The Synod of Huron will meet next week at St. Paul's Cathedral, London.
Out. Rev. W. H. Hartley will leave on Monday p. m. to be present at the opening session and Mrs. Hartley will accompany him to visit friends in London.

Under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society, a Garden Party will be held on the Presbyterian Church grounds, Hampden, on Friday evening, June 19. Brief program.
Refreshments served free on the grounds. Admission 10c.

Some windows were broken in the basement of Trinity Church last week.
This is evidently the work of young boys who play about the church during the week. The officials of the church wish to warn such boys to keep off the church grounds. Those found injuring the property of the church will be severely dealt with in future.

PRACTICAL ARGUMENTS—Mr. Jao L. McKinnon, teacher, who for some time has been a student at Kingston, is now teaching in Sask., at Hazen-more, near the new C. P. R. line, Winnipeg to Lethbridge, via Weyburn. He says "This territory has only been homesteaded about four or five years and is rich especially in the yield of flax. Settlers here are pretty largely from Ontario—Grey, Kent, Middlesex, Leeds, Dufferin, etc. I find a pronounced feeling among the farmers in favor of reciprocity or at least larger markets. They have practical arguments that will not be decided and this sentiment seems to augur well for Laurier at the next election."

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS—The Managers of the Presbyterian church last week had a new cistern constructed near the outside west end of the church, to which will be attached inside a suitable pump and sink. The ladies of the church also last week had installed a new pulpit and settee of most modern construction and replaced the old carpet with a handsome new one of velvet pile. The communion on Sunday last was a record in attendance we are told. 314 having sat down to the observance, eighteen new members joining, seven by profession of faith. Pastor Whaley preached an impressive and searching sermon from the text "Do this in remembrance of me." Rev. Mr. Wylie, Baptist pastor, preached most acceptably the preparatory sermon on Friday evening previous.

METHODIST CHURCH CONCERT—Thursday night last a large crowd of music lovers wended their way to the Methodist church and we feel assured they returned home well pleased with the program presented. The assisting artist was Mr. E. A. Warren, tenor soloist in Walner Rd. Baptist Church, Toronto, and from his first number he thoroughly captivated the audience. His voice in some registers is as clear as a bell and at all times his articulation and expression were about flawless. His specialty is sacred music and in the more difficult as well as simpler numbers, he was equally enjoyable. Miss Rita Irwin, the talented organist of the church, gave two sets of organ numbers and her manipulation of the keys in these numbers gave evidence of her being mistress of her art. The choir was in good voice and in their anthems and carols showed what practice can accomplish in church lines. An unusual feature of the program was two instrumental duets of baritone horn and trombone by Messrs. Giles and Box, members of the band, and were a pleasing interlude to the singing. Misses Florence Barclay and Mabel Latimer each contributed solos and were heartily applauded. The proceeds which ran over $300 is to be devoted to clearing the debt on the new seats purchased for the choir.

Ramage for the Legislature and Miller for the Commons, is Choice of South Grey Liberals

Wednesday, 10th June.—The Town Hall to-day proved quite inadequate to hold the crowd of delegates and others who came to select candidates for Dominion and Provincial Houses.
It was enthusiastic to a degree. H. H.
Miller was nominated for the Commons amid the warmest manifestations and no thought of opposition.
C. Ramage, Neil McCannell, Geo.
Binnie, Dr. McEars, Jno. Boland, Wm. Calder, Walter Hastie, D.
Knechtel were proposed for the Legislator, but no ballot was necessary here either, all retiring in favor of Mr. Ramage, who formally accepted the nomination amid much applause.

Death of Archie Brown

One of the most esteemed citizens of Bentick Tp. was removed by death in the person of Archie Brown at his home on Con 8, on Sunday, June 7, at 4 p. m., at the age of 47 years. For some time he had been suffering with anemia, but was confined to his bed only a week and although receiving the best medical aid and tender nursing by his wife, he seemed unable to shake off the disease. The day of his death he seemed quite easy and fell into a calm and peaceful sleep in which condition he crossed the Great Divide. Truly we may exclaim, "Oh Death where is thy victory."

He was the third son of John and Margaret Brown and was born at his home, con 9, Bentick, in August 1866. When a young man he settled in Westhope, North Dakota, and in 1905 returned to Bentick and was married to Mary McDonald. Of this union 2 sons were born, John Dugald and Alexander Gladstone, who with their mother mourn the death of a loving husband and father.

The deceased also leaves to mourn his death, aged mother, 3 brothers, Hector in Sask, James in B. C., Sandy at home, one sister Kate also at home.

The deceased was a modest, conscientious member of the Presbyterian Church and a few days previous to his death told his pastor, Rev. A. Leslie, he was trusting in the faith of his Saviour.

The funeral was held from his late home on con 8, on Tuesday, June 9th to the Rocky Saugeen Cemetery, many friends and neighbors paying the last tribute of respect.

The pall bearers were all old time and intimate friends of the deceased: Wm Cook, Robt Twanley, Donald Livingstone, Alex Hobkirk, Don Mc-Donald, Arch McDougall.

