Progressive Session Held by Council

Progressive legislation in municipal business marked the Monday night meeting of the council. Every member was present and every item that was introduced to the body received an attentive hearing.

Business with the fire brigade started the ball rolling. The firemen want pay at the rate of 25 cents an hour during service at fires. This view was not altogether satisfactory to some members of the council as it appeared to be unduly favoring the salaried men.

Some good business was exploited when the long forthcoming by-law providing for the building of a High School was presented and passed its various readings. The by-law calls for the expenditure of $15,000 to be levied by debentures covering a period of years and will be voted on in January.

Reeve Calder introduced the subject of the hydro electric radial proposal, starting at Guelph and working its way northward to terminate at some Georgian Bay port, not yet decided upon. He elaborated on the proposed scheme stating that if built, the road had already been fixed as far as Arthur and that the eastern townships and villages of Grey were putting forth every inducement to have the line stretch their way while opposing them were the Owen S. and forces and western townships who naturally want the modern advantages of hydro radicals.

That this meeting consisting of twenty-one representatives of the various municipalities of the County of Grey and others, hereby desiring to place on record as being in favor of a report being made by the Hydro Electric Commission on the project of an electric road between Guelph and some point on the Georgian Bay in accordance with section 3 of the Hydro Electric Railway Act, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the various municipalities, the Lieutenant Governor and the Council and the Hydro Electric Commission. The motion was seconded by Mr. Calder of Durham and carried unanimously.

Constable Whelan and his service to the corporation were placed before the council's magnifying glass and many flaws in his administration were revealed. Caustic criticism of his work flowed freely from many quarters. Some members making remarks that would lead one to think that Durham's present chances as a whole for a triumphant entry into paradise are a negligible quantity, unless the wheels of justice were very soon reversed in the opposite direction. Some wanted the officer's immediate dismissal. Others were willing to let the matter stand in abeyance until the close of the year. In view of the fact that the position of constable in this town does not seem to be wanted by anyone, the latter course was adopted.

Mayor Black is a real "booster." In addition to the regular horse fair on Dec. 18, he is going to have a produce market held on the same day and has secured the use of the town hall for the purpose.

His worship also deplored the fact that all the good cream in this district is being shipped to outside points and by the way he talks, he may yet turn a trump card in the way of establishing a creamery in this town.

Rev. Dr. Farquharson's resignation as a member of the library board was accepted and the reverend gentleman will receive a resolution of thanks for his valued services rendered in the past.

Steps will be taken to have David Sharp, an aged and feeble resident moved to the House of Refuge. Accounts were passed as follows: W. B. Vollet, Nov. salary & p.c. $35.12; J. A. Brown, work on town hall 3.75; A. Rutherford, 6.75; Durham Furniture Co., edgings 1.50; W. Collinson, gravel on Albert st. 80; W. Ryan, 40 loads gravel Main st. 13.60; H. Allen, Tress, rods & washers for town hall 8.51; A. Davidson, town hall premium 1.00; Fire Brigade practice 7.50; $78.59.

McKechnie-Lloyd—That John Vollet be refunded $1 amount overpaid for taxes for 1913.

Calder-Lloyd—That the Durham Foultry Association be granted the use of the town hall free for Jan. 13, 14 and 15 and a grant of $15 by this council for the purpose of assisting the exhibition.

McKechnie-Cochrane—That the reverend be a delegate to Guelph to confer with the Hydro Electric Commission re the electric road being built through to Durham.

GIFTS, GOOD THINGS AND GOOD-BYES.

Rev. Dr. Farquharson and family given a warm and hearty send-off.

As we intimated last week an impressive gathering of the Presbyterian congregation was arranged for Thursday evening last to have a parting word with the Farquharsons before leaving the town in which they have dwelt largely for fourteen years. The meeting was called for 8 p. m. and about that hour it was found that the basement was quite inadequate to accommodate the large number from town and country who wished to take part in this closing meeting, so the large auditorium had to be used and even it was well filled.

