

News to most women!

Oven-tested flour is for sale. Instead of buying ordinary flour you can buy flour whose baking ability has been proven in an oven.

PURITY

A ten pound sample is taken from each shipment of wheat at the mill. This is ground into flour. The flour is baked into bread.

If this flour bakes into bread high in quality and large in quantity we keep the whole shipment of wheat and grind it. Otherwise we sell it.

More bread and better bread from this flour is a certainty!

Making Good in Calgary

Are many former South Grey Boys and Girls.

In every city and in many a village and hamlet, in many a farm throughout the West, are to be found former South Grey citizens who migrated looking for larger opportunities, but in no city are there more of this enterprising class clustered than in Calgary. We believe South Grey must rank pretty nearly next to Bruce, in the West's eastern population for every other person from the East, is ascribed to being "from Bruce".

Those here who claim Grey as their old home are all comfortably settled, thoroughly adapted to, and well satisfied with, life as components parts in the upbuilding of this progressive city.

Much of our enjoyment of our visit here may be attributed to Robt. B. and Mrs. McLachlan, who so kindly entertained us and at times accompanied us to friends and scenes in the city. 'Bob' as he is popularly and widely known, has a good position in Cushing Bros. lumber mills, is an enthusiastic Oddfellow and a valued member of Knox Church choir, one of Canada's leading musical organizations. For the last month he has been quite seriously ill as the result of a cold, but is now happily regaining his strength and getting around. Residing with them, while attending Collegiate are Misses Ina and Margaret McInnes, daughters of John McInnes of Midnapore, formerly of Glenelg. Mr. McInnes has a fine farm near here, only ten miles from Calgary, and we are to day anticipating a visit to his home.

In Calgary's Fire Department are two other McLachlan brothers, Alex and Neil, the latter a 25 year resident here, a real pioneer. We were pleased to meet them in their places of duty and inspect the city's modern fire-fighting appliances. Jno. Main, an old Holstein boy, we also met at No. 4 fire hall.

With a sister of the McLachlans, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bruce, we spent a pleasant evening, Mr. Bruce being another of the old-time residents. We called upon Mr. and Mrs. Jno. McLaughlin, who left Glenelg many years ago to reside in Wyoming and Montana, but who with their family of four boys and four girls are now four years residents of Calgary.

A few pleasant evenings we spent with an old, or rather a young friend, "Bill" Gadd, formerly on the Review staff, who left Durham nearly four years ago and has now a good position on the Daily "News-Telegram." We ran across another old Durham boy, Geo. Sinclair, who spent a few years in MacFarlane's drug store and is now in the Royal Bank here. Herb. Arnold, formerly shoe clerk in McKechnie's, we met as salesman in a large shoe store here, and in the Herald building where he is pressman, we found Percy Glass, another Durham boy. Another evening we were pleased to meet on the street his brother Edwin and Mrs. Glass and sister Miss May, the latter a stenographer here. We were disappointed in missing seeing Con Knapp, well known in Durham, now proprietor of the Mountain Springs Brewery here. He had left the plant but a few minutes before we called, but we held a long distance conversation with him. We also regret time prevents us seeing an old schoolmate, Mrs. P. Marston, formerly Miss Grace Everitt. Her sister Florence is also here.

Miss Dick couldn't enjoy a rest from business after leaving Durham and has now a millinery parlor here. We enjoyed a short call on her and found she much prefers being in business here to either Toronto or Durham.

We yet hope to see Barrister W. S. Davidson, formerly of Durham, who is in partnership with I. W. McArdie, formerly of Markdale. At the new Herald building we met Nat. Dunsmore, son of Mrs. Jno. Dunsmore of town, who is engaged in elevator building here, and his brother Neil. Alderman Samuel Carson, a brother of Wm. Carson of Normanby and an old-time resident, entertained us an evening. He is again in the limelight as a candidate for civic honors at the election next month. We also called on Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Geddes, the latter an old Holstein girl. Mr. Geddes is a broker and a nephew of ex-constable Carson.

