

IY WORRY your variety and your grocer for 'Clark's''.

MS FOR SALE. N. Ninety Colborne Street NT TO BUY OR SELL A ck, Grain or Dairy Farm Dawson, Brampton, or ON, Colborne St., Toronto. APERS FOR SALE. KLY IN LIVE TOWN IN anty. Stationery and Book liberal Wilson Publish-ED POTATOES. SWICK SEED POTATOES ... or next year. Write me of Varieties. C. Prof Sackville, N.B.

UMORS, LUMPS, ETC. and external, cured with ar home treatment Write ollingwood, One

CELLANEOUS

TRACKING C.P.R. Be Similarly Treated the West.

vast enterprise of g the entire Canadian of the case, be fully louble track between and Calgary, leaving something like 16 ts a realizing notion wolved, of great dis and of the courage able undertaking of iges, and the perped. Thus applied. will work out for d Feet.

on the other, that decided he would he trouble was. Jock?" he whisperst the ring? ered the unhappy ebegone look "the gh; but, man, I've nt Cures Dandruff. cretion.

the better part of eaking, my son, we cretion can run

you mean by say-

Granulated Eyelids, lyes inflamed by exponickly relieved by Murine se Remedy, No Smarting at Eye Comfort, At per Bottle. flurine Eye or Book of the Eye Freenk Eye Remedy Co., Chicago

orune their genes cutting their poor

Cures Burns, Eta

ward (to a gentle e next carriag

IG VALUE SMALL

ke bored. Rebound back

AMPLTON. CA

QUEST.

Foolish Young Man;

Or, the Belle of the Season.

"Now that the gentlemen have got or soon," remarked Joseph, with a "There's a rush for them already." When Ida went upstairs for the wash. for which Miss Isabel had so kindly informed her of, she found that her room was clean and fairly comforther room was clean and fairly comforther room was clean and fairly comforther room, with an attempt at the "grand lady." one at the Half. The furniture was cheap They returned to that apartment-Mr. and unsubstantial, the towels were small unsubstantial, the towels were small Joseph did not open the door for them-thing in place of pictures, aggressive-thing in place of pictures, aggressived this; in place of pictures, aggressive ed on a series of questions calculated to elicit all the details of Ida's past life, her father's death and her present deplorable condition. Women can be much more merciless than men in this kind of to it, did not impress her any more fa-to it, did not impress her any more fa-torably: for here, too, the furniture was new and shiny with a sticky kind of shini-tend to be unkind. The two women did not inthe ordeal. The two women did not intend to be unkind; they were really sorry for the homeless orphan; they were prepared to like her; they reluctantly and gruceome once of Dore's, and there was gruceome once of Dore's, and there was gruceome once of Dore's, and there was a test over the mantelpiece as aggresaive and as hideous in coloring as those in her room. A lukewarm leg of mutton, in her room. A lukewarm leg of mutton, in her room. A lukewarm leg of mutton, in her room, was on the table, the cloth of which was by no means clean; cloth of which was by no means clean; which indicate good birth; but they were devoured by curiosity as to her mode of devoured by curiosity as to her mode of life and her friends, a curiosity which were cracked and did not they were too vulgar, too inconsiderate to restrain. So poor Ida had to describe the Hall, and the servants, and the way she managed the farm, and the way in which she rode about Herondale. They considered inelegant to have gas the dining-room, therefore a cheap were very much impressed; specially so when she mentioned Lord and Lady Ban-nerdale's kind offer, and they exchanged glances as the titles left Ida's lips "quite able, and was more liberal of scent than ight. The curtains to the window were that annoying red which shricks down as naturally as if they were common names," as Mrs. Heron afterwards remarked to Isabel.

