GREENSIDE

On Tuesday evening, March 31st, about 70 friends and neighbors of Mr and Mrs Jacob Halpeny Jr. met at their home to spend an evening and bid them farewell before they leave for the west where they will pursue their avocations.

Mr J M Findlay was chosen chairman and after a few well chosen remarks explaining their appearance here, called on Mr Gordon Geddes to read the address which is as follows:

To Mr and Mrs Jacob Halpeny Jr. Dear Friends and Neighbors: We, your friends and neighbors of this district in which you have lived so long and which you are about to leave, feel that we cannot permit you to depart without speaking this united word of affectionate farewell.

The years have quickly come and gone, gently leading us all forth from the golden days of childhood into the sterner days that beoken life's conflict to be closed at length during these years you have been our associates, friends and ideal neighbors.

We wish you every prosperity and blessing and ask you to accept this kitchen cabinet as an affectionate remembrance from the neighborhood that there are hearts in the old home land that will not forget you and often in your household duties it will catch your eye and you will unconsciously say Oh! yes this is from old Ontario where we have many friends who think of us and we think of them too.

With this we new say good wishing you every success in your western home. God be with you and dear friends till all our wanderings cease. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors.

John Scott, Gordon Geddes Mr and Mrs Halpeny replied very graciously and thanked all the visitors for their handsome gift and the kindness shown. Short speeches were also made by Messrs Geo. Lothian, Wm Brown, Wm Moore Wm Ramsage and others, all of whom expressed their regret at losing Mr and Mrs Halpeny from the neighborhood.

Mr John McBeth's photograph was very entertaining and won the praise of all.

After lunch was served the evening was spent in games, music and social chat and with the singing of Auld Lang Syne, a very pleasant evening came to an end.
