Some people say that they have better stock, grain, roots or other products than any seen at the show. Well, perhaps they have. If you have bring them out and let an expert Government Judge decide between them and if they are the best, other farmers can get a lesson how to improve them and thus raise higher the Agricultural Standard of South Grey. Bring them out anyway and let visitors from a distance see what we can do.

Address and Presentation

On Friday August 29th a crowd gathered at the home of Miss Annie C. McMillan and spent a most joyful evening in games music, and singing. The first and most interesting part was a presentation to Miss Annie C. McMillan consisting of a gold bracelet set with amethysts, also a silver biscuit jar. Following is the address.

To the teacher of St. John's school Glenelg Centre: Dear Teacher it is with much sorrow that we have received the unexpected announcement of your departure from among us. We all know how zealous and earnest you have been in looking after our temporal welfare. We are also aware of the good work you have done among us showing that you have abilities well suited to your calling. We feel most grateful to you for the interest you have always taken in the instruction of our children although you are going to leave us "Dear Teacher" we ask you to accept this humble token of our gratitude to you, and while we regret your departure from us we will pray that God will bless you in all your undertakings. Signed in behalf of the section. Anna B Anderson Loretta Meagher Tena McCormick Mantel Anderson.