"I'm afraid you'll find it very dull here, of gory mutton, Mrs. Heron and Isabel ida," said Mrs. Heron, with a sniff. "You won't find any society in Wood Green; they're nearly all City people, and there aren't many large houses this is as large as most and John is very strict." She sighed; and it was evident to Ida that though her cousin John's "religion" might be some amusement to him, it was rather a bugbear and nuisance to his annovances and worries of the jouryou about; and perhaps you and Isabel might go to a matinee or two; but John mustn't know anything about it. Poor boy! I hope he is not preferred to be quiet, and that she hoped too hard; he has been kept work- her cousin Joseph would not take any trouble on her account. At this point she was wondering, there came a knock came up for family prayers. Ida noticed at the outer door, and presently Joseph that both the maids looked bored and disconted, and that the "parlor maid," a

He was an unprepossessing young man | mere bit of a girl, appeared to be tired with small eyes and thick lips, over which out. Mr. Heron read a portion of wise of him to wear Scripture and offered up a long prayer in ut it was the fashion a harsh and rasping voice, with the manared himself the pink of seven years; and as the servants were fitted him too tight- leaving the room, called them back, and ap neckties, and readycourse, of patent leather His dark hair was plastered on the low, nated of being, as one would expect, I fear that there has been grievous waste remarked sternly:

larger quantity of candles than usual

of this useful article. Do not let it occur

"I thought you might like a little, my times when you're tired and in low

Ida would have liked to have accepted and Isabel entered in a dressing-gown

"I thought there might be something

"What long hair you have! Do you the tops of all those things real gold?

it, father's teetotal mad-but which was own sister to Mrs. Heron's.

ifty eyes fixed on her Mrs. Heron suggested, much to Ida's reand halfinsolently admir- | hef, that Ida would no doubt like to go came round and to bed. While Ida was brushing her hair he were damp and cold like, and fighting against the natural fit of dear?" murmured his sizes too large for her, and with a nervcious garment a small decanter of wine.

carried the certainly untempting food dear," she said, as Ida eyed it with astonishment. "Of course we are all total aball the evening he spoke with a Cock- stainers here, but we keep a little in the spectale about his aspirates-"I work to John; and it's a great comfort somespirits. Let me give you a glass. enunciating something Nothing is accom- it, and was sorry that her refusal seemmy dear Joseph." ed to disappoint Mrs. Heron, who retired

My dear Joseph regarded his father with as nervously as she had entered. A few same expression he had minutes afterwards, before Ida had got Cousin Ida. defiantly, for there n the dignity of this pale, you wanted," she said, her bold eyes roaming to the contents of Ida's dressing-John Heron had married beneath | dressing-table. him, and for money; and in retiring from ! the Bar, at which he had been an obvious brush it every night?. I don't mine, not What a lot of money they must have cost!

"Don't you ever have more color than yon've got now? Or perhaps it's because me all about your you're tired. You must be tired, when I conceal his nervousness; voice and glanced round cautiously. and-water? I've got some in my roomh an air of knowingness, of course, the rest don't know anything at the office business?" Ida looked at her in amazement. foun uncomfertably, and to Ida's surorise, as it they were ashamed. Thank you," she said: "I do not eare billiards," she said, with sisterly can-I am alraid there are a great many dor. "He works it very cleverly; he's things you will mes here," said Mr. He artful, Joseph is, and he takes father We are a plain, but I trust God- and mother in nicely; but sometimes I garing family, and we are content with | find a theatre programme in his pocket, which springs from the daily and marks of chalk on his coat. Oh, I found, the common task. You will find | don't blame him! The life we lead in this house would make a cat sick. It's like lda, as she glanced at the family, could being on a treadmill; nothing happens; by not help feeling that they were indeed it's just one dreary round, with mother plain, but she made haste to say that always whining and father always preachthat her life had hitherto been devoid of them. They seemed to think that it was I should go out of mind myself if I didn't proper thing to sit round the table, get a little amusement going up to the while she sas making her pretence of a shope and sneaking into a matinee on the meal; but when it was finished, Mr. Joseph stretched himself out in what was stand it. after the life you've led. What erroneously called an easy-chair, and do you use for your hair? It's so soft storeded to monopolise the conversation. and silky. I wish I had black hair like

Regular busy time in the City," he yours. Do you put anything on your semarked to his father. "Never saw such hands? They're rather brown; but that's hum. It's all over this boom in South | because you've lived in the open air so | They're floating that new com- much, I suppose. I'll lend you some stuff Stock Exchange is half wild about it. Ida declined the brandy and the infal-lible preparation for whitening the dred per cent, oremium before the week's hands; and not at all discouraged, Isabel spars gav nor, I should recommend you "Were there any young men at Herono have a little futter; for it's a cer- dale? You didn't eay anything about Mr. Heron seemed to prick up his ears you would like to tell me when we were with an amount if worldly interest which alone. I suppose there was someone you warcely harmonized with his saintly were sorry to part from?" she added, with an inviting smile. Ida repressed a shudder and plied her brush vigorously, so that her hair hid The company started to work Sir Stethe scarlet which suffused her face.

