AROUND THE VILLAGE

A deputation from Priceville and Swinton Park attended the W. H. M. S. Annual meeting held at Laurel Ont. where the Orangeville Presbytery was in session on the same day.

Laurel and Black's Corners respectively, and were driven from and to the station, 2 miles distance by the young men of the respective congregations

Mr. Bert Ansum has rented his house to Mrs. John Mather from the town line, whom we welcome to our midst.

Mr. Angus McKeehin lost a young cow last week by having its leg broken on the railway track.

Mr. Trout of Owen Sound visited friends and relatives here on Monday.

All the way from Crawford to Six Corners for thoroughbred sheep speaks well.

Messrs Charles Ferguson, Egremont and Alex Muir, Artemesia are away to Owen Sound on the jary this week.

Miss Sadie McMillan spent the week end at her home in Scotchtown.

Rev. Mr. Matheson occupied the pulpit here instead of Rev. Mr. McVicar of Flesherton as was arranged, owing to the funeral of Miss Lizzie Watson of Swinton Park.

Thrift and forethought is shown by the tearing down of ruckeries and by shingling dwellings and all such necessary arrangements for winter.

Messrs McLean and Stohart shipped a carload of stock to the city on Monday.

By J. A. McD.

What to say this week we do not know, but to keep up the regular scribbling, we will try and find something to fill in an empty space in the columns of the Review. It is needless to tell of the great disaster that befell to hundreds of our fellow beings since we wrote before, for we see it daily in the columns of our dailies. Complaints were made of the storms in general on solid footing, but to think of those who were lashed by the winds from the frozen lakes nearby, its something awful to think upon. Some might be thinking if the fierce wind blew a pane of glass out of one window letting in some of the bitter elements outside, that they had to endure some hardships before the open space could be mended, but what in comparison to those on those wrecked vessels. Oh! how glad they would be if only buried under a snowdrift if they were only on land, out they had to go to the depth of Lake Huron and other lakes.

We are looking for a spell of good weather yet, as on this Monday morning it looks as if it might turn up to Indian summer.

The roads are in bad shape, but passable yet. There was sleighing for 2 or 3 days the beginning of last week and good use was made of it while it lasted.

The announcement made that Revs McVicar, of Flesherton and Matheson, of Priceville, were to exchange pulpits was cancelled on account of Mr Matheson having a funeral in his congregation at Swinton Park on Sunday afternoon, Miss Watson, daughter of the late Geo. Watson, who was well known all over the County of Grey. This is the second death of Mr Watson's daughters since his own a few years ago.

Mrs Neil McKinnon, of town, is to give a paper on the proceedings of the large meeting she attended at Laurel a few days ago, at the Women's meeting on Wednesday of this week, to be held in the Presbyterian church in this place. Mrs McKinnon has the natural talent to prepare a splendid account of the meetings.

The Rev. Mr Matheson preached an excellent sermon last Sunday morning to a large congregation from the words "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ."

Mr McLeod is busy getting out timber for his mill, which was burnt recently. It would be well for all those that can to render Mr McLeod assistance in getting his timber and other things necessary in order to help the building up more hurriedly.

Neil McLeod is back from the American Soo. where he spent the summer and fall.

Quite a number from here and south line attended the concert at Ebenezer on Friday night of last week. Our organist, Miss Conkey, led the instrumental part of the program and was well rewarded by her. Those who attended report a good time, as Ebenezer people in general are not slothful in business of that nature, giving a good entertainment.

Chas. McKinnon (Hugh's) who spent since August last in the West, arrived home a few days ago, looking healthy and strong.

We do not wish to trespass on the Priceville part of the Priceville correspondence, for in general there is enough to write upon on the country part of the budget.

The mail coming daily to our gates makes us feel lazier to go out to town as often as we used to. What a change from the time people in the early history of this part had to go to Durham for their mail or if we are not mistaken, called Benitink P. O. Mr G. McKeehin will correct this statement as he was a small boy at the post office in those days of old. What is it now - a P. O. at every gate and the readers of the daily news will be eagerly awaiting till the mail carrier turns the box crosswise towards the roadway, indicating that there is something inside.

SWINTON PARK

Mrs G. W. Parslow is at present under the doctor's care. Mrs Smith and little daughter and her sister, Mrs _____, of Toronto, are the guests of their mother, Mrs McLean.

An agent for auto harps passed through our burg the other day. He made a number of sales and now there is "music in the air."

Mr Will Patterson was up ploughing on the Paton property which he purchased recently.

Sad news came to Mr Noble Wilson. His son William died in Sask. on Oct. 28th. Mr and Mrs Wilson have had a lot of trouble lately and the community deeply sympathizes with them in this sad bereavement, also with his widow (see Miss Etta Ferguson).

Mr and Mrs Chas. Moore, Markdale visited with Mrs Jno. Moore.

Mr and Mrs P. McCrae left last Monday for their home near Galt. We extend heartiest congratulations.

Mr Jno. Hay may not be a college farmer, but he certainly knows how to raise the stock that takes the buyer's eye. He sold yearlings the other day at forty-nine dollars each.

Mr and Mrs Henry Lawrence, Glenelg, spent a couple of days with Mr and Mrs D. McCormack.

