PRICEVILLE A N D VICINITY

AROUND THE VILLAGE

Miss Bertha McIntyre is spending the holidays with her uncle, Norman McIntyre. Miss Sadie McKinnon, returned to Toronto after spending a few days at her home on the South Line. Mr and Mrs Donald McMillan and baby of Westbourne, Man., arrived on Wednesday to spend a few weeks with their parents here. Miss Nora Campbell spent Xmas at the home of Dr and Mrs Lane. Miss Martha Burnett spent the holiday at her home and returned to Toronto on Friday. Miss Bella Laidlaw is visiting her sister Mrs Mather at present. The first meeting of the Literary Society which was to have been held on New Year's eve has been postponed till a week from Thursday. Everybody remember the date.—Jan. 8th. Mr. Donald Gillies of Toronto visited friends over the holiday. Mr Alex. McEachern spent the holiday with his parents here. Mr. Angus McTaggart and daughter from "Man." visited friends in this vicinity lately. Misses Mary and Bertie Aldcorn accompanied by Misses Lizzie and Maggie Aldcorn of Southampton Park visited friends in Coburton on Friday. Hector and Donald McKinnon spent Christmas Day at their home. Mr and Mrs Robertson and family visited friends over the holiday. Mr Robbie Conkey accompanied by Miss Van Syckle of Chelmsford spent the holidays at the former's home. Misses Annie and Jessie McDonald returned to the city after spending the holiday with their mother and sister. Rev and Mrs Leese are visiting in Jerseyville over the holiday. We wish the editor and his staff a happy and prosperous New Year. At the Sunday School Anniversary certificates were awarded to several O. D. R. pupils for reciting Scripture. Perhaps the most impressive feature of the evening were the presentations, the evening service. Elwin Moore and a quartet sang a beautiful Christmas carol. A vote of thanks to Rev. Mr. Leese on behalf of the Royal Humane Society for bravery in the rescue of Gordon McLean from the wreck of the "Mascot" was presented to him on Monday. Myra was crowned in June 1912. Myra was crowned to the platform to receive a valuable wrist watch. — a practical expression of appreciation for her efforts in taking the gold medal for general proficiency at O. Sound Collegiate. Dr R. D. Lane in a neat speech made the presentation on behalf of the donors and was assisted by Mr C. C. James who is always in sympathy with the work of an educational bearing and proud to be present at the occasion. Santa Claus came on the scene about 11 p.m. much to the delight of the little ones who had become quite restless by this late hour. The opening paragraph of foregoing has been omitted, being somewhat similar to the following, which was previously in type.—Ed. By J. A. McD. The Sunday School Anniversary which was held in the Presbyterian church on Monday, the 24th Dec. 1913, was quite a success. Priceville is always noted for something good and in this case the one held in the basement of the church which was filled to their utmost with the best of cooking, as each lady bringing a basket was bound to be ahead in quality of the other one, but it would take a good and experienced judge to pick out which was the best, for all were good—so good that a person sitting down in a hungry mood would almost forget himself as to the time almost.

he should take in partaking of a piece of rich kind and by the time he was done, it was possible that Dr. Lane's assistance would be required, but every one was their own judge and nothing wrong. The crowd began to go upstairs and by the time all were up, the main part of the building and the gallery were filled to their utmost. The pastor, Rev. Mr Matheson, in his usual good manner, acted as chairman and the programme that was given him was longer than a man's arm. So we will have to cut some of it short. The local choir rendered excellent music with the organist Miss Conkey at the organ. A whole lot of recitations by the little ones were well rendered. The teachers were well rendered. The manner in which they trained the children in performing their different parts. The Rev. Mr Leese gave a good address taking for his subject "Smiles" and while delivering his address, he felt like smiling again. Smiles are always better than frowns no matter how a person feels. Mr McBeth on his gramophone gave some very good selections. Mr C. C. James gave a good address also.

Mr Moore deserved credit as Superintendent of the school, also the Superintendent of the old Durham Road school, as the two schools were together on the occasion. Miss Myra McLean was presented with an address by Dr. Lane and a locked and gold bracelet for being the best in the county at Owen Sound school. Also Superintendent Moore's boy for bravery in saving another little boy from drowning last summer was presented with a medal and an address by Rev. Leese. Mrs McLean (Anna James) in her usual good manner, sang a solo sweetly, and the two Misses Henderson sang well their solos. The Xmas tree which was growing with all kinds of presents was adorned by 12 o'clock as Santa Claus was late in coming. A vote of thanks to Mr. Leese was moved by Mr. Moore and Rev. Mr. Nichol and the pronouncing of the benediction brought the affair to a close. Proceeds $62.00.

From Durham we noticed at the Sunday School entertainment Murray Ritchie and his aunt Mrs Ritchie and little girl, Mrs McLean, Miss Hepburn, Mr and Mrs Alfred Watson and some others, also Mr Arch. Park from Allan Park. Miss Sarah McKinnon, of Toronto, paid a flying visit to her home, south line, at Xmas and returned. Mr Hector McKinnon, of the Globe staff of correspondents, also paid a short visit to his home. The Misses McQuig, of Top Cliff spent Xmas at home. Mr Wm. McLeod, Sr., ate his Xmas dinner with his daughter, Mr and Mrs Hines, Arnesia. Miss Bertha McIntyre, of Toronto and the two Misses Rose, of Bruce, are at present visiting their uncle, Mr Norman McIntyre and their aunt, Mr and Mrs Chas. Ferguson, of Balsam Valley. Mr Arch. McMillan, from the West, is spending part of the winter at the old home at Mr John McMillan's south line, Arnesia. Miss Annie McPhail, of Toronto, spent Xmas at her mother's, Mrs Malcolm McPhail, D. Road, Glenora, and returned again on Thursday of last week. Mrs Rose, of Bruce, is visiting along with her two daughters at the old home and at her sister's Mrs Chas. Ferguson's, of Egremont.

