NEW LEVER-GOVERNOR—A despatch from Ottawa states that Hon. G. S. Hendrie of Hamilton will be the first to occupy the new Government house. Sir James would rather retain the Premiership. Sir Adam Beck thinks too much of his Hydro-Electric program so Col. Hendrie, being wealthy and tired of politics fits in.

Mr. J. C. Telford, president of the Ophelus Male Chorus, Owen Sound's premier musical organization, has offered the services of the Chorus to any patriotic society for patriotic concerts without charge. The chorus has already taken part in several patriotic concerts and has splendid patriotic selections. The chorus has a membership of twenty and is under the leadership of Mr. Geo. Eberle.

After the rain on Thursday Sept. 3rd, 23 women gathered at the Women's Institute meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Beth, Varney. It was decided that 20 pairs of pillows and slips be made by the Institute and sent to the Red Cross Society. Mrs. Bag's paper on Bats was read by Mrs. Ramage, and was both interesting and instructive. The report of the Grey County Women's Institute convention which was held in Chatsworth, Aug. 29, was given by Miss M. J. McGirr and Mrs. Penfold. Four ladies from Durham drove in the Convention which will be held next year at Durham.

TORONTO'S BIG FAIR—In spite of the great distraction caused by the war, in spite of the hindrance of a late harvest, in spite of increased rates on railways the management of the "Biggest Annual Fair in the World" has come out with a surplus and tell of an attendance of nearly 800,000. Ye Editor last week had a good look at the Fair and was amongst the Labor Day crowd, when 135,000 passed through the turnstiles, some 16,000 less than same day last year. It was an orderly crowd and well handled, except by the street car company whose service was wretched in the afternoon. The exhibits in quantity were greater and in quality competent judges say equal to the best, but any novice with experience of former years, could feel the effect of the war cloud. It had been dubbed "Peace Year" and by a strange irony no year was ever so warlike. However the same is precious to this continent and will be something for unhappy Europe to aim at. The "Fall of Babylon" had little interest compared with the warmth of the patriotic band music and the revealing in turn of the flags of Belgium, France, Russia and Britain, all brought out in colored electric light bulbs. He would be dull indeed who was not moved by the mangled hands playing "Rule Britannia" and the subdued "Abide with me."

The Baptist congregation are holding their anniversary services and tea meeting on Sunday and Monday, Sept. 27th and 28th inst. Rev. Mr. Dingman of Mt. Forest will be the speaker for the occasion and Mrs. Dingman will sing at each service.

The entries for the Show and membership promise to be well up to the average but the Directors would gladly welcome any new members, and would ask that all entries from old and new members should be sent in as soon as possible. Large entries at John Snell's office, or send to Geo. Binnie, Secretary, at Durham P. Office.

GREAT SUCCESS.—The Patriotic Night in the Rink was a great success, about $100 being realized. The chair was occupied by Dr. Jameson, M. P., and addresses were given by Rev. Prudham, Hartley, Whaley and Willie, Messrs M. K. Richardson and C. Ramage. A recitation by E. D. McClocklin and musical contributions by G. McComb, J. H. Harding, A. Bell, W. Ramage and D. McDonald, Price-Bend and a male chorus of about 20, with quartette, also rendered good service. Miss M. Hunter was pianist.

No Half Holiday

Through no fault of ours the intimation in our last issue that the half holiday would be continued indefinitely has proved to be wrong. It was certainly decided upon but objections springing up among some of the merchants and the half holiday of July and August is not to be continued. Rifle practice for which the holiday was arranged is not yet possible owing to difficulty in securing rifles.

For open night, Thursday evening has been in force during the summer and since September set in according to by-law. Stores will be open this Thursday also that all may attend the patriotic concert Wednesday night. Knowing that some merchants wish to revert back to Wednesday as open night as formerly, the Review obtained the opinions of the merchants as to the most suitable evening, and of 20 merchants interviewed, 13 favored Wednesday as open night, while 4 others expressed no preference. With such a strong prevailing sentiment in favor, Wednesday will be the open night in future and that this may be legally enacted as Mayor Black suggests, a resolution to this effect should be presented to the council.

Lawrence—Hamilton Nuptials

A large and interested gathering assembled at the fine home of Mr and Mrs David Hamilton, "Lake View," on the occasion being the marriage of their youngest daughter, Mary E., to Mr Wm. Farr Lawrence, both of Egremont. The marriage took place on the fine lawn in front of the house under an arch of wisterias and other flowering shrubs.

Promptly at the hour appointed the happy couple took their places on the carpet, the bride being led thither by her father, while the throbbing, swelling and silvery harmonious strains of the wedding march played by Miss Maud Hamilton, sister of the bride, called all to attention and expectancy.

The bride was beautifully attired in a dress of ivory satin, trimmed with silk embroidered lace and buckles mounted with rhinestones and pearls, and wearing a veil caught up with orange blossoms. Her travelling suit was of navy blue serge and hat to match.

