Attend South Grey Fair at Durham, Sept. 23rd and 24th

The Durham Review.

VOL. XXXVI, NO. 38 DURHAM, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1913.

The Review to new subscribers to the end of the year for 25 cents

The Directors of South Grey Fair are doing their level best to make the show a success. The Entry books are filling up quickly and everything gives promise of a splendid show. They would like to see every farmer as well as others in the township take an interest in it. It is your show. Boost it in your neighborhood. Com out yourself and get your neighbors to come and make it a financial success. Without that the Directors cannot make it what they want it to be; the best Fair in these Northern countries.

Published Weekly at $1.00 a year. C. RAMAGE & SON, Publishers

SOME BALL PLAYERS—Karl Lennah formerly of Durham is the best outfielder in the Owen Sound baseball league. During the past season when he played for the HARRISON team, he had more chances than any other outfielder and not a display was credited to him. For his high standing, he was awarded a medal when the wind-up occurred. The award was donated by C. B. Cameron, M. L. A.

All ye people who are lovers of speed motor cars who do not come out to Durham on Sept. 23rd, South Grey's big day at the Fall Fair. A field of horses fast and fine are gathering from every quarter, and there will be something doing on the track that day. Don't you miss it.

"THE GREAT NORTHWEST"—Under this heading an excellent play is being presented by Mr. W. L. Dixon, of North Egremont. It appeared in the Globe on April last and we have it. It contains a truth that is ever applicable to all new settlements or new adventures, and its optimistic ending may light the path of some at present in gloom.

AUCTION SALE—There will be sold on Saturday, 20th Sept., 1913, the household furniture of the undersigned at his residence on Mill St. West, Lower town, at 2 o'clock. Everything must be sold as Proprietor is leaving town. See at 2 o'clock.
 Mrs DAVID BURDET, ROBT. BRIGHAM Proprietor.

STILL HOLIDAYING—Jack White, formerly of Durham, is Standard Bank, who disappeared on 5th inst has not sent word of his whereabouts. Citizens who were at the Western Fair last week report having seen him in London. Even if he does return now, it is very doubtful that he would be reinstated.

SCARLET FEVER—Three rooms of the public school are closed at present and the pupils holidaying. On Monday Miss Niven one of the primary teachers contracted fever and the home of Mrs. Greenwood, Mill street where she boards has been quarantined. As Miss Niven's sister, and Miss Black both members of the teaching staff stay at the same place they are also imprisoned by the red card on the door.

HORSE FAIR—To-day's Horse Fair bids fair to be well attended. These fair have proved a boon to many in this district, and will be continued on third Thursday of every month, though Mr. Wm. Black intends to issue no more bills announcing them. It is not generally known that Mr. Black is at an expense every month of five or six dollars in connection with the fair, receiving some encouragement it is true by voluntary subscriptions, but these scarcely make up half the outlay. It is hardly credible that the rush will prove so great, so far are they from assisting, even go so far as disparaging the institution that has brought thousands of dollars to this community. We hope to see them go on and prosper.

BIPLANE AN ATTRACTION—The big attraction at the Walkerton Exhibition on Friday last was the ascent of J. R. Luckey, of New York City, in a Curtiss biplane. He gives the as his 137th ascent with only one accident. His effort was highly successful. He was in the air about 30 minutes, and sailed at about 30 miles an hour. Luckey intended to fly out to a mile out from town, not being able to make a proper landing in the town with so many people about. Several thousand people witnessed the flight. About 20 went from Durham.

NOSE BROKEN—The head of a hand axe becoming loose and flying off the handle resulted in Mr. Ed. Welsh having the ridge of his nose broken on Friday afternoon. With Henry Sharkey, he was assisting in repairing in Ham. Allen's blacksmith shop, when the accident occurred. He immediately went to Dr. Gun's office where medical attendance was rendered.

A GOOD LACROSSE PLAYER—St. Mary's interested in lacrosse team by defeating Hanover team in St. Mary's by 13-2, though they lost in Hanover by a score of 4 to 3, have qualified to enter the intermediate final. One of the star players of the St. Mary's twelve is Lou. Lavelle, a former Durham boy. He plays second home on the team and is always well to the front. At a recent game played in Goderich, Lou. was so severely hurt that he was laid off for the rest of the game.

