

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

AROUND THE VILLAGE

Words fail us when we attempt to express the sorrow which came to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lane early Wednesday morning by the death of their little boy (Jackie). Although of such tender age (16 mos.) he had become so interesting with his sweet prattle and keen interest in every thing coming under his notice, that his taking away leaves a sad blank both in his home and in the village and the sincere sympathy of all is extended to the sorrowing friends. The remains were taken to Port Eglon (Mrs. Lane's former home).

Mr. Will Lane of Bond Head and Andrew, of Toronto, attended the funeral of their brother's child here on Thursday. Miss Mamie Mounsin, of Durham, is visiting friends on the South Line at present. We are pleased to see Miss Annabella McLeod home from Stratford looking well after her holidays there. The Shredded Wheat Co. are giving a banquet under the auspices of the Methodist Church in Watson's Hall, Friday, Jan. 16th. Be sure and come. Mr. Matheson is attending Presbyterian meeting in Orangeville this week. Miss B. McGowan, of Durham, visited friends in town for a few days. Mr and Mrs. Donald McMillan and baby left on Monday for their home in Manitoba, after spending a few weeks with friends and relatives here. Miss Georgina Mitchell returned to Toronto on Monday, after visiting friends here. Mrs. John McDonald, Egremont, passed away on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alex McDonald, Boothville, at the age of 85 years. She suffered a stroke of paralysis and did not rally after taking it. She was predeceased by her husband some years ago. The funeral will take place Wednesday at 2 p. m. to Priceville cemetery. Mr. Brander lost a valuable horse on Friday. The cause is unknown. Miss Louise Watson returned to Toronto on Saturday to resume her studies at Faculty there. Mrs. J. Graham (nee Miss Cassie Black) of Toronto, spent a few days with relatives here. Mr. John Stohart went to Toronto on Monday with a carload of stock. Don't forget the Shredded Wheat Banquet in the Priceville Methodist Church Friday evening, Jan. 16. Tea served from 6 to 8 after which a good program will be rendered. By J. A. McD.

move making as good a use of the good roads as possible by way of hauling logs and other stuff. This Saturday night, 10th January, is somewhat frosty and makes us keep nearer the stoves than on previous nights, but the stoves themselves would only make us feel cooler if there was no fuel to make them red hot, but fortunately this winter so far, gives everybody that has woods of their own, great opportunity to prepare for future coldness which we may expect before February is out. The fine moonlight nights are a great source of affording much pleasure to the youth to go to see their neighbors and spend a while of the night in chat and music and such like while the older ones most content themselves by sitting quietly in the house reading the Globe, Daily Star, Review or Chronicle, till they begin to fall asleep and then dreaming that the fireplace needs replenishing they awake suddenly, finding themselves as if the thermometer took a sudden fall down to zero and giving a look at the faithful clock it tells that its time to go to bed. But often its the case where the demands of the old clock are disobeyed as probably there are a lot of papers to read, etc. We watch the daily papers concerning the premier's serious illness but as death has no respect to the premier than it had to Dr. Lane's dear little boy of this place who was called away suddenly the former part of last week, we feel that the uncertainty of life is applicable to the venerable premier who has served his country in high estate for a long period of years. But while there is life there is hope, so we hope the old premier may yet recover so as to be able to be at the opening of parliament. But we go back again referring to the death of Dr. Lane's little one who was a favorite child to everyone old or young and while the parents or friends wept, if it were possible for that dear little one to speak, he would say "Weep not for me dear mama and papa, I am not dead but sleeping in this beautiful little casket and new I occupy the highest seat in the home of many mansions."

The funeral of the late Neil Cameron was largely attended on Tuesday, the 6th inst. to Swinton Park cemetery. Rev. Mr. Matheson in his usual manner feelingly preached a fine sermon suitable for the occasion. As we referred to his death in last week's paper we will say no more as likely some correspondence will be giving a larger obituary than we can from that part of the country. Arch. McDonald who spent the last seven years in the west arrived home to his mother's, South Line, Glenelg, on New Year's day. He intends to stay till spring. Mrs. McCormick of Bentinck is at present visiting her daughters Mrs. H. McEachern and Mrs. H. McPail of the S. Line, Glenelg. Rev. Dr. McGillivray of Bonar Church Toronto, will preach in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday evening, 18th inst. It is 38 years since Mr. McGillivray preached as a student for the summer season in the old kirk that stood at the corner of the old graveyard and very few will find filing their places in the church of those who were getting on the decline then. The annual meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held in the church on Wednesday the 21st at the usual hour in the afternoon. Quite a time at the box social last night in connection with the Foresters Society in this town. Willie McLeod Jr. presented himself with a swell new cutter as a Xmas box. Neil McConnell and Arch McDonald took two large loads of hay from the former's brother in law, Mr. Neil McMillan of Swinton Park, one day last week to Mr. McConnell's stables on Lambton St., Durham. All the schools have commenced again during the past week. Mr. McDonald takes charge of No. 1, Glenelg again; Miss Ellis McKinnon, daughter of N. McKinnon, this town, went to Woodbridge in the old township of Vaughan, taking a branch of the school there where four teachers are engaged. Miss McKinnon is a young lady who is highly capable of fulfilling her duties in the profession she preferred for her future occupation. We join in wishing her success.
