

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS MAKE WOMEN WELL

Just because she is a woman, there are times when every woman needs help and strength in the form of a blood-building tonic.

To thousands of girls and women Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved a blessing, because they enrich the blood, give strength and restore tone to the aching nerves.

The anaemic girl who is languid and pale, the wife whose back feels like breaking; the matron whose health fails as she reaches middle age—for all such sufferers Dr.

Williams' Pink Pills are invaluable because ill health in woman is usually caused by poor blood or insufficient blood. These pills have cured thousands of others, why not you? Mrs. D. Morine, Wallbrook, N.S., says: "It is impossible for me to say too much in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have been a great sufferer from those troubles that make the life of so many women an almost constant misery. Pains in the back and side racked and tortured me. My nerves seemed to give out, and at times I could do no house work, and only women who have similarly suffered know what I endured. I tried medicine after medicine without any benefit, and was finally persuaded to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Soon after starting the pills

I found an improvement, and as I continued their use my health and strength returned, and I now feel as well as ever I did in my life, and am relating my experience merely in the hope that it may lead some other suffering woman to renewed health. I may add that my mother suffered from rheumatism so badly that she had to use a crutch, and

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills completely restored her to her usual good health.

Always get the genuine pills with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box. If your dealer does not keep them, buy them in a box or six boxes for $2.50, by writing The Dr. Williams'

Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BANDITS PREVENT WRECK.

When They Shoot Engineer of a

Mail Train.

How an attempt by bandits to rob a mail train on the Manchurian

Railway unwittingly averted a wreck is reported in a story from Porganhwaia, Russia.

A freight train was slowing up for a crossing when the people at the station noticed that the mail train was rapidly overtaking the freight train, the driver of the mail train apparently being unaware of the approaching wreck.

Vic, a mongrel terrier, was credited with saving the lives of many people at a crossing in a small town in Russia.

When Vic saw the approaching wreck he barked furiously and ran across the tracks.

He barked again and again until the engineer heard him.

The engineer stopped the train and the mail train was saved.

PAIX IN BACK ALL GONE

GIN PILLS COMPLETELY CURED.

Mr. B. C. David, of Cornwallis, N.S., says, "About a year ago, I was suffering so much with a dreadful lame back and hips, that I could not stand up straight. I was informed by a friend that a Dr. Ginn had a special remedy for such cases. It helped me immediately. I have taken about twelve boxes, and the pains in back and hips are all gone. I cannot speak too highly of your GIN PILLS." See, Box, 6 for $2.50. Same to you with National Druggist, a Chemical Co., Canada, Limited, Toronto.

FOOD RIOTS IN AUSTRIA.

Bakeries Raided and Bread Distributed to the Hungry.

A despatch to the London Daily Mail from Vienna says that food riots growing out of lack of employment have broken out in Austria.

The unemployed in Lemberg broke into the bakeries and afterwards held a demonstration in front of the Town Hall. On Thursday most of the bake shops were closed, but crowds invaded and looted them. Fighting between the rioters and the police assumed serious proportions. The correspondent says similar troubles are reported from Stanislau.

TO REPRESENT THE KING.

South Africans Would Welcome Prince Arthur of Connaught.

A despatch from London says:

Bloemfontein correspondent of the Daily Mail states the opinion is gaining ground that it is highly desirable that the King should be represented in South Africa by a member of the Royal House, as in the case of Canada. If Prince Arthur of Connaught should be appointed Viceroy, it is urged it would make a strong appeal to the imagination of both races and would be a great service to true imperialism.

Queen Mary's "Understudy."

The Queen, like the stars of a Theatre, has a regular understudy, an

"understudy" one who is, of course, a person of some importance, to replace the Queen if she cannot personally attend. The choice occasionally falls upon a lady in waiting, or a maid of honor.

But more usually if the Queen has to be represented it is by her own private sec-tary, or notebook. To show a notebook to the Queen is a social clubhouse, and the Queen's "understudy" cannot receive the same treatment as the Queen herself.
