

PRICEVILLE A N D VICINITY

Many people are anxious at this season to know the Best Exterminator for Vermin and Disease Germs in stables, poultry houses, etc., that will cost but a few cents.

Here it is: Equal parts of Corrosive Sublimite and Sodium Chloride dissolved in one gallon of hot water. When dissolved add water to make 25 gallons. Spray every nook and crevice well; leave for two days then give a thorough coat of whitewash.

The correct proportions will gladly be supplied by calling at

AROUND THE VILLAGE

Misses Caswell and McAniff, of Durham, spent a short time with friends in town on Thursday.

Misses Christina McDonald and Sadie McEchern, accompanied by Arch. E. McDonald, left on Monday to spend a few days in Woodbridge.

Frank Reiley had a wood bee last week and got a large quantity of wood cut.

Mr Peter McIntyre is at home at present.

Miss Flossie McVicar, of Pomona, is attending school here now.

Mr Burgess, our station agent, has returned from his vacation in Toronto.

Quite a number of people from adjoining towns attended the young people's assembly in Watson's Hall on Friday evening last.

Misses Annie and Sadie McDonald, of Durham, paid a flying visit with friends here.

Mr A. McCabe passed through here on his way to Durham last week.

Mr Will Hunter and Miss Effie, of Durham, visited the week end with friends.

Nine of the young people from this vicinity spent a pleasant evening last Thursday at Mr Wm. Mountain's, south of Durham.

OUTSIDE OF PRICEVILLE

The blacksmiths are busy at their harvest since the roads became icy. On Friday loads of timber could be seen left alongside the roadway on account of drivers thinking they could make their horses go slippery shod.

One fellow got turned over the bank turning into town and left sleigh and load there as a warning to others not to attempt to go up slippery shod.

Last Thursday night was a blower and would take a good sound sleeper from being a somnambulist.

We were reading Peter McKee's notes from California and it makes us feel that in this part of the world we are only as it were living in Greenland. Peter was a correspondent to the Review as far back as 20 years ago, taking it in turns from Priceville.

Ex-Reeve Hunt, late of Glenelg, is seemingly enjoying the prairies of the West but not having any snow there till a week ago. Mr Hunt experienced lots of snow during his career in Glenelg.

We didn't hear Charlie McDonald say that no Irish need apply as resident of the township of Bruce. One thing sure Charlie is not an Irishman anyway, for when he shoulders his old bagpipes, playing Pibroch Duonall, it puts all doubts aside that he isn't a thorough Highlander. Take up the south line north of Priceville and we may say that it is chiefly composed of McLeans, McMillans and McDonalds and a few McKinnons. Gael galore.

The Rev. Mr Matheson and Mr Neil McKinnon accompanied Dr Lane's little one's funeral to Port Elgin—the former was the guest of Mr Alex McCannell, uncle of Messrs Neil McCannell, of Durham and Arch. McCannell, of Top Cliff, during his stay there and was pleasantly entertained. Mr McCannell attended school in the old schoolhouse on McDonald's place, D. Road, Glenelg, which was put out of business over 45 years ago, when a young man. Mr McKinnon was kind-entertained by his cousin, Mr McDonald, of that town.

The other day we were set at liberty to use Dr. Lane's phone. The doctor is in no way a gruder in letting those needing the use of the phone have the same with freedom.

Joe Black, the popular hotel-keeper in town, is always obliging and deserves the patronage of the travelling community. Joe has a big pile of wood outside and no one need go away cold, after sitting beside his comfortable stove in his sitting room.

Henry Hooper of Top Cliff, sold a steer to our general buyers at this place which netted him the sum of $116.00. So it pays to raise good steers.

We saw a man disc harrowing the other day, but it was the snowdrifts in his lane to the road.

The two great leaders of our dominion and local parliament are lying opposite one another in the General Hospital. It's natural for them to be in opposition, but we hope both will be able to be up and doing soon again.

Reese Nichol, of Glenelg, spent last week at the County Council at Owen Sound.

Mr David Hineck and family are enjoying the comforts of their new brick residence, which was built during summer and fall.

We are afraid we will be trespassing on the grounds of the young and obliging lady correspondent from town. She deserves credit for the manner she collects items for the press week after week.

The Presbyterian congregation in this town is in good standing as was shown at the annual meeting held lately. It will soon be sixteen years since the present pastor, Rev. Mr Matheson, was inducted as minister of this charge and during that time he saw many old and young, to his sorrow, laid in their resting places in the different graveyards in this locality. Mr Matheson's charge is 18 miles from one end to the other.

