Her Great Love;

Or, A Struggle For a Heart

"All the more reason you should go,"

Jackson still hesitated, and Gaunt,

"My God!" murmured Jackson, broken

Gount smiled as he shook the hand.

"Not much, my lord," he said.

fervent prayer for her happiness.

The captain came up to him.

The captain took out his pipe.

"Have you any tobacco?" he asked.

ned by the contact. A spar from the rigging lay across his chest, and instinctively he clasped it. He lay thus, for it then there came another wave, and, still

How long he retained consciousnes after

"Better not let him talk yet awhile."

resently he took up one of the papers.

He read the account in a kind of stupor

"How have you been getting on?"

That's right."

inquired. "Been reading the paper?

CHAPTER XXXIV.

broke in the second man,

captain held out his hand.

The captain shook his head.

CHAPTER XXXIII - (Continued).

"Who are you to stand in our way?" he demanded in a thick voice with the frenzy said Gaunt, quick y, but in a low voice. of terror. "Stand aside! We're not going to be huddled up down here!" knowing the danger of delay, gripped him 'Yes, stand aside!' said one of by the arm, and drew him down the gangothers, advancing threateningly. way, and almost forced him into the boat Gaunt saw that it was necessary to make an example, and he promptly knockly, and he let his head fall into his hands ed the first speaker down.

one of us will leave the saloon until we The boat got clear, and as she moved which had been caused by the murder have the captain's permission."

Gaunt deliberately shot the bolt the door, and leaned against it. "Look to the ladies!" he said to the men. "The trouble may be over in a few minutes. We have a good captain and a tremor in his voice. good crew, and we can rely upon them o do their utmost for us.'

His quiet words, his perfect self-possession, had their due effect upon the wo- there's not much chance for u.?" men. They ceased shricking and ecreaming, but huddled togeth r, crying and mouning in a subdued fashion. Gaunt went on talking, doing his best

Presently little Maude ran from among the women and came to his side, and stole her hand into his. "I'm not afraid!" she said. "Least, I am afraid, but I won't cry, Lord Gaunt." He put his hand upon her head. That's right, Mande, dear," he said. "There's not much use in crying, is there? And it's very likely that we shall all be laughing again presently." The vessel still rocked in the same curious way, and the peculiar motion told Gaunt what had happened. The "Pevensey Castle" had drifted on to a rock or a sand bank, and was swaying to and fro on a pivot as the seas struck her.

captain took in the cituation at a glance, had no regret, no desire to escape the the land, Decima turned to Lady Pauline, suddenly disappeared from the and water with raisins. One teaand quietly, as if he were thanking Gaint for passing the salt. Then he looked round. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said. "we've struck on a sand bank." He held up his hand as a cry of terror arose. There's no need to be alarmed. There's and the whole truth; and here it is. We're off the coast of Mogador, and not very far from the harbor. The boats are ready, and I'll have you all put ashore as com-fortably as possible; that is, if you obey orders. Now, you will please come on deck a dozen at a time; a dozen and no more. Lord Gaunt will be kind enough to is carried out. May I trouble you so far, grating and grinding of the doomed fortable for him when I am there.

Gaunt nodded. "Very good," said the captain, calmly. heart beating against his. Then I can return to my place on deck." He put a revolver in Gaunt's hand and

The crowd watched Gaunt with eager eyes, and almost seemed to cease breathing as he pointed out the first dozennine women and three men. The men will take charge of the ladies," he said, "and help them into the disobey him, his complete self-possession, and perhaps the sight of the revolver in go over presently." his hand, would have restrained them. The first dozen were marshaled out of the cabin to the deck. The others, waiting anxious.y, could hear the mate giving orders and the sailors' "Ay, ay, sir," as

The captain called out: "Next lot!" and a second dozen were dispatched. And so and her mother in one of the earlier on his back. When he looked up, half er or later; the air was full of it, the batches, but the child had clung to him

"Let mamma and me go with you," she said. "I know we shall be quite safe As the turn of the last lot came, Gaunt picked up the child with his left arm, leaving his right free for the revolver, and led the way up on deck. The fog was imposible to stand, for some minutes; was still thick, but the ship was brilliant grasping the spar, he was swept over- Tawd Valley Coal Mine Burned for looked round upon a scene of admirable order. All the boats had gone save two. and they were ready to be launched at sisted of a number of the crew as well as had disappeared.

