
Apron.

ome styles that miar persist for ere is the apron, he present time. had a glimpse of agerie models with e real aprons, in he skirts. And unic last year was ation of the same d, there are long metallic evening es these aprons he foundation of k and they are tal fringe, with h flowers. aid Belts.

is much used in Sometimes it sometimes it is through straps frock it adorns he braid belt is low at the hips.

re interestingly ding on the coat. frocks would be bries.

market several late fur, velour a furlike finish. Again.

ans, especiala, have been em. With short around, the train from the waist skirt. ming Gowns.

ess vogue, have de ruffled and dainty, especial e young girl. Green. emerald green ombined in savof the autumn nd further trimes to add to the s and Prun-

d from which is on the battle Man against et family, bustess, class against inst nation, race non against reve not have war! at his work of d where is peace earth ! seems Jesus

all may be one"! it, and worked in an age more ar this in which milarly must we ve would be truly

One of Us Do. the iil will that group in this my of ours-still wful tumult now as of Europe. But an do-we can aces of our own them of the last trust and hatred see the perfect supendous catariie. Is there 3 we have quarrelh whom we have enemy whom we m we seek to ass that we desrace or religion feel a prejudice! word upon our aght within our within our souls

d prosperity or single person or upon earth If or as to do, that ne'! Not only also "Thou shalt hich most of us ne direction, 13 by Christ .- Rev.

Foolish Young Man;

Or, the Belle of the Season.

CHAPTER XXXII.-(Continued) The morning after the funeral, Howard found Stafford sitting in a darkened

Yes," said Stafford, "I have been readng this. You have seen it?" You know what it means? I want you Falconer.

to tell me I have been putting off the question day by day, selfishly; I could not face it until—until he was buried. The should have recommended; You have not read any of the newspapers?" asked Howard, gravely, bracing himself for the task from which his soul Stafford shook his head.

No: I have not been able to. I have not been able to do anything, scarcely that I have felt like a man in a dreamdazed, bewildered. If I have been able to There never was such a a gesture with his hand. "Even now I do of bereavement shot through him. is nothing that you could tell move me, or hurt me. Fate from me, and nothing else can matter. The cablegram, this that the pa- house-is there enough for them?" asked per says, what does it mean?" Howard sat on the table so that he could could to guard against the danger; but Fate circumstances, were too much for him. A silly squabble, so silly as to be possible," said Stafford. He rose as he spoke "You will remain to lunch?"

with honor your fordenings cheques for any amount."

sorship curtain in France. It is all the work of the sabre-rattlers and those ambitious fiends who trade in

"Yes," said Howard, in a low voice. She is prostrated by the shock, poor girl! You will go to her as soon as she course," said Stafford, very nodded at the lawyer, "read this morning, ed. gaves you everything, and names Mr. The groan, if groan it can be called.

wrinkled forehead and sighed, side him. vist sum of money, and the lawyer that we are glad to see him, that we are rowned and shuffled the papers before much obliged for his attendance."

I'm afraid not; in fact, I can say definitely that they will not," he replied, in Higheliffe is not here to answer quesa hard, uncompromising way. seemed difficult to realize that the wealth

"What is to be done?" he asked, in a Mr. Falconer was silent for a moment. But I've a question to ask. I want to as he regarded the handsome face, which and taken on the lines and hollowe of age.

But I've a question to ask. I stephen know whether it's true that Sir Stephen blow 'Lord Higheliffe,' Sir Stephen's good enough for me!—made over a hundred thousand pounds to his son, the can do nothing?" said Staf- wait for an answer.

do not understand." Falconer coughed.

"It is evident that your father did not tell you that he executed a deed of gift in your favor, a gift of one hundred thousand pounds," said Mr. Falconer. hand, a morning paper lying open on the table before him. He raised his white and haggard face, as Howard entered and took his friend's hand in silence. Howard finch. "We thought you were aware of this problem."

