Mt Forest band furnished fine music during the day. Mr Jas Mardoch, an old president and friend of the Show was on the grounds. Mr R. J. Ball M. P. also met many of his constituents, Some 20 or 30 from Durham took in the "World's Fair" and most spoke highly of the exhibits. We learn that it is just about 50 years since Adam Brown Sr., now of Durham, and two others put up some home made notices, unsigned. called a meeting to consider holding a show. The meeting was a success the show was formed and out of the small beginnings has grown the present Exhibition. Now we think the energetic Directors should make a point to have 1915 made a Jubilee year and if any prize lists or records of these early days are still extant we would like to know it. Will anyone with this information kindly send a note to the editor and we will look it up? THE CONCERT Seldom, if ever, has a better concert been rendered in Holstein. There was plenty of variety and the reportoire of all three entertainers was aimost entirely new to a local audience, Miss Florence Wharton, elocutionist, won her way into the hearts of the audience and from initial indifferent remarkable versatility was her win-