Gaunt helped the women into their places. He put Maude's mother in, and she held out her arms for the child.

looked up at him impleringly. "Oh, not 'good-gye!" she said. "You're coming you're coming! I won't go with-"Presently, presently!" said Gaunt, He ly, and, as gently, placed her in her motain, and the other, to Gaunt's surprise, was Jackson. The young fellow was very one of you get in, please. The quicker tain, quietly. "I stand by the ship."

Gaunt went up the steps quickly, and laid his hand upon Jackson's shoulder. "Off with you!" he said. Jackson's face worked heavily. "Yes," said Gaunt, as quietly as before.

The ship will go to pieces before the morning," panted Jackson. "It's certain Gaunt, not very cheerfully. "May I ask before work began, to examine the herself—if she can induce some man but he was quite sober, and fully

WAS A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC New Finds it a Pleasure to Enjoy Meais

Here is a case which seemed as bad and as hopeless as yours can possibly be. This is the experience of Mr. H. J. Brown, 384 Bathurst St., Toronto, in his own

"Gentiemen-I have much pleasure in mentioning to you the benefits received from your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and can cheerfully recommend them. I simply had confirmed dyspepsia with all its wretched symptoms, and tried about all the advertised cures with no success. You have in Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets the best curative agent I could find. It is now such a pleasure to enjoy meals with their consequent nourishment that I want to mention this for the benefit of others,"

The fact that a lot of prescriptions or son. 'They haven't go-called "cures" have failed to help you yet, more's the pity!" so-called "cures" have failed to help you is no sign that you have got to go on his elbow. "I am Lord Gaunt, Mr. Dobhis elbow." "I am Lord Gaunt, Mr. Dobhis elbow. "I am Lord Gaunt, Mr. Dobhis elbow." "I am Lord Gaunt, Mr. Dobhis elbow. "I am Lord Gaunt, Mr. Dobhis elbow." "I am Lord Gaunt, Mr. Dobhis elb suffering. Try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia son. How soon can you take me back to Tablets and see how quickly this sterling remedy will give you relief and start your stomach working properly. If it doesn't help you, you get your money back. 500 a box at your druggist's. Compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

The Most Delicious OF ALL TEAS IS

CEYLON TEA-BECAUSE OF ITS UNVARYING GOOD QUALITY . . .

BIGHEST AWARD-ST. LOUIS, 1904.

a Lion.

Lord Derby.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Bread is the staff of life and flat-

And lots of people do not work as A married man's application for

If a homely girl has plenty of Getting Back.

Witness-Yes, indeed !

Lawyer-Do you know what 'con-

Lawyer-Well, what does the Teacher of Hygiene- Why must Give people what they think they

a worthless one is a liability.

away, the last cheer arose, and Gaunt and Prince's Mansions. in | BEATEN AT HIS OWN GAME. The man picked himself up, and the the captain responded to it and waved The boats had reached the harbor of rest fell back a pace. Gaunt's ealmness their caps. She was lost to sight in a Mogador in safety, and the rescued pos- African Bushman's Experience with and firmness were making them ashamed minute, and the captain and Gaunt, after sengers had given a full and touching straining their eyes after her, turned in- account of the founding of the ill-fated in stinctively and looked at each other. The vessel and the heroic conduct of the captain and Lord Gaunt. That they had both "You're a brave man, my lord!" he said, been drowned, no one seemed to entertain rica is not only small in size, but to and for the first time there was a slight any doubt, and on the principle of speak-Gaunt's crime was forgotten for the mo- mind. Yet there is the story of an "One might finish up in a worse way ment in admiration for his heroism.

