

The womaned both have this write placemantly as Mer man day mar that is man for mer "ec has dou car ems ope bre tea wh and

Six hundred dollars is the price of the Ford runabout; the touring car is six fifty; the town car nine hundred—f.o.b. Ford, Ont., complete with equipment. Get catalog and particulars from C. SMITH & SONS, Local Agents.

HOLSTEIN LEADER

ORCHARD

It still continues very dry and warm weather.

Mrs Manser and son visited Saturday with her sister, Mrs Robertson.

Mrs Douglas has improved her barn by shingling it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bows from Kingardine are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. Ed. Hoy for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McLean and baby of town spent "Sunday at Mr. Hoy's."

A number of the young people took in the football match at Glendale on Friday evening.

Remember the Sunday School picnic on Friday June 26th. All welcome.

A number of the young people took in a party at Pike Lake recently.

SOUTH BEND

Succes, Mr. Ramage, May you head the poll at the election.

Mrs J. Orchard, of London, visited her niece, Mrs. J. Durant, for some days recently.

Dr. Ellis, of Holstein, is kept busy attending sick cattle at the Bend and elsewhere.

On Monday Dr. Jamieson, of Durham, shook hands with some of our citizens. Elections approaching you know.

Rev. Winfield Hunt, an old Bend boy, visited some of his friends here last week. He entered the ministry about two years ago, was stationed at Belwood, successfully passed his examinations and although requested to remain another year in his present position, was transferred by the Conference to a station near Brampton. Continued success.

On Monday Mr. J. W. Hunt of Holstein moved his cementing outfit from Arthur tp. where he built two houses and a barn to Mr. Orrie Hunt's.

Mr. Edwin Gardiner, we understand, has presented himself with an auto.

In the absence of a certain Mrs Raymond, four kids invaded her residence and carried off three of her babies and now what about a fox farm for the Bend?

The young people of Lester Breen have our thanks for an invitation to a picnic at Pike Lake. But alas, the entertainment was on the 11th inst., and we did not get the invitation until the 15th. Too bad.

The residence on the Model Farm was recently treated to a coat of paint and now, hats off, gentlemen, who passing.

Obituary.

Public Meetings

In the interest of Chas. Ramage, Liberal Candidate in South Grey, will be held in Holstein, Friday, June 19.

Nenagh, Saturday, June 20.

In addition to the candidate, Messrs W. G. Miller, Durham, A. W. Wright, Mt. Forest and others will address the meetings.

Everyone welcome.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Rev. Dr. Marsh was in Toronto last week on business.

Miss Ada Manary visited with friends in Harriston for a few days.

Mrs. W. J. Philp, Dromore and Mrs. J. D. Main were delegates to the Women's Missionary convention in Bradford last week.

Mr. W. D. Ferguson and two little sons are visiting with the doctor's relatives at Valetta, near Chatham.

Mrs. D. Jackson and sister, Mrs. Smith, of Durham, visited at C. McJones', Yeovil, last week.

The Calderwood garden party on Tuesday of last week was very successful. Besides the Holstein talent mentioned in last week's news who took part, there was Mrs Rogers, who gave a splendid Scotch reading. Proceeds were about $50.

Mr. George Collins, of Toronto, visited at his grandparents' Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunt, for a few days.

Messrs Robert and Wm. Aitken have installed the telephone into their homes during the past week.

We tender hearty congratulations to Mr. C. McInnes, magistrate of Yeovil, who on Sunday last celebrated his 70th birthday and to mark the event partook of a splendid birthday cake. May he spend many more years to the Premiership of this Province.

I cheerfully accord to the present Government its just need of praise—it did well for a time. I record in praise, but as a conscientious man, placing the economic, moral and social welfare of the people of this Province above mere party ascendancy, there is one thing for me to do, and that one thing I will do, and it must heartily—namely, to use such offices and influence as I have in securing the election of Mr. N. W. Rowell to the Premiership of this Province.

Rev. T. H. Abbott of Troy, near Brantford, will be the new Methodist minister in Holstein, successor to Rev. Mr. James. Last week, we estimated that Rev. Henderhot of Kenilworth, might be sent here, but this gentleman remains on his present charge. Mr. Abbott comes highly recommended and with Mrs Abbott will no doubt find a congenial home in Holstein. We have been told they have three or four children.

Mr. Martin Walsh, of Porecupine, but who has lately been in the west, arrived on Monday to visit for time with his wife and child at his father's D. W. Cameron.

Misses Edna Hunter and Elizabeth Brown left on Monday for Owen Sound, where they are delegates for the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church to the Provincial convention meeting in the county town this week.

Mr. John Manary's livery barn has been entirely rebuilt after the fire of last winter and last week he moved his horses and equipment to former premises.

We understand that Township treasurer J. R. Philp has rented his farm and has purchased the property of Mr. Wm. Orchard in the village. He will move here in the summer or early fall. The change will be of great benefit to him in administering official duties.

Messrs David Allan, Jr. and John Stevenson were in Owen Sound last week serving on the jury. They went up with Mr. and Mrs. John Orchard in their car.

Wedding bells are ringing merrily in the township to-day, Wednesday, when two nuptial events are being solemnized. Miss Belle McInnes, daughter of Magistrate McInnes, is electing Mr. Alex Munro, of Hamilton, as her life partner, while Mr. Milford Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar vows.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while some have already finished. Last week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy

Ross, entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance Scholars are writing this week. Irene Drumm, Viola Cameron and Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Dowling and Miss Babel Gillies are taking similar exams.

The stress of examination days is

now with many of our students while

some have already finished. Last

week, writing on the Lower School

Entrance to Normal exams were

Reta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week

Bert Eccles writes on the Upper

School Normal entrance and Percy