Stafford shook his head. He evinced no sign of relfef, the color did not rise to his face, and his eyes were still fixed on

But I can put it off no longer; I must but Sir Stephen Lord Higheliffe did it know now. What was that cablegram of his own accord. He was a far-seeing which they brought him just before man, and he was aware that fortune might fail him, that it was necessary he ehould place you, my lord, out of danger. I can well believe that, even at that time. he saw the peerage coming, and felt that you should be made secure, that you should have a sufficient income to support the title. It is not a tenth, a twentieth of the sum you would have inherit-ed, but for this unfortunate accident of the native rising, and the collapse of the South African Company."

Stafford scarcely heard him. He was thinking of his father's loving foresight His voice broke, and he made and care for his son's future. A pang not realize that he is gone, that I shall never see him again. I was so fond of him, so proud of him! Why do you hesitate? If it is bad news, and I suppose Carefully invested, the capital sum may it is, do you think I can't bear it? How. be made to produce an income of four be made to produce an income of four thousand, or thereabouts. Not too much, but- Ah, well, it might be so much

"The servants-the small debts-this Stafford, after a pause. Mr. Chaffinch waved his hand.
"No need to trouble about that, my lord. There will be sufficient at the than is necessary. I shall return to my tory, and yet the world knows but the railway scheme was blocked, if not atterly ruined. It was the one weak link in the chain, and your father was aware of it and had taken what measures he will honor your lordship's cheques for sorship curtain in France. It is all almost childish, between some squatters on the border and the discontented natives, upset all his carefully laid plans, and turned a gigantic success, at its very senith, into a tragic failure."

Stafford leant his head upon his hand, and looked steadily at Howard hand, and looked steadily at Howard hand, and looked steadily at Howard hand, and succeeded to an earldow of five and stafford leant his head upon his hand, and looked steadily at Howard hand, and looked steadily at Howard hand, and succeeded to an earldow of five and positions of the looked steadily at Howard hand, and succeeded to an earldow of five and positions of the looked steadily at Howard hand, and succeeded to an earldow of five and positions of the looked steadily at the looked if he had succeeded to an earldom of five ed notions of the nations respect-It was that that killed him?" he said. centuries. When they had got back to ing the "Balance of Power" and losers, was elected to the chair, but be-time and devoted to the common philosophy, but she has herself a little longer, Stafford," he them nothing, he could do little. When welfare of mankind. have blarged us had we done so. We have had died practically insolvent, a murten g Ag into your father's affairs, and mur arose, a deep gutturol murmur which in the Peace policy that has preregret that we cannot give was something between a hiss and a groan vailed between Canada and know, the will, which Mr. Chaffinch," he was filling the room that Stafford enter-and Mr. Murray here execu- died away, and they all turned and lookand Mr. Murray here execudied away, and they all turned and look- armament on the Great Lakes and many teeth a human being has? gors, but, unfortunately, we tall figure in its deep mourning dress all along the boundary line. silenced them for the moment. Murray, the secretary, passed his hand Griffenberg signed Stafford to a seat be-him stafford sat with his hands clasped Some few said "Hear! but the begun by the U.S. immediately followed by the U.S. immediately followed war destly)—Never mind, Mrs. Toodle. cooking so that it will cook more on the table, his eyes fixed on Falconer's rest were silent and watchful. As Griffenberg spoke the door opened again and lowing the close of the second war live no doubt you will get a better quickly; three green peppers chop-Wholly embarked in this last business." Ralph Falconer entered. He glanced at stafford and knit his brows, but dropped in April, 1817, by an agreement, ontinued Mr. Falconer; "he believed in heavily into a chair, and sat with stony and staked everything on it. A very face and half-lowered lids. He had scarce which is yet in force, completely him they are down to nothing today. In his quiet fashion, and he went and this very unlikely that they will restood just behind Stafford.