than this, captain," he said. "I suppose | The papers came out with the whole story, and leaders were written, di ating a lion which shows a man cool in with editorial unction upon the dramatic danger and fertile in resource. "The sepect of the affair, and the poetical juswind's getting up; there's a hole in her tice which had been dealt out to, as the bottom-don't you hear the water rushing writer called him, "this unfortunate no- way from home, met a lion. in?-she'll heel over before long-" There bleman." They all of them, however, was no need to finish the sentence "It's failed to inform their readers what the a pity," he added, after a moment, "a captain had done to deserve death. But completely in his power, began to pity! She was a fine vessel, and I'm— that was a mere matter of detail.
fond and proud of her." Her voice broke To Decima, lying white and wan in the elightly, and he moved away as if he did darkened room, no tidings of the outside fulness that the little Bushman world were permitted to reach. She had failed to appreciate. The lion Gaunt made his way with some dif- recovered consciousness, but she lay ficulty to the bow, and leaning against 'twixt life and death, in that condition would appear at a point in the road, tween layers. the bulwark, looked into the fog. A of mind and body which resembles stu- and leap back again into the junstrange feeling of peace and rest was por. All danger, however, was past; her might make a worse finish than this. It the for her and won it, and, as the doctor The Bushman did not lose his pre- flour, three eggs. Use one whole had been no great sacrifice on his part, said, it was only a question of time and the surender of the place in the boat to careful nursing. For the latter Lady sence of mind, and presently hit egg and the yolks of two in the Jackson, for he had not the least desire Pauline could be relied on, and gradually upon a way to outwit his foe. cake, saving the two whites for icto prolong a life which was now a bur- the vacant expression of Docima's eyes Aware that the beast was ahead of ing. One cup of raisins (cut) and den to him. To such men as Gaunt, life changed to one which, although it was is only precious while it holds the pos- sadder, displayed some faint interest in him, the Bushman dodged into the one heaping teaspoon of soda in a his eye and voice; but presently he heard sublity of nope and love. he was sorry the captain's step on the stairs, and he for the poor ship, sorry for the captain's of the loss of the lo > of Decima. As he gazed into the fog, his Pauline?" memory and imagination were limning | Lady Pauline took the snow-white hand peering at him over the grass. upon its gray surface the scenes in which and patted it softly. he had acted with her. He recalled their "I hope not, dear," she said. "No; you The Bushman at once changed his the white parts of roasted chicken first meting at the Zoo; the day they had have been very ill, but you are quite out met by the stream; the many times they of danger now. I hope that in a few position, while the lion stood irre-

> of the ball, when he had held her in his stairs. And then we will go to Walfield, arme; and lastly, the night of their part- You would like to go there, would you she had whispered her confession of her Decima thought for a moment, then she ed, and appeared at another point. This love for him. He could hear her voice, like weird mu- "I think I would rather go home. Fasic, infinitely sweet and infinitely sad, ther must mise me. And Bobby will be fused, and then alarmed. It began onion. Salt ten stuffed chopped wax is still warm. coming through the roar of the waves, the coming home, and-and it is more com-his lips; feel her arms about his neck, her ly. "We will ask the doctor." Decima was silent for a moment, then He pictured her, the wife of another she turned her eyes away, and seked: man, with a keener anguish than any "Have you seen Mr. Mershon, aunt?" fear of the approaching death could have "Yes," replied Lady Pauline. "I have aroused; but yet with no bitterness, for, seen him, and I have told him what you plete state of doubt and fear, turned tail, and ran ignominiously from as he thought of her, his lips moved in wished him to be told. Decima breathed a sigh of relief

"Thank you, Aunt Pauline, I -I am the field. "God bless you, my dearest, my dearest!" he murmured. "May my mad love afraid he was very angry, was he not?" never cast its shadow over your future "He was," said Lady Pauline, laconically. "But we will not ta'k of Mr. Mershon, dear. I trust that he has gone out "She is filling fast!" he said. "She will of your life for henceforth. "Oh, yes, yes!" che cried. "I-I could not marry him!" She shuddered. "He was very kind, and I-I am grateful to She turned her head away and closed Gaunt handed him his pouch, then fill- her eyes, and Lady Pauline, who thought Suddenly a big wave, which seem- the murder and Lord Gaunt's death be vessel heeled over, and Gaunt was thrown its effect upon her? She must know soon-the captain. The brave man had gone, the streets, Another wave smote the vesse', and Later in the day Bobby came in. He Gaunt felt himself swept against the deck- was terribly upset, and scarcely master house so violently that he was half stun- of himself. (To be continued.)

blinded by the spray, he could not see newspaper boys were yelling it through -----A RECORD BLAZE.