The community extends heartfelt sympathy to wife and children, the aged mother and other relatives.

Death of Mrs. John Mitchell

Wednesday morning last, June 3rd, the above lady passed away after a long period of illness, resulting from cancer, and which she suffered severely at times, and was borne with Christian fortitude and patience.

In 1880 she was married to Mr. John Mitchell when about 20 years of age and with the exception of a short time while living at the Rocky, she resided continuously in Durham.

Of this union six children were born, one son and four daughters living, a son dying a number of years ago.

The eldest daughter Maggie, (Mrs. N.
McLean), resides at the Rocky, and was a tender nurse in her mother's time of sickness.

The deceased has been suffering for about two years and at times seemed greatly improved. But last winter a relapse came and she was taken to Toronto for treatment, but of no avail and the end ultimately came as above.

Mrs. Mitchell was an industrious woman and her character and disposition were such as to hand a loving memory on to her husband and children who are left to mourn her loss.

Interment took place Friday at Durham cemetery, Rev. Mr. Wylie of the Baptist church officiating at home and grave.

Provincial Elections, 1914

Rolling, Monday, 29th June.

To the Electors of South Grey:

Gentlemen,—I have been honored with the unanimous nomination of the Liberal Party of the Riding and am before you as a candidate in the election now pending.

It will be impossible for me in the few days at my disposal to visit every section, but a residence of many years in the Riding, and as publishing of the Durham Review, has made me fairly well known and I hope to become better known in this brief campaign. I ask the forbearance of all in unvisited parts, come to my meetings as announced when it will be my privilege to present to you the principles that will guide me as your representative, if elected, and discuss the issues of the day.

I am heartily in sympathy with the progressive policy presented by Opposition Leader Rowell especially with the measures he has striven to pass in Parliament dealing with the Liquor Traffic, Assessment Reform, votes for married women with property, and other measures designed to protect the young, raise the fallen and advance the moral interests of society. Church meetings and Christians of all denominations are practically a unit in supporting these measures and I ask you to crystallize this sentiment into votes on 29th June.

I shall endeavor to give true service to the best of my ability and respectfully ask your influence in the campaign and your vote on June 29th.

Yours for Service,
C. RAMAGE

Mid-Week Half Holiday

The business men of town have decided to close their places of business on Wednesday afternoons during July and August, and Thursday evening will be open night instead of Wednesday. The banks will no doubt shift their Friday half holiday to suit, but we see no chance of the printers being able to be off on their busiest day. Country friends and customers should note this change to avoid disappointment.

ter's hardware, and get what you want for 5, 10, 15 and 25 cents.

The Form II students of Durham High School are writing on Lower Entrance to Model examinations this week.

Rev. T. A. Rodger, Presbyterian Minister, Owen Sound, is the choice of North Grey Liberals to oppose Mr.
Cameron. In East Grey Mr. Lucas is being opposed by Mr. Alberty of Meaford.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 6 p. m. on Wednesday, June 10, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs J. W. Blyth, Varney, when their elder daughter Eva was united in hy-men's bonds to Mr. Cameron Lauder, Rev. S. M. Whaley tying the knot. We extend hearty congratulations and hope next week to give a more detailed account of the happy event.

More Ford Passengers—Smith Bros., local Ford agents, have recently sold three more Model T 5 passenger touring cars, the buyers being Dr.
Smith, of Dornoch, H. W. Hunt, of Vickers and R. E. English of Glascott.
Mr. Hunt is the first farmer in Durham neighborhood to break the ice in securing an auto, and now doubtless more will fall in line.

Tennis Club Organized—Along with bowling, lawn tennis will be a popular sport among young Durhamites this summer, a tennis club having been organized with a membership of about 50. A regular schedule of games will be played on six of the town lawns.

The officers are: President—Peter Ramage; Vice Pres.—A. W. H. Lauder; Secy.—Miss Margaret Hunter; Treas.—Sid. Ferguson; Committe-Miss M. Harris, Jim McLachlan.

The Variety Store will be for business Saturday, opposite Middaugh House. Watch for next week's ad.

Rev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, addressing the London Conference said: "The present political situation in Ontario is a crisis and the time has come when a man must shut his teeth and settle some questions with his God. We are citizens and have our convictions but the chief is for us to be men of intelligence and vote according to our convictions."

For participating in, or being present at the charivari at Mr. J. Pilkey's residence Tuesday of last week, about twenty boys and young men of the town received summonses to appear in court Monday night. Three or four of the number had evidence to prove their names were entered by mistake, not being present, while the remaining all settled privately either on Saturday or Monday by each paying $1.00 and costs, amounting to $3.50, which included damages. The two who appeared before Magistrate Telford Monday night were fined a similar amount on pleading guilty.
Mr. Telford characterized the window smashing, etc., as pure ruffianism, and intimated that could definite evidence be produced to prove who were the real offenders, no such light sentence would be meted them.