"I knew so few of the people," she said. then Orme's concession," replied Joseph, hrusting his hands deep into his poc-"As I told you downstairs, my father and I led the most secluded of lives, and saw kets, and stretching out his legs still farther so that he could admire his large, searcely anyone. patent-leather-clad feet. "It's about the siggest thing on record, and is going to clouely.

min she ear perfectly still, her as the

An indaher of toil rewarded, hie Sovereign and a substanerand at the hands of his fellow-

Let us trust that he will use falth and high position for the larbel eyed Ida sharply and suspisweep the market. All the big une are Ob, well, of course, if you don't like to tell me," she said, with a little to s seltons. They say Sir Stephen has made of her head; "but perhaps it's too soon; half a million of money out of it already. when we know each other better you'll be and that he will make a couple of milmore open. I'm sure I shall be glad of was a ramor in the City to-day that he She sighed, and looked down with a sentimental air: but Ida did not rise to Ida was sitting beyond the radius of the light from the evil-smelling lamp, so nothing should escape her. Isabei took den pallor of her face perceive the sud- her departure, and lida was left in den pallor of her face. It seemed to her "nesce.

a cruel late that she could not escape. Tired the had lost the name struck and felt confused and bewildered. It had not needed Joseph Heron's mention of Sir not needed Joseph Heron's mention of Sir not needed Joseph Heron's mention of Stafford. Stephen Orme's name to bring Stafford. there; and she lay, with wide-open eyes and sehing heart, repeating to herself her so passionately, had left her. Compared with this sorrow, and that of her father's death, the smaller miseries of her present condition counted as naught.

CHAPTER XXIX. As Issel had intimated, life at Laburand with a stopph, he an untal in Europe, but there is no shirk-the fact that the Northern suburbs ur great metropolis are somewhat and soul-depressing. Laburnum was in a long street, which reyou got into the open country, that is, away from the red-bricked and stuceo villas, and still smaller and uglier houses which had been run up by the enterprisher freedom of action.

GERMAN DIPLOMACY.

family. "But we must get Joseph to take Surprised She Has No Friends In

The world does not know what was behind the important declaration of the Russian Czar when, to-Mr. Heron and his elegant son came in, ward the end of July, over the Gercould not guess; and while a bell was rung, and the two servants man parleyings, he declared, "We have had too much of this already. What he referred to, says the Boston News Bureau, has never been printed. From financial interests clean-shaven, and Mr. ner of a judge pronouncing a sentence of which are so necessary to govern ment interests when war preparations are at hand, we can now give "I notice in the housekeeping book that the inside scene which was at the prehead; his face was flushed has been used during the past week, and bottom of Russia's resentment against Germany.

In 1908, when Russia was suffering from demoralization following and three-quarter cups flour, sifted the war with Japan in 1904-05, Aus- three times. Now put in about onetria, in violation of the treaty with half cup floured hickory nut meats knock at the door, and she admitted Mrs. The Russian Prime Minister was well, adding two teaspoons of bak- grease. ous flush, she took from under this capa- when the German Ambassador was from the required amount. Bake announced. The request of the in a loaf about fifty minutes in a Ambassador was for an immediate moderate oven. Measure flour after its turning dark. response as to the position of Rus- first sifting. ney accent, City accent, and was rather house for medicinal purposes, unknown ria should Austria annex Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Russian Prime Minister proassociates and the other signatories meal cooked very thick. Beat hard to the treaty of Berlin.

