We regret to report the serious illness of Mr Alex. Atjak, 2nd con. Glen elg, due to an attack of appendicitis. Alex was out hunting on Thursday. He was in town on Friday and on Sunday the startling news spread that Dr. Groves, of Fergus, was expected to perform an operation. Unfortunately while coming north, the doctor's automobile suffered a breakdown and he was delayed over three hours. The delay was serious, for by this time it was almost over-ripe for the operation and in taking out the appendix, the organ broke. At present he is doing as well as can be expected. HAMPDEN ANNIVERSARY.—On Sunday next the Presbyterian congregation of this place will hold their Anniversary services. Rev. Mr. Mason of Cargill and Pinkerton conducting services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Mr Mason is expected to stay over to take part in a rousing old time tea meeting on Monday evening with Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., H. H. Miller and Insp. Campbell as chief speakers. Music by Hampden and Drummer choirs. Doors open at 5 p. m. Tea from 6 to 8. Popular prices. A PAIR OF BROTHERS.—Durham has occasionally witnessed the "Oh you kiddo" type of girls who cut loose once in a while and make a cheap show of themselves for the want of good sense and something better to do, but the limit in this species of femininity graced our streets on Saturday when two "spanglers" got off the 4 o'clock train from Hanover and from that hour until the train returned after 11 o'clock in the evening conducted themselves in a most brazen fashion, exceeding the bounds of common decency. The "swath" cut by these girls, both of tender years, was on a par with the rankest vaudeville show and how the pair have escaped the reformatory to date is a question that is harder to answer than how long they will be out of that building intended for wayward juveniles. For their own benefit, the principal streets of the town were turned into a parade ground and our distinguished guests licensed themselves to challenge and shout to anybody they saw fit. Then the worst exhibition of a series was billed to appear in the evening when some who apparently forgot their self respect, serenaded them at the C. P. R. station and aroused such a furor about the depot that it was necessary for agent Hay to clear the premises. He threatened some of the boys with police proceedings and no one would have blamed him if the threat had been carried out. We are not criticizing Hanover as a town. There are as good people living there as any place but after seeing the second hand cheap class of advertising that was on display in this town on Saturday, residents here would appreciate if Hanover could retain at home such samples. Like other towns, we have our own share of domestic troubles to bother us, and do not like trouble thrust upon us from outside.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Mr Donald L. McDonald, a farmer residing on the 2d con., of Bentinck, about 7 miles from Durham, mysteriously disappeared shortly after noon on Friday and his whereabouts or fate is as yet unknown. Four days of the most diligent search have revealed no trace of the missing man and friends naturally fear the worst. Rivers and streams have been dragged and forests searched by numerous search parties but all to no avail. At present the hunt has been discontinued until the melting of the snow. Mr McDonald is about 50 years of age and much respected by his friends.

Ordination and induction.

At Dornoch Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Mills, of Sheburne, was inducted into the pastoral charges of Rocky Saugeen, Dornoch and Williamsford, from which congregations he received a unanimous call a short time ago. The fine weather which prevailed proved an irresistible factor towards having a large crowd from the congregations attend the ceremony and the three charges are to be congratulated on making a choice so soon after the departure of the Rev. Mr. Stevenson. The moderator of the Presbytery, Rev. Mr. McKinnon, of Chatsworth, presided at the service, while Rev. Mr. McEachern, from near Owen Sound, preached the induction sermon. Rev. Dr. Thurlow Fraser, from Owen Sound addressed the congregation and Rev. Dr. Fraser, of Annap, spoke to the minister. Following the impressive ceremony, a social and tea was held in the church and a good part of the time was spent in becomingly acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Mills. The new pastor is a young man and unanimous calls and the united manner in which all three charges chose him for their spiritual leader augurs well for the success of Mr. Mills.

In Memoriam

MRS. JOS. BURNS

On Thursday last, there passed away in Duluth, Mrs. Joseph Burns, for a long period of years a resident in Bentinck. Her husband died about 8 years ago. We have only meagre information at hand but have been furnished with the following notes: Mrs. Burns was a native of Ireland and to her and her husband were born four sons and four daughters; Michael, Joseph, Patrick, John, Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Doherty (deceased), Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Fox. All are in Duluth, but John who lives on the old homestead in Bentinck. Deceased left here only last May after the decease of her grand child. She was subject to bronchial attacks and it is thought that one of these has proved fatal.

MRS. MARY LEDINGHAM

At the ripe age of 83 years, the above lady, well known in Dornoch and vicinity, passed away at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Ledingham of Chatsworth, on Nov. 26. She came to this country in the year 1859 and the following year was married to Mr. Ledingham. Since that time she has been a resident in Bentinck township near Dornoch and a year ago last spring she left the locality to reside in Chatsworth. Her husband predeceased her 13 years ago and two sons, George and William are also dead while the two remaining sons who survive, James and John, reside in Souris, Man., and near Duluth, respectively. The funeral took place the following Saturday to Latona cemetery and was largely attended by relatives and many friends.

MRS. THOS. STINSON

One of the most regretted deaths that occurred for some time was that which took place in Stratford Hospital on Thursday last, when following an operation for cancer, the soul of Mrs. Thos. Stinson took its flight to the spirit world. Mrs. Stinson, who was 54 years old, had been ailing for the past two months and on the advice of her medical adviser, went to Stratford on Tuesday afternoon to undergo an operation. But she lacked the strength to recover and on Thursday morning at 6.45 o'clock, she passed away. The remains were brought to Durham on the same evening and the funeral was held on Saturday to Saugeen cemetery and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Hartley officiated at the memorial services. To the bereaved husband and daughter, Mrs. John McDonald, the fullest measure of sympathy is extended in their severe affliction. Mrs. Stinson's maiden name was Jane Bradley and with her husband, has been a resident in town for some years past. They formerly lived in North Bentinck.

NORMAN T. KEARNS

Sad news came over the wires on Monday night from Harrison, when it was learned that Norman T. Kearns of that town, a young fireman with the Bell Telephone Co., had met a sudden death while on duty. He was up on a pole, repairing some part of the wires, when his foot came in contact with a live electric wire. The shock made him lose his balance and falling to the ground, a distance of 25 feet, he lighted on his head, breaking his skull. He lived but a few minutes. Mr. Kearns had been in Durham on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and was due to return on Monday night. He was favorably known over a wide area where he has installed phones and his manly character had won for him numerous friends. A distressing feature connected with Mr. Kearns' death is the part taken by his working partner, Mr. Alex. Donaldson, whose regular duty is on the poles while his dead man's was the inside work with the phones. On this particular occasion they had substituted positions and Mr. Donaldson naturally feels very keenly over the fatality. He was in Durham on Monday and his grief was inconsolable. Mr. Kearns' burial takes place in Harrison on Thursday at 1 o'clock.

A gloom was cast over the section on Saturday last when word was received of the disappearance of Dad McDonald. Many here have been looking for him but no trace has yet been found. All extend sympathy to the family.