Twenty-six Years.

he had been dashed into the sea can not How would you like to work in a be told. To swim was impossible; the groundswell was too violent. Mechani- coal mine that is always on fire? calmly, and spoke as quietly, as if no cally he still clung to the spar. The tide thing whatever was the matter; and the was setting out to sea, and as he floated he saw that the fog was gradually lift- are the authorities doing every time cheerful alacrity. The last boat but one wave, he looked round for the vessel. She wave, he looked round for the vessel. She Gaunt prayed for death at that moment, any warning, but very few know some of the passengers. Each boat, as it left the rocking ship, sent up a cheer for this terrible solitude in the midst of which was returned by those remaining than death. Then his senses left him, fire, says Pearson's Weekly.

and deck.

"Now, my lord," said the captain, as laxed his hold on the spar.

"Now, be last boat was launched.

"In 1872 the Tawd Valley mine, laxed his hold on the spar.

"In 1872 the Tawd Valley mine, laxed his hold on the spar. When he came to, he found, to his and for 26 years it burned. For over a quarter of a century black faced tion. Two men were standing beside him. heroes faced it and worked beside Smart They exchanged a look, and nodded as Gaunt opened his eyes. Gaunt looked it. Every day they fought the purpose round and sighed. At that moment he was flames, but, though every known renot particularly glad to come back to source was tried, the fire was untery is the butter. "All right now?" said one of the men conquered in the end-by man at much as they wait.

fellow with a pleasant voice and a pleasant smile. He was dressed in yachting The story of the Tawd Valley Many a man pats himself on the costume and was smoking a cigarette. fire is, perhaps, one of the most re- back who isn't a contortionist. "Where am I?" asked Gaunt, with an markable stories of fire fighting in | A good husband is an asset, but "On board the 'Sea Wolf," replied the existence. young fellow, "my yacht. We picked you When the

When the coal seam was discov- It is never too late to blame the up this morning. You've been wrecked, I ered to be blazing a wall of ten feet other fellow for your mistakes. thick was built round it to cut off A woman will do a lot of checky all the air supply, and thereby put things to improve her complexion. "All right, doctor," assented the young it out. But the fire remained un- Propose to a girl in a canoe and fellow, cheerfully. "You go to sleep if subdued. Steadily, day by day, it you'll have two chances of being all right after a snooze. We'll leave you ate its way into the coal, burst thrown over. Gaunt closed his eyes again and slept.
When he awoke he found the young fellow standing beside him with a basin of low standing low standing beside him with a basin of low standing low standing beside him with a basin of low standing low standing beside him with a basin of low standing low stan is hard work.

"Get outside this," he said. "The doc- The colliery owners employed A woman always has faith in the tor he's a friend of mine and has come over 1,000 men in the pit. Among judgment of any man who asks her this trip with me-says you'll pull through these 1,000 were a number of spe- to marry him. "Oh, that's all right," replied the young brick walls containing the fire, test to face the parson with her. man. "My name's Dobson. I'm taking a the temperature and look out for The average man gets a lot of unreckening in that fog and it's lucky we cracks through which the fire might necessary abuse while he is alive did, or we shouldn't have come across break. If the walls showed the and a lot of unnecessary praise af-"I was a passenger on board the 'Pe. slightest sign of weakness they ter he is dead.

