and family a very cordial welcome.

It is requested that all accounts in favor of Drs. Gun and Sunday services be paid at an early date. Partnership will be dissolved, and Dr. Struthers will leave Durham about the first of October.

Big Air Ship for Walkerton Fall Fair.—At the Walkerton Fall Fair on Friday afternoon, Sept 12th, Aviator Luckey in a Curtiss Aeroplane will give a flying exhibition. Thousands will see it. Special trains from Durham and Hanover. Single fares on all lines.

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Clean Pressing and Repairing promptly attended to in Tailor shop adjoining Middaugh House. Orders may be left at the Middaugh House.

Anniversary Services will be held in Durham Baptist church on 21st and 22nd of Sept. For Sunday services Rev. W. H. Langton of Chesley will preach. On Monday evening Rev. Mr. Piercy, Warton, will be present. He has won renown as a speaker and an eloquentist. The choir will give special selections. Admission Monday evening, 25c and 10c.

The lightning in Sunday night's electrical storm visited Durham and struck the Registry Office. No serious damage was done except that streaks were on the interior of the building leaves mute evidence of an undesired visit. The same storm raged to the ground, the barn of Mr. James Grant, on the interior of the building leaving his season's crop and implements.

AN EDITOR NERK.—W. D. MacKay a former bank clerk connected with the old Traders in this town has quit the banking profession and has entered the ranks of newspaper men. He is now the editor and proprietor of the paper in Carleton Place, Ontario. He purchased the paper a year ago and is "making it go." To use his own words, "Mac" says, "I am very well pleased with the business being done."

TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL.—Fearing that complications of a somewhat serious nature might set in after her accident of a week ago when she was thrown from her buggy, which resulted in breaking a limb, Mrs. E. Laidlaw was taken to the General Hospital Toronto last Saturday. Examination showed that her injuries were not so serious as supposed and latest reports state that she is making satisfactory progress under the best of medical attendance.

A BREAK OF NATURE.—Mr. C. L. Grant calls our attention to a somewhat unusual occurrence which is happening this September weather, to the rear of his home. In a sheltered nest, in a leafy grape vine, a young robin is anxious to become a mother and is sitting on eggs. No other robins are ever seen around and it is not known if she even has a mate. Unlike other members of this species the cold nights do not seem to frighten her, in the least and she looks like becoming a resident for awhile.

PULLEY BURST.—Mr. Thomas Stinson will never want a closer call than he had on Monday. While at his duties up-stairs in the Bazaar, he discovered that a pulley had burst and the broken part that remained had struck him. An inch or even half an inch nearer to the mill can be easily repaired.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—Thirty-five ladies attended the Women's Institute meeting on Sept. 4, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Blythe and a most enjoyable program was given. The president occupied the chair and the meeting opened with "The Maple Leaf." Mrs. N. Eden gave a splendid paper entitled "The Leaf of a Plain Country Woman." "Poultry Raising" was thoroughly discussed. Mrs. Geo. Lawrence and Miss Winnie Blythe giving instructive papers on the subject and roll call was well responded to by each member giving a poultry pointer. Pleading instrumental was rendered by Misses Eva and Winnie Blythe. The meeting closed by singing the national anthem.

A CHICKEN QUARANTINE.—There is a well-known citizen of this town, who in the future will have a horror of eggs and we don't blame him either. One day last week he purchased a dozen of eggs from a local merchant and on arriving he placed them for safe keeping in the range oven. No alarming symptoms of future happenings occurred the rest of that day but early next morning when his wife was about to begin her household duties she was certain a bird was singing in some hidden corner of the house. She investigated the cause of the noise and was joined in the search by her husband who in time opened the door of the range. There in among the eggs was a cracked shell and a chirping chicken full in the flesh. Mr. Citizen has not decided to enter the poultry business yet but he may be tempted to do so now.

Regular meeting of Ben Nevis Camp will be held Friday evening of this week, Sept. 12th. Every member within reach expected.

PLACED A MEMORIAL.—A handsome memorial stone in memory of the late David Jackson erected last week by his family in the English church cemetery on the 2nd of Glenelg.

We were in error last week in saying Mulock P. O. had been closed. It cannot be closed until the 5th and 6th concessions are supplied by a courier and this has not yet been done.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in Toronto on Wednesday, 3rd September, when Miss Annie Rebecca, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcocks of Fisherton, was married to Mr. Chas. E. O'Brien of Toronto.

Miss Foster displayed a wonderful amount of musical ability and her deep, rich and remarkably sympathetic vocalism was a constant source of delight to her audience. In Town Hall both show nights, Sept. 23rd and 24th.

The annual Hampden garden party, held at the home of Mr. Thomas Derby (1/2 mile east of the church) on Friday, September 12. A good program is being prepared while lunch will be served from 7 to 8 o'clock. A hearty invitation to all. Admission 10c and 15c.

Dr. McGillivray of Denver is visiting his father near Elmwood and his many relatives and friends in Ben-tuck and Durham. He and his sister spent over the week end with their cousin Miss Annie L. McKenzie and other relatives. The doctor has been twenty years in Denver and is a local official in the health department of that city.

