The telephone men installed a phone at the rectory this week. The Ladies' Guild of Trinity church are instrumental for having this convenience added.

The A. Y. P. A. of Trinity Church will hold an entertainment in the basement of the church next Monday evening. Mr. Charles, of Toronto, who has won a reputation for public entertaining will furnish the program. All are cordially invited. Admission 10c.

Chatsworth News says: While eating oysters on Tuesday evening, Mr. Frank Maher, of the Campbell House, was the lucky holder of four pearls in one oyster. After seeking information it was found that they are worth about $20.00 each.

IMPROVING.—Latest bulletins from the bedside of Sir James Whitney would indicate that he is almost out of danger. He is eating and sleeping better and will be moved to his own home soon. It is not likely he will appear in parliament this season.

KILLED BY FALLING LIMB.—Robert Brown, a young unmarried farmer living near Fiesherston, was struck on the head by a falling limb either on Thursday or Friday last, while working in the bush and died a few minutes later. He lived with an unmarried brother and sister and was a brother of Mr. Fred Brown, councillor of Arden township.

The Durham Branch Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. J. McGowan on Thurs. Feb. 5, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. T. McComb will speak on the "Best Methods of Preparing Fish" and Mr. C. Ramage "Biographical Sketches of Great Canadians." Question Drawer. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

BUSY SEEDING.—So says Peter McKechnie, formerly of Priceville neighborhood, but this forward condition is explained by his address "California." "Some are done, some cutting alfalfa hay, some picking oranges and lemons which are a fine crop. The REVIEW is a welcome visitor 52 times a year and though 17 years since I left Glenelg, we still enjoy reading it. We enjoyed the editor's western letters, especially of Calgary." Mr. McKechnie with his renewal sends also a sub. for his mother. Thanks for both.

The Presbyterian Sunday School gave their annual concert for the children on Friday evening last in the basement of the church and was a great success. The program contained a cantata, recitations, drills, songs and choruses, ranging from the sublime to the ridiculous. Popular numbers were the duets by the Buschlen twins of "Will ye no come back again" and "There's nae luck about the House" a good Scotch vernacular. Mr. Allan Supt., was chairman and votes of thanks were given at close to Mrs. Dr. J. F. Grant and Miss Lyla Kelsey for their trouble in training the pupils.

LACKS IRISHMEN.—Writing from Paisley on 22 Jan., Mr. Chas. McDonald sends kind words for the REVIEW along with his subscription and gives some interesting items of our sister county's progress. Weather conditions have been like ours and wood and logs more plentiful than usual owing to high winds last spring, this causing a lowering of prices, but farmers on the whole seem to be well treated, there being good markets for almost everything a farmer has to dispose of. Cattle fit for shipping bring 8c, while horses and hogs also bring high prices. Everybody seems to have plenty of feed and a little to spare. The Rural Mail is giving great satisfaction and real estate seems to be brisk. The prosperity, hospitality and general atmosphere of this township one would think Bruce was a piece of land taken from the greenest corner of Ireland, lacking only Irishmen, for the county is largely made up of McLean's, McGilivray's and McDonald's.

Double Horse timber sleigh and woodrack for sale at $5. Apply to MILES WILSON, Lower Town.

Regular meeting of Ben Nevis Camp falls on Friday, 6th February. A full attendance of all members within reach is requested.

If you need feed, call at Ostrin's Mill and see sample of Ground Wheat and Flax they are offering at $25.00 per ton.

At the present Sunday School examination held by the Anglican S. S. throughout the County of Grey, the bronze medal was won by Miss Vera Merriam, of Chatsworth. We do not know what percentage of the marks was taken by her, but think Miss Doris McAuley, of Trinity S. S., Durham, was a close competitor, as she took 88 per cent on Scripture and 80 per cent on Prayer Book.

In renewing his sub. for the Review, Mr. E. W. Hunt, of Saskatchewan, Glenelg's former reeve, says in his letter dated Jan. 17: "We are having a beautiful winter, scarcely enough snow for sleighing. We are taking the cutter to town (McGee, Sask.) this afternoon for the first time. It is a beautiful sunny day and quite warm. We were quite pleased with 'P. R.'s' letters in the Review."

