LOCAL AND PERSONAL Mr and Mrs Woodyard have moved into the house vacated by Mrs Warling. Dr. E. E. Kells, a former Holstein school teacher and Miss Kells are visiting among many friends in this part. Mr and Mrs Robt Adams of Regina who arrived from the West here a few weeks ago and since that time have been in Durham and vicinity, are guests of Mrs Hostetter. Mrs Warling's sale on Thursday was not so successful as many in this part have been. Mrs Warling, her children, Maude, Bert and Mary left on Tuesday for Moose Jaw to join Mr Warling who has a position with Jas. Allan there. At the meeting of the Women's Institute last week, the ladies decided to hold a concert in the near future. With the proceeds it is their intention to purchase seats for the Park, which is a 2 story brick dwelling, which all enjoyed the nice tea supplied by the ladies. As an evidence of women's rights, Mrs J. C. Fairbairn was elected Auditor for the congregation. Three hale and hearty octogenarians voted at last Municipal Election at Polling Booth No. 4. What do the young men who stayed at home think of themselves in the face of the pluck of the aged? Master Arch. L. K. McInnes had his right leg broken and dislocated at the ankle joint last Saturday evening. Dr. T. H. Sneath is in attendance. He was on horseback and the horse stumbled and both fell, with the above result. A long holiday now for him.
