

PRICEVILLE A N D VICINITY

AROUND THE VILLAGE

The Shredded Wheat Banquet, which was held in Watson's hall last Friday evening, was an unqualified success. The banquet hall and the church where the program was given, were packed. The program was ably rendered by a number of varied artists and all went home at a late hour, but well satisfied with the time spent. Rev. Mr. Leece and his assistants spared no pains to make the occasion as pleasant as possible.

pleased to meet him again, he being a student here thirty-eight years ago.

Mr. Jack McDonald, of Durham, is relieving Mr. Burgess at the station, the latter being slightly indisposed and has gone to his home in Toronto.

It is very gratifying to notice the humane interest taken in the unemployed and destitute in the cities.

Mrs. John McArthur (Isabella Black) passed away at her home in the Glen last Thursday. She will be greatly missed where she has been so long known, being one of the early pioneers. The funeral took place on Monday to Priceville cemetery and was attended by a large concourse of people.

Mrs. W. Sackett is in Toronto at present.

Mr. Malcolm McLean left last week for Sault Ste Marie, where he intends to stay for a while.

Messrs. Hornum McLean and John Sothart shipped a carload of cattle to the city on Monday.

OUTSIDE PRICEVILLE

The thermometer took a wild change the beginning of last week and went down near the bottom but we are having it milder again this week.

On Tuesday evening, the 13th inst., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mather entertained some 35 or 40 of their friends and neighbors, when all enjoyed themselves well till the small hours of the morning. Coming back they enjoyed the mercury at 20 below zero.

Mr. D. McDonald's (teacher) faithful old horse "Ban" thought the winter was getting too cold for him so he departed after serving faithfully for 30 years. Mr. McDonald had him for 18 years and very few of his age could pass him then while on duty.

Mrs. D. Campbell came back after spending a month visiting her aunts in the States.

Mrs. Hepburn of Durham visited friends in Glenelg for a few days last week attending church on Sunday.

The Misses McEachern of Toronto are sending a will at their father's Alex McEachern of Top Cliff.

Sandy night the 13th inst. Rev. Dr. McGillivray of Toronto preached to a crowded house in the Presbyterian church in Priceville. Mr. McGillivray's discourse was delivered with much earnestness of speech. In his preliminary remarks he made references to the many changes that intervened between now and 38 and 39 years ago when he preached as a student in the old church that stood at the graveyard. In casting a look around the large audience before him very few could he find of those who were then in the prime of life. Although Mr. McGillivray has passed the three score year he looks young for that age.

The funeral of the late Mrs. McDonald which took place on the 14th inst. from her son-in-law's residence, Mr. Alex. McDonald, was fairly well attended considering the very bitter weather. Rev. Mr. Matheson officiated.

This Monday afternoon, the 19th May, the remains of Isabella Black, beloved wife of Mr. Jno. McArthur of the Glen, Glenelg, will be laid to rest in Priceville cemetery. Mrs. McArthur was amongst the pioneers on the Durham Rd, coming there when a little girl sixty three years ago. A couple of months ago Mr. and Mrs. McArthur celebrated their golden wedding and now a faithful wife and mother are to be laid in the silent tomb this afternoon. Mrs. McArthur was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church and while she was able to attend, her seat was seldom vacant. Her sickness was of short duration, one week from the effects of a chill which developed into other ailments. She was about 70 years of age.

Later—we attended the funeral of the above lady this afternoon and was one of the largest seen coming up the Durham Rd for a long time. Friends from near and far felt it their duty to pay a last tribute of respect to a kind and respected lady. Personally we've experienced the hospitality of the departed lady when often duty demanded us to call at her comfortable residence. As the shades of night would be approaching we would be kindly taken care of till the following morning. Rev. Mr. Matheson, her pastor, preached a fine sermon very suitable for the occasion. The remains were laid to rest in the old graveyard in Priceville where the deceased's father, mother, sister and son were laid to rest some 55, 50, 45 and 25 years ago and now another is added to the number. The pall bearers were her sons and nephews. Mr. Kress of Durham was undertaker. To the lonely husband and family we vouch to extend the condolence of all who formed their acquaintance in this sad hour of tribulation.

HOPEVILLE

In addition to what appeared in the Review last week, we herewith give a few details of the accident which caused the death of one of our highly esteemed young men, Robt. Dingwall, who was killed by a falling tree in his own bush on Tuesday Jan. 13, 1914, at 4.30 p. m.

He had been preparing to renovate his barn this coming summer and as your cor. has been informed he, accompanied by Mr. Dan Wideman, were felling the last tree they required for the job. The tree fell across a small tree which caused it to swing sideways pinning Robt. underneath its weight and causing the above results. Dan, being unable to release him, had to chop the tree off him. It was a trying experience, one he won't forget for some time. The Dr. was summoned immediately, but pronounced death instantaneous. The funeral on Friday was one of the largest ever seen in this vicinity, the services being held in Bethany Chapel, conducted by Rev. L. D. Huxtable. After the service the cortege proceeded to Salem cemetery, where the last due respects were shown the departed brother.

We, as a community, extend our deepest sympathy to his relatives and friends, who are left to mourn his loss.

To-day, Monday, Institute day, we are delighted to see the interest taken in this noble work.

Miss Bertha Allen, of your town, is visiting friends here.

Born—Sunday, Jan. 18th, to Mr and Mrs Will Dingwall, a son.

SAUGEEN VALLEY

Mr and Mrs Wm. Beaton visited at Mr John Beaton's on Sunday.

Miss Annie MacGillivray spent a few days with her cousin, Mrs Rob Wells, of Allan Park.

Mrs Davie, of Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs Thos. Davis.

Mr Douglas McNab succeeded in catching a live fox the other day.

Messrs Rob and Bert Whitmore are home from the West. They look as though the West agreed with them.

Mr James MacGillivray had a large pile of wood cut last week.

Mr Wm. MacFarlane is hauling logs from Mr D. MacArthur's bush.

Mr J. P. MacGillivray is getting the lumber home for his new house.

Mr John Kennedy is employed with Mr Wm. MacFarlane.