GOOD BY! BUSINESS!—The introduction of rural mail delivery is destroying a lot of sentiment that attached itself round old-world names in new world places. Business, redoubt of Mill and the highlands is now wiped out as a post office and a friend now is found at "Priceville R. R. No 1 or No 2." So it goes, the march of progress takes no heed of sentiment and we too drop it and ask grace of our subscribers to keep posted on all changes.

IN LOVE WITH IT.—"I like it just fine," quoth Mr. J. A. Graham, referring to his return to the teaching profession after an absence of several years from the ranks. Mr. Graham has been Secretary of the Durham Cement Co. until recently but has temporarily given up the work and is now presiding over the destinies of 10 scholars at the Boys' Stagers school. The change seems to be agreeing with him and he takes the return walk daily as an appetizer.

40 ATTEND MODEL.—The number of students enrolled at Hanover Model School has now increased to 40 and it is now the editor and proprietor of the paper in Carleton Place, Ontario. He purchased the paper a year ago and is "making it go." To use his own words, "Mac" says, "I am very well pleased with the business being done."

A RECENT COPY OF A BRITISH COLUMBIA paper has the following reference to Mr. Wm. McFayden, son of Donald of Glenelg. Will is making his mark in the West. "Wm. McFayden, of Durham, Ont., has charge of freight teaming west, and also has a five-mile contract of slip work west of Fort George on the Nechaco. He has been with Bruce Gordon for over 3 years and has not lost a day for the last eighteen months. He says that Fort George will be a busy place next winter with freighting, as work will continue throughout the winter months."

SOME APPLES.—In an interesting letter received from Dr. J. O. Moore of Wilton N. Y., are some interesting items which give a whiff of the success attending an old Normanby boy. "I do a little farming as well as ordinary work as witness: I expect about 6000 bbls. apples this year on farm, a light crop but the price is right from 2.50 to 3.25 per bbl. I have also 25 bushels of wheat which I expect to bring 3.25. My wheat went 30 bushels and oats 52 to the acre. Hay was an immense crop, more hay stacks than I have ever seen in this part. Beans are just a medium crop some very fine fields and some poor. Dry weather caught some fields but the rains have helped them as well as the corn, which is a very fair crop. Canadian factory peas were fine, one man received $2200 from 15 acres, some beat this but smaller acreage. I have ridden 8000 miles in an auto this summer and I don't think over 200 miles of it was for pleasure."

DID NOT SAY GOOD BYE.—A mild sensation was given the town when Mr. John White of the Standard Bank was reported absent and no one knew why, how, nor where. Any citizen has a right to go where and when he pleases but the sensation was caused by the fact that Mr. Kelly, manager of the bank had just arrived home the night before, after two weeks absence, and Mr. White who had been for these two weeks in the responsible position of manager was not on hand to transfer his stewardship to his superior. He was a popular young man but at time of writing has not turned up. His bed we believe had not been slept on the night previous and the circumstance gave keenness to the curiosity aroused. No doubt some explanation of the hurried exit will be forthcoming for no charge of malfeasance is made and his holidays were due anyway.

BORN
SHARP—On Thursday, Sept. 4, to Mr. and Mrs. George L. Sharp, 3rd con. Normanby, a daughter.

ANDERSON.—On Aug. 27, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson (nee Martha Frith) of Edge Hill, a daughter.

HOPKINS—At Hutton Hill, on Wednesday, Sept. 3rd, to Mr. and Mrs. R. Hopkins, a son.

To Subscribers in arrears
LOOK AT YOUR LABEL

During the week that has passed we have again to thank those who have paid attention to the pink circular we sent out lately. The response has been gratifying, but as usual quite a number are those who could hardly be called in arrears at all. We thank them all the same but appeal again to those whose label is away back to take advantage of our offer, to receive arrears as cash price, $1 a year, which offer cannot be long continued.

Reader, if this means you let us hear from you this week sure. We are not asking you to pay away into the future as Neil McDougall, Duluth, did last week whose label will now read "1917," though if you show similar faith and promptness, we will not object. What we want is the fairness implied in "pay as you go" and is not fair to the publisher to allow accounts to drag while his bills must be met in 30 days.

Let this be really week.

Arthur Brooks Arrested.
Sent To Owen Sound.

A new development in the pending case against Brooks and McLean for alleged highway robbery took place on Monday. Saturday evening previous Mr. Brooks came home on the G. T. R. train after some weeks of absence and at once went to his home here.

His bondsmen learning of this and there being something in the situation they did not like withdrew before the magistrate, the bail they had given and no other being forthcoming the only course open to the police magistrate was to order his arrest. Constables Whelan and Arrowsmith, armed with the necessary warrant, called at the house Monday forenoon and found Brooks in bed. He did not question their mission, but got ready to accompany them, and in charge of Constable Whelan in noon train for Owen Sound via Hanover, after a pathetic parting from his wife and four children who have the sympathy of the town in their painful position.