msey Castle," said Gaunt. "She drift | were immediately strengthened. ed on a sand bank." He spoke with dif- The mine owners were constantly membership in a club may be an ficulty, and Mr. Dobson had sense enough trying new dodges to put the fire admission that marriage is a fail-"All right," he said. "Tell us all about out, but just as constantly the ure so far as he is concerned. sleep again. There's nothing like sleep flames would break through and for your case, so the doctor says. I've light up the workings of the mine, money it's an easy matter to meet brought you some books and papers if until they were bricked up again. a wise man who will try to convince He left the cabin, and Gaunt tried to In 1897, twentyfive years after the her she is a prize beauty. sleep; but his head ached too much, and fire had started, a wall 100 yards in He turned it over mechanically, and thickness had been built round the was putting it down again, when his eye fire-and it was still breaking

"The tragedy at Prince's Mansions, Ver. through At the top of the colliery ran the scientious scruples' means? diet of willful murder against Lord river Tawd. One night, when the Mr. Dobson re-entered the cabin. and overflowed into the mine. and overflowed into the mine. By phrase mean? an extraordinary piece of good for- Witness-Well, my parents wanttune it happened when the day and ed me to be a lawyer, but I had "Yes," said Gaunt, quietly. "I have been reading the account of the murder night shifts were being changed. A scruples. few hours sooner, or a few hours "Ah! terrible affair that!" cut in Dohlater, and 500 men would have perished miserably.

there came a tremendous explosion, at any moment." and machinery at the top of the pithead was blown 300 feet into the The news of the wreck of the "Pevensey air. The fire was put out, but it want instead of what they really 1 Co. Castle" did not reach London until some involved the destruction of the need and they'll go on their way reit created a sensation only inferior.

Favorite Recipes.

Black Pudding. - One-half cup good sized mixing bowl the whites molasses, one cup seeded raisins, of ten large eggs and a generous one egg, one cup hot water, one pinch of salt. Take one and oneteaspoon soda, pinch of salt, one quarter cups of granulated sugar cup flour. Steam one hour and and sift five times, one cup of passerve with yellow sauce made of two try flour sifted five times. The oven eggs, one cup sugar, one teaspoon and bakepan should be ready and vanilla. Beat eggs light, add grad- one level teaspoon of cream of tarually the sugar and beat again, tar laid ready. Beat whites of egg: then add vanilla.

ups stewed and sieved pumpkin, two eggs, one and one-half cups beater up through it. Sift in sugar brown sugar, one and one-half pints sweet milk, one level tablespoon tract, so the alcohol will not come flour, two teaspoons cinnamon, one in direct contact with the whites of teaspoon allspice. Line gem pans The little Bushman of South Af with rich pie crust, fill with above oven. Serve with whipped cream. bering every stroke of the beater mixture and bake in moderate Orange Cake. Two cups of granencounter between a Bushman and ulated sugar, one-half cup water, two teaspoons baking powder, the yolks of four eggs and whites of The Bushman, who was a long three, the juice and grated rind of one orange. Bake in two layers. animal, sure that he had his victim Filling for cake: Beat the white of one egg stiff. Add the juice and sport with him with a feline playgrated rind of half an orange and stir in enough sugar to make thick as jelly. Spread upon top and be-

Raisin Cake .- One cup of sugar, stealing over him. As he had said, one youth and strength had fought the bat- gle, to reappear a little farther on. one-half of butter, two cups of opened the door and admitted him. The grief, and still more sorry that so brave "Pevensey Castle" and Lord Gaunt's awaited the next move. When the raisins, cool, cream, butter, and a man should perish; but for himself, he death was running like wild-fire through lion discovered that the man had sugar. Add beaten eggs, then flour Indeed, he did not think of himself, but "I suppose I am not going to die, Aunt path, he was perplexed. He roar- spoon cinnamon or nutmeg for fla-

ed. Then he espied the Bushman voring. Veal and Chicken Salad .- Take little man rustled the reed, vanish- celery cut in the same size pieces, tags of sealing wax. Cut the tag, will then be dry and floury. not let the lion collect his startled mayonnaise salad dressing on plat- water on wash day it will prevent towards the door. wits. He began to steal gradually ter covered with lettuce leaves and the blue from settling in the clothes If the flour is slightly warmed Health Bread .- Two cups of table water is very hard. bran, one cup flour, one cup milk, Very frequently when separating the soda was dissolved. Thoroughly the lid. They will take much less ly turn off the heat and let bake in this down the sink. a moderate oven for one hour.

