Another Success for Priceville Fair

Had the Directors of Artemesia Ag. Society had the ordering of the weather they could not have improved on the brand actually enjoyed on the two days of their show.

The attention of the judges at the receipts about $170.00, was slightly less than 1913, but the crowd was there and in the happiest mood.

The concert in Watson's hall was well patronized. President Nichol made an ideal chairman and Miss Rota Irwin, as accompanist, and in her instrumental won golden opinions.