We notice by last week's paper that Mrs Brooks had gotten some 200 names on her petition for Brook's release. This is a strange word. No a month ago Durham and Durham constable were in a fearful mood lest Brooks should manage to escape and then at the expense of $100, two western harvest fields and now the same citizens are busy trying to get his release. Why in the world didn't they let him escape when they are so tender hearted and can't bear to see the poor fellow get his just desert? If a man robs his neighbor's hen roost or murders his fellow-man and gets his just sentence, then must the mellow-craniumed start some plea for his release—either he has a family of small children depending on him or at all of committing the crime, he was temporarily insane. Among the names on the list were names of law makers who should be law sustainers. Now Mr Editor maybe some thoughtful person will justify them, placing their signature to the petition by saying they were temporarily irresponsible at that time. Let Brooks take what the court awarded him. His punishment and seeing it fully and well enforced may be a better law sustainer than all the sympathy these mellow brained and tender hearted fellow beings are lavishing on him by signing the petition. What does Durham want to happen there next?

Horse Fairs seem to be a by-gone with Durham. Too bad Mr Black didn't meet with adequate support in keeping so worthy an institution alive. Maybe Durham was afraid too many farmers might visit their town. Many farmers regret that they are being discontinued. [The horse fairs are to be continued. Be sure to attend the one to day.—Ed.]

This week's budget We are sorry this week to chronicle the death of Mrs James McDonald of the 14th Con., Frooton. Mrs. McDonald was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday and passed away on Wednesday. The funeral was on Wednesday at Swinton Park cemetery. Her pastor Rev. Mr Huxtable of Hopewille officiated at the house and grave. The aged husband, one son and three daughters survive.

It is with very deep sorrow we chronicle the death of Miss Lizzie Watson who departed to the spirit world on Friday 14th at the early age of sixteen years and ten months. Lizzie had been lingering for over a year with that dreaded disease tuberculosis, although in poor health for a month or so the end didn't come unexpected. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to the Presbyterian cemetery. Her pastor Rev. Mr. Matheson preached a very impressive sermon. Execlisistes, 12 chap 1st verse. Services were withdrawn in Salem church and Rev. Mr. Leece officiated at the grave. Six of her young men companions were pall bearers, namely J. Weir, W. Black, Geo. Campbell, R Ferris, R Black, R Knox.

The widowed mother and three sons survive, Wm, at home, Edward kept store at Swinton and Less in Durham.

The entire community join in sympathizing with Mrs. Watson and family as this is the third bereavement in less than two years.

Mr. Geo. Neil of Mitchell attended the funeral of his niece Miss Lizzie Watson.

Mrs. Chas. Smith of Toronto is visiting her mother Mrs. Alex McLean.

Mr. McLellan of Durham Sunday-ed at Mr. Wm Stewart's.

Dogs Killed Sheep

Valued at $554.

Farmers in Artemesia township have suffered loss to the amount of $554 in the last summer months, through sheep-worrying dogs. Two-thirds of this amount will be repaid in compensation money to the farmers by the township council. At the September meeting of the council, claims for $53 were presented, while $36.33 was paid to the losers. At the October session $104 was the bill presented and $85 was paid out of the township treasury. At the meeting on Nov. 1, the sum of $397 was the value placed on dead sheep. The sufferers and the value of sheep lost by them this time are as follows: Thos Mercer $120, Solomon Turner $8.00, Thos Elliott $22, Herb Walker $45, Thos Mercer $165, A T Dunlop $30, Jos McKee $7. The last named has already been remunerated with two-thirds the value $4.66. Surely it would pay the farmers of Artemesia to get rid of their dogs, rather than have the dogs get rid of their sheep.

Other items of business taken up at the Nov. meeting are: By-laws No 772 to close up part of 150 sidewalk on 2 S W T & S road; and 770 appointing Deputy Returning Officers and Poll Clerks, etc. were introduced and received their various readings.

Brown-McLeod-That the report of Mr Graham on expenditure in his division be received and he be paid $10.95 on an expenditure of 109.42 and 6.00 for three days' overseeing work.—Carried.

Graham-McLeod-That the report of the Reeve on his appropriation to Valley road, be received and he be paid $8.77, commission on an expenditure of $8.70.—Carried.

Brown-McLeod-That the claim of Joseph Badgerow for alleged damages to his engine and lost time, be referred to Mr Caswell for a report thereon.—Carried.

Graham-McLeod-That the following accounts for gravel used on roads, as certified by overseers, be paid: John Carson, 33 loads, 50 per load, 1.65; John Teeter, 54 loads, 50 per load, 2.70.—Carried.

Graham-McLeod-That the lumber belonging to this Municipality of Collinson's mill be disposed of by Mr Caswell. If sold, the proceeds to be placed to the credit of the township.—Carried.

S. A. RIFE AND CO. Tailors and Furnishers

For some time we have been conducting a tailoring business in Durham which of late with our special efforts is fast coming to the front.

For up-to-date tailored garments which are made to your own special measure, remember you have the cloth in the web to choose from, not merely a sample of which the order is sent out of town to be made up. This is a point worthy of consideration by all men who care to be well dressed at reasonable prices.

Our clothes are hand tailored and made from Imported goods built up with strong ironings, assuring you a long life span of retaining garment, producing the desired effect.—Quality, Style, Fit. With all the prices astoundingly low.