The German Ambassador replied n effect: "There is no time. happens that during the autumn manoeuvres our troops are on the and to say to you that unless I have silure, had sunk down to the society of every might; it's too much trouble. Are your assurance that Russia will remain neutral while Austria takes I have only passed through London twice What a pretty peignoir you have on: is over Bosnia and Herzegovina, the it real lace? Yes, I see it is. You have German troops will immediately nice things!" with an envious sigh. cross the Russian frontier.

> 'All the time I am permitted to with an air of over- come to think of it." She dropped her give you in which to make answer

This has been the diplomacy of Germany; the diplomacy of force, keep a little for when I'm tired and down and it now finds its expression in regret that I cannot offer some from Joseph's room. Of course, he the 14-inch siege guns, which were wou any wine. We have no intoxicants isn't a total abstainer. I daresay you never built for defences within Ger-

And yet Germany expresses sur prise that it appears to have "Joseph goes to the theatre and plays friends throughout the world.

A Horse Laugh.

Motorist (blocked by load of hay) I say, there, pull out and let me Farmer-Oh, I dunno ez I'm in Motorist (angrily)-You seemed carriage get past. Farmer-That's 'cause his horse wuz eatin' my hay. There ain't no danger o' yew eatin' it, I reckon.

Envied Him.

"My wife is a mind reader." 'Lucky dog! My wife is a mind hend Ida's love of "trapsing" about the dusty lanes, and over the commons where there was always a wind, Isabel declarged, to blow her hair about. If she went out, she liked to go up to London, and saunter about the hot streets, gazing enviously at the "carriage people" as they drove by.

HOME

In the dusty lanes, and over the commons where and a quarter of a pound of the best prunes, soft and plump from soaking, in the top part of a double boiler. Steam three hours, adding milk. Cream, it may be added, can more water if necessary, but do not be treated similarly. Ida didn't care for London, took very stir as the prunes should not be Salt is also useful in the treat-breezy common, the green trece; and on the occasions when she could persuade leaded to a country ramble, she walked put in preserve kettle with two chimneys take on a brilliant shine with dreamy eyes that saw not the cutand-dry rusticity of Wood Green and Whetstone, but the wild dales and the broad extent of the Cumberland hills.

She was, indeed, fiving in the part, and it was the present that seemed a dream to her. Of course she missed the great house, where she had ruled as mistrees, her horses and her cows and dogs; but what she missed more than all else was her freedom of action.

Three German Corps.

the vinegar and water, which has been heating, but is not boiling hot. Cook until thick and the cornstarch is done. Let cool slightly, and then, using a Dover beater, beat in the stiffly whiped whites of two eggs. This is equally good for fruit, potatoes or fish. If, as soon crust, as most cornstarch mixtures Nut Loaf Cake. - Cream onefourth cup butter. Add gradually one cup granulated sugar and then one teaspoon vanilla. Add alternately about one-half cup milk, one whites are added, you cover it with a cloth or two white paper napkins and a tight lid, it will not form a

Oatmeal Drop Cakes. - Cream to the water in which black stockone-fourth cup butter and one and one-half cups light brown sugar tested that he must confer with his thoroughly. Add one-half cup oatand add two well-beaten eggs and one teaspoon vanilla. Add alternately one and three-fourths cups sifted flour, with milk and water enough to make a good batter, put-Russian frontier. I am directed by ting in two teaspoons of baking my Government to remain at this powder with the last of the flour. office until I receive your answer, Beat thoroughly and put in muffin pans. Bake twenty to twenty-five minutes in a fairly hot oven.

Spice Cake, 1.-Make like nut cake, using two whole well-beaten eggs instead of three whites, and one teaspoon cinnamon and onehalf teaspoon ground cloves. Put in nuts and raisins to taste just before last flour and baking powder. Bake like oatmeal drop cakes.

Spice Cake, 2.-Add two teaspoons cinnamon, one-half spoon cloves and one-half teaspoon nutmeg to nut loaf cake.

bunches soup greens, one stock cel- sound ones. ery, two heads cabbage, six medithree red peppers. Boil tomatoes be practically a new loaf. Use a first, then add vegetables and boil very hot oven. one hour. Seal while hot. This is n a hurry to let that other feilow's fine to add to a soupbone which is nearly done, and as it is already cooked it saves time and gas in the winter time. It is also an economi- | Sabbath. cal way of saving garden crops for a time when one wishes one had

> The Uses of Salt. Salt is a capital thing to use to keep the milk cool. Directly the supply of milk is left at the house it should be taken in and placed in which had been run up by the enterprising jerry-builder.

