A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr and Mrs Geo. Wideman, 12th con, on Wednesday, July 8th at 6 p. m. when their youngest daughter Bena and Mr. John M. Hockridge of Cedarville, were united in holy wedlock.

The bride leaving the house on the arm of her father, beautifully attired in white duchess satin trimmed with swansdown and pearls, wearing tulle veil and orange blossoms and carrying a sheaf of American beauty roses, took her place beside the groom beneath an arch of evergreens with white trimmings.

Rev Geo Waugh, Dundalk, performed the ceremony. Mrs Klein of Holstein very ably presided at the organ. After congratulations were offered, all repaired to a large tent on the lawn where a dainty repast was served, the bride's table being adorned with her cake and bouquet.

The young couple left Friday morning for Mt. Forest or Orillia to spend their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit and white shadow waist with hat to match. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Cedarville. The beautiful gifts received show the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

On Monday, 5th July, a small but pretty wedding was solemnized in Cleveland, Ohio, at the home of the bride's parents, when their daughter Florence was tied in nuptial bonds to Mr. E. A. Brooker, only son of W. E. and the late Mrs. Brooker, formerly of Durham. They were unattended and Rev Mr Shaw, the family pastor, officiated. The Price of Success

Big business is not an accident—it is a result. It is the fruit of purpose, energy, persistency and ADVERTISING.

You know the story of Rip Van Winkle—the man who went to sleep for 20 years and who, when he awoke, expected to find the world the same as it was when he entered slumberland.

There are men to-day very much like Rip Van Winkle—their point of view and their practices are those of a generation past. They do not believe in advertising.

To succeed in these modern days one must be in accord with the spirit of to-day. For a merchant this means that he must advertise, if he would prosper.

A NOTE TO THE PUBLIC Where are you served best and most pleasantly? The answer is almost sure to be—where we are invited and made welcome. At these shops which prize our custom enough to seek it and who ask for it every week through the medium of advertisements in the WEEKLY REVIEW.