A few hours sped quickly by in the company of Gordon Findlay of Dromore, who first recognized us on main street. He has a fine situation in the freight department of the C. P. R. and when we first met him was accompanied by Alf. Carson from the States, who was here to meet his mother and brother Tom from the east. Gordon makes his home at Mrs. Kumph's, one of the Lester family, formerly of Dromore, who are now all in the city. We met a sister, Miss Ida Lister, in Lister's Book Store.

Mrs. McLeod, formerly of Priceville we visited at her home in Crescent Heights. Miss Gertie is teaching nearby, while Margaret is training as a nurse in the General Hospital. In company with the McLachlan family we called on Mrs. Jno. McLachlan and daughters Misses Margaret and Jessie and son Frank, also from near Priceville, the latter three all in good positions here.

Conducting a general store on sixth ave., we found H. Hunt, formerly of Dornoch and his son Carl. Mr. Hunt has some valuable real estate in the city, which when times brighten, should realize a goodly sum. Mrs. Hunt and Carl are returning to Toronto on Thursday of this week. Mr. Hunt's brother Robt. who came out West from Holstein seven years ago, we visited in his show room. He is proprietor of the Chicago Outfitting Co. and has become wealthy since removing here.

Since writing the above, we were joyfully entertained for a day at the home of Mr. John McInnes at Midnapore. He has had splendid crops this year, the best ever, but was too modest to inform us definitely just how many bushels to the acre. We were treated to a drive over the Pat Burns stock farm opposite his own, seeing hundreds of cattle. Mr. and Mrs. McInnes still keep in close touch with the doings round their old home and were interested in hearing as much as possible regarding their many old friends.

We have purposely grouped personalities in this letter as a means of showing how the provinces are being linked together by family ties; a linking that for long years to come will promote travel between east and west and tend to the solidarity of our Dominion.

Neglect is the cause of Gray Hairs

Quickly Corrected if you only will
No woman nowadays need lose the charm of her rich, lustrous hair with advancing years. Gray and faded hair destroys a woman's charm as nothing else will do.

It seems a shame that any woman should suffer the annoyance of gray hair when it is so easy to restore it to its natural color.

Hay's Hair Health is so simple and easy to use and so sure in its results that no woman can afford to overlook it. It is not a dye, just a real tonic that brings new life and vigor and that imparts a healthy look to the impoverished scalp and hair roots restores the original natural color of the hair. It removes dandruff.

Your money will be refunded to you if it fails after a fair trial.

Gifts, Good Things & Good byes

Mr Irwin, of the Chronicle, spoke as a citizen of the town of the general regret at the leaving of Rev. Dr. Farquharson, whose public spirit in School, Library and other matters were well known.

Rev. Mr. Hestley bore testimony to his departing brother and nearest neighbor. He had learned to love and admire him for many high qualities and hoped that there was still a great field of usefulness in store for him.

The hearts of the entire audience, and it was a large one, swayed in sympathy with the warm eulogiums bestowed on the departing guests and sincere were the desires, there could be no doubt, that Dr. Farquharson's health might be completely restored.

There was a beautiful almost sacred touch given to the close of the meeting, when Dr. Farquharson left his seat among the people, and from the sacred desk from which he so often had spoken, gave impressively a farewell benediction: his last public act as pastor of the church.

Meanwhile downstairs another function was in preparation, and for an hour or two all mingled happily together, discussing tea and cake and bygone days with occasional looking forward to the days to come. It was one of the happiest reunions ever held, all understood each other, even under the cloud of separation, there was a silver lining of hope for the future for those who remained as for those who were going. There were tender and heartfelt good-byes and Shakespeare's lines were exemplified.

"Parting is such sweet sorrow
That we could say good-bye until to-morrow."

FROM OUTSIDE

Not only in Durham has Dr. Farquharson's removal cast a shadow, as will be seen by the following testimony handed to us, representative by Mr. John Milligan, who was unable to be present on the farewell evening:

"Beyond the bounds of his own congregation and town was Dr. Farquharson appreciated and beloved.

Speaking for Hampden and Hanover congregations we always looked up to him as a friend and counsellor and will recall many kindly and unselfish favours in our behalf.

By his presence and words, many were cheered and uplifted and we hope it will be our privilege to occasionally welcome him back to these churches, both of which he dedicated to the worship of God."
