By J. A. McEl.

Fine day on Monday after a some what blustery storm, sleighing good.

Rev Mr Day of Cedarville preached a fine sermon in the morning last Sunday in the Presbyterian church and Inspector Allan ably filled the pulpit in the evening. We heard some one say that Mr Allan couldn't be a license Inspector and a preacher, but he can do both well.

Mr N. McCannell gave some friends a call on Monday on his way to Toronto.

This Monday is a quiet day in Glenelg as no election is necessary this year.

Mr and Mrs. Wm McLeod Jr. attended the funeral of Mrs. Burgess' daughter at Durham on Sunday last.

Schools opened again this Monday at 9 o'clock.

Died, at his residence on Sunday night, 4th January, Mr Neil Cameron after a long and painful suffering from cancer at the age of 54 years. Mr Cameron bore his long illness of some four years patiently knowing that the suffering of the body was only to last for a short while as he was looking forward for that home where there are no sufferings or pain. The funeral takes place on Tuesday the 6th to Swinton Park cemetery. Mr Cameron was born in the township of Bentinck one mile west of Latona. He came to the place where he ended his days some 45 years ago, near Boothville, Egremont. He is survived by a widow and 3 sons and 3 daughters. The community extends condolence in the sad hour of bereavement.

HOPEVILLE

Surely our winter will be short. We have just enough snow for good slipping and excellent weather.

Miss Annie Dezell of Toronto, is visiting under the parental roof.

Mr Jno. Morrison, Mr and Mrs E. Hockridge spent Sunday with Cedarville friends.

Miss Annie Sturrock returned to Business College, Mt Forest Monday. Miss Janet Gillespie to Collegiate, O. Sound, Mr. Arch. Barnett to High School, Dundalk.

A number of our young people spent a pleasant evening Friday at Mr Alex Ferguson's.

Cutting wood is the order of the day. Several different parties are cutting in Rob Campbell's bush.

MARRIED.

FERGUSON—LOBB—On Thursday, Dec 25 1913, at 3 p. m., Luella Lobb, of Beatty, Sask., to Arch. A. Ferguson, of Beatty, Sask.

Mr Lachlan Dunbar and Mr. Alex. McVicar were seen going south Sunday afternoon. Some attraction boys.

Winter Tours to the Land of Sunshine and Summer Day.

At this season of the year a great many are planning their winter tours. Considerable numbers annually visit the ever popular California Resorts, while many prefer the flowers and sunshining of Florida, together with the very even climate.

Numerous people in comfortable circumstances, well able to afford a winter tour, have the mistaken idea that a trip of this nature is most expensive. This is not so. Thanks to modern railway facilities, an extensive trip both interesting and educational can be made with speed and comfort at a comparatively small cost. Why not investigate?

The Canadian Pacific Railway offers particularly good service to Detroit, where direct connection is made for Florida, via Cincinnati, Ohio, and Atlanta, Ga., Jacksonville, Florida. Reached second morning after leaving Detroit. Excellent connections for Florida can also be made via Buffalo.

The Canadian Pacific-Wabash route will be found the ideal line to Chicago where direct connection is made to the Southern States. New Orleans is reached second morning after leaving Toronto.

Direct connection is also made at Chicago for points in California, Texas, Arizona, etc.

The Dining, Parlor and Sleeping Car service between Toronto, Detroit and Chicago is up-to-date in every particular. Connecting lines also operate through Sleeping and Dining Cars.

Those contemplating a trip of any nature will receive full information from any C. P. R. Agent; or write M. G. Murphy, District Passenger Agent Toronto.

North Egremont Wedding Bells

MORRISON—BROWN
On Wednesday evening last at 6 p m, the 31st Dec, 1913, a pleasant event took place at the home of Mr and Mrs Wm. Brown, Hillside Farm, Egremont, when their younger daughter, Miss Mary, was united in marriage to Wm A. Morrison of Smiley, Sask. At the hour appointed the young couple took their places before the bride's pastor, Rev. Mr. Kendall, the bride being given away by her brother, John. They were supported by Miss Beatie Weir as maid of honor and Miss Elsie Morrison, sister of the groom and Mr Andrew Turnbull of Smiley Sask. and Mr John Brown, brother of the bride. The bride was dressed in ivory satin with pearl and gold trim mings and wear, in her hair spun glass ornaments. Her traveling suit was of brown velvet with bar and plume to match and set of Persian Paw furs.

The bridesmaids were becomingly dressed in pale blue silk as was also little Miss Mary Manary a niece of the bride, who looked charming, acting as flower girl and ring bearer. The bouquet was of white carnations and maiden hair ferns tied with white satin ribbon. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst and to the maid of honor a crescent brooch set with pearls. The bride's gift to the groom was a set of cuff links.

The rooms were decorated with bunting, miniature flags, Christmas balls, etc, in addition to a 4 storey wedding cake which graced the table. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Leah McComb, Mrs. Kendall singing "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden" during the signing of the register. A toast to the young married couple was given by Rev. Geo. Kendall, Mr. Wm. Brown and Nelson McGuire also contributing some well chosen remarks there to. The night was spent in music, vocal and instrumental.

Guests from a distance were Mr Mack McDermid, Sask. Mrs A. Morrison, Collingwood, Elsie and Minnie Morrison, Mr and Mrs Jno Manary, Mr and Mrs Robt Henry and Mr and Mrs. Howard Henry all from Toronto, Mr and Mrs Wm Walker from Galt and Miss Mable Yeo from near Stratford.

The whole community wishes the young couple the best of good wishes for a happy future life.

PATTERSON—RENWICK
A pleasant and enjoyable event took place at the home of Mr and Mrs Thos Renwick, 17 con. Egremont, when their amiable daughter Mandy was united in wedlock's bonds to Mr Sam Patterson Jr, a popular young man of the community. The ceremony was performed at the hour of 5 p m by Rev Geo Kendall, their pastor, amidst a large gathering of relatives and friends. A beautiful arch of evergreens, bedecked with roses and Christmas bells, graced a corner of the parlor, under which the bridal couple took up their station. The bride was escorted to her position by her father while the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march floated through the dwelling played by Mrs. Kendall. After the vows had been taken on the placing of the ring and congratulations given, "The Banner of Love," was sung by Mr W. Ramage accompanied by Mrs Kendall on the organ.

The bride looked her loveliest becomingly attired in a dress of cream Bedford cord, trimmed with white brocaded silk over lace. Her travelling suit was of navy blue serge, with hat to match trimmed with paddy green moant. The groom's gift to the bride was a set of furs, many other costly presents useful and ornamental testified to the esteem in which the bride is held. A toast to the married couple was given and spoken to by Rev Mr Kendall wishing them "long life, truest joy and highest happiness." The address containing much valuable counsel and advice. Messrs W W Ramage and Walter Hastie also added their quota, the groom replying very neatly in thanking all for the kind words spoken and the appreciation shown by all. After a sumptuous supper of many excellent viands had been partaken of, music in solos and duets was contributed by Mrs. F. Lister and Messrs W. Ramage and W Hastie. A night of merriment was thereafter spent in games and dancing, the music being chiefly supplied by Mr John Haw and son of Swinton Park at the reception which was held later in the evening to the young people. The happy young couple start life together with the best wishes of the whole neighborhood.

The two young ladies above referred to were much valued members of Dromore choir and will be greatly missed.