Golden Muffins .- This recipe is strands are tied together and put for a family of five and will make into a pail of boiling water and two dozen muffins, one dozen light soaked for two hours. Dry thor- the father when the bills come in biscuit, and three large loaves of oughly for two hours. bread. In a four quart jar pour two Marks that have been made on quarts of warm water, add thereto paint with matches may be removed one large tablespoon each of butter by first rubbing the mark with lemand lard, one tablespoonful of salt on and washing it afterward with "Oh, I heard it." and two tablespoonfuls of sugar; soap and water. mix thoroughly until butter and To prevent glassware from being lard are dissolved, then add about easily broken, put in a kettle of if you'll chop wood for it," said the eight large teacupfuls of sifted cold water; heat gradually until the woman positively. "Yes, lady flour, or enough to make a stiff bat- water has reached the boiling point, replied Plodding Pete. "Only it ter, and stir vigorously for one min- When cool take out glass. ute; then add three well beaten To extract the juice from an onieggs to this and stir again. Lastly, on, cut a slice from the root end of terrible appetite." one cake of yeast, which has first the onion, draw back the skin, press Success is the mother of imita- been dissolved in two tablespoon- the onion on a coarse grater workfuls of lukewarm water. Stir but ing with a rotary motion. Smart men may be fools for a little after eggs and yeast are in. Borax is one of the best assist-Cover jar with a plate and place in ants to cleanliness. It should play a warm corner, free from drafts a large part in every household. If over night. In the morning grease sprinkled about the kitchen it will a large pan and put in two dozen eliminate roaches and ants. well greased muffin pans, drop a To give ordinary paint the effect large tablespoonful of this batter of enamel, take a piece of silicate "Well, sir," replied the sexton, "I in each ring. Do not stir the bat- of potash the size of a walnut, flour to the batter and mix and knead it for fifteen minutes, then place dough in warm sheltered place to rise; when light enough, which probably will be in about two hours, make into light biscuit and three loaves of bread, and let rise

Angel Food Cake.-Put into a about one-half, sift in cream of tar-Individual Pumpkin Pies.-Three tar, then beat again until it wil! make dog's ears when von draw thand on top of sugar put in the exeggs. Boil the sugar in until batter is smooth and glossy, then carefully sift in the flour and fold in, rememafter the flour is in toughens it. It is best to have the eggs and dish cold. Putting the cream of tartar in the eggs makes it fine grained and tender. Never grease the tin. The oven must be moderate enough so the cake will raise before it begins to bake, then increase the heat and let it bake. If the cake bakes too quickly it will crack open in the middle. Bake forty or forty-five minutes, and when done take from oven and invert the pan until the cake is perfectly cold. If not sufficiently done the cake will sweat and fall, but if set on the bottom of the tin the weight of cake would make it settle.

Hints for the Home.

condition if whiting is mixed to a oil and salt, cover the mark with stiff paste with warm water and us- this, and leave for one hour, then ed instead of soap. Rinse off with rub off with a soft duster.

two tablespoons dark molasses, one the whites from the volks of eggs tablespoon lard or salad oil, one the yolk becomes broken and falls heaping teaspoon baking powder, into the white. Dip a cloth in Betty-I shall not wed until I can put into a bowl and well mixed, When boiling potatoes try putting back out he's one, after which add the milk in which a cloth over them before putting on then put into a well greased bread A good disinfectant for a sink is pan. Let stand twenty minutes to put two tablespoonfuls of soda the first five minutes, then gradual- one gallon of boiling water. Pour

A new broom will last longer if the ter in the morning. After muffins crush it, and add to it one pound are on the way, add six cups of and a half of ordinary varnish wouldn't linger on."