The groom's gift to the bride was a set of furs, to the groomsmen, Mr Goldie Lawrence a tie-pin set with pearls, to the bridesmaid Miss Lizzie Weir, a brooch set with pearls. To the organist Miss Maud Hamilton, a brooch set with rubies and pearls. A gold pendant chain to Mrs. Kendall. The bride's gift to the groom was a pair of gold-initialled cuff links.

Guests from a distance were Mr and Mrs Wm. French from Elora, Geo. and Jessie Keith from Chesley, Mr and Mrs Sam. Lee Palmerston, Mr and Mrs Wm. Matthews of Colpoys Bay.

At the conclusion of the fine supper provided, Rev. G. Kendall, Dandaik, Janieson, M. P. of Durham and Rev. B. M. Smith, Dromore, to propose a toast to the bride which was duly responded to at some length by both gentlemen. They were replied to in an appreciative strain by the bride and by Mr D. Hamilton who thanked them for the fine wishes expressed. Mr Wm. Ramage was called on for a toast to "Our Country," and on for a toast to the National Anthem.

Previous to this photographer Young of Durham, took some views of the group which we are pleased to hear are turning out beautifully.

The evening thereafter was spent very pleasantly with instrumental and vocal music, Mr. Wm. Young of Durham contributing on the violin. The presents were costly and numerous, betokening the esteem and affection with which the beautiful young bride is held by all. The happy couple left next day for a trip to O. Sound and other points.

The Roll Call.

WM JOHNSTON

Last week there passed away at the home of his son of same name in Markdale, Wm Johnston, well known in Durham for 50 years. Only quite recently he went to live with and be cared for by his son and his wife and they did their duty well. For several years before leaving Durham he was plainly failing and his demise was not unexpected. His wife died about eight years ago.