This Saturday, 31st January, the east wind blew with terrific force accompanied by hail, which may end in rain before long.

We saw Mr Alex McCabe, of Toronto, a former citizen of Priceville some 25 or 30 years ago. Mr McCabe is not getting by his looks a bit old, although he cannot be classified with the young men now.

Mrs Donald Campbell, north line, was appointed delegate to the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., to be held in Toronto in March. Mrs Campbell was Master Worker the past year.

Arch. D. McKinnon is alternator in case Mrs Campbell cannot attend.

We notice that Durham lost the Wardenship again this year. It should be Durham's turn. The late George Jackson was Warden 40 years ago, but was Reeve of Bentinck then.

Some of our timbermen are thinking of taking their logs to Markdale. The buyers there are paying some $4.00 a thousand more on first-class than they are in this town.

Our obliging mail deliverers are making their trips in good time, let it be snow, rain or sunshine.

An old Scotchman who was taking part in a devotional service somewhat forgot himself by the length of his prayers and finally he said "what more shall we say," but another old Scotchman sitting down in the audience, said "Amen and quit" so we say Amen or agus mar sin biodh.

SWINTON PARK

Thursday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McNalty, was the scene of a happy gathering when friends and neighbors met to bid farewell to Mr and Mrs Neil Campbell. They were presented with an address also a purse of money as a token of the good will of their friends. Mr. and Mrs Campbell left for their home in Alberta on Friday last where they carry with them the good wishes of a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. McPherson of Cedarville spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs. Neil McLeod.

Miss Ruth Stewart, Durham, spent the week end at her home here.

Mrs G. Blair of Glenelg is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Froom.

Mr Wm Froom has disposed of his valuable timber limits to Mr. Harrison.

Mr. A. Robinson of Bethel visited at Mr R. J. Porter.

Miss Belle Hay spent a week with Varney friends.

Miss Sadie Herd returned from the Queen City on Saturday last.

Ms and Miss Brown of Howick, are the guests of Mr and Mrs Jno Aldcorn and family.

Mr R Ferris Sundayed with Proton friends.

Swinton Park was well represented at the Priceville Ball Friday night. A good time is reported.

Mr and Mrs W. G. Porter and Mr. and Mrs Walter Broughton Sundayed with Mrs. W J Wilson, Boothville.

Mrs. H. Lawrence returned to her home at Durham after spending a fortnight with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. McCormack.

Born—On Thursday, Jan 22 to Mr. and Mrs F. G. Ferris a son.

There still remain some venture-some youths in our burg. As an example we might mention one who is at present engaged in lion hunting. The query is, if he is successful in capturing the lion (lynx) will he join the large show or set up a little show of his own on the side line?

We sympathize greatly with the young man who after driving all the way to Hopeville met with such disappointment. Fortunately he found solace before the evening was out.

CAMPBELL-McNALLY

An interesting social event took place at the home of Mr and Mrs John McNalty, 16th con., Proton, when their daughter, Edith Mae, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr Neil E. Campbell, of Eastway, Alberta, formerly of Swinton Park. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father and the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Leece, B. A., of Priceville. Miss Florence Campbell, of Swinton Park, sister of the groom, played the wedding march. A large number of guests witnessed the happy event and after the usual congratulations all repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst set with pearls. The bride was charmingly attired in a dress of nylon and shadow lace and she carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. Among the guests from a distance were: Mr and Mrs W. C. Jones and baby; Miss Mamie McNalty; Mr and Mrs Campbell, Toronto, and Mr Kenneth Jones, of Moulton. The happy young couple intend leaving the latter part of this week for their home at Eastway, Alta., and they carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends.—Dundalk Herald.

HOPEVILLE

Fine weather again prevails after our January thaw, then our snow flurry of Saturday and Monday.

It is with regret that we have to report another death in the person of Mrs Jas McDonald of the 14th con. on Wednesday morning last after a long and severe illness. The funeral Friday to Swinton Park was largely attended considering the icy roads. Rev L. D. Huxtable officiated. The sorrowing family have our deepest sympathy.

Misses Annie Sturrock and Alice Campbell are visitors in our midst.

Miss Eva Dezell visited last week with Durham friends.

SAUGREEN VALLEY

Mr Will Nowell returned to his home in Alberta, after spending some weeks with his parents, Mr and Mrs Geo. Nowell.

Mr Thos. H. Binnie was in Owen Sound last week.

Mr Edgar Patterson, of Priceville, visited at Mr John Beaton's on Sunday.

Mrs Thos. McGrath, of town, spent a few days with her parents, Mr and Mrs Malcolm McMillan.
