PREMIER WHITNEY IS ILL

at the Manhattan hotel in New York and latest reports give very little signs of improvement in his health. That he has held out so long after the serious breakdown gives hope that he may yet rally.

The remarkably fine weather of November, December and first 9 days of January has passed and for some days Ontario has been having temperatures ranging from 8 to 20 degrees below zero. With January half through the best of the winter is broken and lengthening days will soon bring relief.

A Home Study Department in connection with Sabbath School work was organized at Zion Methodist Ch., Glenora, last Sunday with an initial membership of 30. Miss Valerie Edge, Secretary for South Grey, gave an address on the work and assisted in organizing the branch.

INAUGURAL SESSION OF NEW COUNCIL

Around Durham Council table last Monday, only two new faces were seen. Messrs S. McCracken and Dr. Wolfe filling the council seats vacated by Geo. McKennan and G. Furness. Myer Black and Revere Calder occupy the ends of the table; on the Mayor's right are Councillors Saunders, Cochran and Wolfe; on the left Clerk Vollet and Councillors McCracken, Lenahan and Lloyd. All were present at the brief opening address, the Mayor complimented the town on the efficient body returned to assist him in the town's government.

Accounts were read and passed amounting to $233. There was nothing momentous under discussion, although some spirited discussion was evoked during the meeting.

After being Chief of the Fire Brigade ever since its organization, Mr. Torry tendered his resignation, subsequently elected Howard McDonald, who has been assistant the past five years and one of the oldest men in the council's approval. This was brought to their attention Monday night and will be sanctioned.

Mr. C. Elvidge, Librarian, presented a statement of the Library's deficit for 1913 and on motion of Calder—Lloyd, $225 was granted to start the year with a clean sheet. Mr. Elvidge also presented an estimate of the amount of grant required from the town for the Library's upkeep in 1914, which he placed at $170.

MR. MOORE SPRANG A SURPRISE

on his fellow citizens when he went to Toronto the beginning of last week and returned. The annual knot was tied on Wednesday, the 7th inst., at 4 p.m. Miss Eliza Baird, a Toronto young lady, being the contracting partner. Rev. J. C. Elliott, of Bayview Baptist Church, where the ceremony was performed, was the officiating clergyman. They were a well attended affair. A brief honeymoon was spent with Mrs. Moore at her home in Toronto and we welcome Mrs. Moore to our citizenship.

CHARGE ELECTION DATE

We would not be surprised to hear of some of our exchanges who are advocating the change from the existing date and New Year period for the coming elections. We think those with influence in the Legislature should give it their attention and crystallize it into law. If the third week in January were chosen, there would be time to have the whole year's transactions before the public instead of as now crowding it off at 15 a Dec. Besides the change would lead to a purer and more wholehearted celebration of the holiday.

DROMORE FORESTERS' BANQUET

One of the annual events that help to make Dromore famous is the annual gathering of Foresters and their friends. This year it took the shape of a banquet in Russell Hall and its success was no less than the best of its predecessors.

Tables were set for nearly a hundred guests, and these proved inadequate for there must have been about 125 present. The menu was excellent, the abundance of delicious chicken pie must have thinned out the heuristics in the neighborhood, and the skill and taste of the cooks was evident in every course. As the banquet proceeded the music was rendered by an orchestra of two violins and organ, the former played by two well-known masters, Messrs G. Haw and McKechnie while Miss Lora Ramage accompanied in brilliant style.

Mr. Value Hastie was made toastmaster of the occasion and when all had partaken began the program by making the company to drink to the health of the Foresters of the National Anthem. "The Army and Navy" was coupled with the name of Wm. Ham- ing, a veteran in volunteer ranks who spoke of the duties accomplished by both ranks of the service. While he had no sympathy with militarism for his own sake he thought it wise that the country should at least be preparing "Rule Britannia," the audience joining heartily in the chorus.

"Dominion and Provincial Parliaments" was coupled with the name of Dr. Jamieson, M.P., whom the committee were delighted to have with them. He was in one of his happiest moods and after a few facetious flings at Dromore people notably those of so longing their heads and allowing their hair to be headed against him, he said he was going to keep on running till he had a majority in Dromore.

KILLED BY FALLING TREE

Robt. Dingwall, of Hopeville, meets death in the Bush.

We have just received word that on Tuesday afternoon about 4 p.m., Mr. Dingwall, of the 12th Con. Prov., had his life crushed out by a falling tree. We have no other details at present. Our Hopeville correspondents were furnished these next week.

Deceased has four brothers: Andrew near Cayton, James east of Hopeville, William on townline Egremont and John farm. The depressing death has cast a gloom over the community. Deceased was about 40 years of age.

WINTER TRAGEDY

Principal Allan made a discovery about a week ago that roused all the sanitary blood in him. The ventilating system of the school has provision made to allow fresh air into the rooms from outside. The eight ventilating openings had been carefully plastered up, sealing the rooms to fresh air except when he was admitted at doors or windows. He has not discovered yet who was trying to poison the lungs of the little ones.

83 BUT HEADS THE POLL

The most spectacular incident of the recent elections in this neighborhood was the return to the Municipal arena of Mr. W. H. Ryan, the veteran politician of Normandy, the "Czar of Normandy" if you like. He is 83 years of age, but his mental equipment is not dimmed by the years, and he will add another chapter to the book of good deeds he has done for his township.

Not only did he head the poll in the township—in Blythe's and Glendon wards he polled every vote. Our congratulations to Mr. Ryan and to the township that recognizes true worth.
