HOLSTEIN LEADER

GLENMONT NORTH EGREMONT

Miss Agnes McGirr visited the Weir and Dixon families last week.

Miss Susie Tucker has returned from attending the military openings in Toronto and it is expected that she will soon open a new millinery parlor in Holstein. Her sister Mary came home from the city on Monday for a visit.

Miss Isabella Weir, accompanied by her friend, Miss Millicent Coppenhurst of Toronto, spent a week at her home here.

We are pleased that Luella Ford is recovering from her serious illness.

A very successful Garden Party was held at Ebenezer Church Thursday, Aug. 6. After tea was served, an excellent program was rendered. Rev. J. A. Leese very ably occupied the chair. The following representing the home talent performed their several parts very acceptably: Gertrude Lawrence, Sarah Tucker, Reuben Watson, Eva and Flossie Hooper. Thos. Weir also sang and gave instrumental music, accompanied by Mrs. Bothwell. Besides these the Misses Henderson gave several fine songs. Miss Whittaker gave selections in reading and singing in an acceptable manner. Instrumental trios given by Mrs. G. Lawrence, Miss E. Morrison and Mr. Jas. Hargrave were appreciated. The receipts amounted to over $60.00, but the expenses were considerable.

Miss Viola Rennie goes to attend the Model at Hanover this week.

Sarah Tucker has returned from a visit to her uncles and cousins at Beech Hill Farm in Glenelg.

The Sacramental Services at Ebenezer on Sunday were not very well attended on account of the rain.

On Wednesday a large surprise party from Ebenezer congregation dropped in about 9 p. m. at the home of Mr. Gordon Geddes. Their object was to present his wife with an address and a beautiful mantle clock. W. L. Dixon was appointed to the chair. He explained that the cause of the invasion of their peaceful home was love and not war. Miss Bessie Weir was called on to read the address, after which Mr. and Mrs. Geddes each made a suitable reply. Mr. Jas. Geddes gave a short address of welcome to the party, after which the sentiments of all were applied expressed by a few, including Messrs W. R. Watson, P. A. Harrison, Thos. Weir, Thos. Hornsby and others who expressed good wishes for the young couple and emphasized the fact that the address which is given below is no formal document, as is sometimes the case on such occasions, but that it truly shows the admiration of all her associates for her sterling qualities. One speaker tried to console the company by saying that our loss is some one else's gain (Gordon's of course), but if Gordon can realize his gain as much as we realize our loss, he must be one of the happiest men in the world.

After the presentation, there were games and songs and instrumental music. Among those taking part were Mrs. Bothwell, sister of Mrs. Geddes, Thos. Bothwell, Jas. Hargrave, Thos. Weir, Agnes McGirr and Angus McDonald. After lunch the party sang "And Lang Syne" and dispersed to their homes in the pleasant moonlight. Everyone seemed happy and why not? The following is the address:

To Mrs. Bertha Geddes,
Lot 17, Con. 22, Egremont;
12 August, 1914.

Dear friend,—

A few weeks ago you changed your name from Miss Hooper to Mrs. Geddes.

We have met to-night to express to you our best wishes for your health, happiness and prosperity in your new home and we hope that your worthy partner in life will be similarly blessed.

We are just now beginning to realize how much we have lost by your departure from our Church, our Sunday School and Epworth League, where in all departments of the work you have taken a foremost part and given faithful and continuous service. Especially do we wish to express our appreciation of your work as organist in Church and Sunday School for several years and we ask that you will accept this clock as a mark of the respect and love, with which you have always been regarded in our community.

We are pleased that you are still to live not far away and that we may expect to have the pleasure of meeting you often in the public.

Signed on behalf of Ebenezer Church Sunday School and Epworth League:

Jane Dixon W. B. Sutton
Bessie Weir

Mr. Wm. Hunter Jr. recently made a purchase of 19 head of young cattle, the cost totalling nearly $1000.

Mrs. Pratt leaves this week for her home in Norfolk after a month's holiday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Hamilton at the Lake.

Messrs Wm. Hunter and Wm. Ramage brought home two loads of tile on Monday for the well at the Manse, on Monday from Mr. Whitmore of Durham.

Mr. Edgar Henry is home from Toronto for a lengthened visit to his parents.