"I was just telling the meeting, Lord be difficult to sum up the saving in looked round the large, su- "Then what's he here for?" retorted anerbly furnished room, with its book other man, whose loss amounted to a cases of ebony and Wedgewood, its costly few hundreds, but who was more excited detares and bronzes, and recalled the and venomous than those who had many the visit its luxury and splendor and thousands at stake. "He's all right. He's the vast sums which Sir Stephen had a lord-a pretty lord!-and I m told the spent during the last few months. It gentleman he's next to is his future father-in-law, and is rolling in money "Order! order!" called Griffenberg.

good enough for me!-made over a hun-dred thousand pounds to his son, the There will be a meeting of the directors of the South African Company and others to morrow, and some decision will be and some decision will be a meeting of the directors us is ruined by this company, and we don't see why we should be sheared while Lord Higheliffe gets off with a cool hundred thousand. I ask the question and I huskily. I am penniless, I sup- Stafford rose, his pale, handsome face looking almost white above his black Both Murray and Mr. Chaffinch raised frock-coat and black tie.

Penniless choed Mr. Chaffinch.

Certainly not echoed Mr. Chaffinch.

Griffenberg.

"It is quite true," he said. "The money Certainly not my lord! Surely you "It is quite true," he said. "The money a hundred thousand pounds—was given to me when my fa-Stafford regarded him gravely; it seemto me. It was given to me when my fathis grief for surprise were too crushed by ther"—his voice broke for a moment—
ther"—his voice broke for a moment—
there is a position to give it, was solsaid. "What is it I should was in a position to give it," Mr Palconer conghed

We thought you were aware of the had informed you.

What deed? asked Stafford, dully. "I not the least idea of your meaning. As business. Mr. Falconer, I know nothing of "It is evident that your father did not a hand on Stafford's arm."

What deed? asked Stafford, dully. "I color of course it can't. Trust Sir Stephen to look after his own!" wailed the man. "But I yield it, give it up," said Stafford in the same level voice.

Falconer started from his seat and laid a hand on Stafford's arm.

THE FOLLY OF THIS WAR.

By Chas. M. Bice, Denver, Colo.

war is a senseless, aimless, soulless "I know that you ought to know-but it's hard work-that cablegram contained news that the Zulus had risen en masse, "No," he said: "not a moment longer passes anything in the world's his-

Stafford laid his hand on Howard's shoulder and looked into his eyes and shoulder and looked into his eyes and looked into his eyes and looked into his eyes and looked into his hands drop gave no time for protest, and no ished soldiers, taken as prisoners at any rate, and perhaps some tomato, herbs, An ounce of soda, two ounces of cates, too, have a habit of turning We Falconer and Murray and the lawyer are in the library," said Howard laughed strangely; then his hands dropped and he turned away with a sigh.

In the rank of Relgium Great

In th gave no time for protest, and no ished soldiers, taken as prisoners etc.—and then add a little butter soft soap, a pennyworth of fuller's up in unexpected places. ped and he turned away with a sigh.

"Leave me now, Howard," he said. "I In the rape of Belgium Great longer under restraint, tell of the some meat stock. Cook over a gen-

We have much to be thankful for America since 1817. In that year Great Britain and the U.S. signed a memorable treaty relative to dis-

Negotiations having in view the as if he himself had made away with the "I am sure we can tell Lord Higheliffe Great Lakes, and hostile forts on and if they should it would be too late, for the shares your father held will, of course, go to meet the claims—and they whether I make myself understood: I am stafford inclined his head.

"I was just telling the meeting, Lord light would be too late, and they are heavy on the estate. I don't know whether I make myself understood: I am stafford inclined his head.

"I was just telling the meeting, Lord light would be too late, and they are heavy on the state. I don't know whether I make myself understood: I am stafford inclined his head.

"I was just telling the meeting, Lord light would be too late, and they are in military equipment and armaments where disputing over the nationality on ions, one cup raisins, two green which both countries have been spared. Here is a lesson our left in the lurch. The company is in great peril; there has already been heavy loss and we fear that our property will hostile fleets, no frowning fort or "Begorra, if a cat should have kit-of vinegar, and cook all too the staff of vinegar, and they would be too late.

"I was just telling the would be too late.