Bentick Council has a cash balance of $10,580 to start business on for 1914. If such a thing happened in a town or village the members of the new council would hardly know how to proceed, being accustomed to borrowing at the first meeting. While it is a well understood principle of political economy that no more taxes should be raised in a year than are actually needed to meet the year's expenditure, still a neat surplus is a mighty convenient thing.—Enterprise.

CLERKS 4, HIGH SCHOOL 2.—A bunch of lads of Durham's rising generation chased the puck last Thursday night and dished up an interesting game from an unlooker's standpoint, as any seen here this winter. The Clerks, minus the Saunders boys and Cam. McLachlan, were up against a High School team, reinforced by W. McGirr and managed to double the score, though at half time it was a 1-1 tie. It was the first game the High School boys ever participated in, nevertheless they kept the play even and tore off some neat team work at times. The Clerks were a somewhat heavier team and clinched the game near the start of the second half, when they scored three in succession. Fred Laidlaw was perhaps the most effective lad on the ice, while Frank Morlock, the smallest player, pulled off the star play when he went up from centre ice in the last half and dodging three, scored the final goal, Bob Saunders jugged the ball and kept both teams playing hockey. Clerks—goal, V. Elving; point, M. Moorby; cover, Johnstone Allen; rover, Harry Vollet; centre, George Kress; right, Earl McDonald; left, Jno. Mellraith. High School—goal, Ian Campbell; point, Vyvan Harvey; cover—Frank Mellraith; rover, Fred Laidlaw; centre—W. McGirr; right, Frank Morlock; left, Victor Catton.

Enter Store and Steal Whiskey. Light fingered gents made their presence known in MacFarlane & Co's drug store last Friday night when they entered the building and stole some whiskey. Entrance was successfully made through a window on Mill street where the glass was broken and the frame later removed. A keg containing a small quantity of liquor, kept for medical purposes, was taken as also a few boxes of chocolates, of which the contents were eaten and the boxes left on the floor. Nothing else has been missed.

This is not the first occasion this year where the light fingered gentry have taken chances of the law. A week or so ago, a farmer living near town had his hen house entered and the roosts robbed of half of their birds. About the beginning of the month a south end resident of the town had placed a new parlor stove into a house where he intended to move. Two days later when transferring his household effects to his new abode, he discovered that the heater had mysteriously disappeared.

Warden Elected. Mr. Wm. Breese, Reeve of Chatsworth, was elected Warden of Grey County by seven majority over Mr. Wm. Calder. The election took place on Wednesday.

Obituary. WALTER DUNN To those who had seen the above announcement of his death last Thursday came as a great surprise. Though he has been unwell for some time, only on Wednesday he took to bed and next day passed away, some kind of heart trouble being the cause.

Mr. Dunn was born in Devonshire, England, in 1830 and as a young man of 18 came to Canada, and lived in Darlington, Durham Co., for some years. About 25 years ago he bought the well-known "Wakefield farm" a little south of Varney, and during his stay there he and his family approved themselves a good and kind neighbor and the same remark applies to Durham, where they came about 6 years ago.

Deceased in 1877 was married to Miss Elsie Ross of Essex. Whitney and their four daughters remain to comfort their mother in her widowhood while all mourn the departed, who though quiet and unassuming was possessed of deep tenderness as husband and father. Three years ago, the family suffered a severe blow in the death of the only son and brother John. The daughters are Alice, Mrs. Wm. Farnell, Toronto; Mabel, Mrs. Pinkerton, of Toronto; Gladys, Mrs. Murray, Ethel, Ont.; and Agnes at home. All were home for the funeral on Sunday last, Rev. Mr. Grant, supplying the Presbyterian pulpit for the day, conducting appropriate services. Interment took place to Maplewood cemetery.

A sister-in-law, Mrs. Hugh Ross and son Arthur, Columbus, Ont. Co., were present at the funeral, as were also Miss Janet Ross, Port Granby, a daughter of Mrs. Ross, and Mrs. S. MacLachlan, also of Columbus.