Miss Jessie G. Gummel, 2nd class professional of Ayr, has been engaged as teacher in S. S. No. 13, Egremont, while Miss S. Fulton, Mt. Cook, takes No. 12.

Miss Viola Rennie left Monday for Model School at Hanover.

The congregation of Amos Church, Dromore, purpose installing a fine set of seven gasoline lights in the body and basement of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Small visited Bentinck relatives last week end.

Mrs. Gordon Geddes, nee Miss Bertha Hooper, was made the recipient of a fine present and many kind words recently. We offer hearty congratulations on the recognition of her fine public spirit. (See Glenmont correspondence.)

Miss Agnes Rouwick, the valued organist of Amos Church, Dromore, visited Springbank Farm, Mr. Wm. Ramage's, on Sunday last.

Miss Mary Tucker is home from Toronto.

The old folk's picnic at the Lake for 1914 was as usual thoroughly enjoyed. Strict censorship forbids us describing the exertions and the marvellous "turning movements" of the two fleets that scoured the lake and explored the islands of the marly deep. The casualties were few on the Lake but the attack by both fleets on the stores in the pine grove is reported to have been very successful.

A Contrast

Britain is at war and we find her engaged in touching earnestness thinking her colonies and every section of her people for loyal, hearty and generous support. Canada, New Zealand, Australia, S. Africa, Newfoundland, all lining up, Redmond and Carson joining hands, the Japs in B. C. wanting to form a regiment even the Hindus there want to take their share though only a few weeks ago their countrymen were turned Russia is at war and we find her placating the Poles within her borders by promises of more freedom, assuring the Jews of equal privileges with other citizens if they will only remain loyal, and no doubt in many ways keeping down the lid on internal rebellion.

Could there be a greater testimonial presented to the civilized world of the inherent value of the British system of government.

A Unique Session

No Society Functions.

The special session of Parliament opened on Tuesday at Ottawa under unique circumstances. No frills, no gold lace, but warlike khaki on the guards and earnest faces on the members. There was neither grit nor glory, only Canadians, anxious to give official sanction to urgent war measures already taken by the government and to devise new measures to aid the empire in the time of stress.

There was of course declaration of loyalty to the throne; promise of a war budget, reference to the sending of a contingent and steps taken to make the criminal code more effective in dealing with disloyal persons.

It is to be hoped whatever debate may ensue will be brief and free from partisanship. Such dignified action as will impress Germany, the British nation and the world of the virility of Canada as well as of her loyalty.

An American exchange tells of a novel church contribution box. It is the invention of an Oklahoma man. If a person drops a quarter or more there is a silence; if he drops a dime in a bell ring; if a nickel sounds a whistle, and a penny fires a blank cartridge. If one pretends to be asleep when the box is passed, it awakens him with a watchman's rattle and a kodak takes his picture.

Inspector Beckett was at Meaford Friday prosecuting a charge against the Reinhardt Brewing Co., of Toronto, of soliciting orders through an agent in a Local Option Municipality. Mr. John Binie, of Collingwood, appeared for the defendants, who were found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $250.00 and costs. The case arose out of the recent conviction of Mr. Gibbons who was held to have acted as an agent for the Company in Meaford.

Music and Horses.

The Musical Ride will be at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, again, of course. It is the biggest and best display of horsemanship on the continent. About 32 wonderful draughts, on their spirited horses, whirl through their many figures to the music of the band, are old favorites of "the regulars" at the Fair and a never-failing delight to new visitors.

To Subscribers in Arrears

We want all those who are in arrears for subscription to examine their labels and remit at once the amount necessary to bring the label up to end of 1914. We need ready money at present and must look to those who owe us. Please remit at once, obliging

Concentration

It is better to advertise intensively than extensively when the sum to be devoted to advertising is small. This means the regular use of the DURHAM REVIEW—52 messages a year addressed to the same constituency of readers.

Intermittent or divided effort is not likely to be resultful. One full-powered blow is better than two half blows.

Concentration of appeal will do a work of conviction and persuasion that will surprise you when the year's returns are totalled up.

A NOTE TO THE PUBLIC

There's a clever for you in this little homily to advertisers; it is: Reward with a full-not divided custom the merchant who steadfastly solicits your good-will. The more you strengthen the hands of the man who serves you, the better will be the service returned.