The staff of the sta Mr. Falconer pursed his lips and shook all his money!" cried an excited sharehis head.

"Ask him what Sir Stephen did with battlement, has reared its menaction to war. them biscuits."

"Ask him what Sir Stephen did with battlement, has reared its menaction to war. them biscuits."

Roquefort Dressing. A SCENE IN POLAND'S CAPITAL, MENACED BY GERMANS

True, in 1837, some agitation on processes both sides of the border appeared "I give it up, relinquish it," he said in the same low, clear tones. "When my fament—"his voice again shook for a monet made the deed, he thought him self a rich man. If he were alive to-day on his words—"he would entirely agree of gift, I relinquish it. My lawyers have made me the proper document, and I now give it to your chairman. It is all I possess; if I had more, I would give it to you. My father was an honorable man, if he were here now—" a little threatening for a time, and again in 1861 to 1871, misunder-standings threatened to embroil the two nations, but in the absence of forts and fleets, and before preparations for war could be made, the war fever happily subsided and died out entirely. Here we have a practical test of what a mutually agreed disarmament understanding I give it up, relinquish it," he said in a little threatening for a time, and he demanded in his dry, harsh voice. Stafford stopped and looked at him with a dull, vacant gaze.

"A pauper!" repeated Falconer, huskily. "I daresay, said Stafford, wearily. "And you a peer!" said Falconer, his face a brick-dust red. "Do you think they will have any pity? Not they. They'll take you at your word. They'll take you at your w ing nations look to America for the with water in which celery is cookfinal decisive action, the final help. ed, with some butter and milk, The present dreadful European I am glad that President Wilson is gether with discretion. It is her greatest opportunity, and makes an excellent soup if put tolay his hand, with a friend's loving and consoling touch, on Stafford's arm.

May God bless America in her ef-

Two come to tell you, Staff," he said. "No need to trouble about that, my bank to pay such small claims. Your lord it is more of a holocaust than a ship will keep the house on?"

To cake is to squeeze the juice of a holocaust than a ship will keep the house on?"

To cake is to squeeze the juice of a holocaust than a ship will keep the house on?"

To cake is to squeeze the juice of a holocaust than a ship will keep the house on?"

To cake is to squeeze the juice of a holocaust than a ship will keep the house on?"

To cake is to squeeze the juice of a holocaust than a ship will keep the house on?"

To cake is to squeeze the juice of a holocaust than a ship will keep the house on?"

To cake is to squeeze the juice of a loving and it is driving to cut cucumbers into pieces an inchest it is a lemon over it and beat it to continue that is driving the seeds and the thready-part. is putting forth every endeavor out anombers in Butter.—Peel and for cake is to squeeze the juice of

"Leave me now, Howard," he said. "I was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but it was only the past that rose to his but Stifford looked his thanks.

No. I could not have helped them," he shift was only the past that rose to his father that he thought, but of-lds. In his sacrificed of himself, he had sacrificed adding with them than I. Mr. Pale of him to come to my assistance. I have scarcely seen him: I have not seen anyone but is was not altogether of himself, he had sacrificed but is was not altogether of himself, he had sacrificed but is was not altogether of himself, he had sacrificed in that Germany could not main that Germany could not main along drawn out war, and have scarcely seen him: I have not seen anyone but in the diplomacy of Austria set the world on fire, and the fight now is practically for existence on the part of Germany and Austria. That no one had looked his hanks.

Stifford looked his thanks.

Story of Austria set the world on fire, and the fight now is practically for existence on the part of Germany and Austria. That no one had looked his hanks, is was not altogether of him father than I. Mr. His sacrificed him in the diplomacy of Austria set the world on fire, and the fight now is practically for existence on the part of Germany and Austria. That no one had looked his here agreed them, he but it was only the past that rose to his father than I. Mr. His sacrificed of himself, he had sacrificed by the action of the diplomacy of Austria set the world on fire, and the fight now is practically for existence on the part of Germany and Austria. That no one had looked his here agreed to think of his future:

I will not the the diplomation of the Mander said Howard, interrogaand Stafford, his brows drawn he was! His father, his sweetheart, his wealth-all had been taken from him.