RUNAWAY—While on his rounds in the north of Pricerville last week, Thomas Tuttle, the well-known beef ring butcher, figured in an accident, which fortunately did not turn out as seriously as these affairs often do. While about to start off at 3 o'clock one morning, his driver, an animal belonging to Mr. Arch. Ector, took fright at the rustle of his oil proof coat and bolted. Mr. Tuttle, who was in the act of getting into the buggy at the time, did not have complete control of the lines and was knocked down the head wheel of his rig passing over his head. He sustained two severe cuts on the back and side of his head but was not aware that he was hurt in any way until some time later. The horse after a short gallop stopped of its own accord.

FUNERAL OF MRS. McLEAN—The funeral of Mrs. Flora McLean, widow of the late Archibald McLean and who died on Monday, Sept. 8, was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week and was largely attended. The observance were conducted by Rev. N. McLean, pastor of Durham, assisted by Rev. McDonald of Chesley and McLellan of Walkerton. The pall bearers were six neighbors of the deceased lady and burial was made in Rocky Saugeen cemetery. Mrs. McLean who was in her 72nd year had been ill for some time and her death was not unexpected. She was a native of Ross Mill, Scotland and came to this country in the year 1871. In the same year she was married to Archibald McLean who predeceased her about six years ago. One son Archie survives. Two step sons, Dunes and Dan McLean, are also residents of Bantnick.

 Many Old Durham and South Grey Friends and Interesting Sight.

Dear Review Readers: It is our privilege to spend in city and country among the citizens of our growing West, we will endeavor in some small measure to give our impressions from time to time, and to bring nearer to mind if not in reality, the many friends it is our pleasure to meet with throughout the tour. The course of years in the more firmly welding the friendship and intercourse between East and West, scarcely a person who has not relatives or old neighbors in the newer provinces, though we can meet comparatively few, but if anything we narrate affords any interest to readers at home or abroad, we shall feel amply repaid.

New Ontario, in advertising literature, is "the end of possibilities." In many sections doubtless it is, but in the portion we traversed from Parry Sound to Port Arthur beyond being a paradise for the hunter and fisherman, the title would be a misnomer. Mile after mile of scraggly bush, rocks, and small lakes glide by till it grows monotonous. Except at stations there are no dwellings other than a few shacks, and no cultivated

The Roll Call.
 DAVID McCLOCKLIN.
 The town was started to learn on Wednesday morning Sept. 17, 1913, that "Aucie Davey" as he was familiarly called, had died. He was around town on Monday as usual with his faithful dog, and on Tuesday took some stomach irregularity affecting the bowels and 18 hours afterwards he passed away. He died as he would have wished, without being long a burden and he leaves a fragrant memory behind him.

He was born in the island of Jersey in the English channel, in the year 1831 and came to this country in 1854. He was a mason by trade and assisted in the building of the G. T. R. bridges at Rockwood. He later moved to Osborne township in Huron Co., where, now married, he entered on the pioneer life. He was fairly successful and after half a lifetime, sold out and went first to Kirkton, then to Guelph where his wife is buried, and 12 years ago came to Durham to make his home with his niece, Mrs. Wm. Caldwell, who with her sisters and brothers, children of his only sister, care for the only relatives.

David McClocklin was a lovable man, intelligent and well read and the very soul of integrity. In the year 1881 a number of years was almost gone, but he still kept in touch with life. A beautiful affection existed between him and his dog "Curly" and they were constant companions everywhere. His mourning of his dumb friend will be as sincere as that of his relatives and many friends.

A service is to be held at Mrs. Caldwell's home to-night, Wednesday, and the remains will be taken by G. T. R. morning train to Guelph Thursday morning.

Edge Hill
 A number in this neighborhood have already threshed and the grain has turned out good.

