GUELPH MAN DROPS DEAD

Supporter of Sam Carter Succumbs to Heart Failure at News of Election of His Candidate - Evan-turel Is Returned in Prescott

Mr. Rowell Issues Statement to Temperance Forces.

TORONTO, June 30. — The vigor with which the election was fought throughout Ontario yesterday is attested by the fact that the vote was perhaps the heaviest ever polled in the province. From fragmentary reports now at hand records for high percentage of voters cast were made in nearly every riding.

Gustav Evan-turel, who appealed from the condemnation of the Legislature to his constituents, comes back. He headed the poll in Prescott, defeating both Liberal and Conservative candidates. Mr. Evan-turel's re-election came as a big surprise. He returns to the Legislature as an Independent.

In Toronto the poll was exceptionally large and the Tory metropolis reported what it has done for years—returned a complete Conservative slate. The new faces in the Legislature from Toronto will be Wm. H. Price (Parkdale), Joseph Russell (ex-M. P.) (Riverdale), Mark Irish (Toronto, N.E.), and Thomas Hook (Toronto, S.E.). All, both new and old members, had ample majorities.

Sir Adam Beck Breaks Record. LONDON, Ont., June 30. — Sir Adam Beck was accorded a record majority by the electors of London yesterday, defeating Dr. W. J. Stevenson, Liberal, by 1,496 votes. Sir Adam received 4,353 votes, Dr. Stevenson, 2,857, and John D. Jacobs, Labor candidate, the third man in the contest, 416. The Minister of Power was given an acclamation in 1911, while in 1908 his majority over J. M. McEvoy, K.C., Liberal, was 1,404. The total number of votes polled yesterday was 7,626. There were 12,950 names on the voters' lists.

Supporter Drops Dead. GUELPH, June 30. — The Liberal temperance workers of this city held a big celebration last night in honor of the election of Sam Carter. The majority was somewhere in the neighborhood of one hundred, probably a little less, which was somewhat of a surprise even to his most confident supporters.

John Black, an aged retired farmer, of Extra street, this city, could not stand the excitement and consequent fatigue of the elections. He was in Samuel Carter's committee rooms when it was announced that Mr. Carter was elected, and without a moment's warning he fell over on the floor and died. Death was due to heart failure.

Kingston Swept by Ross. KINGSTON, June 30. — Dr. A. E. Ross (Con.) defeated Ald. T. F. Harrison (Lib.) in yesterday's contest by a majority of 1,466. The majority was a great surprise to both sides. It was long it was believed Dr. Ross would have a majority of about 600, but not one of the supporters of Dr. Ross dreamed of such a majority. Ross polled a majority in every subdivision in the city and in the village of Portmouth as well.

Hamilton Backs Favorites. HAMILTON, June 30. — In the West riding, Col. Hendrie polled the biggest vote of his career, receiving a majority of 1,628 over Ald. Dr. Dwyer, who supported the Conservative candidate, which gives the Labor candidate a majority of 990, nearly 300 more than he had in the last election.

Close in North Oxford. WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 30. — N. W. Rogoll was yesterday re-elected in North Oxford, but his majority of 560 received in 1911 was reduced to 115. While the city gave R. E. Butler (Con.) a majority, the country vote was so overwhelming, giving the Liberal leader a lead in the riding.

Proudfoot Returned. GODERICH, June 30. — Centre Huron yesterday returned Wm. Proudfoot with a majority of 316, an increase of 100 over his last election, and had it not been for very inclement weather, which retarded the country vote, it is estimated his majority would have been at least 400. The urban vote was the largest polled for many years.

WHAT HE EXPECTED. Sir James Says Outcome Did Not Worry Him. TORONTO, June 30. — "Twas a glorious victory—just what I expected," was the brief comment of Sir James Whitney last night when asked for a statement for the press.

The Prime Minister left his office early in the afternoon and received the election results at his home by telephone. He followed the returns from each constituency with keen interest and occasional expressions of satisfaction, but manifested no concern at any time as to the outcome. During the latter part of the evening, when most of the returns were in, Sir James was literally deluged by telegrams of congratulation.

Beyond the brief expression quoted, however, Sir James declined to make any pronouncement last night. He retired early and will probably make a more extended statement today.

Walking into the waiting-room at Bonaventure Station at Montreal an unknown man shot himself in the head. Before dropping dead he replaced the weapon in his suitcase.

MARRIED. HARRISON-McCONEY—At the residence of the bride's mother, Priceville, June 24th, 1914, J. C. Harrison to Emma W. McConey, by Rev. J. A. Matheson, B. D.

HUDDY-BRENNAN—At the residence of Mr William Williamson, south line, Artemesia, by Rev. J. A. Matheson, on June 17th, 1914, Clara Huddy, of Artemesia, to Ellen Brennan, of Hastings County, Ont.
