From each shipment of wheat delivered at our mills we take a ten-pound sample. It is ground into flour. We bake bread from this flour. If this bread is high in quality and large in quantity we use the shipment of wheat from which it came. Otherwise, we sell it.

The baking quality of flour sold under this name is therefore an exact certainty. Buy and benefit!

OUTSIDE OF PRICEVILLE

March came in fierce, blowing a terrific gale on Monday the 2nd. If the old saying be correct that if March comes in like a lion, it will end like a lamb, we may look for a flock of young lambs by the 1st April. The lion is supposed to be the fiercest of all animals and the lamb the most harmless, so then it is said that the lions and the lambs shall feed together and a little boy and girl shall lead them both. Many a poor family have felt the fierceness of Sunday night's winds and if the wild storms of March 1st and 2nd are to be compared with the lion, so is the poverty of thousands of families to be compared with those who are so comfortably situated, as not to feel that the howling of March storms are raging outside their comfortable habitations.

The aged pioneers who have braved the many March storms and who can say that they have seen the storms of March twice forty times return, can in many instances say that man was made to mourn. The aged men or women who are for many years deprived of their natural sight and who are sitting by the stove side, can hear the winds whistling outside and some who are not so comfortably situated, can feel the bitter cold and may be shivering from the effects of the bitter elements outside their humble dwelling, they hear and feel, but cannot see the snow blowing in and thither forming high drifts along the lanes and highways. Oh! what would these poor unfortunate ones give if they only could see with the natural eye. True they can see with the eye of faith, yet they cannot help pondering over their unfortunate situation. This also shows the truthfulness of the poet "that man was made to mourn."

March brings sad memories to many who were deprived of their dearest friends some long years ago and some in years not far back. To those who have experienced over a score of years in loneliness, March comes in as a reminder of their unfortunate deprivation in that month.

YOUR BEST FRIEND

Then again March is a reminder to some of us that in the biggest half of it we landed into the cold and dreary world naked. Probably the elements were not so bitter then as they were during this Monday, the 2nd March, 1914. (We ask to be excused in giving the other date.)

A meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian church, Priceville, is held for Wednesday, March 11th, at 7:30 at night to take into consideration the fixing up of the sheds in better shape than they are at present. The managers thought it wise to consult the whole congregation before taking any action, thus the necessity of all that can come to be there and not fault finding afterwards. The repairs will probably cost some 400 or 500 dollars.

Mr. P. McArthur of Bruce attended church here on Sunday last accompanied by his cousin Mr. Dan McArthur of the Glen where he is visiting at present.

Ver. MacLure was called out of church on Sunday to attend to a sick horse belonging to F. McCusag. The horse got all right.

McLean and Stohart were to ship a carload of stock this Monday but on account of the storm will be delayed a few days. Hugh McPhail sold a fine horse at Market fair on Thursday of last week for $185. Came animal would have brought him $200 not many months ago.

The choir in the Presbyterian Ch. is ably led by Miss Conkey as organist who has vocal talent as well. The young ladies who always make it a point to be there are deserving of credit for their attendance while we do not at all ignore the young gentlemen who attend there also.

We extend congratulations to Miss Eva Pierson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pierson, of Egremont, and to Mr. John McEwen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger McEwen, of the south line, Glenelg, who joined hands in wedlock on Wednesday of last week by a Durham clergyman. We hope the young couple will fight life's battles till they become as old as Lord Strathcona and we join the many friends in wishing them much happiness during that long time together.

Dr. Lane was put out of bed at eleven o'clock Sunday night in a raging storm to attend a patient at Ceylon. He took Joe Black with him as guide.

GLENELG CENTRE

Miss Mary Anderson spent the week end at her friends Mrs. Peter O'Neill's.

Mr. Duncan Danbar and Irving Anderson Jr. spent a pleasant evening at Mr. Donald McMillan's, Scotchtown.

A sleighload of youth and beauty from Priceville spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McVicar.

Miss Effie Black of Priceville paid a flying visit to friends around the Centre and Pomona a day last week.

Mr. Dan and Irving Anderson and Mr. Andrew Meagher spent an afternoon at Mr. Dan McCormick's.

Miss Cassie Danbar spent Sunday afternoon with her friend, Katie McCormick.

Mr. Michael Burke is visiting friends and relatives in Paris at present.

Mr. Gordon Sackett, and Elmer Richardson have been seen driving around Scotchtown and the Centre recently. What the attraction boys?