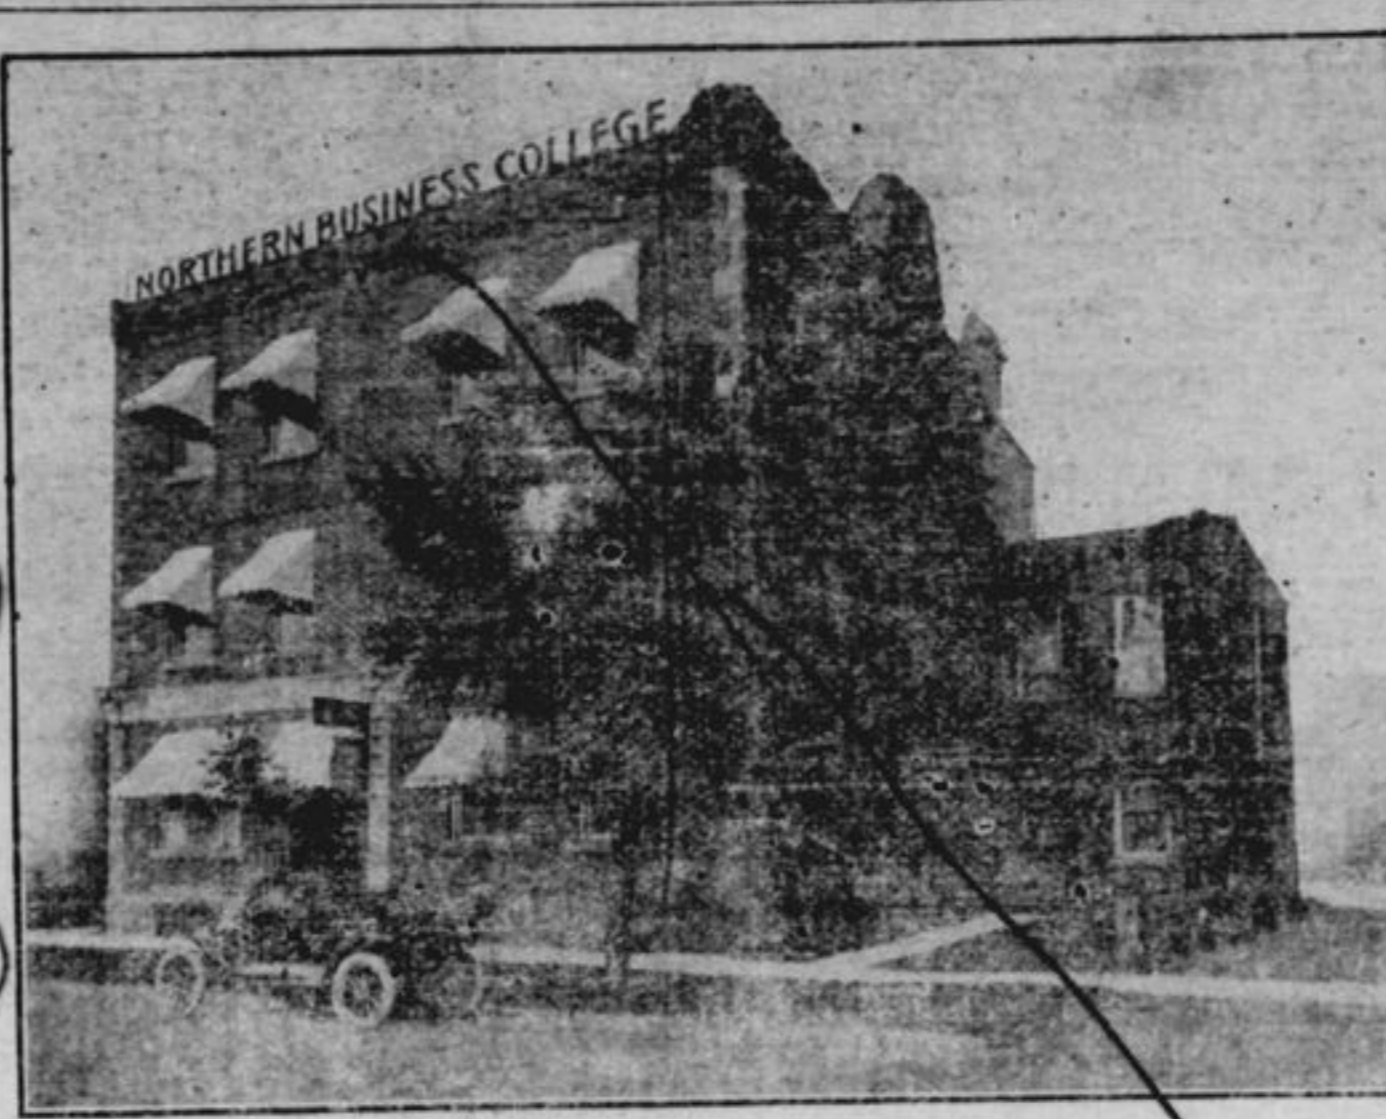

Deceased was born in Scotland over 75 years ago and came out to the States when a young man with his parents, living for some time in Richmond, where he saw some of the bloody work of the American Civil War on the Confederate side, of which side he was a keen sympathizer. The family later moved to Canada settling on the 2nd concession of Normansby Tp. on the farm still occupied by deceased's only surviving sister, Miss Janet Johnston.

Mr Johnston married a Miss Watt, sister of the late Geo. Watt and their family of five daughters and one son survive. They are Annie, Mrs Moody in Dakota, Lizzie, Mrs John Austin of Imperial, Sask., Alice, Mrs. Fredericksen in S. Dakota, Jessie, Mrs Philip McKechnie in New Mexico, Ruth, Mrs Anderson in Seattle, Will of Markdale.

Deceased was for many years in charge of the McKechnie sawmills, and was an expert among saws. Later he had a commission from the I. O. F. as an organizer and in the fraternal work of this Society he took intense interest being well posted on its laws and usages. For a long time he was a member of Durham School Board and for some years was chairman thereof, taking much interest in educational matters.

He was interred in Maplewood cemetery on Friday last. Rev. Mr. Wylie conducting appropriate services.

This entire splendid building with its up-to-date appointments is used. The College has just opened its 34th year under the present Principal, Mr. C. A. Fleming, F. C. A., with a record attendance.

Red Cross Liberty.

We have received some suits which show that the appeal of the committee for aid in this work is being heard and heeded and both cash and comforts are coming in freely. For instance: Mr John Milligan, Bentinck brought in $7.17 collected among neighbors for Red Cross work.

The members of Durham Branch Women's Institute sent away a case containing seventy pillows and pillow cases.

The ladies of town and vicinity who for two weeks have been working in the armory packed and sent away a case containing 72 flannel shirts, 69 scarfs, 177 pairs wristlets, 70 pr. socks, 12 balacava caps, 12 sleeping caps, 12 cholera belts, 13 flannelette sheets, 2 pillows and pillow cases, 1 quilt and 383 cheese cloth handkerchiefs.

The committee appreciate much the liberality shown in the good cause.

The Dominion Feather Co's mattress is the only mattress a child can turn.

See how a Kryptok (Double Vision) lens is made. A large frame shows the different stages in MacFarlane's window.

Thanksgiving Day has been proclaimed for Monday, Oct. 12. It was first fixed by the Govt on the 8th but pressure was made to change it to Monday.

DORNOCH MILL BURNED—The Durham Furniture Co's sawmill at Dornoch went up in flames about 11 p.m. on Monday evening. The loss will be between $2000 and $3000 with no insurance. The cause has not yet been ascertained.

The boys scouts of town are again active and I passed through town Saturday evening. They have recently re-organized with Mr. S. Hughes as scoutmaster, Wm Milne, assistant and Harper McGirr, Alex. McQueen and Shell Abraham, leaders for the 3 patrols of 10 scouts each.