Mrs F. M. Shunway, of Clair, Michigan and Miss Kate McLeod of Farwell, Michigan, visited at the McFayden's on the avenue last week.

Mr and Mrs W. J. McFarlane enjoyed an auto drive to Mt. Forest one day lately.

Born to Mr and Mrs J. Anderson, (nee Martha Firth), a daughter. Mother and child both well.

Miss Win. Greenwood returned home after spending a month with friends in Hamilton.

While Messrs Geo. Hargrave and John Newell were driving home Saturday night from their week's threshing, their horse became frightened and ran into Robt. Ector's mail post, throwing them both out. Mr. John Newell got his collar bone broken and other injuries besides, which will lay him off work for some time. George escaped unhurt and managed to hold the horse which threw himself from the buggy by breaking the shafts, which was soon replaced by a neighbor and John was soon hurried to his home, where he is getting along nicely by last reports.

Mr and Mrs Hugh Firth and family and Mr. H. Allison and sister Miss V. Allison, of Markdale, visited at D. McFayden's one day last week.

Mr D. McLeod and C. McMillan, of Pricerville, visited on the avenue one day recently.

Wigg-Fletcher Nuptials
 The marriage of Miss Reba Fletcher daughter of Mrs. U. Fletcher of Bantnick to Mr. F. W. Wigg of Cayuga was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, Sept. 10th by the Rev. N. Stevenson of Dornoch in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride wore a gown of white silk brocaded crepe de chene with satin trimmings, and a tulle veil arranged beautifully on head in cap effect with orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern and wore the groom's gift, a pearl necklace.
 Immediately after luncheon the bride and groom left on a short trip. The bride is travelling in a navy blue tailored suit and white hat. On their return they will reside in Cayuga. The Review and many friends extend congratulations.

Spectacular Fire
 Black's and MacFarlane's Stores Burned.

A spectacular and destructive fire broke out in the heart of the business section about 5.30 o'clock Wednesday morning and did several thousand dollars worth of damage. The fire started in the store rooms to the east of Mayor Black's hardware store and despite the efforts of firemen and citizens, the hardware store and most of the stock was completely destroyed. MacFarlane's drug store adjoining was also badly damaged, the rear wall and roof being burned and the explosive stock being damaged by fire, smoke and water. A vacant store on Mill street, belonging to W. McNally was razed to the ground and a yawning gap has been made in the north-east corner of the town hall. The Royal Bank was also singed slightly at the rear.

The cause of the fire is as yet unknown but a more undesirable place for a blaze could not have been found in the whole town. The frame structure where the fire commenced is the store room for combustibles and explosives and the flames having this as an aid, carried everything before them. It was only by the strenuous efforts of firemen and citizens that the blaze was limited to the area it was. Heavy rains the previous night was also responsible for keeping the fire down and from spreading. While all did well, among the fire fighters who displayed ability and daring were Hugh McLean, W. D. Connor and Jim Wright. All three braved danger to make openings in the town hall to allow hose enter the building. The danger being increased by having to climb a ladder, previously broken while being lowered. It was fierce fire and a fierce fight. For a time it seemed probable that the explosions from the ammunition and combustibles in the hardware store might inflict human injury. As it was two or three workers were hurt. The noise of continuous exploding can only be likened to warfare, so deadly was the sound. Fortunately much of the blasting powder, dynamite, &c., had been conveyed from the scene earlier in the night and portions of the goods in both stores had been removed by a voluntary brigade of citizens.

Mr Black places his loss at $10,000, of which $4,000 is covered by insurance. He has already started up business again in the old Big Store in the Melville Block. Mr McFarlane is the heaviest loser, he being the proprietor of the platform erected for the engine while brick repairing. The engine as usual did splendid work and was well handled.

A better alarm system is needed at once, and later a pressure system of some kind must be considered. But for the calm morning and the rain, a much wider swath of havoc would have resulted.

Moving Sale still going on at Gun's Drug Store.
 Dr. Brown, Neustadt, Eye, Ear Nose and throat specialist, will be at the Hahn House, Sept. 20. Hours 12 to 5. Eyes tested and Glasses supplied