But Ida would have been glad enough to have gone through this purgatory to the paradise of country lanes which lay beyond if she could only have gone alone. But Mrs. Heron and leabel never left her alone; they seemed to consider it their duty to "keep her company," and they could not understand her desire for the open hair, much less her craving for solitude. Until Ida's arrival, leabel had never taken a walk for a walk's sake, and for the life of her she could not comprehend Ida's love of "trapsing" about the dusty lanes, and over the commons where and a quarter of a pound of the life or desire for the dusty lanes, and over the commons where the coolest place in the house. It little interest in the shops, and none whatever in the carriage folks. She was always pining for the fresh air, the cream.

and cook until mushy. Put through chiefs soak them in cold salt water The defence of Liege by 30,000 SHOULD GERMANY TRIUMPH her freedom of action.

It was the routine, the dull, common routine, of Laburnum Villa which irked so badly. Neither Mrs. Heron nor leabel had any resources in themselves; they had few friends, and they were of the most commonplace, not to say vulgar, type; and a "Tea" at Laburnum Villa tried Ida almost beyond endurance; for the visitors talked little else but scandal, and talked it clumsily. Most of Isabel's time was spent in constructing garments.

And cook until musny. Fut through chiefs soak them in cold sait water for a short time before actually washing. The colors will then be prevented from running or fading. Common salt placed on a tablecloth on which tea has been upset will take out the stains. The salt should be allowed to stay in position for the label's against. Common salt placed on a tablecloth most brilliant feats of arms in the Rudyard Kipling Sounds a Call to

Household Hints.

Two quarts of soup will serve from six to eight persons. When breast meat is tender, chicken is sufficiently cooked.

as it is cooked, and before the egg driven. baking powder to each cup of flour when no eggs are used. making an omelet.

off with an eraser before soaking, as hot water sets the lead mark. One medium-sized loaf of bread siege like that of Plevna in 1877, wiches or 10 large square ones. this cheerful household, there came a knock at the door, and she admitted Mrs. The Russian Prime Minister was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than this world conquest was the provisions and ammunition running than the power of their preparations and > kept in the boxes in which silver is Empire in Asia, was stormed by the carefully and sacrificed greatly packed in wrappings will prevent Russians after a siege of five A teaspoonful of vinegar added ings are rinsed will keep them good color. For something new and dainty, spread the buttered fudge pan with 15,000 men against 50,000.

minced dates before turning the candy into it. to all fruits when cooking half the est siege occurred in the American also improves the bayor. Place a lump of salt in the kitchen sink. It will dissolve slowly, liquid for flushing drains. plated bells or doorknobs, rub them | Kimberley, and Mafeking, in the over with a little vaseline with woollen cloth. This will keep them and 261 days respectively.

bright for a long time. Before using tea spread it on will also go much further.

When you have bread very dry ter 7,000. um-sized carrots, three medium- and stale hold the loaf under the sized parsnips, three white turnips, tap till wet slightly, put it in a loaf GERMAN-AMERICAN SPEAKS. three ears sweet corn, one-half tin, and place another on top. and peck string beans, one cup salt, bake over again. The result will

> A Humorist in Embryo. "My boy, I hope you keep the

"No, sir: it always slips away.

A Pertinent Question. "Try one of these cigars, old man, they're the best thing out. "How are they when lighted."

TO GUARD AGAINST ALUM IN BAKING POWDER SEE THAT ALL INGREDIENTS ARE PLAINLY PRINTED ON THE LABEL, AND THAT ALUM OR SULPHATE OF ALUMINA OR SODIC ALUMINIC SUL-PHATE IS NOT ONE OF THEM. THE WORDS "NO ALUM" WITHOUT THE IN-GREDIENTS IS NOT SUFFI-CIENT. MAGIC BAKING POWDER COSTS NO MORE THAN THE ORDINARY KINDS. FOR ECONOMY, BUY THE ONE POUND TINS.

E. W. GILLETT COMPANY LIMITED TORONTO, ONT.

time was spent in constructing garments by the aid of paper-patterns which were given away by some periodical; admirable patterns, which, in skilful hands, no doubt, produced the most useful results; but leabel was too stupid to avail sugar, one-half teaspoon salt and herself of their valuable aid, and must allowed to stav in position for two a little while, and then when the given away by some periodical; admirable for its sleges.

Address, a little while, and then when the cloth is washed all the stains will the Germans for nearly two months and finally surrendered with 6,000 should fail. If we do fail the lights of freedom go out over the whole in the content of the con ways add something which rendered the garment outre and vulgar.

(To be continued.)

two and one-half to three table- ing boiled salt again comes to the he had to submit to court-martial world.'

spoons of cornstarch, according to rescue. The pan should be remov- and was sentenced to twenty years'

This spoons of cornstarch, according to rescue. The pan should be remov- and was sentenced to twenty years' This was the statement of Rudthickness desired. Stir until the ed from the fire and placed in cold imprisonment. Afterwards came yard Kipling, the author, in a stirsugar has partly melted and moist- water. A pinch of salt is then drop- the siege of Paris, which lasted six ring address to a mass meeting at ened the cornstarch, then add one- ped into the milk and stirred up, months. Thousands of shells were Brighton, England, where an im fourth cup of water, and pour into and the burnt taste will disappear. rained on the city every day by mense crowd had gathered in the the Germans, and no fewer than Dome to listen to speeches in sup-ed to disease and hunger.

A nail, if it has first been stuck Pasha's gallant defence of Adrian- Government Board. Mr. Kipling in a cake of soap, may be easily ople last year for 155 days. Then said In Ottoman and Russian military conquer the civilized world history there has never been a will make 20 three-cornered sand- when Osman Pasha defied the Rus-

> Twenty-two years earlier the to check the onrush of organized fortress had been brilliantly de barbarism a fended for eight months against the Russians by the Turks under General Williams, who had Even these sieges, however, are somewhat insignificant when If a small piece of salt is added pared with some others. The longdefended the town of Richmond for 1,485 days, or just over four years. Sebastapol, in the Crimean war, and keep the drain-pipe wholesome. held out for eleven months, while Boiling hot salt water is the best General Gordon defended Khartoum against the Soudanese for After cleaning brass or nickle- 300 days. The sieges of Ladysmith, a South African war, lasted 120, 123.

There is probably, however, no a siege which Britishers like to read sheet of paper in a warm-not hot- about so much as that carried out enter into a new life in which all oven for 10 or 15 minutes. It will by France and Spain in their en- the facts of war that we had put greatly improve the flavor, and it deavors to carry the Rock of Gib- behind or forgotten for the past raltar, 1779-83. Altogether the siege hundred years have returned to the If you put two tablespoons of lasted nearly four years, and as the front and test us as they tested Home-made Canned Soup. - A vinegar in the water when boiling world knows, resulted in a com- our fathers. It will be a long and vegetable soup to can for winter:
One-half bushel tomatoes, one-half peck okra, one and one-half can be had for half the price of half the while the defenders could only mus- ther to the end.

Kaiser's Cause.

Penn., writing to The New York Evening Post, says: "Being of German parentage, I sympathize with the Germans in the great struggle now in progress in Europe. But why so many Gerthe German cause when it repre- his dependents do not suffer. sents all that most Germans left Germany to escape from, is more than I can see.

"Moreover, as a consistent member of the German Reformed Church, it seems to me but a shade better than sacrilege for the Kaiser all over the world. to continually refer to God as being with him in this crusade of murder and pillage. If the Kaiser is not responsible for this war, he cer- in the western bemisphere, but a One can hardly believe that the by sea and land will most certainly attacked Servia without the sanc- where they have hitherto shone tion of the German Emperor. To upon mankind so that even the trame it seems as absurd to call upon ditions of freedom will pass out of God, the Prince of Peace, for aid remembrance. If we do our duty in an avoidable war as it would be we shall not fail. for a bank burglar to pray to the Lord for power to murder the night watchman, blow open the safe, and make good his escape."

Reasons.

getting into a carriage, and he neg- the finest recruits for the High and lected to assist her.

in gentle rebuke. when I was a boy!"

Fortune Hunter. "So Jack's married? Did marry for beauty?" "No, booty."

IN THIS WAR.

Arms in a Stirring

Address.

40,000 of the inhabitants succumb- port of Lord Kitchener's crusade That lengthy sieges are quite pos- sided over by the Lord Mayor of sible even in these days of nuge Brighton, seconded by Herbert guns is illustrated by Chukri Samuel, president of the Local there was the comparatively recent | 'Through no fault nor wish of Allow two level teaspoonfuls of great siege of Port Arthur in the ours we are at war with Germany. Russo-Japanese war in 1904-5, the power which owes its existence which finally capitulated after be- to three well thought out wars; the A tablespoonful of water or milk ing blockaded by Admiral Togo for power which, for the last twenty should be allowed for each egg in 210 days. The name of General years has devoted itself to organ-Stoessel will rank with those of the izing and preparing for this war; Pencil marks should be rubbed greatest soldiers of modern times. the power which is now fighting to

Must Have Men.

"For the last two generations the sians for 144 days and finally sur- Germans in their books, lectures, Mr. Heron introduced depression caused by her introduction to all the powers of Europe, proposed and fold in gently the whites of the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing to carefully taught that nothing less the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing to carefully taught that nothing less the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing to carefully taught that nothing less the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing to carefully taught that nothing less the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing to carefully taught that nothing less the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing to carefully taught that nothing less the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing to carefully taught that nothing less the carpet, spread fine meal over 30,000 men and 100 guns, owing the carpet was the short. In the same years Kars, object of their preparations and seated at his desk one forenoon ing powder with a little flour kept | German Ambassador was | ing powder with a little flour kept | A few pieces of gum camphor long the bulwark of the Ottoman their sacrifices. They have prepared and men, if we, with our allies, are

Germany's Objective.

Have no illusions. We are dealing with a strong and magnificently equipped enemy, whose avowed aim is our complete destruction. The Germans' real objective, as she has always told us, is England and quantity of sugar is wanted, and it Civil war, when the Confederates England's wealth, trade and world wide possessions. "If you assume for an instant that attack will be successful England will not be reduced, as some people say, to the rank of a second-rate power, but we shall cease to exist as a nation. We shall become an outlying province of Germany, to be administered with what severity German safety and interest require.

Arm Against Fate.

We are against such a fate. We

Our petty social barriers have been swept away at the outset of our mighty struggle.

Change in Short Time.

Unable to Understand Espousal of "All the interests of our life of six weeks ago are dead. We have but one interest now and that Mr. Otto Stuntz, Wilkesbarre, touches the naked heart of every man in this island and in the emon earth every man must offer himself for that service and that sacrimans in America so rabidly espouse fice, while the state sees to it that "There is no middle way in this war. We do not doubt our ultimate victory any more than we doubt the justice of our cause. It is not con-

"If we are to win the right for ourselves and for freedom to exist

Duty Done Means Specess.

ceivable that we should fail, for if we fail the lights of freedom go out-

They may glimmer for a little tainly did nothing to prevent it. Germany dominating half the world venerable Franz Josef would have extinguish them in every quarter

Isle of Lewis Scots.

The Island of Lewis in Scotland, where practically the entire male population has volunteered for active service, holds a proud record The old gentleman's wife was for military prowess, and furnishes regiments. A practice, approved "You are not so gallant, John, as by Plato, formerly prevailed here when I was a girl," she exclaimed, of putting to death by exposure all weakly or deformed children, and "No," was his ready response, it is said by the most credible his-'and you are not so buoyant as torians that this custom continued until "modern times." As a result, the inhabitants are far superior in physique to other Highlanders, and consumption was quite unknown until recently re-introduced by sickly Southrons.

Tommy Atkins in France and Belgium.

The picture on the right shows Braddock, a well-known British boxer, with his unit at Ostend. His duties now consist of preparing food for the marines who have been landed at that place. On the left are two English soldiers at Havre, with a French youngster, who is trying to keep up.