Runaway and Spill
Monday forenoon last as Wm. and Silas Edwards and a cousin, Jesse Edwards were proceeding north in a light wagon on sideroad 10 con's 3 and 4, N. D. R., their horse took fright, part of the harness broke on going down a rather steep hill, south of the Township Hall and they were all pitched out receiving severe injuries. Silas seemed least injured and walked back to Mr. Geo. Binnie's for a horse to help the others home, but being dazed with the shock as he well might be he turned south at the corner and drove to Mr. Hugh Edwards' on the gravel road. His story was somewhat incoherent and they knowing Mr. Binnie's horse used the telephone to call him up and were soon apprised of the real state of affairs.

A doctor was wired for and the two injured ones were being lying by the roadside, Jesse being the worst hurt, with serious cuts about face and head. The doctor we are glad to hear is hopeful of no serious results from the accident.

The men were engaged in building a silo at Mr. Anderson's and were on their way to their work.

South Grey Fair
Expansion Year—Make it 5000

The Directors of our big Fair are out this year to make it a bigger success than ever. The big shows are over, harvest is finished, fall wheat is sown and the call is for every one to get a prize list and be an exhibitor if possible, a spectator on show day in any event and a "booster" all the time, for the best riding show in this part of the province.

BIG PRIZES
As can be seen the prizes are numerous and well-placed. The true farmer, be he stock breeder or agriculturalist, glories more in the competition than in the amount of the prize. The prize is stamp of excellence, but all, whether prize winners or not, benefit by the friendly rivalry. The Directors are bound to maintain the highest standards this year. Applaud, back up, and join in the effort they are making to make this year, Expansion Year.

4 TOWNSHIPS STRUGGLE
A feature this year for all spectators, is to discover which of the four townships adjacent to Durham can furnish the best baseball team. Two of them will compete in the morning about 10.30, the other two in the afternoon at 2, and the winning teams will play the deciding game about 4 o'clock. It will be a struggle worth witnessing. Town players are not to be allowed to compete.

HORSE RACING
As usual there will be speeding in the ring, for which liberal prizes are offered and other outside attractions, musical and otherwise are in preparation.

CONCERT
Three high class artists have been engaged to give a concert each night of the Show. Harry Bennett, the inimitable Comedian; Miss Barbara Foster, Toronto, Contralto singer; Miss Barbara Booth-Watson, Toronto, Elocutionist, all of them widely known, will make a trio of entertainers hard to surpass.

Let the slogan be "Expansion year."

Miss Barbara Watson, Toronto, who appears at the Fall Show concerts both nights is an artist of rare ability. In company with Miss Foster and Mr. Harry Bennett, such a program will be rendered as seldom is presented in Durham. Get tickets early.

Mr. and Mrs. Findlay Graham and Mrs. Wm. Calder returned last week from an enjoyable trip to Western Canada and points in the Western States. They visited as far south as Salt Lake City, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Messrs John Kelly and W. H. Laidlaw returned from business trips to the West on Friday and Saturday of last week.
(Additional Personals on Page 4)

Rev. Dr. Farquharson is Home
After an absence of almost seven months from pulpit duties and two months of that time away from town, Rev. Dr. Farquharson returned home Monday evening. He will occupy his pulpit in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

His congregation and many friends are greatly pleased to hear of his return and the revival of his strength to almost its former fullness. It was about the middle of last February when the breakdown in Dr. Farquharson's health occurred, and for a time grave fears were held that he would never be able to return to active work again. With the advent of the invigorating Spring months coupled with a fine constitution, strength slowly but surely returned and in the early Summer he left for Agincourt, near Toronto, the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. Couts. Between Agincourt and Chatham, he has since spent his time convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McKechnie have returned to town after spending six weeks at Glenelg. Their guests the last week they were there were Miss Bella McKenzie, Miss Edith McKenzie, Miss Frank Davidson and Miss Bessie Telford.

Ed. Buschlen has gone to Durham where he has secured employment in the furniture factory. We understand his family will move there soon. They will be much missed here as they are good citizens, and Mr. Buschlen is a splendid musician.—Hepworth Progress.

PERSONAL MENTION
Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Laidlaw of Detroit visited at the home of his brother, Wm. Laidlaw for a few days.

Mr. N. H. Starnall of Berlin was in town from Saturday until Monday, preparing to move away his household effects to the German city.

Rev. W. H. Hartley and Mrs. Hartley are attending the Dominion Convention of A. Y. P. A.'s in Toronto this week. Mr. Hartley was one of the principal speakers at the session on Tuesday afternoon, having a paper on the subject "How to Maintain Membership." Miss S. Vollet is a delegate from the local A. Y. P. A. society.

Miss Annie Mathews of Detroit is the guest of her aunt and uncle R. J. and Miss Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McKechnie have returned to town after spending six weeks at Glenelg. Their guests the last week they were there were Miss Bella McKenzie, Miss Edith McKenzie, Miss Frank Davidson and Miss Bessie Telford.