The pall bearers were the three sons-in-law, Messrs. Farnell, Pinkerton and Murray and Messrs. Wm. Grant, J. J. Wilson and Wm. Linder from the neighborhood of the old Egremont home.

Letter to the Editor

We noticed an article in the Chronicle of last week's issue, where the reporter criticised the Walkerton-Durham game played in Durham Thursday night, Jan. 15, which was a very victory for the Durham team and we were found by the Walkerton team to be good sports. No doubt there were openings for more brilliant plays by us, but being badly out of condition, we no doubt showed our lack of practice. We give any reporter credit for upholding his own team in any matter but the newsy who knocks and an outside team at that, shows himself up as a sore head, or a mighty poor sport of the cheapest kind.

Jim McLachlan did give good satisfaction we know. Well, tripping is an offence and subjects the offender to the penalty bench. Funny only a few Walkerton players were off and one more than one. Does the newspaper's story hold out well? We should think not. According to his view of the game, one wouldn't be surprised to see his office filled with money because of his business interests. People, with the high cost of living to-day, can't man expect anything more than a necktie from his wife at Christmas? If so, who should worry? Judge from the Chronicle write-up, because we are all single and well do we know how hard it is to keep an injured gaffer from blowing off.

We regret that some of our mails are a day late this week owing to a provoking mistake of some kind of the railway. Supply reached us only Thursday forenoon, usually comes Tuesday.

Business Men's Opinions on Local Option

Two "Wets" in Durham

The Pioneer lately sent out circulars to the business men in thirty towns in the province in which Local Option is in force asking statement as to their experience of the effect of Local Option upon business, credit, collections and efficiency of employees; also asking for a definite statement as to whether experience would lead to preference for a wet or dry town as a place to do business in.

The circular was sent to all the men of sufficient extent to be rated in Bradstreet's Commercial List and replies have been received from 396 of these men and of that number 337 unhesitatingly express their preference for Local Option as against license, 337 to 59 or almost 6 to 1.

These men were not selected as friends of the temperance cause; could not be, but simply men who had experience of both systems. From Durham 11 replies were received and of these 9 are in favor of doing business in a dry town, 2 favor a wet one.

Out of 33 newspapers in local option towns 28 were strongly in favor, 3 expressed disapproval and 2 non-committal.

45 out of 47 heads of Local Option towns and villages (mayors or reeves) definitely contradict the misrepresentation that Local Option has been a disadvantage to the community in which they live.

All this is overwhelming testimony to the value of Local Option and when it is added the fact that not a single attempt to repeal the law was successful, the case is stronger still. The traffic is a blight that modern enlightenment is removing.

DIED

McCALLEN.—At Long Beach, Cal., on Jan. 11th, 1914, Annie Lawson, beloved wife of D. McCallum, Wheatland, Wyoming, aged 71 years. Interment took place at Wheatland Jan. 19th.

WINTER TERM FROM JAN. 5

Young men and young women, are you aware that there is a better position in the world for you? There is. Be determined to get it. Once you have come to this decision you must think of preparation. If you desire to enter business life you must have a business training. THOROUGHNESS is the watchword of the Rev. Mr Grant, of Clinton, had charge of the services in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday. Mrs Grant accompanied him and they were guests at Mr R. MacFarlane's. The two ladies were school mates in Nova Scotia in former days.

Mrs Dan McAuliffe and her sister, Mrs John Henry, of Shallow Lake, spent over Sunday with Mount Forest friends.

Canada Cement closes four Plants

Under the above heading the Globe of Tuesday has the following despatch from Montreal:

The Canada Cement Company announced to-day that it would close down four of its plants, Lakelield, Marlbank and Shallow Lake in Ontario and Calgary, Alta.

The general slackening up of building and other construction work is given as the cause of the closing, which may remain effective until the end of the present year.

Several cement companies have already gone under in the present stress of the company to-day, and it was impossible for the Cement Company longer to keep in operation mills which were running at a loss. No further shipments of empty bags will be taken at the Ontario mills after February 1st.