Dr. Jamieson, M. P., was voted to the chair and in his opening remarks voiced the universal sentiment of regret that circumstances of health had compelled the resignation of the pastor, who, with his family, were all loved so well.

The choir, ever invaluable, had appropriately and again and again given selections that helped to give a rosy tinge to the whole proceedings. Their second number over, the chorale asked Mrs. Farquharson to come forward and she was confronted with two members of her Sunday School class, Misses Mary McFraith and Z. H. Crawford. The former read an address couched in affectionate language and expressing regrets at the separation and appreciation of her kindness and of the value of her teaching. On behalf of the young people of the church read an address setting forth their regret that untimely illness had forced him to relinquish the work he loved so well. It recalled his faithful attendance at meetings, his helpful guidance in Sunday work, his special addresses and studies on Irish, Browning, Tennyson, etc., all of which were remembered and appreciated. They asked that he would still remember them in his prayers and have a place in his memory. Miss Grace Hunter stepped forward and presented him with a handsome club bag and the address continued that as he carried it to and fro it was his hope he would carry with him some remembrance of the respect and esteem of the young people.

With manifest pleasure and deep feeling, Dr. Farquharson accepted the gift of the young people; nothing could give him more pleasure than to be remembered in this way by those he had spent many happy hours. There followed brief addresses from Messrs. Grant, Campbell, Allan, Young of the Session, all testifying to the harmony and Christian feeling that had prevailed in all their meetings. Mr. O. Ramage of the Board of Managers and Mr. J. P. Telford of the choir, voiced the same sentiments and the same sincere regrets, at losing Dr. Farquharson and his family. Testimony to the worth and work of these two ladies were freely given by several of the speakers.

Following is the address: TO REV. WM. FARQUHARSON, D. D. Dear Friend and Pastor: We have been living these last few weeks in an atmosphere of regret and sorrow that so soon the links that have bound us together for four or five years are to be severed. We have sat under your ministry with profit and delight; the gospel of our Lord and Master has under your presentation taken on a new meaning and new beauties, while, from the treasure house of your mind and from the Holy Scriptures you have brought forth things new and old. Your life among us has been a living sermon and while fearlessly declaring unto us the whole counsel of God, you have ever been one with us in heart and spirit, in joy or sorrow, and thus it is that we have taken this opportunity of saying a united good-bye.

We earnestly hope that the affliction that came upon you and that in other wider spheres your many attractive qualities of mind and heart and soul, may find suitable expression. You need no assurance that what your success in the future will be most gratifying. An association of fourteen years makes an impress upon life not easily eradicated and we feel sure also that Durham and Durham friends will long lie close to your heart.

As a token of our regard and esteem and in great part as our duty, we ask your acceptance of this purse. Its contents may be measured but not so easily can the love and devotion that prompted the bestowal. May the Lord protect you and keep you and your household, restore you to perfect health and usefulness and for you and for us who remain may the watch word be that of Mizpah. The Lord watch between thee and us when we are absent one from another."

Signed on behalf of session, Managers and Congregation, Thos. Allan, Session Clerk, J. S. McIlraith, Chairman Bd. of Managers.

Dr. Farquharson made a lengthy reply, full of thankfulness for many kindnesses shown to himself and his family, the latest not the least. He reviewed the three periods of his ministerial life, in each of which there was a happy personal element. In his first charge he was married, in the second most of their children were born and in his home his father had died. The Durham period had been a trying, willing sacrifice on their behalf and their development into maturity. He reviewed his intercourse with Session, Managers and congregation, and his confidence in the harmony that existed, and to the encouragement he had received in his work at all times. He hoped the congregation would continue to prosper and that richest blessings would come to all.

He was about to sit down when another delegation rose to give him a piece of their mind and something more. He listened while Miss Lydia Keay on behalf of the young people of the church read an address setting forth their regret that untimely illness had forced him to relinquish the work he loved so well. It recalled his faithful attendance at meetings, his helpful guidance in Sunday work, his special addresses and studies on Irish, Browning, Tennyson, etc., all of which were remembered and appreciated. They asked that he would still remember them in his prayers and have a place in his memory. Miss Grace Hunter stepped forward and presented him with a handsome club bag and the address continued that as he carried it to and fro it was his hope he would carry with him some remembrance of the respect and esteem of the young people.

With manifest pleasure and deep feeling, Dr. Farquharson accepted the gift of the young people; nothing could give him more pleasure than to be remembered in this way by those he had spent many happy hours.

There followed brief addresses from Messrs. Grant, Campbell, Allan, Young of the Session, all testifying to the harmony and Christian feeling that had prevailed in all their meetings. Mr. O. Ramage of the Board of Managers and Mr. J. P. Telford of the choir, voiced the same sentiments and the same sincere regrets, at losing Dr. Farquharson and his family. Conductor Cox of the G. T. R. is able to be around again after being indisposed for a few days. Rev. R. J. McAlpine of Cleveland formerly of Owen Sound has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Delaware Ave., Presbyterian church in Buffalo.

Rev. A. A. Tremblay of the McMaster College Band will preach in the Baptist church on Sunday in place of Rev. Mr. McAlpine, previously announced.

SOUTH GREY IN THE WEST.—The letter in this week's issue from "P. R." is a remarkable illustration of how Ontario is developing in her population. To have met with about 50 in or near one city who came from this riding and to have heard of others furnishing proof that the old colonial spirit of the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic race is still much in evidence. Well it is to that the rovers have British lands to go to.

A healthy movement is on foot among the young men of the town to have a club, or branch of the Y. M. C. A. established here. They desire not only to give their own but to assist in the movement, which aims to give wider opportunities for social and intellectual betterment. At present we have no definite proposal before us, but we hope the movement will succeed.

ACTIVITY AT EUGENIA.—Several radio-electric engineers arrived from Toronto on Monday and started work at the Eugenia development. These included Messrs. T. H. Hogg and O. G. Flanagan. The latter was engaged on the Severn power construction. Surveyor McDowall of Owen Sound is also engaged on the work. These gentlemen say that construction will go right ahead and all the teams available will be put to do the work. Several local men have been engaged for the work and other workmen will arrive shortly. The work upon which the engineers are now engaged is surveying storage limits, locating dams, etc.—Advantage.

SOVING THE LABOR PROBLEM.—South Grey Farmers may have the opportunity of thanking the Salvation Army for solving the acute labor problem in a measure, for them. Major McGillivray of the Toronto staff of the army paid one of his numerous visits to this part recently and placed some young immigrant boys on farms about here. This has been his mission several times lately and farmers, whose sons have left for the city or have hit the westward trail are being helped to adopt young boys for help. Here, it is proper to give credit to the boys should soon become inducted with love for the soil and naturally in time will play a prominent part in the re-planting of the farm. About 100 of the north and if he is not able to write his monetary value in the seven figure column, we will be greatly surprised.

BOUGHT A GOLD MINE.—When a Review article was in Toronto on Friday last, he chanced upon Mr. Angus McKeivley of New Liskeard and well known locally, hurrying stationwards. Mr. McKeivley is one of the large owners of the Temiskaming and Hudson Bay Mining Co. and in company with Mr. Taylor another partner in the mining company, was leaving for the north, following the purchase of an extensive property where, in the Dome Lake gold mine at Porcupine passes into their control. Through their broker over 400,000 shares of Dome Lake at 7 1/2 cents a share were purchased, the whole cost being slightly more than $70,000. The popular and genial old Egremont boy is fast becoming one of the big influential men and capitalists of the north and if he is not able to write his monetary value in the seven figure column, we will be greatly surprised.

NO NORTHERN LEAGUE HOCKEY.—Durham will not have a hockey team in the Northern League this winter, much to the regret of local enthusiasts. At the meeting of this organization in Palmerston on Tuesday, it was decided to form a league with 5 districts, London city league being the 5th member of the organization. New clubs have joined the Northern and it is fast becoming a strong opposition for the O. H. A. Owen Sound, Warton and Chesley form Group 1 with the possibility of Hanover and Mariadale also joining. Group 2 consists of Walkerton, Paisley, Port Elgin and Mildmay, while Drayton, Harriston, Mount Forest, Palmerston, Lucknow and Wingland comprise the 3rd district. G. L. Allen is President of the league.

Durham Boy in the Lake Storm. For four awful days he experienced the blasts and hizzards of Lake Superior that had its climax in the fatal Sunday storm. For four days he and his comrades expected that at any moment their staunch vessel, a huge freighter would keel over in the storm or that they would be ruthlessly swept from her decks. They were all prepared for the worst. Life belts had been securely tied on, boats were ready to take the water at a moment's notice and for 96 hours they suffered trials which cannot be imagined by landsmen.

Such was the experience of Harry Falkingham, son of Mr. Wm. Falkingham of town and who is employed as cook of the S. S. Turcotte on Lake Superior. Fred Falkingham, hockey player and Will living in O. Sound are brothers.

Word had been received here that the vessel had gone to the bottom. The Turcotte was 4 days overdue from Port Arthur and was thought to be lost. It was this news that Mr. Falkingham wrote to his son's address in Port Arthur, when two weeks passed and no word from Harry, he naturally feared the worst. The father's joy cannot be expressed however, when last week he received a letter from Harry in Port Arthur telling of his safety after encountering in the most dangerous fashion, the tempest on the lakes. It was his second last trip of the season too.

SOUTH GREY S. CONVENTION

Friday of next week, 12th Dec. the first meeting of this newly organized body takes place in the Pres. Church. Sessions forenoon, afternoon and evening.

Arrangements are being made by local workers to accommodate all delegates, the choirs of the town are uniting for music, and the interest deepens as the day approaches.

The presence of Mr. Halpenny, General Secy. of the Ontario Sunday School Association will make every session of special interest. Provisional officers are J. A. Graham, Pres., Rev. W. Prudham, Secy.

The Methodist church choir will give a musical entertainment on Thursday evening, Dec. 18th. Further particulars later.

Miss Gray, sister of Mrs. Wm. Mount, returned home last week from visiting relatives and friends in the west, after 24 years absence. She had a very enjoyable visit and speaks well of the west.

41 YEARS IN SERVICE OF G. T. R.—Conductor Lavelle who passes through Chesley twice a day was 58 years old on Tuesday. He has been in the service of the G. T. R. 41 years and has been conductor 32 years. During all that time he has never met with an accident nor have any of his passengers been hurt. Mr. Lavelle is a popular, intelligent and public-spirited citizen. He is a prominent member of Stratford Separate School Board.—Chesley Enterprise.

EAST MIDDLESEX.—The contest in East Middlesex has developed at the moment of final action into a straight party fight. The Conservative temperance vote went to the Conservative candidate (most of it) and the temperance Liberal vote went to the Liberal candidate. But the sting of the defeat for Mr. J. W. Laidlaw, the "Fusionist" candidate, was sweetened by the satisfaction of knowing at eight o'clock that night that in the largest vote ever polled in the riding he had reduced the majority of the Conservative victor at the polls in East Middlesex from 651 to 287, a Liberal gain of 364.

In the Baptist Church on Tuesday evening a successful social was held by the auspices of the B. Y. P. U. The attendance was large, a feature being the number of young people present. Upon arriving, the guests indulged in a paper hand-bike, which was thoroughly enjoyed. A floral guessing contest followed and the prize was won by Mr. Bert Saunders. A splendid program followed. Solos were given by Miss Arkell and Mr. Harding, a duet by Gladys Search and Janie McLean and recitations by Violet Fallaise, Annie Graham and Miss McGregor and an address by Mr. Allan Bell. Mr. J. A. Graham was the chairman and refreshments were served at the close.