Mr Tom Whitmore and Mr Rob McMillan called on friends in Egremont on Friday. Mr McCoskey, of town, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs A. Campbell. Mrs D. McParlane, of Banessan, is recovering from her long illness.

Happy New Year to all. Mr A. Beaton, Sr., is visiting his daughter, Mrs C. McIntyre, of Dorchester. Miss Elsie Beaton, of Waudby, is holidaying at her home here. Misses Lizzie and Winnie Binnie are home for the holidays. Mr Will Newell is home from Alberta. Misses Ida, Annie and Bessie Davis are visiting their parents here. Mrs O. Barnes is visiting at Mr Thos Davis'.

The New and Old Year By Jno. A. McDonald

Oh may the coming year be blessed To every home from East to West. May these that's far away from home Have God's protection where they roam.

To sons and daughters far away, This New Year's morn their thoughts will stray To that dear old familiar spot, Where first they played when little tots.

We often think of those that's gone To share their everlasting home, For now the homes are made so dear For on the morning of this fresh New Year.

The aged were young, but now they're old, Their New Year's soon will all be told; For some have passed the allotted time And on them few years' suns will shine.

Father and mother now will miss Loved ones who shared last Christmas bliss; They're feasting now at higher board Above, in the Kingdom of their Lord.

From the East the wild winds blow, Mixed with rain and sleet and snow; It drives the old year right ahead To be buried deep with kindred dead.

Can't hear its solemn funeral knell? Told by some faithful old church bell, Nor in its grave in churchyard made Nor ever dug by pick and spade.

Oh what a world of sin and sorrow And oft we do great troubles know; Each one has his or her own share And must their own great burdens bear.

When we review the years gone past, It makes us feel we are not to last; For now we're getting old and gray, December's not as mild as May.

Now I must quit this little rhyme, For the clock says nearly half past nine, This thirtieth night of December seen Of the dying year nineteen thirteen.

SWINTON PARK The Christmas tree held in Swinton Park church on Monday 22, was a decided success. Rev Mr Matheson the pastor, occupied the chair. Songs, recitations and drills were the main features of the evening. The choir and orchestra appeared at times and helped on with the program. Santa Claus made a visit at the close and presented the children with presents.

On Wednesday night, a number from here attended the concert in Priceville and report an excellent time. Others took in the S. S. entertainment in Hopeville church and report a good time.

Christmas Day passed off quietly. Hunting was the main sport but no game appeared. Mr D McCormack spent Xmas at H. Lawrence's.

The Aldern and Haw families visited at Mr R. Parslow's on Christmas night. Messrs Wm. Watson, George and H. Watson and little George spent Xmas in Dundalk.

Mr Wm Heard has returned home from the West. Messrs Neil and William Campbell have returned from Vulcan, Alberta.

Mr and Miss Oldfield visited at Mrs Campbell's on Sunday. Mrs Regan of Caledon visited her mother Mrs Hargrave last week.

Mr and Mrs Cranston of Bruce Co. spent last week at J H Richardson's. Mr and Mrs McLeod are visiting at Mr and Mrs Neil McLeod's here.

Mr McQueen and sister of Stayner, are visiting at Mr Neil McWilliams. Sorry to chronicle the death of Mr Frank Moore which took place on Christmas Day. Mr Moore went to the General Hospital last week to take treatment for an abscess in all hip, but the abscess was not cured so that medical skill could do to save the young man's life was done but a pop disease proved fatal. He was a popular young man in this neighborhood and was a member in L. O. L. 1136 He leaves to mourn, his aged mother, three brothers and seven sisters. The funeral took place in Toronto.

HOPEVILLE

Another Xmas passed and we wish the Review staff and readers a very happy and prosperous New Year. Mr and Mrs Will McKechnie and niece spent Xmas at Mr H. Serna's, Mt. Forest.

Miss Annie Sturrock, of Mt. Forest Business College, holidayed at her home and assisted her sister with the annual Chosen Friends Oyster Sapper Friday evening at Mr T. H. Gilkes.

Miss Ida Wheeler, Craig, Sask., is a welcome visitor. Mr and Mrs Allison, Durham, drove over last week to see Mrs A.'s mother Mrs N. McEachnie, who was critically ill, but is now slowly improving.

Miss E. M. Dingwall returned to her home at Holstein Xmas day. Miss L. Armstrong, Mrs E. Hoekridge, Messrs H. Love and Jno. Morrison attended Dundalk Xmas night entertainment.

Misses Margaret McInnes and Mabel Wheeler were at their respective homes over the holiday. We wonder who will be the lucky five councillors and reeve this year. To-day is Nomination day.

Miss Gilmore, teacher, S. S. No. 13 is holidaying at her home in Mansfield.