Chauvimstic demagogues will not see or realize this until many useful lives are snuffed out and much lives are snuffed out and start such a quenchless fire is see or realize this until many usefull lives are snuffed out and in Europe is paralyzed and mar-tial law holds the boards. Thus harbarism takes its revenue. There there worship of the war-god, dip in beaten egg seasoned with In reheating meat. barbarism takes its revenge. There they shut their eyes and continue salt and pepper, and then in white At noon the following day there was a can be no security even in demoon in the hopeless strife. Howcorn meal. Fry in bacon fat or butsteaming hot. Otherwise fibres tel says a London Daily Mail cor-At noon the following day there was a large meeting at Gloucester House. There cracy as long as absolutism or mili-tarism prevails. The victory of the starism prevails. The victory of the large the circle, nature ever ter. With the meal the bacon fat will be toughened and made interest a woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest as woman to be no security even in denoted and made interest. There was a knock at the door, and the following in his mourning livery, came in and and released to the one nation and the defeat of the phen Orme's big scheme. And they were other, forty years ago, after the state of the vegetable folk who had been concerned in Sir Stephen Orme's big scheme. And they were other, forty years ago, after the eral advances to the vegetable, the thoroughly washing a quart of first, and meat added. all gloomy and in a bad temper; for all of them had lost money and some of them were well-nigh ruined by the collapse of are the main factors in the war of were well-nigh ruined by the collapse of are the main factors in the war of animal at death is pulled back again a covered kettle with cold water to in the salon with a sorrowing face A frown crossed stafford's pale face at the company which was to have made to day. The infection that arose to elemental conditions. Out of cover Add to this a teaspoonful their fortunes. They came before noon, from Gravelette and Sedan has the company which was to have made their fortunes. They came before noon, from Gravelette and Sedan has the company which was to have made to elemental conditions. Out of cover. Add to this a teaspoonful used for cakes, place them in a ing to her husband out in the firm of the company which was to have made to elemental conditions. Out of cover. Add to this a teaspoonful used for cakes, place them in a ing to her husband out in the firm of the company which was to have made to elemental conditions. the company which was to have made made and mackingly in his ears.

I will come at one, "he said. "Come with me, flower disting there before a mass of me and all the company which was to have made their primes. They came before noon, the appropriate to receive him: Falconer in undertoos, but not seldom in loud and complaining variety of the will not be the prime in the company which was to have made to dead nate and seldom in loud and some over all Europe, and the fruits are now being reaped. When the hour of meditation and sanity comes, after the war has proper precautions. Dut of class comes the cosmos, but it is used for cakes, place them in a bowl, pour boiling water over them and leave to soak all night. The fruit swells to wice its former size, but to-day disintegrating signs are done skim them out into cold water. When the beets are done skim them out into cold water. When the beets are done skim them out into cold water. When the beets are done skim them out into cold water. When the beets are done skim them out into cold water. When the beets are done skim them out into cold water. When the beets are done skim them out into cold water. When the company was formed, and two tablespoons of vine-street the company was formed and two tablespoons of vine-street to return again. Out of war-ring and two tablespoons of vine-street to return again. Out of war-ring and two tablespoons of vine-street the war has and two tablespoons of vine-street the war has and two tablespoons of vine-street to receive him: Falloner to war the company was formed. The company was formed and two tablespoons of vine-stre alone to blame. CHAS. M. BICE. Denver, Colo.

Answered.

Teader-Who can tell me how Bright Pupil-A mouthful, miss. and more wholesome.

man next time. Parishioner-Ah, ped; four cups of sugar, one tableno, Mr. Foodle. That's just what spoon black pepper, salt to taste,

Warsaw-A Jewish Market-Place

Tested Recipes.

you. My father was an honorable man, if he were here now—in honorable man, he placed the deed before Griffenberg and sank into his seat. There was a mont of intense silence, then a cheer arose, led by the very man who had put feet. The history of Europe in 1914, now being written in the blood of her chivalric and noble sons, would have been spared had seed. They you have men, he eald, with as much emotion as this carriface is a real one. The deed of of the has surrendered is a person on feetly sound one, and could not have been on render, for his generosity.