MOST PERFECT MADE THE INCREASED NUTRITI-OUS VALUE OF BREAD MADE IN THE HOME WITH BOYAL YEAST CAKES SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT INCENTIVE TO THE CAREFUL HOUSEWIFE TO GIVE THIS IMPORTANT FOOD ITEM THE ATTENTION TO WHICH IT IS JUSTLY EN-TITLED. HOME BREAD BAKING ME-DUCES THE HIGH COST OF

AMOUNT OF EXPENSIVE MEATS REQUIRED TO BUP-PLY THE NECESSARY NOUR-ISHMENT TO THE BODY. E. W. GILLETT CO, LTD.

TORONTO, ONT. WINNIPEG

paint. This will give a surface like enamel at one-third the cost. To remove hot water marks from White paint can be kept in good tables. Make a thin paste of salad clear water and dry with a duster To prevent inferior potatoes from appearing watery when cooked, I always think it best to tell the truth, and been together at the Hall; the night days I shall be able to take you down solute in the path, following with inch pieces; take two cups of veal quite good laces. In this case they lengthways and across, all the way and the whole truth; and here it is. We're his eye the moving black man. The and one cup of chicken, one cup of may be replaced with impromptu round. Boil in salted water. They

The great brute was first con- white pepper, one-half teaspoon then press it to a point while the pile, brush the way of the pile. This toward the foe, who now, in a com- garnish with hard boiled eggs cut in and make them perfectly white. in the oven before being added to This is especially useful when the the other ingredients it makes a

Any Old Hero.

one level teaspoon soda, and same warm water, wring it dry, and marry a hero. Alice-Well, my of salt. Put the soda into the milk, touch the yolk with a corner of it, dear, just show any man who prowhich may be either sweet or sour; and the yolk will adhere to the poses to you a schedule of your all of the other ingredients may be cloth and may easily be removed. | yearly expenses, and if he doesn't

The lark sings in the glen; then put into quite a hot oven for and a teaspoonful of ammonia in But there's more music these days

Every mother thinks she has the dearest baby in the world. So does

Yeast-"What made you say my

The sexton had been laying the new carpet on the pulpit platform, and had left a number of tacks scat tered on the floor. "See here, James," said the parson, "what do you suppose would happen if stepped on one of those tacks right reckon there'd be one point you to dawn on him that he was the olives, one teaspoon olive oil; mix If a lump of soda dissolved in a Make short strokes and raise the ship; he could feel her kisses warm upon "We will see," said Lady Pauline, gent- hunted party. The Bushman did well in mixing bowl with one cup of little hot water is added to the blue broom as seldom as possible. Sweep his line; feel her arms about his neck, her ly "We will see," said Lady Pauline, gent-

LIVING BY LESSENING THE

A More Popular Lay. blend all together with a spoon, cooking and be much more mealy. The nightingale our ears would

The cackle of the hen.

will be cheaper to feed me in ad

CANADA Portland CEMENT COME men ask for so many bags of "cement"— Others, more careful, say they want "Portland Cement"-But the man who does the best work insists upon getting "Canada" Portland Cement-And he looks to A see that every bag bears this label Wite the Canada Cement Information Bureau, Monhere to a Canada al, for a free copy of What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."

Le bold, ever bold, sang the p yet not too bold. Even poetry put in a saving clause after a sionate outburst. Sometimes courage exhibited by the bold is so plainly allied with ignora that the need of caution is pat cally illustrated, as the follo stories prove.

A brother and sister fired

NOTES AND COMMEN

An ambition to enter the profe of teaching left one of those I bian states that remain to ut abodes of mystery to acquire ficates and return for the enlig ment of their own countrymen young woman began with a pr atory course as waitress in a t ing house and the boarding keeper advanced her wages, were given to the brother th might cater an institution of after deductions were made ! wages advanced and a few a out of the family weaving the turaly somewhat discor There has been a halt in her expectations, which were on ignorance and the fairy prospectuses of one kind help bud through.

he promoter had had then decided that the is ing and so saved him fa ism. Probably in many there were less of the finally has to be helped

A Trouble M. "I see they are thi ting meters on the tel

My wife will insist

Not With Stereopti The Policeman-Wh going at this time of The Wanderer-I to a jecture.

"Keep clear of Mag be in a very bad way, asked me yesterday to the half dollar I bor two years ago."

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO