What Taxed Food Means.

A shipment of 1750 cases of butter, 278 carcasses of veal, 1250 carcasses of mutton, is on the way from New Zealand to Canada. At Vancouver the consignees will have to pay duty as follows:

17,500 cases of butter, 60 lbs. per case, 1,050,000 lbs. Canadian duty 4c lb. $42,000.00
278 carcasses of veal, averaging 60 lbs., 16,680 lbs. Canadian duty 3c lb. 50.00
1250 carcasses of mutton, average 45 lbs., 56,250 lbs. Canadian duty 3c lb. 1,687.50

Total duty on this food.... $44,187.50

At present $50,000.00 the Canadian people will have to pay before they can consume this food! To the British consumer this amount would be saved. No wonder the cost of living is high with such samples as the foregoing and another fact that Canadian flour can be bought in England at from 50 to 92 cents a barrel cheaper than it can be bought for in the Dominion, where the wheat is grown and milled.

It is high time the free food policy advocated by Sir Wilfrid Laurier was introduced into this country.

POPULAR PLACE

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr Jas. Brown on Wednesday, Dec. 31st, 1913, when his youngest daughter, Emma Ebel, was united in marriage to Mr Wm. Zafel, of Hanover. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs Wood, of Toronto, the groom took his place under an arch of evergreens prettily decorated and was followed by the bride, who was given away by her father, and the little flower girl, Gemina Hargrave, niece of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr Prudren, of Durham, in the presence of relatives and neighbors.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the happy couple were subjected to many congratulations. This being over, the guests were ushered to the dining-room, where a sumptuous wedding dinner awaited them.

The bride's dress was of white satin with trimmings of pearls and shadow lace. She wore a long bridal veil and carried a large bouquet of white roses and ferns, tied with white ribbons. The flower girl was dressed in pink silk, carrying a bouquet of pink roses and ferns. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl sunburst, to the organist a bar set with pearls and to the flower girl a locket and chain. The many varied and valuable gifts testify to the esteem in which the young couple are held.

A very pleasant evening was spent in music, singing and dancing.

The bride's going away suit was navy blue serge and a large white beaver hat with black French plume. They left on Monday for their new home in Hanover, where the groom has a good situation in the Cement Works. The best of good wishes go with them for a long and happy wedded life.

Mr and Mrs Jas. Lyons, of Toronto, attended the wedding of the latter's sister, Miss Emma Brown and visited many other friends.

Mr and Mrs Wood, of Toronto, friends of bride and groom Mr and Mrs Zafel, visited at the home of Mr Jas. Brown in a week.