In word you have been spared had she adopted and lived up to the same human policy along her many his sacriface is a real one. The deed of his feetly sound one, and could not have been in not forget, that while we are not couched. All honor to him for his surrendered is a person on the course of the provided providing the many his generosity.

In word you have been spared had she adopted and lived up to the same human policy along her many his eacriface is a real one. The deed of his feetly sound one, and could not have been spared had she adopted and lived up to the same human policy along her many his eacriface is a real one. The deed of his feet. The history of Europe in 1914, now being written in the blood of her chivalric and noble sons, would have been spared had she adopted and lived up to the same human policy along her many his earliest is a real one. The deed of the chivalric and noble sons, would have been spared had she adopted and lived up to the same human policy along her many his earliest is a real one. The deed of the chivalric and noble sons, would have been spared had she adopted and lived up to the same human policy along her many his earliest is a real one. The deed of the chivalric and noble sons, would not be least bit wilted, when they are likely to be hutter, first cook them for five minutes in boiling salted water, then drain and add a small piece of butter when they are very likely to be hutter, first cook them for five minutes i Cooking Lima Beaus .- If the lima Another cheer arose—again it was startpoor S: afford, and before it had ceased it for his way out: Mr. Falconer again unless all the rival machines again unless all the rival machines are swept away with it.

about certain to order to be boiled violently, but just simmered and may be beautifully cooked in a chafing dish. In order to be savory they should have about a cup of liquid to a box of sunshine will fall on it. It will leave it clean and white. Let them all go. The world can beans around them when they are leave it clean and white.

> Left Over Lima Beans. - Mash forts to reach out the hand of con- the beans, put them through a sieve, and use them for thickening The great masses of the contend- any cream soup. This bean puree civilization to its utter destruction. out the seeds and the thready-part, lighter.

Stafford laid his hand on Howard's may form the manufactures, will be more and the moment of two them the more and the mor in which they boiled. The vinegar salt and pepper and a little finely wife has a thousand peers in Antkeeps this from turning dark. chopped parsley. Moisten with werp. Spread two tablespoons of powder- stock, or with water in which the It is almost certain that the man ed sugar on the beets, cover, and liver was boiled. Fat in a baking or woman you are sitting next to put away in a cold place. These dish, and cover with a layer of can tell you a story of personal traare much better for salads and mashed potatoes. Brown and serve gedy. One morning I addressed garnishing than are pickled beets hot.

Beet Relish. - Two quarts of Parishioner (to departing minis- beets, measured after they have father's debta will they not be loss, and we fear that our property will hostile fleets, no frowning fort or Begorra, if a cat should have kitof vinegar, and cook all together Roquefort Dressing. - Make thick French dressing by putting seasonings of salt, pepper, or paprika in a bowl, adding a little vinegar, then beating olive oil into it until thick. Finally rub into this Roquefort cheese enough to form a thick paste and thin just before serving with thick cream.

sometimes and see if you don't find it cuts much easier.

Don't forget to give your hair at least a hundred strokes with a brush morning and evening. Proper brushing does away with the necessity for too frequent washing. An effectual way to remove all cream; it also makes the cake While England is one of the belli- cook for about fifteen minutes in Don't forget to bathe the neck things among wastepaper there is a gerents, she did not voluntarily en- boiling salted water, drain, then and arms in a little milk the night dozen among old clothes. Romance ter the contest, and would gladly put into a saucepan with a piece of before going to a dance. This is in rags! People put a purse or a ROMANCE IN RAGS.

