A North Bay man had a pet fox and twenty-three hens which he kept in one coop but in different apartments. One night recently Mr. Fox managed to force an entrance to the chickens' department and in the morning there was still one fox but no live hens.

We think Mrs. Don, McDonald, of Wheatland, Wyoming, for renitance on review. She states "We are having some terrible snowstorms here this winter. Not very cold, but plenty of snow." After our first winter this far, we feel convinced Ontario isn't such a bad place after all.

Miss Lizzie McEwen, at the close of her term in Seaton Park school, was made the recipient of a warmly laudatory address by the people and presented with some beautiful silverware both as a token of the esteem in which she was held.

The Institute meeting at Priceville this year will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 14th at 2 p.m. and 7.30 p.m. The speakers will consist of the District Representatives of Dufferin, Bruce and Grey Counties, who will give illustrated lectures on Seed Selection, Fungous Diseases, Silos and Ensilage, Poultry and the Marketing of Farm Produce. In addition to Priceville, similar meetings will be held at Dandak, Rocklyn, Hanover and Chatsworth.

Success under difficulties.—As an example of what can be done in Ontario, Mr. Jos. McGillivray assures us in an interview last week that his son and himself did a $160 business last year. Mr. McGillivray's farm is by no means one of the best. He bought it 30 years ago when it was sold for roadwork and taxes and by industry and careful management has acquired a modest competence, has a fine house and lately erected a large building 35x10, with tin roof, to be used chiefly as an implement house. Mr. McGillivray as is well-known is the leading lime burner in the district and he estimates that he has burned 100,000 bushels in his time. One does not need to go to the west to find examples of success under difficulties.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Graham had the painful experience on Saturday last of receiving at their home for the night the remains of their niece, Isabel Georgina Burgess, who died in Sarnia on New Year's Day, at the hopeful age of 11 years. The primary cause of death was inflammatory rheumatism and this was followed by spinal meningitis. Mr. Burgess is a brother of Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Burgess a sister of Mr. Graham. The sorrowing parents with their three remaining children accompanied the remains which were interred in Durham cemetery on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Ashmore, Baptist student, conducted the services. The sympathy of many friends was extended to the sorrowing relatives, and especially to the parents who will have a sorrowful return to their Sarnia home.

ALL STARS DEFEATED.—Even if the Durham All Stars were defeated by the score of 5 to 6 against the Toronto Broadview Y. M. C. A. boys in their exhibition game last Friday night, their play on that evening, taken as a whole, does them credit. With scarcely any practice on the ice this winter and more than two hundred hockey fans who turned out enjoyed it all through. At half time the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of the locals, but confusion in the last half told against them and the visitors edged the puck the majority of times. With the Toronto boys, who are a gentlemanly bunch of sports, was Foster Saunders, a player who was pleased to see him on skates, even if he was an opponent. The Durham players were Strachan, V. Elvidge, G. Catton, "Bob" Saunders, H. Aljoe, M. Saunders and Al Saunders 2.

Horse Fair next Thursday, Jan. 15. Mr. John Swinburne, of Hanover, spent Monday in town.

Read F. J. Welsh's ad. on page 1 and investigate before buying.

Mr. John Ritchie, I. P. S., Port Arthur, is visiting with his brothers at Edge Hill.

Lance McGillivray left this week to commence a course in Stratford Business College.

Miss Olive Wright, of Chesley, was a guest at Mr. John Fallaise's over New Year's.

Rev. Mr. McLaren of Shakespeare will occupy the pulpit in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath.

Mr. Wm. Scarf leaves this week to speak at Farmers' Institute meetings in Stormont and Glenarrary and to attend the Winter Fair at Ottawa. He will be absent for the month.

AN IMMEDIATE BENEFIT.—The passing of the High School By-law last Monday has already been the means of assisting in the upbuild of Durham. Next day we learned of a family who decided to move to town, for educational advantages, after having ascertained the by-law's success.

OPEN SUNDAY.—By a decision of the Library Board at a meeting on Monday night, the Reading Room of the Public Library will be open on Sunday afternoons from 3 to 5.30 p.m. At the recent Library Institute meetings in Durham, several of the delegates spoke of good following the innovation.

A large load of friends and relatives the Weirs, Mr. Jos. Atkinson and family, Mr. Jas. Atkinson and family and Mr. and Mrs. McClure, of Toronto, drove to Allan Park Monday night and spent a pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Coultas and drove home and in the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Some of Bruce County officials are advocating the abolition of the jail in Walkerton, both on account of its expense and in sympathy with the new idea of a prison farm conducted jointly by several Counties along the lines of Hon. Mr. Hanna's prison farm at Guelph. It is alleged that in some jails there are more officials drawing pay than prisoners serving sentence.

Statistics from the House of Refuge at Walkerton show that the bachelors are monopolizing the free holdings in that institution. This is certainly pulling the danger signal on single blessedness and demonstrates that the present panacea to cure the bachelors at the free food plant mostly boarders, but the records since the house was first built show that the majority of celibacy were ever in the majority on the gratis grub roster. Those who hope to escape the rainy day hoodoo by paying a lone board bill will not find much consolation in the statistics from the Bruce H. of Refuge.—Times

Toronto, 16th December, 1913.

The By-Law Carried

82 is the Majority.

Monday was a very quiet day in town and one would hardly have judged that an issue so momentous as a new High School was being decided. The vote came out slowly, it was a small vote when all told, only 226, but it was decisive, more than 2 to 1 being in favor. The result few had dared to anticipate. There was no organization to bring out the vote, no buttonholing in the by-law's favor, so that the result may be fairly taken as an index to the sentiment of the town.

The result by wards was:

Ward	For	Against	Maj.
North Ward	84	20	11
East Ward	50	23	27
West Ward	70	20	41
Total	154	63	72

There was one spoiled ballot in the North Ward, marked in favor.

Because of this vote we believe Durham is a better town to-day than formerly. Its citizens have faith in the future. From this day's work will, we hope, arise a structure that will long justify the decision of the ratepayers.

LAST FRIDAY'S MEETING

The large attendance at the special-ly called meeting last Friday to discuss the by-law was most gratifying. The Mayor was in the chair. Messrs Wm. Ludlow, Gilbert McKeechie and A. H. Jackson opposed the by-law, not from antipathy to higher education or educational progress, but as being premature. The by-law was championed by Rev. Mr. Hartley and by Messrs Wm. Calder, N. W. Campbell, C. L. Grant, C. Ramage, Frank Lenahan, W. Irwin, E. Lumin, Principal Allan.

The sentiment of the meeting was plainly sympathetic with the by-law and the friends went home hopeful, though their faith was hardly equal to 82 majority.

Mayor Caldwell Honored.

Honors have come thick to Mr. Harry Caldwell, formerly of Orchardville, since he moved to Dauphin some dozen or more years ago. His ability was soon recognized and his townsmen put him in the council. Later he was nominated to the Mayor's chair and he held it for three years with great acceptance. This year on retiring his services were recognized in a most unique way. When the minutes of the last meeting of 1913 were read, the heads of departments of town employees trooped in and took his breath away by presenting him with a beautiful silver tea service and Magistrate Munson spoke of the regard in which the retiring Mayor was held by the employees and the kind and fair treatment they had always received at his hands.

But more was to follow: after the motion of adjournment was put, an other surprise was sprung when the council presented him with the Mayor's chair, suitably engraved on a large silver shield as follows:
"Presented to Mayor Caldwell by the Council of Dauphin, 1913."

Councillor McDonald made the presentation speech, speaking of Mr. Caldwell's long and valued services. Councillor Johnson, the eldest member of Council, presented the chair.

Mayor Caldwell made a feeling reply. In part, he said, the council could not have presented him with a more suitable remembrance to his liking. He valued the chair highly for associations connected with it, as an important page of the town's history had been made by the heads who have sat in it. His worship reviewed his career as a councillor and mayor and the many changes that had taken place in town during his time. While it was true he would still keep an active eye on council proceedings, and at any time, if any member thought his advice worth having on any points he was conversant with, it would be given for the asking.

After his worship's remarks, there was a round of speeches from the mayor-elect, councillors, retiring councillors and defeated candidates. The speeches were all in a happy vein and the best of feeling prevailed.

Durham Should Have the Wardenship

Reeve Calder will honor the position.

As we intimate elsewhere, Mr. William Calder, has, for the sixth time in succession been honored with the Reeveship of Durham Town. It is a growing confidence too this town places in him, for for the past three terms, he has received the position unopposed. He has had a long experience of municipal life and made good use of that experience, for few there are in either town or country town who are so well posted on municipal law and practice.

This long experience is admittedly a qualification for the wardenship, the highest municipal position in the County, and when this is linked with the fact that Durham has never had the honor of the office, it seems fitting that the County Council should recognize the double claim at the coming session by appointing Mr. Calder.

That he will worthily fill the office is a certainty. He has been chairman of the Finance committee of County Council and has abundance of experience as a presiding officer of one kind or another.

He was nominated for the position last year, but his time had not yet come. We hope the County Council at the coming session will honor itself by honoring Durham and Mr. Calder with the appointment.