Diamonds and Wills Found in been razed by the Belgians to make "Wastepaper."

surprises as a lucky-bag at a ba- through his ruined tenants' inabilzaar, says the London Standard. | ity to pay any rent for two or three found at the paper-sorting depot at asked me anxiously whether if he Whitecross Street, in which the Sal- put the wreck of his fortunes, vation Army employ many men. namely, the family plate, in a big The man who made this discovery, chest, he would be allowed to take though naturally poor, handed up it to England. the ring, and the owner was traced. A second man described with glit-At the same place, two £5 notes tering eyes how his dearest friend, were found among some waste- a youth of twenty, had been tied

But the most frequent source of piquant discoveries is discarded en their victim with offers of chamvelopes. In an East London store pagne, till they had finished their the back of an envelope was torn repast. Then they shot him. The while the manager was nandling it, third man was a refugee from Maland three postal orders for one ines who had been separated a week pound each fell out. The name and before by the Germans from his address were still legible on the en- wife and two children. "Ah, monvelope, and by this means the postal sieur," he cried, "I would rather orders were returned to the owner, be dead with them than not know who proved to be an aged woman. whether they are dead or alive or The money had been sent her by a where they are.' son working in the north of England, who had refrained from mentioning his gift in his letter, and the mother, being nearly blind, had ! not noticed the orders when pulling Mrs. Wye-Well, one can't ex-

A bundle of love letters, delicate- you know. ly scented and tied with blue ribbon. Mrs. Exe-But I pay $5. was discovered among a quantity of colored paper used for fancy decorations. They were human little epistles, starting in a bright, optimistic vein, gradually dwindling into a sad diminuendo, and telling the whole story of a courtship and severance.

But it is in the rag trade that most discoveries are made. For a levery opportunity there is of lo have shifted the responsibility; butter and simmer for some minbut it was fight or humiliation and utes. Serve with chopped parsley. fails to make the skin look smooth ing the garment, forget all about it. policies and her acts were always have nearly a hundred varieties of A smoky lamp is often the result cently lost a manuscript on which he for peace; and just because she cooked lettuce. It is a pretty sort of a clogged and dirty wick. Take had pinned high hopes. While rehas asserted a higher virtue and a of cooking, and cooked lettuce the burner out of the lamp and vising it he was disturbed by a visi-European nations, and because she Wash thoroughly after taking off soda and hot water, then dry thoroughly ment in an inside pocket of his old It mean train. I suppose, ruin for him and others?" he had staked all upon the little darkened room in which he had staked all upon the little darkened room in which he had sat since his father's death, Stafford the "Armed Peace," resulting in hidden deals of what they call diplomacy, and the sudden reverse came at a turned to Howard:

"At what time and place is this meet hidden deals of what they call diplomacy, under which guise they prepare for war while outwardly prepare for war while outwardly proclaiming a disinterested peace.

"At Gloucester House, Broad Street. Noon."

"At Glouce Stafford nodded, and was lost in thought for a moment or two, then he said:

The 300,000,000 of peace-loving as soon as the proper moment armoment are large they may be cut in four parts, lengthwise of the leather shape it
This will make the leather shape it
This will make the leather shape it
This will make the leather shape it-done skim them out into cold water For ham pie use equal parts of fight at Termonde, she came down and rub off the skins. Then put chopped ham and chopped liver, in deepest black. This morning I them into a stone jar—glass will boiled. Use the fat as well as the saw a Red Cross on her sleeve. do-and strain over them the liquid lean part of the ham. Season with This is no xception; that captain's > four people in the Cafe Metropole. Three of them were direct and dire sufferers. One, a nobleman, told me, without a word of complaint, how his chateau near Liege had way for the fire of the heavy guns; how all the horses in his racing stud The wastepaper trade is as full of had been commandeered; how, A diamond ring was recently years, his income was gone. He paper. In this case they were also told he would be shot. First, however, they wanted dinner, and

That's Different. Mrs. Exe (complainingly) - Such

pect all the virtues for $4 a week,

Rank Hypocrisy.

The best of us have to be hyporites at some time." How now?" "I was just condoling with my neighbor over the loss of his graphphone. It got smashed last night.

Japan's empress is making band-ges for the Red Cross nurses.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO